A rich gold find is reported from the vicinity of Rat Portage. Division Court Sittings will be held here May 17th 1898. House cleaning is now in full blast. Postpone your calls. Mr. Wm. Pettick, of Millbrook, paid Omeme a visit this week. Mr. Barton Blackwell, the popular teacher at Mt. Horeb, wheeled home Sunday. Miss Maya Weir, teacher in Lindsay public school, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. A. Orr. Mr. Wm. Graham drove to Millbrook Sunday and spent the day with his father. Mr. Geo. Thorne, of Millbrook, is visiting at the home of his brother, Mr. Wm. J. Thorne, Ops. It is rumored at Kingston that Mr. George H. Bertram, M.P., will purchase the locomotive works there. E. Gregory, Lindsay, carries a full line of photographic supplies. Send for catalogue. Mrs. (Dr.) Yelland and son, and Mrs. Blackwell, of Peterboro, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brdburn. The steam laundry at Stoney Mountain Penitentiary was totally destroyed by fire. The penitentiary building was saved with much difficulty. A daring attempt on the life of Judge Houston, Chatham, was made by John Twohey, whom he had once sentenced to fraud. About a score of Lindsay and Peterboro bicyclists visited Omeme Sunday. The Omeme Bicycle Livery had all its wheels out Sunday and could have rented as many more. The entire town of Northport, British Columbia, was wiped out by fire, but the Le Roi smelter was unharmed. Joseph Bailew, a farmer, was killed in a runaway accident near Walkerton Saturday. John Eaton, a Kingston pensioner, was found dead in a horse stall Monday. Frederick Leduc, deckhand on the steamer Persia, was drowned off Kingston, Saturday. Mr. John Eakins, of Millbrook, was in this neighborhood last week buying cattle, for which he pays the highest market price. Germany threatens to retaliate because of Great Britain's denouncement at Canada's request, of the Anglo-German treaty. We notice that the family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal has made preparations on a grand scale for reporting all phases of the war between the States and Spain. Those who are lucky enough to be subscribers to the Family Herald and Weekly Star must surely feel they are getting their dollar's worth many times over. Last week Capt. W. J. Neill received his 1st Class A. Certificate from Ottawa, making 94 per cent. on some exercises. He also holds 2nd Class B and A Certificates. He attended London Military School, which is considered by military men to have the highest standard of any school in the Dominion. Capt. Neill is to be congratulated on his success. What might have proved to be a very serious accident occurred on Sunday. Mr. R. Nugent and his nephew were driving from Lindsay to attend the funeral of the late Samuel Roddy, and when they had nearly reached the foot of Shaw's Hill, the horses became unmanageable, colliding with Mr. Robert Bannan's buggy, upsetting the Nugents, throwing Robert Nugent into the ditch. Fortunately they escaped with a few bruises. Rev. Dwight L. Moody, the well-known evangelist, was a business man before he started to save souls. Speaking of many unsuccessful religious gatherings he said: One thing which is wrong is the way many meetings are planned. Advise them. Let folks know what is going to be done. I believe if business men would conduct their affairs, or newspapers were run as our churches are conducted, they would all be bankrupt in six months. I don't believe any man need preach to empty pews if he would only use a little common sense. Advise. Put a notice in the paper. Stick to a sign.

Galt contemplates purchasing its waterworks plant. Miss Ida Nugent and Miss Ingram were visitors to Lindsay last week. Mr. Geo. W. Mulligan, of Peterboro, was in town yesterday on business. The Omeme Marble Works have a large amount of work to do the ensuing season. There are five citizens here who have reached the advanced ages from 85 to 100 years. OBITUARY.

Mr. Samuel Roddy. It is our duty this week to chronicle the death of Mr. Samuel Roddy, one of the most highly respected residents of Ops, which sad event took place on Friday, April 23rd. Deceased was born in the Township of Cavan, where he lived till he was past 30 years of age, when he moved to Emily, where he remained one year, and then to Ops, where he resided until the time of his death. Mr. Roddy was a member of the English Church, and an industrious citizen, and made for himself and family a most comfortable home. The funeral on Sunday last was very large, there being nearly one hundred vehicles present. Rev. Mr. Burgess, Bethany, conducted the solemn and impressive funeral services. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends. Mr. John Tully. Another old and highly respected citizen has departed from this life, having reached the advanced age of 76 years. The late John Tully had been a citizen for the last 35 or 40 years, and the news of his death on Monday cast a gloom over the village. The deceased had previously lived in Peterborough County, where a number of his relations reside. Deceased was a quiet, but industrious citizen, and possessed a great desire for knowledge, being a reader of the best books and papers. He was a Conservative in politics and belonged to the Presbyterian Church. He leaves a widow, three daughters, Mrs. Junkin, Mrs. Bick and Mrs. John Boate, and three sons, Messrs. Edward, William C. and James Tully, to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father, who always encouraged industry, perseverance and other good habits. The funeral yesterday was attended by a large number of friends. The solemn and impressive services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. J. U. Tanner. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends. Don't fail to ask us for lowest prices in Field, Garden and Flower Seeds. Ormond & Walsh, Druggists and Seedmen, Peterboro.—94f

Mount Pleasant.

Special to the Mirror. The sermon on Baptism, delivered by the Rev. J. U. Tanner on last Sabbath, at Mt. Pleasant, showed that he had prepared the subject so as to make it plain and interesting to his congregation. From the texts of Scripture read and explained, he thought the proper mode of baptizing was by sprinkling. Some of our great scholars has taken a different view of this subject, and believe immersion to be the proper mode, so that a great many of previous time has been spent that might have been better used. The Saviour when on earth did not baptize any person. The apostle Paul says he only baptized to persons, Crispus and Gaius, had the apostle thought it of as much importance as some of our great men of to-day, he would have baptized more than two persons. If they would read and study the 5th and 6th verses of chapter 3, and the 14th and 15th verses of chapter 6, they would come to the same conclusion that the apostle said. Why did Jesus say on the cross "It is finished" and to the thief he said, "To-day thou shalt be with me in Paradise," how could he be admitted there not having been baptized. Call on H. J. McLean, and order your clothing. He can give marriage licenses to those who may require them. A Key west special to the world says: The Wilmington brew the Spanish fort to pieces this morning, four miles east of Kogina in less than two minutes. Base Ball & Foot Ball Matches, Bicycle Races, Horse Races, Etc., Etc., at Millbrook, on 24th May next. Watch for Bills.

The War Cloud Bursted

Victory has Perched on the Banner of GOUGH, the Wonderful Cheap Man's Latest and Greatest Effort. He Bought Big to Sell Bigger, and the Slashing Sale of the GREAT ARMY and NAVY STOCK BOUGHT AT 53c. ON THE DOLLAR.

IS DRIVING HOME THE TRUTH OUR CLAIM to sell better goods than any other dealer, to sell at a much lower price than any other dealer, is not bounce, bluster or brag. It is the cold, clear cut facts that has brought to our counters thousands of customers and any amount of money. Gough knows not what competition means. He gets above that. There is no use for high priced or small-stocked dealers to try and compete. It doesn't take much figuring to prove this. It is not our aim to appear egotistical or abnormally smart, but if you reason the explanation is easy. The sacrifice of the Army and Navy Goods to Gough is 14 5/8% on the Dollar tells the whole story, for no man in his sober senses will deny that a Stock bought at 53c. on the Dollar cannot be sold else, or that the first cost of manufacture. Therefore, when we say at this Great Sale we are Selling Goods Cheap, in many instances than even the largest Wholesale Firms, we can prove it. This is our platform, and the planks are thick and strongly dovetailed together to stand the racket of trade, without a defective spot in the timber, and while we have this great Army and Navy at our back we don't care where the competition comes from, whether the man or woman who run against us comes from Boston, Philadelphia or Timbuctoo. We are alive—we will fear no foe, but will stand to our guns and be in the ring, dollar for dollar.

This is a Great Sale—a record-breaking Sale—and it is worthy of note before the Army and Navy Company assigned they had made all this season's Spring Importations in Hats as well as Clothing. So whether it is an Up-to-date Hat or Suit you want patrons of this Great Sale are sure to be satisfied, as there is no limit to Style, Price and Quality. No, not even in our Men's Full Suit for $2.90 or our Fine Fur Fedora Hat for $1.00!

B. J. GOUGH, LINDSAY'S LEADING CLOTHIER, Kent Street, Lindsay. Buyer of the ARMY and NAVY WAREHOUSE STOCK.
