PLOT TO BRIBE M.P.P.'S

Mr. Gamey Names Mr. Stratton As Author of Conspiracy.

the Magnitude of the Disaster and the Cabinet Immediately Convenes, While Rumors of Retirement Are Rife.

Toronto, March 12.-The Legislature met at 3 p.m. yesterday. The galleries were well filled.

propriation of $400,000, and a reso- no other will dare to oppose you with any fifties, twenties, tens and fives. lution was adopted appointing a chance of success. In the meant'me be shaping things and paving the way. You Address Moved and Seconded.

The address in reply to the speech from the throne was moved in a speech, extolling the benefits bestowed upon the Province by the Ross Government, by Mr. A. G. Mc-

Mr. Valentine Stock of South Perth seconded the motion in a speech which referred to the various items in the King's speech eulogistic-

GAMEY'S DRAMATIC STORY.

Member For Manitoulin Gives Details of How He Came to Change Into a Supporter of the Government.

Instead of the leader of the Opposition, Mr. Whitney, gaining the floor of the House, Mr. R. R. Gamey, memoer for Manitoulin, arose. It was clearly against the usual order of things, but, as he was elected view given out that he would support the Government on the opening of the House, everybody expected to hear an explanation of his defection from the Conservative ranks. He then read the following statement in a clear voice:

MR. GAMEY'S STATEMENT.

Fraser, the Liberal candidate, by about to give him some document asserting 340 majority, and beating the combined that I would support the government turns by the returning officer were held back and not declared until June 17. This, I believe, was done to give the government a chance to protest my usual way. Several parties were sent up to the riding to lock up evidence.

ronto and met Capt. J. Sullivan in the lunch room at Allandale and he said to me: 'I hear, Gamey, they have strong evidence against you up there." I replied that I had heard nothing of that. He continued the conversation and confidentially remarked to me as a friend, as he said, that I would be disqualified, and said if he was in my place he would resign. I laughed at him and paid no attention to it. I went on to Toronto and he remained.

Wonin Disquality Bim. and I wondered why he was speak- the 9th. ing thus. He said only as a friend, as he had known me a long time, and he felt sorry that I would be disqualified. Why, he said, that could be arranged, a good thing could be made out of it and the trial avoided. I asked him how, and he said after some further conversation that $5000 in cash could be got and lots of chances of more later was impossible, as no man could leave after I went back. either side now, and the government "I urged them to withdraw the pewhole matter before some Conservative this. About Sept. 9. I was taken into as follows:

Arranged the Secret Meeting.

"About Tuesday, August 12, Frank came to me and said a prominent Liberal lawyer of the city would be up in his father's room at the Walker House and that I should go to the room, giving me the number. He told me no mention would be made of money, but that the lawyer would talk of a stock proposition by which my profits would realize $3000 in six weeks or less and $2000 after the first session of the House. I went to the room, and Frank and the lawyer were there. I will not mention the lawyer's name to-day, but he is prominent in Liberal ranks. "The lawyer said he understood Frank and I had spoken of a stock com- that I was not receiving any value pany in which I could make $3000 in for the same. It was typewritten. The cash in six weeks and $2000 towards spring, and I said we had. He said it that day, but he was not ready. could be arranged, he thought, but no "I then went down town, and, at mention was made in his presence of about 1.30 o'clock p.m., Frank Sullisupporting the government, and no van and I were to go to a prominent question of the trial was spoken of. We lawyer's office, which we did. This only had a short talk, and he went out, lawyer, when I arrived there, had the and I have never heard of him in any letter that I was to sign, and I signed way since in the deal. Frank and I it in his presence. He then said he agreed then that if anything was done would keep it, but Frank said there was some stock question to be settled each should take half. Government Was Anxious. "During that trip I also saw D. A. Jones of Beeton, who seemed to be authorized to deal with me. He also sug- that, and had nothing to do with that gested that the government were very but he would give us his word that, if anxious to get information for the we would leave the letter with him. trials against Smyth and Miscampbell. he would hold it in his possession unwhich I told him it would be impossible til we were satisfied, but Frank refuson Oct. 2 about the appointment of for me to do. I left Toronto for home ed to do so, and took the letter with a returning officer for the referendum, about the 12th. On my return home I him. I know the lawyer's name. consulted J. R. McGregor of Gore Bay. "We then had an appointment with secretary of the Manitoulin District the Hon. J. R. Stratton for the next they would go, and whatever we did gether. would be told on the floor of the House, and absolutely no one would know before we decided that I would have to give the government evidence that I that Frank and I should go down to ceally meant to go with them, and only the smoking-room and wait there, and BIG POLITICAL BOMBSHELL. by fully convincing them could we more a party would brink a the cabinet. So far we had no evidence Stratton take out of his inside pocket against anyone in authority. Nothing a large, well-filled envelope. We went

" 'In accordance with our conversation, I committee to strike the standing knew how to manoeuvre and I will be fixinformation. That will make a clear sweep it will come to hand quick sure. If I was letter from Frank Sullivan, situated like you I could pick up thousands of dollars worth soon and no one would

Met at Midnight. "This I answered by saying I would tween 11 and 12 o'clock a rap came to (Signed) F. J. Sulilvan. my door after I had gone to bed. My that I would shortly, but he wanted more 21, and met Cap. Sullivan at North at Little Current. I then stepped out there and wanted to see me privately. I went down to the barn with him, put "I was elected in May, 1902, as a said they were anxlous to go on with straight Conservative, defeating J. M. some arrangement and he wanted me night, but would go to Toronto in a he agreed to. He went back to Gore of a verbal option, and your efforts will they wanted me to take home with election, if necessary, after they saw Bay that night, after staying about place us in a shape to make a haul, sure. me, and sign at Gore Bay, and mal, how the rest of the protests stood. In one hour. He was alone. It was a I will surprise you when I see you. When addressed to the Premier, Hon. G. W. and it was handed to The Globe re- They were as follows: brother in the morning if he would you there? Yours in haste. (Signed) D. A. know the man if he saw him again Jones." "About August 7 I was going to To- and he said he would and he said he thought it was Capt. J. Sullivan. Cap. Sullivan Comes In.

"In the morning my brother and I drove to Gore Bay and I took my brother across on the mail steamer that day to Cutler and down to Sudbury, as the Cap, was with us, so that he would be sure of the man, and I explained to my brother then what he was at. Before leaving Gore Bay that day I saw J. R. McGregor and explained what the Cap. wanted. He said: "In Toronto, at the Walker rext day I went to Arnprior and about believe he 'phoned to some prominent they had. I mailed this letter, ad- and I handed him back his half and House, where I stay, I met Aug. 26 I arrived in Toronto and saw Conservative in the city, and he said dressed to the Premier, Hon. G. W. put the balance in my pocket. It was his son, Frank J. Sullivan, who both the Cap. and his son Frank at he had refused to give them his name Ross, about Oct. 30, at Gore Bay, but mostly Ontario and Merchant Bank also broached the subject of my protest the Walker House and had different and they were surprised. About the got no answer, and they did not re- bills, and the portion I kept was nine and said he understood they would dis- interviews. In the Cap.'s room Frank last week of September I wrote Smyth turn the other, but now have both. fifties, Merchants' Bank bills, and two qualify me, and I told him that that drew up an agreement by which I a short note asking him to come drwn "I wrote Hon. J. R. Stratton a few twenty dollar Ontario Bank bills, and was utterly impossible, as I had done agreed to support the government, to our Agricultural Fair at Gore Bay days after this, asking for the loan one Ontario Bank ten. I think all the nothing by which they could disqual- which I signed, and Frank signed an on the 2nd of October, so we could put of $2000 until after the session, but twenties were Ontario Bank. ify me; and he remarked that evidence agreement to pay me $3000 in cash him on his guard, but he did not come. sometimes could be colored, altered and and $2000 after the session. They sometimes could be colored, altered and and $2000 after the session. They sometimes could be colored, altered and and $2000 after the session. They sometimes could be colored, altered and and and $2000 after the session. They sometimes could be colored, altered and and and $2000 after the session. bought, and that he believed they were were afterwards both destroyed. I ter from my leader, J. P. Whitney, determined to disqualify me. He went back to Arnprior about Aug. 29, drawing my attention to the statement would, he said, if he were me, resign and returned to Toronto about Sept.1. made by Capt. Sullivan, in Ottawa, that rather than face a fight. I told him Had many talks with Frank Sullivan I had given a written promise to supthat his father had spoken that way, and his father about matters up to port the government. I wrote Sulli-

"The Cap, was trying to secure a timber limit for his share, McGregor Island. He told me he had dis- of the 25th inst., and I must say that I am cussed the deal with the Hon. J. M. as much surprised as you are. I never ed him to see Hon. J. R. Stratton, and Stratton seemed to be the one they did business with from that time on. I all I said and more is in the interview. I rived there he was not in, and I waited on, as the government must have more also discussed the question of whether will get a copy of it and send it to you. I Smyth of Algoma could be bought or am writing now before I see Frank, as I "I replied that I thought that that not, and I said I would try to see him feel that I want to let you know at once I would ruin themselves by dealing with tition against Smyth, and also dis- Sullivan." anyone while it was so close, and I told cussed the question of sawing-off "On Sept. 29, I wrote Hon, J. R. Stratton's office by Frank Sullivan, and discussed the arrangement with him.

Stratton Indicates Line. "No money was mentioned, but the word 'consideration' was mentioned. Stratton told me personally I would have the patronage of the riding entirely in my own hands, and that I could suggest anything that might be of use to conciliate my friends in the riding. The Licerse Board was discussed, and I said we must have a commissioners, and several other changes were spoken of in the riding. which he agreed to. He showed me the letter I would have to sign, addressed to the Premier, agreeing to support the government, and agreeing consideration was to have been paid before he would part with the letter. Lawyer Is Cautions. "The lawyer said he knew nothing of Conservative Association and asked his forenoon. We went up to his office advice. I consulted him because he was about 10 o'clock on Wednesday, Sept. the only executive officer in Gore Bay, 10, and he was not ready, or not Whether to tell what had been there, and we waited about the buildthen done or not; but we ing. I waited part of the time in the came to the conclusion that I smoking-room. About 12 or 12.36 should go on and get some evidence o'clock Stratton was ready, and Frank that we could prove and see how far Sullivan and I went into his office to-

Cabinet Agent Ready.

"Stratton said everything was ready, and we left the letter with him, and the Session on the Flore on the Flore on the Flore of the took the parcel from Stratton's office, I spoke to the Sheriff, and he wanted and gave it to Mr. Chase, who carried it, and he went to Toronto and saw saw the present acting manager and talked it to the smoking-room and laid the Premier. Jackson told me, when over our arrangement, and I explained the same large envelope parcel on the he returned, that he was askwhole matter as arranged between us, and table. He walked out again without ed if his appointment would be Sullivan and I went out, when Sullivan it was entirely satisfactory and steps will speaking. Frank went over and pick- satisfactory to Gamey, and if he said I could get another cash payment be taken to carry out the deal fally, and I ed up the parcel, and we walked down (Jackson) thought Gamey would give if I signed it, so I told him to make am now prepared to say that you will re- to the washroom, and Frank took the them any trouble when he came down. the acrangements. I went into the Pub-

More Money in Sight. "Frank handed me $1500 of this I Hon. Provincial Secretary, who is ing things here for you. I wish you would will tell where that money is when . send me further pointers as we talked and necessary. Frank tore up the envelope. I will pull things in line to suit, and we I then left the building alone and went can pull together now as we can pull so to dinner. I showed the money to a as to make some money. I can tell you Conservative in the city, and will tell Now, you being an outsider and a Conser. his name when necessary. I went to vative, having agents and friends in Al. the Crossin Piano Factory in the goma and Sault Ste. Marie, you can find afternoon. I left for home on Thursout certain important information that will day night, Sept. 11. I explained all be sufficient to answer the purpose desired. this to one Conservative in the city, You can communicate it private'y to me and to J. R. McGregor, on my return and I can pop it, and to the proper place. to Gore Bay, and we decided to stick to our original arrangement to not of the three and you can be more liberal mention it until the House met, as we with the funds when they are thus easily were afraid they might fix things up get. Get all information as soon as pos- in some way before the House met, if sible and state figures, value of same and we told. About Sept. 18. I received a was coming. I saw both Sullivans, to six and Sullivan left Doherty and me

To Put Through "Other" Deal. from you as soon as possible so I can shape and he wants me to try and put thru anthings in time. Address all my letters to other deal. He will pay all expenses in Beeton marked "personal," and I will get connection with same, and will make it them. No other will see them. Yours in worth your while if it goes thru, Can and Sullivan told me that Davis posiarrange to meet you and him at the Soo, ing-off of Davis. We then discussed that $1.000 be given to us, and and we can fix things up all right. I will the Smyth deal, and I gave them to I was to write a letter to Mr. J. P. had not given me much yet but probe able to go up about the 5th or 6th o? be down shortly and see him. On October. In the meantime work on the hought a Conservative and had in an inter- August 21 I was out at my farm, 10 proposition and see what can be done. An- bought. miles from Gore Bay. That night be- swer at once, care of Walker House,

Had "Gilt Edged" Things.

"Beeton, Sept. 19, 1902. in his horse and we sat down. He see you before you left, as there were some letters, and told him Sullivan had vote of Fraser and McMillan, Socialist so that he could show the ministers not I will see after them next week. Is ton came, and be said we had better "I told him I wouldn't do so that have some gilt-edged things new, and I was the Premier's advice. Stratton

Others in the Trap.

"When speaking to oJnes, while in van, and he replied as follows.

Playing the Game Through.

Gibson first, but that Gibson had ask- made such a statement; and, further, I will forfeit $1000 if you ern get a man in anyone while it was so close, and I did. He remained the limit of about 20 minutes. When I was called him I did not believe they would do so. Davis petition and also about 20 minutes. When I was called the replied that he could soon convince government were most anxious to do. one Thomas Fletcher, as J.P., at Span-Stratton asked me why I was in Perth, me, and if I would stay over a couple And, when Davis left for Winnipeg. Ish Mills, and also about the road of days he would prove it. I decided Frank said he would never face a grants question. (We did this to get to see what they would do, and on my trial, and would give big value to have some written evidence of the patronreturn to Gore Bay I would lay the a saw-off. I told our lawyers about age deal). Stratton replied on Oct. 2.

> This Is " Confidential." Toronto, Oct. 2, 1902.

My Dear Gamey,-I have your letter of Sept. 29, relating to the appointment of Mr. Fletcher, customs collector on your island, as a justice of the peace. I have transferred your letter to the Hon, Mr. Gibson, Attorney-General, who has charge of the administration of justice, and have asked him to approve of your recommendation, and I will see him on my return to the city in a few days in regard to it. When the estimates are being prepared for the coming mession, I will ask the Minister of Public Works to speak to Mr. Boyd in the direction indicated in your let-

I do not know that it would be impossible for members to obtain railway passes just now. It has not been customary to issue passes to the members of a new parliament till the opening of the session. However, if you were to communicate with the general manager of the C. P. R., Montreal, or the general manager of the G. T. R., Montreal, they might meet your wishes in that direction. Yours, sincerely, J. R. Stratton. R. R. Gamey, Esq., M.L.A., Gore Bay, Ont. Stratton Very Solitious.

"Hon. J. R. Stratton also wrote me as follows:

Toronto, Oct. 2, 1902. Private and Confidential.

My Dear Sir,-Would you approve of the appointment of the late R. O, as the R. O. for the taking of the referendum vote on Dec. 4? I am leaving on Saturday for Halifax, and will not be back for a week, but the R. O.'s will be appointed during the coming week. Your reply will be handed by my private secretary to the Premier. I am writing you confidentially. It might be desirable to have the same R. O. Yours, sincerely, J. R. Stratton. R. R. Gamey, M.L.A., Go:e Bay,

The Proof of the Dea!.

Teronto, Oct. 10, 1902. Dear Sir,-In the absence of the out of the city for a few days. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of Oct. S, with reference to the appointment of a R. O. for taking a referendum vote. I have transferred your letter to the Hon, the Premier, I have the honor to be, Sr. yours, very truly. For Minister's Secretary.

R. R. Gamey, Esq., M.L.A., Gore Bay, Ont.

Talked of State Secrets. wanted to head them off. We had fre- the interview as it was alteredquently discussed this in September. you run over and see that party, and if tively would never face a trial; but he is willing to do the right thing I wil nothing could be done about the saw- a Globe reporter to hold, on condition brother Wilfred was there. He went evidence. About September 21 I received Bay, and spoke to him about the ruof the private office into the secretary's to the door and said a gentleman sicther letter from D. A. Jones about the mors that were going around, and told department and met Mr. Myers, who office, and spoke to him about the was the same one who was at Sud-"My Dear Gamey,-I was corry I did not rumors, and showed him Sullivan's bury with Hon. E. J. Davis in Janupoints in regard to our mining matters that been talking. He asked me to wait he had met me there and heard me pers, and do not at once, write me, as I mier. Myers took me to a room, and there any mining news around there? I do nothing about them. He said that think you can make a nice pot out of it. also spoke of a letter the exact dupli-You see that party that we was trying to cate of the other I had signed, which

Premier Advises Conspirators.

Schemers Worked Carefully.

"Stratton gave me the letter, typewritten, in which I agreed that I would support the government, and that I his secretary. Mr. Myers, answered "I then went out to College-street and and, on his return, the letter would be van coming as far as Yonge-street Make it about two Liberals if possible, but His eyes turned outward and his

Kept Clese to Their Man.

twice; saw Cap. Sullivan and Frank, affair there. I left for home next but did not see Stratton. After I re- morning and McGregor remained in the turned to Toronto, after helping my city. friends in the Pe.th by-election, "Dear Bob,-I am just in receipt of yours I saw the Sullivans, and they said Stratton wanted to see me -he was getting afraid of me since I had gone up to Perth. I made an ap-Ottawa that heard me say such a thing. I pointment to see him on Tuesday mornwas interviewed by a reporter there, and ing, 9.30, January 13th. When I arin the outer office. Vance was waiting there. Myers was there and another did nothing of the kind I am accused of. | clerk, name unknown to me, and the When I see Frank I will have him write lady stenographer. They all saw me. I you more fully. Yours truly (Signed) J. chatted with Vance until Stratton was ready, and Vance asked me to let him and I told him I had no agreement with him before the voting in the House, and why I had altered the letter.

Deal Gave Them Pleasure. "I gave him an evasive answer, and we discussed matters generally; and he was delighted with the results of the three Norths, saying Whitney would never have as good a chance again of writing 'Hon.' before his name as he had last summer, when the coalition friends, and that was the hardest task was discussed. He gave me the particulars of the coalition deal, also Mani- sides. About Feb. 7. I wrote Hon. toulin affairs. I reported about Little Stratton that I had to meet my ex-Current lock-up, and he called in Dr. ecutive on Feb. 16, and likely they Chamberlain and I was introduced to would ask me to resign. I received him and discussed the lock-up with a letter from Toronto, dated Feb. 11, "I also discussed other appointments, signed 'X. Y. Z."

I left the city that night after telling the Sullivans how I got on with Stratton and agreed to come down again shortly. On my return to Gore Bay Mr. McGregor decided to go down with me the next time, and we arranged to go about the 27th. I went over to the Shore and up to the Soo and met McGregor at Sudbury on the 27th, and we arrived in Toronto on the morning of the 28th, both of us stopping at the Walker House. I saw both of the Sullivans that day, and Frank told me that he had wired me on the 27th to come down. I got that telegram on my return. It is as follows: " 'Toronto, Jan. 27, 1903. "'Robert Gamey, Gore Bay, Ont .: Important that you be here on Thursday or Friday. Answer. (Signed) Frank.'

Plotters Get Uneasy. "Sullivan told me that Stratton want- 20, p.m., as follows: ed to see me, and that he would ar-

the buildings with me and saw me go into Stratton's office. At first Stratton was out, then McGregor and I went into the surveys department together and into the land sales department, and finally he went back with me and saw me again go into Stratton's door with Frank Sullivan.

"We went in at the door marked 'Private.' After waiting a few minutes Mr. Stratton came in and at once began to discuss matters. He wanted the license board names at once, and wanted me to sign at once an interview he had typewritten for The Globe. I told him it would never do to sign that, as it "We decided to have the Sheriff ap- would ruin me and the government, but terations and then sign it if he liked. More Bribes Offered.

"It was agreed that I should be back about a quarter to six that evening. The House passed an interim appropriation of $400,000 and appropri short time.

"I then met McGregor and we went over the interview. I took my pencil and altered many words to make it read 'an independent support,' as we both decided the country would not stand met. I added some more to the inter- names of the License Board. In the thorough investigation. view, and after getting it so that it meantime I heard of negotiations on The life has all gone out of the might pass muster I took it back. "I was to call for F. Sullivan at the ing my resignation. office where one Doberty is clerk, in "I left Gore Bay for Toronto about the Public Works Department, up-Oct. 2. I had wired Frank Sullivan I stairs. I called there about a quarter and they discussed the Davis petition, a few minutes to talk, while he went to which I was to help to saw-off. There see if Stratton was ready. After some ever dream of you or me in the matter. It "Toronto, Sept. 16th, 1902.—Dear Bob: saw this off, and Frank said they were 6.30 p.m., or later, Sullivan and I went is a snap worth trying for. Let me hear I had a talk with our man this morning, getting big value to do so, and he into Stratton's office, and I showed him Gave Interview to Globe Man. that I would be independent during face public opinion when I came to the this session. I then agreed to furnish "I went to Toronto again about Oct. return home and also a lock-up keeper the names of a license board on my him I was going to see Stratton in the introduced me to a Globe reporter, city. I saw Stratton that week in his whose name I have forgotten, but it speak on the mining policy.

"I then sat down at a table with him and he read over the interview and I gave it to him. It was the same interview that Hon. Mr. Stratton handed to me typewritten, with alterations I made with my pen and the additionals "On March 6, I received letters from I wrote in. If The Globe will produce Frank Sullivan, in reply to mine of the interview it will show for itself, Feb. 24, asking about my seat, porter in Stratton's outer office about 7 p.m. on the evening of January 23 in the presence of Mr. Myers. One Thousand Dollars Paid. sent up to see Smyth, and Frank Sul- same, only the ordinary privileges of and I walked into the antechamber belivan also spoke of some one being a government supporter. After this, tween the two offices together, where to put Smyth on his guard, but I did and we decided at Gore Bay to make stairs and out of the west entrance tonot know whom he phoned to and do not some alterations in the letter, to see gether. Just outside the door Sullivan laid before him, but we got no further with me. I wrote the letter to J. P. suit yourself. Everything all O.K. Whitney that evening and had supper and went to the Princess Opera House "I was in To-onto in December with McGregor and we discussed the List of Road Grants. On my return home, Jan. 21, I wrote to the Hon. Latchford and gave him a list of our road grants wanted and received the following letter in reply:

Toronto, Feb. 7, 1903. My Dear Sir .- I have your letter of the 31st ult., enclosing list of road grants for the Man toutin riding. It is a pretty large order, and I fear it will not be possible to grant all. I wish you would r. vise the list, and try to eliminate a few of the items. Possibly the smaller grants could be arranged for out of Roads and Repairs. Kindly give me brief particulars as to each of the larger grants, and I will endeavor to arrange for them in the estimates. Sincerely yours, F. R. Latchford. R. R. Gamey, Esq., M.L.A., Gore our general appropriation on Short

Bay, Ont. Hard Part of Contract. "I then did my best to pacify my of my life, taking abuse from all registered at Yorkville on Feb. 11, p.m.,

Toronto, Feb. 1, 1903. Dear Bob,-I understand they are holding a meeting at Gore Bay on Monday, Feb. 16, at which you will be asked to state your position. Enclosed you will find a typewritten letter. Read it over, and you will understand how to act. Don't let them scare you. Mc-Gregor and Riley, the ex-druggist, were talking the night before last at the Walker House, and they decided they would have you promise to resign, if the convention decided so. By all means stick to what you have done, and everything will turn out O. K. Yours, . X.Y.Z.

Rough Work For Weak Ones.

"On Feb. 16, I wrote Frank Sullivan

about the executive meeting, and asking him how Stratton felt. I received a reply, registered at Yorkville, Feb. Toronto, Feb. 20, 1903. Dear R. R.,-Called on the man you ed this to McGregor, and he went to made a big kick about the patronage, but a manner that the three men could you have it all, and don't by any means nothing, they said we should not make all ed him also, but don't let that scare you They have got to do what is right with it up when you come down, as I had the Fishery Commissioner notified that you control things. Don't commit yourself to any of those fishermen until you look things ! over here. Get your letter here as 200 721

Discouraged by Public Clamor.

fore the House meets. lours, possible as he wants to appoint the men be meeting. I wanted to be allowed hesitated a moment, then with a to give particulars to the committee quick, impulsive movement grasped to our original intention of giving it to this House first. I have worried hesitation in which the people wonalong the best I could, in the face of dered whether he will entrust them all kinds of insults and jeers. for one minute for it as it was written his of the 20th, asking for some parletter to Frank Sullivan, in reply to lid is slammed, the key turned. then. We discussed the question then ticulars about my seat in the House of refusing to sign the interviews and asking for the one Beatty had, and making everything public at once, but asking for the one Beatty had, and Premier rises and says that his col-

Soin their Friends.

"They were not satisfied with selling their friends to me-a more desploable action never was committed-but they sent up an agent to interview J. C. McMillan, who was the Socialist candidate last May. The first agent did not get much encouragement, and then two more agents followed, of higher repute. I have all their names. They told McMillan as much as they dared I then agreed to give this, signed, to of their deal with me, and I fancy a good deal more than they would like him to repeat. They told him they mises, but they were sure I could not

House, and they were very anxious for a promise from him to be their candidate when I resigned. "He wanted to know how they would Millan, and, later, another envoy was urated with various essences, Program Quite Clear.

14 Lyndon-street, Toronto, "Dear Bob .- Your letter to hand this the city, he spoke of some one being was getting no consideration for the office and said he was ready and he little Current want, not who the bunch at lavender, and cloves are also slow, sent up for the same purpose, and he they were to give me back the one I I saw Stratton just before going out etc. I have been to see Stratton every day, pagne," asafetida, bisulphuride of was anxious to prevent anyone else signed in the lawyer's office. Frank and he told me he had handed Sulli- until he has shown me all the letters from carbon, mustard, and nicotine act dealing with Smyth but himself, and Sullivan was with me when the letter van one thousand in fifties, twenties the island in favor of Spencer, but he says quickly and energetically. In some you have the say and nothing will be done quickly and energetically. In some until you say so. Still, I will see him cases the effect was instantaneous. to a person in the city to wire some one for a day. I took it home with me, of each. Sullivan and I walked downknow whether Smyth was telegraphed if we could get a letter from them took the envelope out of his pocket and for that matter, and a little delay now close his eyes, and rub his nose with Go ahead and see what they will do. or not. Possibly some one in the city about the same. So I altered the let- counted the money. It contained one will only make the Nobles more anxious his paws. His breathing and heart I left the Cap. at Sudbury and the can recollect the 'phone message, as I ter, and made it read different to what thousand dollars. He handed it to me to do the right thing. Of course, they are anxious now, and will be more so in a week

Nearing the Climax.

"Then I came to Toronto, and, on Monday, Feb. 9, went up to the parliament Buildings, and saw Frank Sul-Mr. Glackmeyer's office in the after- with you." noon. We discussed matters generally. I arranged for Sullivan to meet me on the evening of Tuesday, March 10, Softleigh-"Are you quite sure in the office of the Crossin Piano Man- Miss Banks is not in ?" The maidufacturing Co., 102 West Adelai e "Of course I am. She gave me one street, at 7.30 o'clock p.m. I went of your photographs in order to and saw three young men, shorthand make me doubly sure." writers, who are in the city from Gore Bay, that I could trust, and arranged with them to come to the same place before 7 o'clock p.m.

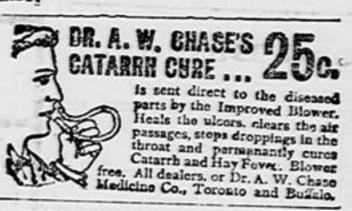

have anything to do with them, at least not lie behind them and hear anyone talks at present. When they saw they could de ing distinctly in the office. I then Well, you know how much they asked it the street about S o'clock p.m., and we met Frank Sullivan at the door of when they had all the say. A fellow nam went up to the office and lit a light ed Spencer of Little Current has applied and discussed the whole affair. A for the position of License Inspector, one number of questions were asked by Symes has written, saying he is all O.K me, and the questions and answers The Liberals of Little Current have endors were distinctly overheard. I asked him questions about Stratton, about the you. I suppose that fellow Lewis will be whole cabinet, about the by-election your man. I said you had mentioned him | work in the three Norths, and we have and that he was a good man. I also added the answers taken down by these three that anyone you named would be all right men. I asked him all about the About the fishing business, as the Houst money, who handled it from Stratton is going to meet on March 10, we can fix to us, and about everything connected with the transaction."

Mr. Gamey's Conclusion.

When he had concluded, Mr. Gamey walked across the front row of the Opposition seats and handed his statement, documents and wad of bills to the leader of the Opposi-"I was so discouraged with the pub- tion. Mr. Whitney asked what he lic clamor against me that, when Mc was to do with them. Mr. Gamey Gregor returned and I saw him the replied in effect, "Anything you day before the Conservative executive like, but keep them safe." The leader the exhibits. Another moment of to Mr. Speaker or the clerk. But "On Tuesday, Feb. 24, I registered a they go into the leader's desk; the

There is a short, vigorous speech from Mr. Whitney, and then the we decided to still stick to our original asking to be sworn in earlier than the plan of not most be truth of the plan of not most be truthed to the plan of not most be truthed the plan of not most be truthed to plan of not speaking until the House I came down before I would give the charges, but that there must be a

> the part of the government, anticipat- debate on the address, and the dehate is adjourned, and the House

POISONING BY PERFUMES.

Power to Intoxicate and Benumb Has Eeen Proved.

Though it is popularly believed that strong perfumes have power satisfy me, and they told him they to intoxicate and benumb, and would fulfil enough of their promises though workers in perfume laborato satisfy me. They were asked how tories are occasionally so much afthey would again satisfy their own fected as to need medical aid, little men on the Island, and they said that attention has been paid by physiolo-Symes had been down, and they had gists to the effect of odors. But satisfied him, but Dr. McIntesh was now a German physician has made a still unsatisfied, and they hardly knew how to approach him. The Frasers of experiments which fully were not taken into consideration, as confirm the popular belief. The exthey considered their influence nothing periments were made not on human after their vote last boring. They beings but on frogs which were put got little encouragement from Mc under glass bells with sponges sat-

The effects are similar to those of chloroform. There is a brief stage of excitement, followed by partial or complete paralysis. Although many odors were used they were found to differ only in rapidity of action, and the notoriously heavy and "heady" musk was found to be one of the Little Current want. I will see Stratten while aldehyde, turpentine, elder again to-day and arrange for the delay in The frog would jump about in a appointments. Re fishery business, when lively manner, but would soon stop, or two. Will see you on the Oth inst. Yours he perspired profusely. If he still "Frank." tried to spring he often fell on his "Dear Bob,-Just returned from seeing back and had hard work getting on Stratton. They will not appoint the inspec-tor until you come down. They will also his feet again. If the action of the fix up the seat question all right. Strutton fume were continued the frog's will get you Beattie's seat. You can be breathing became convulsive, his Clarke, Clerk of the house, is here. Strat- head fell forward, and his only reton thinks it would be a good idea to send sponse to an external stimulus was in the name of your license beard at once. a spasmodic attempt to breathe. heart beat more and more slowly until it stopped altogether.

Highwayman-"Your money or livan at the Public Works Office. He your life !" Poet-"Money I have went with me after dinner to Col, none; but if you will tell me some Clarke's office, and was there when I of your adventures, I will write was sworn in. He also took me into them down and divide the profits Monkey Brand Soap cleans kitchen utensils, steel, iron and tinware, "There were four finished planes in knives and forks, and all kinds of the office. Those we placed in such cutlery.

Pains in Chest The Danger Signal

That Telis of Approaching Pneumonia or Scrious Lung Trouble-Prevent Further Trouble by Using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linscod and Turpenting.

coughing or a long breath causes cine." chest, when the linings of the throat says: "My little girl, of three and bronchial tubes feel raw and years, had an attack of bronchial sore, when you feel that the cold Pneumonia. My husband and I which you expected to wear away is thought she was going to leave the getting the better of you, turn to world as her case resisted the doc-Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and tors' treatment. I bought a bottle Turpentine, and you will get of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and prompt relief and cure.

Hope, Ont., writes: "Being exposto get better, and we are thankful to say is all right to-day after sevquently catch cold. Last winter I en weeks' sickness." was so bad with a cold I could not speak above a whisper, and had ting proper treatment.

When it hurts to cough, when ous if I had not used this medipain, or a feeling of soreness in the Mrs. F. Duyer, of Chesterville, Turpentine from our popular drug-Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port two or three doses the child began

As a prompt cure for croup, brongreat pains in the chest. At last I chitis, whooping cough, asthma, and feared it would develop into con- all throat and lung affections, Dr. sumption if I did not succeed in get- Chase's Syrup of Linssed and Turpentine is wonderfully effective. It is not a mere cough mixture, but a "A friend advised me to try Dr. thorough and far-reaching medicine, Chase's Syrup of Linseed and 'Tur- which acts on the whole system, and pentine, and I began to improve be- drives out disease; 25 cents a botrange for time of interview on Thurs-day. He did so and 'phoned me to come the names of the License Inspector and bottle cured my cold, which, I be-the names of the License Inspector and bottle cured my cold, which, I be-the names of the License Inspector and bottle cured my cold, which, I be-the names of the License Inspector and bottle cured my cold, which, I beto Stratton's office at 2.15 p.m. I show- loard at once. While Symes was down, he lieve, would have proven very seri- Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.