er and Mary a spirituelle, somewhat dreamy, but affectionate and as good a girl as could be found in all Palestine. But one day Lazurus got sick.

From the characteristics otherwise developed, I judge that Martha prepared the medicines and made tempting dishes of food for the poor appetite of the sufferer, but Mary praybeen drawn and the two sisters were being led by sympathizers into the away in the country districts, preaching, healing other sick, how uncrisis in Bethany. When at last Jesus arrived in Bethany, Lazarus had been buried for days and dissolution had taken place. In that cliimmediately after decease, the body lation or powerful stimulant vitality had been renewed. No! Four tomb one December day, and it is deep down and dark, and with torchquiet that afternoon of our will but the day spoken of in the Bible

Many are bound hand and foot by religious creeds. Let no man misinterpret me as antagonizing creeds. I have eight or ten of them-a creed about religion, a creed about art, a creed about social life, a creed about Presbyterian Church is now agitated about its creed. Some good men in it are for keeping it because it was framed from the belief of John Calvin. Other good men in it want revision. I am with neither party. Instead of revision I want substitution. I was sorry to have the ques- o tion disturbed at all. The creed did c not hinder us from offering the par- | S don and the comfort of the gospel to fi all men, and the Westminster Confession has not interfered with me one y misute.
