

Coal!

VANCING.
Unless Othernged.

TY'S
Seed Store
FEED
from all Man-

Flour.
per hundred.

Wheat, Barley, Eye, als of all kinds, and ur, Toronto.

ncour and feed, field
Lard Plaster.

pt Delivery of ll profits and and goods.

ATTY.

Triumphantly!
H

It Is Worth !

OMEMEE, THURSDAY, MARCH 19, 1896

THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

AUCTION SALE

of valuable farm properties in the Townships of Ops and Emily, in the County of Victoria.

There will be offered for sale at Bradburn's Hotel, in the Town of Omemee, Saturday, March the 21st, 1896, at 12 o'clock noon, by virtue of powers of sale contained in a certain mortgage which will be produced at the sale, the following properties:

PARCEL I.
Lots 3 and 4, in the 11th concession of the Township of Ops, containing 256 acres more or less, save and except one acre on the South East corner of said lot 4, having a frontage on the boundary line of 5 rods, and being bounded on the North and West except lot 3, now owned by Mr. Henry Jones.

PARCEL II.
The North West quarter of lot 11, in the 3rd concession of the Township of Emily, containing fifty acres more or less, save and except 4 acres thereof heretofore sold.

The following improvements are said to be on the premises fully described: About 100 rods cleared, having erected thereon a house and barn.

TERMS—10 per cent. of the purchase money to be paid down on the day of sale. For balance terms will be made known at the sale.

For further particulars apply to JONES, MACKENZIE & LEONARD, Solicitors, Toronto St., Toronto. Or to GEO. A. BALFOUR, 106-1 Omemee.

HORSES WANTED.

Use MULLIGAN'S CONDITION POWDER and get your horses ready for market.

Still Selling Toilet Soaps Cheap.
Oil Cake Very Cheap

Call and get prices.

SPECTACLES 10c. PER PAIR.

Fit any Sight.

COAL OIL.

R J Mulligan's, OMEMEE.

P. S.—I have made arrangements with a Toronto firm to do any watch repairing you may need.

THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

OMEMEE, THURSDAY, MARCH 19, 1896

LOCAL LACONIC

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. A. Orr is very ill.

There is considerable hay being moved in this locality.

The Easter Cards at Mulligan's are the prettiest we have seen.

Sin has a great many tools, but a lie is the handle which fits them all.

The many friends of Rev. Wilson McCann will be pleased to know that he is again able to be out as usual.

There are a number of tenant farmers changing their location this spring. Moving is the order of the day.

Rev. J. U. Tanner will preach as usual in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, instead of 2:30.

When you are going to church, the theater or any place of the kind buy a few of Higinbotham's Menthol Cough Draps.

Several kind friends have favored us with word on subscription since our appeal to them in our last issue, and it is hope others will do likewise.

Our short blow is all that is needed to cure Catarrh when you see Dr. King's Catarrh Cure. Sold by A. Higinbotham, Lindsay.

It is thought the sap would run these days, but parties having sugar bushes, say that they are shut out of the woods by the excessive depth of the snow.

When you arrive at the railway station in Lindsay make a bee line for Higinbotham's Drug Store, where the Menthol Cough Draps are sold.

J. J. Williams has his delivery rig badly shaken up Saturday caused by his horse running away. We are pleased to learn that no serious damage was done.

It is reported that it is not an unusual thing to see cattle lying dead in farm yards in the country north of Bobcaygeon. The cause is supposed to be from want of proper care.

We Must Have Help.—We pay men and women $10 to $18 per week for easy home work. No books or padding. Steady employment guaranteed. Send stamp for work and particulars at once. HERMANN & SEYMOUR, 213 South Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A social is to be held at Lebanon on Thursday evening next, March 24th. Rev. J. J. Rae, of Peterboro, is to give one of his interesting addresses. Also Rev. Mr. Nichol, Millbrook, and others are expected to give short addresses. Some of the best musical talent of Omemee, with the local choir, will furnish the singing. Admission 15c.

Our former brilliant young townsmen, Mr. Frank Kerr, has entered into partnership with Mr. E. W. Gladman, a Peterboro' barrister, and the new firm is known as Kerr, Gladman & Kerr with branch offices at Lakefield and Omemee. We congratulate the firm on the vigor they are displaying and wish them every success.—Cobourg World.

J. J. Lamb had a valuable cow die last week.

See the pretty Easter Cards at R. J. Mulligan's Drug Store.

Capt. Evans' many friends will be pleased to learn he is able to leave his bed.

Mr. Cummings is managing the affairs at the Cardwell House until a purchaser can be secured.

The Omemee Roller Flour Mills are running day and night under the able management of Stephenson Bros.

Rev. J. W. Totten preaches educational sermons in the Methodist Church on Sunday next. Special collections.

Mrs. Norris' many friends will be pleased to learn she is approaching convalescence after a few days' illness.

The Junior League of the Methodist Church are to have an open meeting on Sunday evening next. All are invited.

Mr. Gabriel Balfour's condition has not changed much the past few days, though he is gradually getting weaker.

The man who reads the paper, And spangles as goes,

With every reach that happy land Where milk and honey flows.

grand leap-year carnival will be held in the Millbrook skating rink tomorrow (Friday) evening. This will be your chance, boys; get up a load and drive down.

Rev. W. R. Young, of Peterboro', gave an interesting and instructive address to a large congregation in the Methodist Church, at one of the special services last week.

Ensign Attwell, of Toronto, will visit Omemee on Tuesday, March 24th, in connection with the children's work, and invites all the children and parents to come to the Omemee S. A. barracks.

Rudly, of Millbrook, has a quantity of private and company's money to lend on easy terms and low rates of interest. No commission charged. Omemee office, over Post Office; open Monday afternoon.

In the last report of the Township and Village Councils, to shorten the proceedings, we run the three readings of the different by-laws into one. The council are therefore not to blame in this, as they did their business in order.

On Monday last the main street was almost carpeted with cards torn in all shapes. No doubt the sermon on Sunday evening last by Rev. N. Hill is the cause of the card destruction. Mr. Hill must be pleased to know that his remarks on card playing have been profitable.

The Minnow's wood pile is getting small. Those who cannot pay us cash for their subscriptions will confer a favor by furnishing us with good hard or soft wood. Now is the time to get it delivered before the soft weather comes. If you have not the wood the cash will do just as well.

You have something to sell; there is somebody who needs it; connect that something with that somebody and there is a probability of a trade and the world over, the experience of every man who has made a success in any line of business or trade, proves beyond a doubt that advertising is the only medium which will bring a prospective buyer to the store, when everything else fails to get him there.

While it is difficult for a newspaper to raise a note of warning and mention directly the parties interested without becoming involved in expensive litigation we take this means of warning our readers that we take a timely warning, will save hundreds of dollars. Always buy from your own town dealers.

Miss Ellie McElwain, of Gelert, is visiting the home of her uncle, Matthew McElwain, Emily.

J. Byers, of Baillieboro', spent a few hours last week in town on his way home from Dundas.

Robt. Ruddy, Barrister, Solicitor, &c., of Millbrook, made his regular professional visit to Omemee Monday.

Miss Sarah Lamb, after having spent a couple of weeks visiting her friends at Port Hope, returned home Tuesday.

The Misses Grace Cornell and Lottie Robinson are visiting friends in Peterboro'.

Robt. Graham and wife, of Peterboro', visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kennedy yesterday.

Miss Ellie McElwain, of Gelert, is visiting the home of her uncle, Matthew McElwain, Emily.

J. Byers, of Baillieboro', spent a few hours last week in town on his way home from Dundas.

Miss Sarah Lamb, after having spent a couple of weeks visiting her friends at Port Hope, returned home Tuesday.

The Misses Grace Cornell and Lottie Robinson are visiting friends in Peterboro'.

Call at M. E. Tagney's, Furniture Dealer and Undertaker, Clinton Street, for all kinds of furniture.

Miss Sarah Lamb, after having spent a couple of weeks visiting her friends at Port Hope, returned home Tuesday.

F. Kerr, Barrister, Solicitor, &c., of Peterboro', made a professional visit to Omemee on Friday and Tuesday last.

Miss Foster, after having spent a very pleasant time visiting friends here, returned to her home at Cannington on Tuesday.

Mr. (Rev.) R. J. Fallis and children, of Unionville, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Balfour, the past week.

Robt. Wilson and daughter, Miss Ada Wilson, of Peterboro', paid their friends in Omemee a short visit on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Maggie Evans, who came home on account of the illness of her father, Major Evans, returned to her school in Haliburton County last week.

Robert Bloxom and Fred Smith were among those who took advantage of the cheap trip to Carman, and other points in the North West, on Tuesday.

Rev. J. T. Upton attended the convention under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the Presbyterian Church at Port Hope on Tuesday.

T. E. Jennings was here this week straightening up his business, Mr. Jennings has the sympathy of a large number of friends in the loss of his wife by death.

Rev. G. H. Coon, of Janaville, was a visitor to Omemee last week; he delivered an interesting address to a large congregation in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening.

Rev. F. A. Cassidy, returned missionary from Japan delivered an address in the Methodist Church, on Thursday evening on the manners and customs of the Japanese. After an eight years stay among them, Mr. Cassidy is perfectly familiar with the language and customs of the Japs, and his lecture was a most interesting one indeed. Mr. Cassidy has an exceedingly easy delivery, and a conversational style of speaking which is very pleasing to his audience.

On Friday evening the Rev. Gentleman addressed the Junior League of the same church.

A dying inebriate in Oswego left this last will and testament: "I leave to my son a ruined character, a wife who will not rot. I leave to my parents as much sorrow as they can in their feeble state bear. I leave to my brothers and sisters as much shame and mortification as I could bring on them. I leave to my wife a broken heart—a life of shame. I leave to God a ruined soul, poverty, ignorance, low character, and remembrance that their father filled a drunkard's grave. This is for drunkards to read when they have time."

Miss Purdon has for the third season, taken charge of the Millinery Room of T. Ivory & Sons and is getting the different shapes and styles ready for the firm's grand spring millinery opening.

Miss McCallum, of Uxbridge, has taken charge of the same department in the Bethany store.

BORN.

In Omemee, on Monday, March 16th, 1896 to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McKinley, a daughter.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

A Dastardly Crime Committed Tuesday Evening.

JAMES AGNEW SHOT DOWN AT HIS STABLE DOOR.

ROBBERY THE MOTIVE.

The Most Diabolical Crime Ever Perpetrated in Lindsay — The Deed Evidently Committed by Some Person Well Acquainted with his Victim's Habits — A Sixteen Year Old Boy Arrested on Suspicion.

The town of Lindsay was thrown into a state of excitement this morning when a report was made that James Agnew, a retired farmer, who lived in the East Ward, was murdered between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

When going to Peterboro' to do his shopping, he stopped at the stable door to look after his horse and cow, and as he did not return in due season, his wife went to look for him, she found him lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet hole in his head behind the ear. His purse was empty and his watch and chain gone. Some papers were lying loose on the ground near him, and his coat was open, showing a bullet hole in his pocket. The murderer had gone through the pockets of his victim. Tracks were discerned in the snow from the stable. There is no doubt the murderer was waiting for his victim. Mr. Agnew was a very quiet and infirm man, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Yesterday morning Chief Bell arrested a boy named Carney on suspicion of being the murderer. This boy, who is only sixteen years of age, has had a bad character, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Yesterday morning Chief Bell arrested a boy named Carney on suspicion of being the murderer. This boy, who is only sixteen years of age, has had a bad character, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Chief Bell, of Peterboro' Police Force, and his wife, who were staying at the hotel, heard a noise at the stable door, and went to see what it was. They found the boy lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet hole in his head behind the ear. His purse was empty and his watch and chain gone. Some papers were lying loose on the ground near him, and his coat was open, showing a bullet hole in his pocket. The murderer had gone through the pockets of his victim. Tracks were discerned in the snow from the stable. There is no doubt the murderer was waiting for his victim. Mr. Agnew was a very quiet and infirm man, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Chief Bell, of Peterboro' Police Force, and his wife, who were staying at the hotel, heard a noise at the stable door, and went to see what it was. They found the boy lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet hole in his head behind the ear. His purse was empty and his watch and chain gone. Some papers were lying loose on the ground near him, and his coat was open, showing a bullet hole in his pocket. The murderer had gone through the pockets of his victim. Tracks were discerned in the snow from the stable. There is no doubt the murderer was waiting for his victim. Mr. Agnew was a very quiet and infirm man, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Chief Bell, of Peterboro' Police Force, and his wife, who were staying at the hotel, heard a noise at the stable door, and went to see what it was. They found the boy lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet hole in his head behind the ear. His purse was empty and his watch and chain gone. Some papers were lying loose on the ground near him, and his coat was open, showing a bullet hole in his pocket. The murderer had gone through the pockets of his victim. Tracks were discerned in the snow from the stable. There is no doubt the murderer was waiting for his victim. Mr. Agnew was a very quiet and infirm man, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Chief Bell, of Peterboro' Police Force, and his wife, who were staying at the hotel, heard a noise at the stable door, and went to see what it was. They found the boy lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet hole in his head behind the ear. His purse was empty and his watch and chain gone. Some papers were lying loose on the ground near him, and his coat was open, showing a bullet hole in his pocket. The murderer had gone through the pockets of his victim. Tracks were discerned in the snow from the stable. There is no doubt the murderer was waiting for his victim. Mr. Agnew was a very quiet and infirm man, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Chief Bell, of Peterboro' Police Force, and his wife, who were staying at the hotel, heard a noise at the stable door, and went to see what it was. They found the boy lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet hole in his head behind the ear. His purse was empty and his watch and chain gone. Some papers were lying loose on the ground near him, and his coat was open, showing a bullet hole in his pocket. The murderer had gone through the pockets of his victim. Tracks were discerned in the snow from the stable. There is no doubt the murderer was waiting for his victim. Mr. Agnew was a very quiet and infirm man, and was arrested for burglary, but he was not charged with murder, as he had no enemies, so that robbery seems to be the motive of the crime.

Chief Bell, of Peterboro' Police Force, and his wife, who were staying at the hotel, heard a noise at the stable door, and went to see what it was. They found the boy lying dead at the stable door, with a bullet