

THE PALM OF VICTORY TO THIS VETERAN PHYSICIAN

Whose Famous Recipe Book and Great Family Remedies have made him Loved and Admired to the Uttermost Parts of the Earth. A Record of Marvellous Cures.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

THE GREAT BLOOD BUILDER.

Mrs. D.W. Cronsberry, 168 Richmond St., Toronto, Ont., states: "My daughter, who sews in a white goods factory, got completely run down by the steady confinement and close attention required at her work. Her nerves were so exhausted and she was so weak and debilitated that she had to give up work entirely for some weeks."

"She then began to use Dr. Chase's nerve food and found it excellent in restoring her to health and strength. She is now greatly improved and at work again. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food also helped her through a very severe attack of the grippe. I can recommend it as an excellent remedy."

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

ONE PILL A DOSE, 25c. A BOX.

Mr. Alex. Marshall, 59 Essex St., Toronto, Ont., says:—"Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a splendid medicine and certainly do all that is claimed for them. Both myself and my wife have been greatly benefited by their use. I had kidney disease and pains in the back for over two years and at times the pains were so acute that I was totally unfit for work. Among the remedies I tried were English pills supposed to be good, but they did not fit my case."

"I heard Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly praised, and used them. I now feel like a new man. The pains and aches have entirely disappeared and I can now work with comfort. My wife is much improved in health and we both endorse Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills most heartily."

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

HAS NEVER FAILED TO CURE PILES.

Mr. O. P. St. John, the Dominion inspector of steam-boats, residing at 246 Shaw Street, Toronto, in the following voluntary letter tells of his efforts to rid himself of the misery of Itching Piles and of his final success by using Dr. Chase's Ointment:—"I suffered for nine years from itching piles, at times being unable to sleep on account of the annoyance caused by them. After trying almost all remedies in vain, I began the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, which entirely cured me. I cannot speak too highly of it. I have recommended it to several of my friends, all of whom have been cured by its use."

Dr. Chase's Catarrh cure, wonderfully prompt and effective as a cure for cold in the head and catarrh. Dr. Chase's Compound of Lissod and Turpentine has by far the largest sale of any remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and asthma. The Savage Bachelor.

"I notice," said the Street Young Thing, "that the girls are now wearing their sweethearts' photographs on their fans."

"Seems to me," said the Savage Bachelor, "that that sort of thing would be more appropriate for married women. The husband is the bone that raises the wind."

His Experience.

"Woman," said the social philosopher, bitterly, "is uncertain, variable."

"Oh, I don't know," replied the practical man. "If I express my views on a question I can tell to a certainty which side of it my wife will take."

"You can?"

"Of course I can. It will be the other side."

Why will you allow a cough to lacerate your throat and lungs and run the risk of filling a consumptive's grave, when, by the timely use of Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the pain can be allayed and the danger avoided. This syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, colds, coughs, bronchitis, etc., etc.

Oil in Blast Furnaces.

Excellent results have been obtained with the use of oil in blast furnaces. It is interposed between the hot-air stoves and the tuyeres of the blast furnace. The oil is drawn by the blast into the furnace, where it increases the temperature and also facilitates the reduction of the ore.

The Difference.

Grimes—The chances are in favor of a widow marrying again against a single woman getting a husband.

Burns—That is because a widow is content to regard men as pretty much all alike, while a single woman wastes her time trying to find one who is different from all others.

Dyspeptics and Pastry.

"Avoid pastry," writes the doctor, thinking of the confirmed dyspeptic who left his consulting room half an hour ago, and thereupon a hundred folk who were never a whit the worse for their tart avoid pastry conscientiously and take to unending sago puddings, which monopoly they would dispute if it were not for the fact that we see or hear condemned as overstraining or missing our digestive apparatus, we should probably take nothing but pepsin, with perhaps a little milk to exercise it on.

A Kitchen Desk.

A desk for the kitchen is an article of necessity just as much as it is for an office. It should be a large spreading affair with a flat top and plenty of drawers. This desk can be obtained second-hand and fitted up for account books, recipe books and thousands of little things that are continually getting misplaced. A good chair and a few papers or magazines may tempt one to improve the shining moments in reading while waiting for something to boil or cook.

The time wasted in standing around waiting in the kitchen would amount to many hours in the course of a year, and a relaxation from manual labor would refresh the system and make the endless toil more enjoyable. It is knowing how to economize time and strength as much as it is knowing how to go to work at anything that brings success. This is an age when we must look to the nerves and save them all the work we can, and a comfortable armchair, a desk and a pile of papers or magazines will go a long way toward accomplishing this result. In other ways little labor savers could be invented and put in the kitchen to ease the burdens of life.—New Voice.

Nothing New.

"It begins to look as though the Paris exposition would fall flat."

"Well, you see, the French have been making an exhibition of themselves for so long that folks are beginning to pine for a novelty."—Philadelphia North American.

A Bright Little Girl.

When walking in a hayfield one afternoon with her husband Lady Warwick noticed a bright boy of ten or so helping his father lead the hay cart.

"Does not your boy attend school?" was Lady Warwick's pertinent question.

"No, ma'am, he don't go oftener than I can help. You see, John's a real smart boy, and I don't want to have him spoiled with book learning. I mean to make a farmer of him. Now, his eldest brother went regular to school, and he got above loading a hay cart, and, of course, he's made nothing out of it."

"What has become of him?" asked Lady Warwick, in concern.

"Why, he went out to South Africa and got a secretaryship," was the scornful reply, "but John here is a smart lad—he'll be of some use on the farm, he will!"

Miller's Worm Powders for restlessness and peevishness.

Cockle in Wheat Screenings.

It will perhaps not be out of place to warn poultry raisers against feeding wheat screenings that contain too much cockle seed. The fowls will eat the cockle seed if it is fed them, and if they eat a considerable quantity they will die from the effects of it. Cockle is a poisonous plant and its seeds contain poison. A little of this poison is not fatal in its effects, but a comparatively large amount is.

They Are Not Violent in Action.—Some persons, when they wish to cleanse the stomach, resort to Epsom and other purgative salts. These are speedy in their action, but serve no permanent good. Their use produces incipient cholera, and if persisted in they injure the stomach. Nor do they act upon the intestines in a beneficial way. Farmley's Vegetable Pills answer all purposes in this respect, and have no superior.

The Missionary's Broncos.

"I knew a missionary party in the West who had a pair of broncos, one of which could only be started in one way; the other, of course, was in entire sympathy with and regulated his movements by his companion," writes Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady in the Ladies' Home Journal. "Two disinterested people who were not going with the party would pass the bit of a stout rope around the hind fetlocks of the recalcitrant animal, and each take an end and saw away until you could almost smell the burning hair, when, without one word of warning, the beasts would bolt, and from that time would go all day cheerfully at the liveliest kind of trot, provided they were not halted for anything. If they were stopped the same process would have to be gone over with again. Moral: snation was absolutely and entirely lost on those broncos, yet you could not help liking them; they were so mean they were actually charming."

An End to Bilious Headache.—Biliousness, which is caused by excessive bile in the stomach, has a marked effect upon the nerves, and often manifests itself by severe headache. This is the most distressing headache one can have. There are headaches from cold, from fever, and from other causes, but the most excruciating of all is the bilious headache. Farmley's Vegetable Pills will cure it almost immediately. It will disappear as soon as the Pills operate. There is nothing surer in the treatment of bilious headache.

Were Never Called Slaves.

In southern homes before the war it was never the fashion to speak of slaves as slaves; they were called negroes or servants. Gen. Washington called his slaves "My People." In his household there were 49 of his people in 1769, 89 in 1770 and 136 in 1774. He hired white servants also and a number of European stewards and laborers, who came over under contract.

Getting Back at Her.

"For the last time, I ask you," he hissed, "will you give up the notion that you can recite melodramatic poetry?"

"Never!" replied the woman, his wife, pale but resolute.

His face grew terrible to behold.

"Then," he cried in a voice vibrating with passion, "I shall assume that I can tell Irish dialect stories!"

Now she grovels at his feet and implores him to be merciful, but in vain.

The never failing medicine, Holloway's Corn Cure, removes all kinds of corns, warts, etc.; even the most difficult to remove cannot withstand this wonderful remedy.

Changed His Mind.

Brown—I saw you on the street with Smith this morning. I thought he was an old enemy of yours.

Green—So he was, but I discovered that I had misjudged him.

Brown—In what way?

Green—I thought I could lick him.

HOUSEHOLD WORRIES

Make So Many Women Look Prematurely Old.

They Are the Fruitful Source of Headaches, Nervous Disorders, Pains in the Back and Loins, and the Feeling of Constant Weariness That Afflicts So Many Women.

Almost every woman meets daily with innumerable little worries in her household affairs. Perhaps they are too small to notice an hour after, but these constant little worries have their effect upon the nervous system. Indeed, it is these little worries that make many women look prematurely old. Their effect may also be noticeable in other ways, such as sick or nervous headache, fickle appetite, pains in the back or loins, palpitation of the heart, and a feeling of constant weariness. If you are experiencing any of these symptoms it is a sign that the blood and nerves need attention, and for this purpose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are woman's best friend. They are particularly adapted as a regulator of the ailments that afflict women, and through the blood and nerves act upon the whole system, bringing brightness to the eye, and a glow of health to the cheeks. Thousands of grateful women have testified to the benefit derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Among those who freely acknowledge the benefit derived from this great medicine is Mrs. Jas. Hughes, of Dromore, P.E.I., a lady who possesses the respect and esteem of all who know her. Mrs. Hughes speaks of her illness and cure as follows:

"Until about four years ago I had always enjoyed good health, and was looked upon as one who possessed a robust constitution. Then I began to grow weak, was troubled with severe headaches, and frequently with violent pains in the region of my heart, from which I would only find ease through hot applications. My stomach also gave me much trouble, and did not appear to perform its customary functions. I was treated by a skillful doctor, but although under his care for several months, I grew gradually weaker and weaker, until finally I was not able to leave my bed. Then I called in another doctor, whose treatment, although continued for some eight months, was equally fruitless. I was scarcely able to hold my head up, and was so nervous that I was crying half the time. My condition can best be described as pitiable. At this time a friend brought me a newspaper in which was the story of a cure of a woman whose case was in many respects similar to mine, through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I then decided that I would give the pills a fair trial. When I began the use of the pills I was in such a condition that the doctor told me I would always be an invalid. I used four boxes of the pills before I noticed any benefit, and then I could see they were helping me. I used twelve boxes in all, covering a treatment of nearly six months, when I was as well as I had ever been in my life, and I have ever since enjoyed the best of health. I believe there would be fewer suffering women throughout the world if they would do as I did—give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial."

A medicine that is not right is worse than no medicine at all—much worse. Substitutes are not right; more than that, they are generally dangerous. When you buy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People be sure that the full name is on the wrapper around every box. If your dealer does not keep them they will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Pretty Japanese Custom.

In many countries the custom of planting trees to mark special events is well known, and in Japan the birth of a child is thus commemorated. The sapling is carefully tended until it is fully grown; and when the child is grown up and about to be married, it is cut down and made into furniture for the home of the young couple.

Miller's Worm Powders is the best laxative medicine for children; as nice as sugar.

A Story of Dean Dickinson.

An English weekly tells the following story regarding the Dean of the Chapel Royal. Some shop in Dublin was in the habit of supplying its customers with liquid refreshment and charging it in the bill under the heading of "trimmings." Dean Dickenson, having investigated the matter and remonstrated with the vendors, suggested that in future such items should be entered as "delirium trimmings."

Advantage of Route.

"Why is it," asked Miss Birdie, "that the nearest way to a man's heart is through his stomach?"

"Because," said Miss Fyflppe, with that cold illusion-destroying knowledge of mankind that comes sooner or later to us all, "that is the inside track."

Told Him Why.

Mr. Nicefello (cautiously)—Why are you so cold and distant?

Sweet Girl (quietly)—The fire has gone out, and this sofa is too heavy for me to move up to your chair.

The pimples have disappeared. Miller's Compound Iron Pills did it.

Contracts Made by Phone.

A contract made over the telephone is legal and binding, according to a decision recently rendered in a Pennsylvania lawsuit.

"Because I rather liked the girl, and wanted the field to myself next time."

A WORD TO THE WISE.

By and by is the path that leads to never.

One man's faults may be another man's virtues.

Many an idle rumor has been worked beyond the limit.

One way to judge a man's character is by what he doesn't say.

An egotist is a person who thinks it a waste of time to listen to what others have to say of themselves.

Even a fool gets credit for wisdom he doesn't possess when he proclaims the bright things you say.

Many a man while awaiting an opportunity to pose as a hero makes his wife get up every morning and light the fire.

There is one good thing about the man with trouble on his mind. He never breaks into your office humming selections from a ragtime opera.

Messrs. Northrop & Lyman Co. are the proprietors of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is now being sold in immense quantities throughout the Dominion. It is welcomed by the suffering invalid everywhere with emotions of delight, because it banishes pain and gives instant relief. This valuable specific for almost every ill that flesh is heir to, is valued by the sufferer as more precious than gold. It is the elixir of life to many a wasted frame. To the farmer it is indispensable, and it should be in every house.

The Passion Play.

The devout peasants of Oberammergau are preparing for the decennial performance of "The Passion Play," which will be given at frequent intervals during the spring and summer. The greater part of the cast has been changed since the last presentations. The Christ of this year's play is the son of a stove maker—a stove maker himself; the Magdalene is a daughter of an innkeeper, who helps care for her father's hostelry, and the Mary is the daughter of the Burgomaster, a pretty girl of eighteen. A most interesting and profusely illustrated article on the play and the players will appear in the June Ladies' Home Journal.

Every person suffering from general debility should take Miller's Compound Iron Pills.

When Baby Has Convulsions.

There is little to be done when a child has convulsions except to put it, as quickly as possible, into a warm bath. Moisten a tablespoonful of dry mustard, rub it smooth and add it to the water in the bath after the child is in it; do not wait to do it before. The doctor will order one or two tablespoonfuls of sirup ipecac, until vomiting is produced, if the convulsions have been caused by undigested food. If from nervous irritation, as in teething, five or ten grains of bromide of potash dissolved in water may be given.

Profit From Refuse.

Clinker from the refuse destructors at Bradford, England, which in 1894 cost nearly $5,000 for carting and dumping, is now turned to profitable purpose in mortar and concrete making. Ground and mixed with cement, it has been
