"THE Happiest LAND."

Cantata Repeated with Success

The repetition of the Cantata, "The Happiest Land," given in the Methodist Church, Millbrook, on Friday evening, was a decided success. The program given New Year's night was repeated with one or two exceptions. A chorus was omitted and a ribbon drill substituted, which was very pretty. The characters represented were taken by the same ladies and gentlemen with the exceptions of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gillott, Master Wilfred Gillott and Miss Eva Gillott, who were unable to attend on account of the death of a loving father. Their places were filled by Mr. Walter Hetherington, Miss A. Hampton, Miss Wyard and Master Hetherington. Only 2 rehearsals were held since the Cantata was put on before, but each one took his or her part exceedingly well.

The solo by the Misses Ethel Richardson, Mina Bateson, Mabel Strain, and the duet by the Misses ... Thexton and Mary M. Richards, added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. The orchestral selections also had a good effect. There was a large turnout making a total of over $100 from the two renditions. This is splendid when it is considered that the admission was only 15c and 25c. Mr. R. W. Clarke, the able Superintendent of the S. S., worked hard to make a success of the entertainments, and he and the Sunday School are to be congratulated.

Before the program commenced, Mr. Clarke referred touchingly to the great loss the church had sustained by the death of Mr. John Gillott, and he together with the community at large, tendered their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. He regretted very much that on account of this death it was evident that some of those who were present were thus unavoidably absent.

& McCullough and are they

Mr. Jas. Tucker and family have moved from Tupper St. to King St., to the house formerly occupied by the late W. Richaridson.

Millbrook and Cavan Councils meet next Monday.

object Pevity in Bay Street.

One of the saddest cases of destitution ever reported by the City of Officer was brought to the

Judge of The Star this morning, a cellar about 20 feet square, a mother and her eight children. The only furniture for their accommodation was an old stove, in which there smouldered a little wood, to heat the desolate apartment. For this hotel the land lord has been taking $8 a month in rent and much du-bly his been experienced in the struggling woman to keep them from the door. The only support for some time was the wages of the oldest boy, who was a cork cutter, but misfortune has been his lot of late, and he has not been able to contribute his usual assistance.

There is a father living, however, but he has taken greater delight in making trips between Canada and England on cattle boats, and has contributed nothing towards his home.

They were at one time 14 children in the family, but the white plague consumption has laid its hand upon the circle upon six different occasions, until now only eight children remain, two of which are now victims of the same malaria.

The City Relief Officer has succeeded in procuring suitable quarters for the destitute family in Bulwer street, and will see that life is made much more pleasant for them in the future.

Mr. Ayers, Notary of the annual mea-

ranged as near as possible to suit a representative from each club giving notice of entering the League.

Last year there was some delay, the League not being a real club, and those that did form their league were not in full regard. It would be well for the clubs thinking of entering a team to drop a card to the president, Dr. Morgan, or to M. J. Hutchison, care of the Examiner, who is secretary in the absence of Mr. Ayers. Notice of the annual mea-

notice of entering the League.

Mr. Percy Pearson, son of the well known horse buyer, Mr. W.

Pearson, of Montreal, was here in his father's interests, on Wednnesday. He purchased four heavy draught horses at Mr. Green's sale, east of Baileya, for which he paid a handsome sum. Percy is a "chip off the old block," and is a splendid judge of horse flesh.

He is a genial young man and makes lots of friends wherever he goes. He visits Millbrook often, and those who have horses to sell, should consult him. He ships four car loads from Peterboro each month.
