TOUGH GLASS.—One of the so-called "lost arts" appears to have been rediscovered, partially, at least by Louis Kauffeld, of Matthews, Indiana. It is a process of making glass of extraordinary toughness, so that it will withstand rough usage and violent changes in temperature without breaking. The composition of the new glass is the secret of the inventor. The product is said to be quite as transparent as ordinary glass, and perhaps even a little clearer. Tests that prove the surprising toughness of this glass are: Boiling water in a lamp chimney made of it, and using such a chimney to drive nails. If the chimney is first cooled in ice water and then suddenly held in flame it does not crack.

A grand concert will be given in Bradburn's Opera House, on Monday, April 13, under the auspices of the Omeme Public Library, and promises even to surpass that given a year ago in variety, beauty of costumes which artistic effect. Widespread interest has been created in this entertainment by the fact that the well known play the "Spinster's Convention" will be given by sixteen of our young ladies. The sketch of the work at this convention of these "old" maids in their fearful and wonderful costumes and their rejuvenation by Prof. Presto and his assistant, is certainly the most laughable thing ever attempted here in Omeme. Another promising feature on the program is the grand chorus of 25 voices in selections from Gounod's beautiful opera "Faust". For further particulars see posters and programs. We hope that every citizen will celebrate the holiday season by attending this entertainment not only to enjoy a pleasant evening but also to encourage such a worthy and deserving institution as the Public Library.

Death of Mr. T. H. E. Jones.

It becomes our melancholy duty this week to record the death of Mr. T. H. E. Jones of the Township of Cavan, which sad event took place at his father's residence, on Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. It would be hard to describe the feeling of profound sorrow which thrilled the community when they learned that the end had at last come. He had been ill so long and had passed through such painful operations, all of which he had borne with such manly fortitude, that he had won the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. Jones was a young man of the most amiable disposition and of unblemished character consequently beloved and respected by all who knew him. He was a most consistent Orangeman, ever faithful to its high principles and ever ready to make any sacrifice to promote and extend its usefulness. The high esteem in which he was held by his brethren was shown by the great numbers of them who, in spite of the bad roads, turned out to attend his funeral. These were not only the members of his own lodge, who turned out nearly to a man, but also representatives from lodges from all the surrounding country.

His funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, and was one of the largest ever seen in this part of the country. There were over one hundred carriages in the procession; and this shows the high respect in which he was held by all who knew him. His funeral was conducted by Lebanon Lodge, No. 646, of which he was a member; and the deep solemnity with which they paid their last respects to their deceased brother, spoke louder than words, how great was their affection for him. The Orange service was conducted by Bro. Thos. Newman, W. M. 646, assisted by County Master, Bro. W. R. Cottingham, and District Master, Bro. W. D. Stinson. The services of the Church, was under the charge of Rev. Geo. Brown, who spoke in eulogistic terms of the deceased. He lies asleep in the Emily Cemetery, there to await the great awakening. The deceased was the son of Mr. Jas. Jones, whose homestead is Lot 6, Con. 14, Cavan, a man well known and respected throughout both of the Townships of Emily and Cavan. It is needless to say that Mr. Jones and his family have the profound sympathy of the entire community in their irreparable loss.

The floral tributes were many, and especially worthy of mention was a wreath presented by the bereaved family. Another was presented by his uncles, which was a marvel of beauty, and still another beautiful one by the Brethren of L. O. L. 646. His Pastor, Rev. Mr. Brown, presented a very pretty bouquet, all pure white.

RIPANS

I have been taking Ripans Tabules for the dyspepsia, and they have helped me wonderfully. I do not know any particular way they effect me, but they seem to give vigor to the entire system. I had a sort of languid feeling, but since taking the Tabules I feel spirited and have not that melancholy way about me. I think they are good for a general build-up of the system, as they seem to act like a tonic.
