Last week's Omemees correspondence to the Lindsay Post in reference to the recent election, as usual, was misleading and in bad taste. His statement that the election passed off quietly is probably true as far as the Grits are concerned, for in the long list of Liberal defeats in Omemees, there has never been one so complete and crushing; but on the Conservative side there was never so much enthusiasm displayed before. The enthusiasm referred to, which was caused by a "private de-patch," announcing the election of Dr.
Dewart with a majority of 75, must have received a severe blow when later returns indicated that the Rev. gentleman had been elected to stay at home.
The cowardly sneer aimed at one of highly respected local clergy men was in the worst of taste and was altogether unbecoming for. The correspondent of the Post must have been sorely in need of salve for his wounds when he vented his spleen in such an unbecoming and discreditable manner.

Dr. Cornwall was in Lindsay yesterday.
Don't fail to ask us for lowest prices in Field, Garden and Flower Seeds.

Artists in Lindsay. Their work is strictly first-class and satisfaction guaranteed. Our prices are as low as the lowest. Studio, Corner of Kent and Wm. Streets, Lindsay.

Tuesday night some person or persons who are no doubt inveterate smokers, broke into Mr. W. Colvin's Tensorial Parlor and took away with them about $75 worth of cigars and pipes. It will be behind the bars in Kingston they will do their smoking, (if that "luxury" is permitted), should they be found out.
A detective is on their track.

Since the above was written we learn that part of the stolen goods have been returned. No doubt the persons who stole them were afraid of being found out, and thought the safest way to get rid of the stolen articles was to return them.

The persons are now known and if the balance of goods are not returned at once they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law: A word to the wise is sufficient.

Grand Reception Given to J. H. Carnegie, M.P.P.

BY OMEMEE AND EMILY CITIZENS.

An Immense Gathering.

Speeches Were Delivered by Chas.
Fairbairn, ex-M.P., S. J. Fox,
M.P.P., and J. H. Carnegie, M.P.P.

On Tuesday evening an immense gathering greeted John H. Carnegie, M.P.P., on his arrival on the six o'clock train from Peterboro. Several rigs were in the procession from the depot headed by the Citizens' Band.

Arriving at the Commercial House the member for East Victoria thanked the great throng of people for their hearty reception. Later on speeches were delivered from the balcony of the Bradburn House, the hall not being large enough to seat such a crowd.

Keefe Stephenson was appointed chairman, and delivered a short address, after which he called upon Mr.
Chas. Fairbairn for a speech. The people of the township of Emily and Village of Omemees are well acquainted with this gentleman, who was their representative for South Victoria in the House of Commons for a number of years. Mr. Fairbairn is an excellent speaker. He may again come to the front as a candidate for South Victoria.
Should he do so his Omemees and Emily friends will give him a rousing majority.

Mr. S. J. Fox, the member for West Victoria was next called upon for a speech. Mr. Fox said it was a pleasure for him to witness the splendid greeting given to Mr. Carnegie. He spoke in eulogistic terms of the member of East Victoria and knew him to be a worthy representative. He said he (himself) had fought a hard fight against great odds, but had come off victorious, and that his friends stayed by him and he by them, and intends to do the very best he can for the interests of the people of his riding. He thanked the people for their kind hearing, and took his seat.

Mr. J. H. Carnegie was the next speaker, and coming forward was greeted with cheers. He expressed himself well pleased with the warm reception given him by his Omemees and Emily friends. He felt highly honored by being again returned as their representative in the Legislature by a largely increased majority, and hoped that he would be able to give a good account of himself during the coming term. He said he would not make a lengthy speech, and after again thanking them, he concluded his remarks. Reeve Wm.
Adams, also gave a stirring address.
The gathering then broke up with cheers for the Queen, and the speakers of the evening.

Mr. I. Whitesmith, Watchmaker, is now here, and those requiring any work in his line, should leave it at the Mirror office at once as he will only remain till Saturday night. He will be at Bethany on Monday next only. Satisfaction guaranteed. A call solicited.

Plenty of people want to retire from business, to secure a working partner, to increase capital, to develop some new branch, and if they are sensible and in earnest they advertise it in the "Business Chances" column of The Mail and Empire.

ming up a good business for this year.
Patrons be sure and lay in a good stock of cows for this season.

Social parties seem to be the prevailing customs in the Bethel neighborhood this winter. A large party was invited to the home of Mr. T. M. Caldwell Monday last to spend the evening in social enjoyment, and pleasant intercourse with each other. Who'll be the next to say, come.

Miss Ida Switzer of Bethel and her sister, Mrs. T. Fee, is gone for a couple of weeks visit among relatives in the town of Bowmanville.

The Misses Minnie and Emma Switzer and Annie Doule have returned
