THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

OMEMEE, FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1891.

LOCAL LAONIC

Rough roads.
A cold snap this week. March has broken its record. See adv. re. dark grey shawl lost. April Fool's Day will be next Sunday. Read G. W. Mulligan's new adv. this week. Advertise your spring goods in the Mirror. Love may be blind, but the neighbors generally are not. Mr. McDonald, of Lindsay, is shipping grain from here this week. Mr. Wruith shipped a fine load of cattle to Montreal this week. The kick of a cow is not the most acceptable form of milk punch. Some farmers near Belleville, have already sown peas this spring. Don't enclose letters or goods in newspapers sent through the mails. A free notice given to those getting their sale bills printed at this office. When in Lindsay, call at Exports and see his stoves, tin ware, and granite-ware. Next door to Post Office, 7-3m. Millinery Opening at T. Ivory & Sons, from Wednesday until Saturday of next week. The fact that a woman is flighty by no means indicates that she is growing winks. The Welland and St. Lawrence Canal will open for navigation about the 23rd of April. Jewett's Restaurant, Kent St., Lindsay, Best Lunch for 15c. Oysters, Fruit and Confectionery.—12

As Others See Us.

We received a copy of the Toronto Junction Leader this week, from A. D. Thurston, formerly on the Mirror staff. Mr. Thurston has the foremanship of the Leader Office. To cash subscribers only, we will send to any address, the Mirror and Ladies Journal for $1.15. This is for a limited time, so bring along your subscriptions early. Sample copies of the Ladies Journal at this office. At the annual vestry meeting held in Christ Church last Monday evening, Messrs. T. C. Stephenson and W. R. McQuade were re-elected Wardens for the coming year. Mr. Wm. Curry was elected lay delegate to the Synod. W. A. Stratton, of the law firm of Stratton & Hall, Peterborough, will be in Omemee on Monday next, the 2nd inst. Any one wishing business transacted will find him at his office, Bell Telephone Block, or at the Cardwell House. Daniel Ritz, Proprietor and Publisher of the Hamilton, Ont., Independent says: "I was suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble. I took a few bottles of Shiloh's Vitalizer and it cured me. I can heartily recommend it." Sold by R. J. Mulligan. The Coldwater News says:—"The early closing movement has proved a failure and the merchants all keep open as of yore. We imagine it will be some time before such an arrangement will be put in force again. It would be advisable for the council to repeal the by-law affecting the matter. Restrictionist legislation is always difficult to enforce."

High School Entertainment.

The entertainment under the auspices of the Omemee High School Literary and Debating Society, held on Thursday evening last at the Bradburn Opera House, was a grand success, financially and otherwise. Although the weather was very inclement, the hall was comfortably filled with an intelligent and appreciative audience, who were well pleased with the proceedings, every part being well given, and should this Society ever get up such another programme, a crowded house would no doubt greet them. The chair, which was occupied by Miss K. Johnson, was taken at eight o'clock, and after a few pointed remarks she called on the Orchestra for a selection, which was well received; following was the reading of an interesting paper by Miss B. Briers. Next came a song by E. Cornwall, who responded to the encore given him in a pleasing manner. Miss M. Davidson's recitation was well performed. A chorus by several young men of the high school was appreciated very much. Next on the programme was the debate, "Resolved that Man is in Danger from the Present Competition of Woman," from which some very good points were brought forth on both sides. It seems through some misunderstanding, the decision that evening was announced in favor of the affirmative side, but the points marked by the judges showed that the negative side were the winners by a small majority. The parties on the affirmative side were W. J. Cook and B. Rex and on the negative side S. Smith and A. Evans. "Cinderella" was superb in every respect, and would do justice to any town where it might be given. The chorus by the young ladies of the school received much applause. The "Five O'Clock Tea" Tableaux was perfectly given, as were also the two, later on in the programme, "The Execution of Mary Queen of Scots" and "Jealousy." Jas. Laidley's readings "Brought Down to Earth" and "The Song, 'Only the Picture of Her Boy'" by J. English, Sr., was a treat indeed. Last, but by no means least on the programme was a song by J. Williams, of the Bell Comedy Co., who sang in town at the time and kindly consented to assist in the programme. His song and whistling received loud and rapturous applause. The singing of God Save the Queen brought to a close one of the best entertainments of the kind ever held in Omemee, the only fault being too much value for the small admission fee, causing too lengthy a programme.

PERSONAL.

Samuel Lamb was in Peterboro' this week. H. Toole is in the Queen City this week. Miss J. Robinson spent Saturday in Lindsay. Wm. Cardwell was in Peterborough on Thursday. Miss S. Miss Daisy Stephenson, of Lindsay, is spending the holidays with her relatives and friends in town. Jas. Moor and Robt. Johnston of Peterborough registered at the Cardwell House on Wednesday. Mrs. Jas. McNeelie of Lindsay accompanied by her two sons are visiting in town, the guests of Miss M. Thornton. Wm. Lytle has returned to Carman, Man., after spending the winter with friends in Omemee and vicinity. Miss Minnie Davidson, of Lindsay, spent Easter with her relatives and friends in town. She returned on Monday. Fred. Ivory left on Wednesday evening for Montreal, where he intends to write on the examinations to be held in that city to-day and to-morrow. Geo. Norris, of Montreal who has been spending the Easter holidays with his mother, and other relatives and friends, returned to his home on Tuesday evening. Among the guests who attended the wedding of John T. Fee, of Emily, to Miss L. M. Somers, in Darlington, last week, was John Watson, one of our esteemed boot and shoe dealers. Jas. Norris, of Toronto, spent a few days during the Easter holidays in Omemee, visiting his mother, Mrs. G. Norris, and other relatives and friends. He returned to the city on Monday. Jos. Edward, mother and two sisters left on the evening train, Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Jas. Hales in Millbrook, which took place on Monday. She was a daughter of Mr. Edward. Messrs. J. D. Thornton and H. W. Sherwood took part in the program at the "At Home" given by the Y. M. C. A. in Lindsay on Tuesday. They acquitted themselves admirably. Miss Williamson was also present as accompanist, and performed her part creditably.

Omemee and Lindsay Markets will appear next week.

PERSONAL.

Large numbers from Peterborough/Port Hope, Lindsay, Millbrook, Mount Pleasant, Bethany and other places are already talking of the grand celebration which Omemee is preparing for on the 24th of May. Keep the place in mind. Also remember that in the evening one of the greatest music festivals ever given in this locality will take place. On Wednesday evening last the Lebanon Flute Band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jones, who were recently married in Manvers, and took up their residence in Emily Township. A number of songs, duets and instrumental music on the harmonica, organ, etc., by the members of the orchestra were well received. A grand supper was served, and the party dispersed wishing the young couple, health, prosperity and happiness.

PERSONAL.

Some of our citizens, including Miss Williamson, Messrs. H. Sherwood and Thornton, attended this entertainment at Lindsay on Tuesday evening and all were delighted with the program and cordial reception tendered by the Y. M. C. A. at their parlors, which are open to visitors at any time, where there is a grand reading room, musical instruments, also a gymnasium on the most modern plan, and a home for all young men visiting or living in Lindsay. The concert was a grand success, the hall being overcrowded. Mr. Sherwood, among other prominent performers, received great applause.

PERSONAL.

We received this week a letter from one of our foreign readers, congratulating us on the neat appearance of the Mirror, and adds in conclusion, the following:—"I like the Mirror very much, and think it is a credit to the place, and should be well supported by all Omemee's citizens, but especially by the merchants. The letter of 'A Country Farmer' in your last issue is much to be regretted in the Mirror's columns by an advertisement, if on a small one, and by doing so it would benefit themselves, the village, and the newspaper. You have my best wishes for success."

PERSONAL.

The following case, tried at the Spring Assizes in Peterborough, will prove of some interest to many of our readers—"The action was one brought by Margaret Corneil against her brother, David H. Corneil, of Ops Township, for $1,000 for taking down a dwelling house in which the plaintiff had a room being attached to her for the time of her usual days by her father. After evidence had been heard His Lordship allowed the matter to stand, requesting that the parties to try and arrange a settlement. The following settlement was reached and judgment entered accordingly on the 21st.—The defendant to pay the plaintiff $200 without costs, plaintiff to allow to remove her furniture and to surrender all claim to a room on the premises, W. R. Riddell, Q. C., Toronto, and E. B. Stone, for plaintiff; F. D. Moore, for defendant."

Ed. Hanna met with a rather peculiar accident on Thursday afternoon. By some means, while handling a knife, it slipped, cutting deeply into the fleshy flexor aspects of each finger of the right hand. The bleeding was profuse and medical assistance was necessary to stop the flow of blood. Rev. Newton Hill, of the Queen St. Methodist Church, Lindsay, who has accepted the call to the Omemee Methodist Church, also received an invitation to be informed, from the Elm St. Methodist Church, Toronto, but as he had accepted the former call, he was unable to entertain the call to Toronto. The Evening Review of Peterborough, in a recent issue says:—"The Millbrook Reporter is quite out of its mind when it desires to be. It says: 'For the first time in its existence Omemee has now the privilege of not being able to get a postage stamp after seven o'clock in the evening, so says an exchange. That's nothing, you never could do that in Millbrook and at certain hours through the day you cannot get a responsive ear to buy so much as a postage card.' W. F. Chapman, who has so ably filled the position as secretary in the Y. M. C. A. at Peterborough for the past two years, we are sorry to learn, has resigned his position and leaves this week. On Saturday evening last at the Y. M. C. A. parlors, he was presented with a beautiful gold headed ebony cane by his bible class in the George Street Methodist Church. Everybody laughed.

PERSONAL.

Large numbers from Peterborough/Port Hope, Lindsay, Millbrook, Mount Pleasant, Bethany and other places are already talking of the grand celebration which Omemee is preparing for on the 24th of May. Keep the place in mind. Also remember that in the evening one of the greatest music festivals ever given in this locality will take place. On Wednesday evening last the Lebanon Flute Band serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Jones, who were recently married in Manvers, and took up their residence in Emily Township. A number of songs, duets and instrumental music on the harmonica, organ, etc., by the members of the orchestra were well received. A grand supper was served, and the party dispersed wishing the young couple, health, prosperity and happiness.
