WEDDING BELLS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Deyell, Otonabee, was the scene of a very interesting event on Thursday, March 12th, when their daughter, Miss Edith Mary, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. William Henry Trotter, of Lauder, Manitoba, son of Mrs. Sergt.-Major Martin of Lindsay. At four o'clock the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father amid the strains of the wedding march which was rendered by Miss Mary Deyell cousin of the bride. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Jennie, while the groom was assisted by Mr. Henry Deyell, cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Ashburnham, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The bride looked charmingly attired in white organdie trimmed with chiffon and carried a handsome bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was attired in white organdie and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. After congratulations and good wishes the happy couple entered the dining room and partook of a sumptuous repast. The wedding presents were numerous and costly showing the esteem in which the young couple are held. Amid showers of rice and good wishes the happy couple left on the evening train to visit friends in Lindsay before returning to their future home in Lauder, Manitoba.

The program rendered at the Hockey Club Concert was highly appreciated by those who were fortunate enough to attend. Miss M. Rowan's instrumental selection was really good, and showed her ability as a pianist. Mr. Gordon Wright, one of Omeme's fine tenors, sang "The Boys in Blue" and "Stars May Forget," in his usual fine style. Mr. Jos. Halpany's recitation, "The Dying Captain"—An Incident of the Battle of San Juan,—and his songs, "When the Lady Leads the Band" and "Nancy Brown," delighted the audience. Mr. Halpany is a whole concert in himself, and he is always sure of an appreciative audience in Omeme. Miss Maye Clancy, one of our leading Sopranists, sang two songs in which she captivated those present. We have heretofore spoken of Miss Maye's abilities as a singer, therefore further comment is unnecessary. Mr. Jos. Guerin in his comic songs and dances, "brought down the house." Mr. R. J. Cornwall sang two comic songs very acceptably. Mr. C. A. Caldwell and Miss Stella Sandy in their instrumental duet, were deservedly encored and applauded. Mr. G. A. Norris and Miss Mabel Rowan filled the offices of accompanists in a pleasing manner. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a delightful entertainment. Messrs. Percy Parsons and M. J. Clancy deserve credit for getting up such an excellent program.

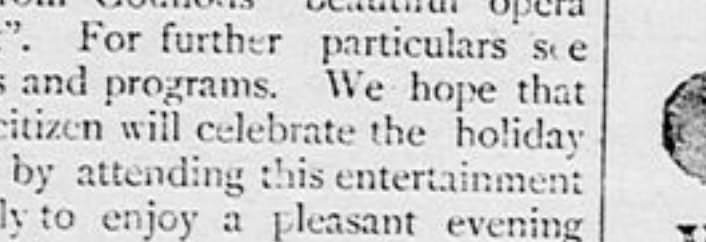

A grand concert will be given in Bradburns Opera House, on Monday, April 13, under the auspices of the Omeme Public Library, and promises even to surpass that given a year ago in variety, beauty of costumes which artistic effect. Widespread interest has been created in this entertainment by the fact that the well known play the "Spinner's Convention" will be given by eighteen of our young ladies. The sketch of the work at this convention of these "old" maids in their fearful and wonderful costumes and their rejuvenation by Prof. Presto and his assistant, is certainly the most laughable thing ever attempted here in Omeme. Another promising feature on the program is the grand chorus of 25 voices in selections from Gounod's beautiful opera "Faust." For further particulars see posters and programs. We hope that every citizen will celebrate the holiday season by attending this entertainment not only to enjoy a pleasant evening but also to encourage such a worthy and deserving institution as the Public Library.

RIPANS

I have been taking Ripans Tabules for the dyspepsia, and they have helped me wonderfully. I do not know any particular way they effect me, but they seem to give vigor to the entire system. I had a sort of languid feeling, but since taking the Tabules I feel spirited and have not that melancholy way about me. I think they are good for a general build-up of the system, as they seem to act like a tonic.
