Sunday School Anniversary. Rev. J. H. Locke, of Omeme, Preaches Excellent Sermons.

Yesterday was Sunday School Anniversary Day at George street church, and services appropriate to the occasion were held. The preacher for the day was Rev. J. H. Locke, of Omeme, a former pastor of George street church, and his sermon, after an absence of 11 years, were very much appreciated by the large congregations, which, in spite of the unpleasant weather, almost filled the church.

At the morning service the members of the school who attended in a body, occupied the centre of the church, and the Sunday School Orchestra assisted in the musical service. Rev. Mr. Locke preached a helpful sermon from the text, "While He Was Yet Young He Served the Lord," in the sermon on which he drew some useful lessons from the life of Josiah, and gave a number of reasons why the children should "serve the Lord while they are yet young." The music at this service, which was led by the church choir, was appropriate to the day. Rev. Mr. Locke also occupied the pulpit in the evening when he preached another sermon which was much enjoyed by his hearers.

The musical service in the evening was an especially enjoyable feature, the anthem being "The King of Love, My Shepherd is," Mr. G. W. Mulhgan taking the baritone solo, while for the offertory, "No Not Despairingly," was well rendered. The anniversary services will be continued to-morrow night when the annual entertainment of the school will be held in the school room of the church. Reports of the year's work will also be presented.—Exchange of Monday.

Will be paid by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., if they cannot show the original signature of the individual volunteering the testimonial below, and also of the writers of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"For about two years I suffered from a very obstinate case of Dyspepsia," writes R. E. Secord, Esq., of 13 Eastern Ave., Toronto, Ontario. "I tried a great number of remedies without success. I finally lost faith in them all. I was so far gone that I could not for a long time bear any solid food in my stomach; felt melancholy and depressed. Some four months ago a friend recommended your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' After a week's treatment I had derived so much benefit that I continued the medicine. I have taken three bottles and am convinced it has in my case accomplished a permanent cure. I can conscientiously recommend it to the thousands of dyspeptics throughout the land."

A man can succeed and be strong if he heeds Nature's warnings. When there is indigestion, loss of appetite, ringing in the ears, dizziness, spots before the eyes or palpitation of the heart, any or all of these symptoms point to weakness and loss of nutrition. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the medicine to turn to.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is strictly a temperance medicine. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach.

The "Common Sense Medical Adviser," 800 pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps, to pay expense of postage and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Once, after a matinee, Joseph Jefferson was persuaded to take behind the scenes several pretty girls who had just watched his portrayal of Rip Van Winkle from a box. "Oh, Mr. Jefferson!" exclaimed the prettiest of the girls, while he was showing them around; "we enjoyed your performance so much but, do you know, we could hardly hear a word you said." The comedian smiled good-humoredly. "Well, I should say that was strange," replied he, "for I distinctly heard every word you young ladies uttered!"

BORN In the Township of Emily, on Saturday, Feb. 6, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Hiram E. Corneil, a son.

HOW IT SPREADS. The first package of Ilen-Roid (the infallible Pile cure) that was put out went to a small town in the State of Nebraska.

It made the cure of a case of Piles that was considered hopeless. The news spread and although this was only two years ago the demand prompted Dr. J. S. Leonard, of Lincoln, Neb., the discoverer, to prepare it for general use. Now it is being sent to all parts of the world.

It will cure any case of Piles. There is a month's treatment in each box. Sold for $1.00, with absolute guarantee. It is for sale by druggists.

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only hair food you can buy. For 60 years it has been doing just what we claim it will do. It will not disappoint you.

Some people who do not know any better think that any ignoramus can be a farmer!

Mr. John H. Carnegie, M. P., for East Victoria, recently walked on snowshoes all the way from Cobocomb to Lorneville, a distance of 30 miles, so that he might not be late for the opening of the Legislature.

The many friends of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, B. D., will be pleased to learn of the safe arrival of himself and family at Hamburg. They were all well, but a rough passage was encountered over the Atlantic. The acting Rector of St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, received a cablegram to the above effect.

Mr. Jos. Mitchell was in Lindsay on Friday.

Farmers say snow is so deep it is nearly impossible to work in the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Morgan were visitors to Peterboro, Saturday.

Mr. Evans and Mr. Peplow, of Toronto, were guests at the home of Mrs. D. Balfour, last week.

Mr. A. Lang was a visitor to Peterboro, Saturday.

Miss Harmony Balfour, who is attending the Peterboro Business College, spent Saturday and Sunday under the parental roof.

Miss Annie Balfour's many friends will be pleased to know she is able to be out again.

Miss Carrie Peast, we are sorry to hear, is not much improved.

Miss Lizzie Shell, of Lindsay, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Latchford.

Mr. S. Moore is visiting his brother Mr. W. Moore.

The Basket Social held at the home of Mr. Latchford proved to be a grand success, notwithstanding the rough night and bad condition of the roads, a large crowd found their way to the social. Proceeds amounted to about $40.00.
