At 7:30, the body of the church was thronged, including people from all the other denominations, everyone admiring the decorations of flowers and plants which were shown in the church, and the appearance could not be improved on much. At this social meeting and reception were present, and gave short addresses, Revs McWilliams, Torrence Thompson, Hill, Garbutt, McCann, John Ewing and T H Feir, Student Queen's College, who gave the Introductory Address of Welcome on behalf of the people, in a most masterly manner.
