WELL DIRECTED SYMPATHY.

There is nothing that appeals to the sympathy of persons more than a man willing but unable to work through illness. Mr. William Coburn (carter), 148 Pine Street, Kingston, Ont., was one of these unfortunate. He suffered from rheumatism in the hip and across the small of his back. "I was so bad," said he, "that I was unable to turn in bed. I was forced to give up work. I suffered the greatest agony; to make matters worse, cramps added to my pain. The cords of my legs used to be doubled up into bunches as big as my fist. After trying every other remedy and not being relieved by doctors' medicine, I was prevailed upon to try Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure. I had not taken the contents of two bottles before I was able to leave my bed and return to work, and the pains have not troubled me since."

Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure is put up in 5-cent bottles, containing 10 days' treatment. For sale by all druggists and dealers in medicine. The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

M., on Saturday evening for the purpose of bidding farewell to their Secretary Hugh Murray Esq., who was about to leave Omamee to take up his abode in Echo Bay, where he has obtained a lucrative position. The Worshipful Master was in the chair, and called upon Rev. E. A. Langfeldt to read the following address to the Secretary: HUGH MURRAY ESQ., Sec'y. L. R. N. L. 375 A. F. & A. M.

DEAR BROTHERS:—We have learned with much regret that you are about to leave this community, thereby necessitating a farewell from our beloved Lodge of A. F. & A. M.

For many years you have been our Secretary, and your devotion to your office and the efficiency with which you performed your duties have won you the esteem of your fellow-Masons. Your loyalty to the principles of Masonry, best exemplified by true manhood and demand from us your brethren the assurance that we will always gladly remember the happy intercourse which we have had with you in the Lodge and in our daily walk.

We pray that the all seeing Eye of the Great Architect of the Universe may be watching over you and lead you in the path of righteousness and everlasting life. Wherever you go may you adorn the Worshipful Order to which you have the honour to belong, and may no motive ever make you swerve from your duty and may you always, as hitherto you have done, endeavor to convince the world that merit has been your title to the privileges of the Ancient Craft.

We desire to present you with a small token of our esteem and friendship and request you to accept this watch-chain and locket from us. May you by using it be always reminded of your fellow-Masons of Lorne Lodge 375, who most sincerely follow you with their best wishes and prayers to your new abode. Signed on behalf of Lorne Lodge G. STEWART CAMERON, M. D., W. M.

Salvation Army Self-Denial Week.
Anticipating their Week of Self Denial (May 26th to June 1st) local Salvationists are busy collecting for the fund which is hoped will exceed the $23,634.00 raised by this effort last year. It is always a pertinent question—where does the money go to? At one time it was, we believe, devoted almost exclusively to the extension of foreign missions and opening up new countries, but this is no longer the case, for the greater part of the amount raised is spent in this country itself. This is as it should be. The Salvation Army is doing splendid work in its Industrial homes, Rescue and Maternity homes, Men's and Women's shelters, established in different centres in North America, while the world over, the Army has about 500 similar refuges for the fallen and the destitute. The enthusiasm with which the Salvationists themselves enter into the Self Denial Week is remarkable and it would probably be hard to find a wearer of the uniform who has not in addition to pecuniary sacrifice, denied himself some luxury or partial necessity by way of discipline. The Self Denial fund is augmented by assistance from outside friends far and near, and we are confident this worthy effort will not be forgotten by those who are in a position to assist.

The local Omamee Corps has a target of $40.00 to strike at and Capt. Capper the Officer in charge will be very grateful indeed for any donation either given to himself personally, or sent by mail. We wish the Army every success.

Warships to the Orient.

Under examination the parents confessed that they had killed the girl and eaten her flesh, afterward trying to burn the bones to conceal the crime.

Horrible Crime Confessed by a Peasant Couple.

Vienna, May 13.—A horrible case of cannibalism is reported from the little village of Prassebky, near Marburg, in Southern Styria. ### Keep Them Bright.

Kerosene oil will clean blackened silver almost instantly. To clean the steel blades of knives use sweet oil and emery paper. Polish with leather dipped in a little whiting. Do not throw or mix knives, forks and spoons together. Keep separate and there will be no scratching of any of the articles. To clean knives that have fruit and vinegar stains on them use raw potato. Rub the blades, then polish on the knife board. To wash out glassware use some pure soap and hot water and apply with a common large tooth brush. Each piece should be wiped with a linen cloth as it is taken from the water. Handles of knives and forks should never be put in hot water. If the handles come off, mix equal parts of quicklime and resin and put it in the hole, then heat the spike and push it in. In laying aside knives or other steel implements they should be slightly oiled and wrapped in tissue paper to prevent their rusting. A salty atmosphere will in a short time ruin all steel articles unless some such precaution is taken. To season new glasses use put dishes, tumblers, and other glass articles into a kettle, cover them entirely with cold water and put the kettle where it will soon boil. When it has boiled a few minutes set it aside, covered close. When the water is cold take the glass out.

Some Queer Will.

Here is the rhyming will: I, John of Gault, Do give and grant Unto Roger Burgoyne And the heir of his loins All Station and Pouton Until the world's rotation.

There appears to be in the vast collection only one instance of a will in shorthand. It is that of the Rev. Hugh Worthington of Highbury Place, Islington. On being transcribed it reads: NORTHAMPTON SQUARE, June 16, 1833. I, Hugh Worthington, give and bequeath to my dear Eliza Price, who is my adopted child, all I do or may possess, real and personal, to be at her sole and entire disposal, and I do appoint William Kent, Esq., of London Wall, my executor in this my last will and testament.

In a memorandum enclosed in an acknowledgment and addressed to his wife the reverend testator says, "I do know you will perfect yourself in shorthand for my sake."—Strand Magazine.

Wool Finds.
Some wool sorters in a Vermont woolen mill the other day found a long, strange, braided whiplash in wool that had come from Africa. Among other things sometimes found in wool are pocket knives, whole suits of clothing, money of different denominations, shavers, pieces of iron and stone, the latter evidently being placed in the sack to deceive the buyer as to weight. Some years ago a quantity of big stones was found tied within the fleeces, increasing the gross weight by half.—New York Tribune.

Oh, No!
Impatient Husband (tired of holding his chin up) "Is taking you an awfully long time to fix this necktie, Laura." Patient Wife—"You never used to complain about the length of time it took me to smooth out your neckties before we were married, George."—Chicago Tribune.

Keeping the Peace.
Mrs. Prye—Folks are saying that you don't get along well with your neighbors. Mrs. Pitt—That's very true. But I get Transcripts observed No Sympathy.

"I want you," said a rural dandy to another, "to put your name on the petition." "What for?" "Ours or mine is going up for hog scalping." "He stole my pig, did he?" "Dat's what." "En he los 'em ketch him?" "Yes." "Well, let him go long for de chain gang. A man who can't get education enough to know his tracks no better than dat is better put de way dan in it!"—Atlanta Constitution.
