A slight drawback—Blinks—The world has a place for everybody. Winks—Yes; the only trouble is there's generally somebody else in it.

"The Modern Prodigal," a Five Act Drama to be given under the auspices of the Salvation Army of Omemece, will be produced at Temperance Hall, Mt. Pleasant, on Tuesday, March 3rd, 1903. The success it has had here in Omemece, should be, at least, duplicated, if not surpassed, as the actors will be ever so much more familiar with their roles. As a stage production it is far in advance of the majority of amateur performances, equals a good many professional plays and surpasses some of the latter.

Mr. G. W. McKim was in town Monday, on business. He was accompanied by Mr. Venus.

T. BRADY, Lindsay's Leading Grocer, Kent St., has one of the largest and best stocks in the County to choose from. Everything fresh and good. A call solicited.

The distracting headaches from which so many women suffer make life a daily purgatory. If men suffered with headache as women do, business would be almost at a standstill.

When the womanly organism is diseased, headache, backache, nervousness and sleeplessness are consequences which are sure to follow.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures headaches and other aches and pains by curing their cause. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It soothes pain, builds up the nerves. It transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into happy, healthy women.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay for customs and mailing only. Send 37 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Omemece, Feb. 24, 1903.

Editor Mirror.—

DEAR SIR:—I hereby wish to assert that the score at the end of the hockey match at Lindsay, between the Omemece Beavers and the Lindsay Juniors, on Feb. 19th, was a tie of 6 to 6, the last goal credited to the Lindsay Juniors being made after the time limit.

Yours faithfully, HIRAM CORNEIL, Timekeeper.

FAREWELL at LENGTH. Jenkins (to friend)—Do you know Cooley?

Friend—Very well. Did you ever see him walking with his girl?

I should say I did. Isn't she the finest sight you ever saw? She is so tall, and he is so short, she head and shoulders over him. I would like to see him kiss her good-bye.

He doesn't kiss her good-bye. What does he do?

He shakes her hand, looks up and says, "So long!"

Ebb—"Sholly is well provided with the necessities of life." Flo—"Yes, it is a good thing for him that the necessities of life do not include brains."

Dizzy? Then your liver isn't acting well. You suffer from biliousness, constipation. Ayer's Pills act directly on the liver. For 60 years they have been the Standard Family Pill. Small doses cure. All druggists.

Want your mustache or beard a beautiful brown or rich black? Use the BUCKINGHAM'S DYE for Whiskers.

We are printing a day earlier than usual this week therefore we have the announcement re. hockey match and carnival in another column.

The Modern Prodigal, in Five Acts, will be given in the Temperance Hall, Mount Pleasant, on March 3. This Drama was given to a crowded house here and made a great hit.

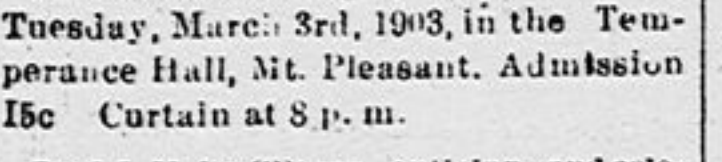

The first meeting of the woman's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. R. Ford on Thursday, Feb. 12, and was in every way a success. Almost all the members were present. Good papers were given by Mrs. Cottingham on "Yeast" and Miss Johnston on "A good cup of tea."

Both these subjects were well discussed by the members, and all are looking forward to the regular Institute Meetings as a place in which to learn something of practical use. A light lunch was provided by Mrs. Ford, and Miss Johnston made a good cup of tea. The next meeting on March 12th, is to be held at the home of Mrs. G. A. McQuade, to which every lady is invited.

Don't forget the Five Act Drama, "The Modern Prodigal," to be held on Tuesday, March 3rd, 1903, in the Temperance Hall, Mt. Pleasant. Admission 15c. Curtain at 8 p. m.

RIPANS

The simplest remedy for indigestion, constipation, biliousness and the many ailments arising from a disordered stomach, liver or bowels is Ripans Tablets. They have accomplished wonders, and their timely aid removes the necessity of calling a physician for the many little ills that beset mankind. They go straight to the seat of the trouble, relieve the distress, cleanse and cure the affected parts, and give the system a general toning up.

The five-cent packet is enough for an ordinary occasion. The family bottle, sixty cents contains a supply for a year.
