

HERE IS NOW
A MASS OF PROOF

THAT LUMBAGO IS ALWAYS CURED BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Quebec Man Cured His Kidneys With Dodd's Kidney Pills, and His Lumbago Vanished.

Quebec, P. Q., May 22.—(Special)— Join Ball, a bricklayer, residing at 37 Little Champlain Street, this city, has added his statement to the great mass of proof that Lumbago is caused by disordered kidneys, and consequently easily cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Ball says: "I was troubled with Lumbago for two years. I could not work. I had to get up at nights to urinate so often that my rest was broken. I read of cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills and made up my mind to try them.
After the first box I could see and feel a change. Three boxes cured me completely."

Lumbago, like Rheumatism, is caused by uric acid in the blood.
Uric acid cannot stay in the blood if the kidneys are working right.
Dodd's Kidney Pills make the Kidneys work right.

FAMINES IN LUXURIES

MILLIONAIRES CANNOT FIND AN EXCLUSIVE DISH.

This World Wags Wearily for Men of Wealth and Feeling.

What is life without caviare? The millionaire is finding it almost insupportable. Those unconscionable fellows, the Russian and Japanese, are carrying on their war wholly unmindful of the fact that Belgravia is panting for the caviare which comes not, or comes in bulk so small and at prices so high that the heart of Dives is anguished and his purse-strings strained without mercy, says London Answers.

Caviare remains to-day as in Ham-let's time, "caviare to the general," but to the gourmet it is ambrosial food in plain language, it is the salted roe of the sturgeon and like fish, brought from the rivers and lakes of Russia. Hence it was dear at best, and now impossible.

To what shall the bereaved palate of the lordly turn its attention in the certain hope of escaping the emulation of the man in the street?

TURTLE-SOUP WILL NOT DO.
Every city alderman lives up to that luxury once he attains this exalted city dignity.

No; turtle-soup will not answer.
Horseshoeing, that has never before become a general diet, is curious, seeing that in 1876 a society was formed in Paris to promote the use of horseshoes as a food.
This body set aside 1,100 francs to be awarded as a prize to the member who first successfully introduced horse-meat to the notice of London society. In the same year edible does were introduced from China—fat little fellows, resembling the familiar pig of my lady's boudoir—but they have remained the pet delicacy of John Chinaman.

No; costly puppy and birdness at a guinea an ounce do not seem to be the goals to which plutocratic ambition must turn. Appendicitis did for a time afford an avenue to the few, but the millionaire has made the general dieting discovery that, like himself, the man in the street has a veriform appendix, and what is worse, will have it exercised as readily as the Belgravian as a passport to exalted company.
The handicap of life really is against the man who means well to himself.

POWDERED RUBIES.
Some years ago the Gaekwar of Baroda introduced the habit of powdering rubies and eating them as medicine. Our aristocracy followed with alacrity, and ordered that no stone should remain unpowdered which could minister to their delight for the aesthetic. But then they found that not only was this delicate whim spreading to the man who had his money out of candles and tomatoes, but those varlets in India who know all about the unpleasant ways of getting rid of their bet-ters had taken to powdering glass and substituting that for rubies.
And the end was devastating, and the funeral pyre for the consumer.

For a while the eggs of the octopus and the dried maws of fish of size, neatly garnished with seaweed from Japan, fillets from the swordfish, tit-bits from the ocalachus, and piddings from the best of the kate-n, served their purpose. There was not much in them, but they were difficult to get, and the secret was the preserve of the chosen few.

The rich man loves his fur-lined pelisse, and gives $2,500 for a single skin of the silver fox, and even more for that of the black specimen of the same family. It costs a sum in four figures to get oneself decently habited in

THESE PELTS OF PRICE.
But is it not an agonizing thought that Harriet in her box of cat-skin or rabbit-hide is just as warm at 30 cents the piece, while the otherwise scantily clad Red Indian sports furs which are not all the gold of Ophir could bring to the mansions of the old world?

Somehow they used to manage these things better in the old days.
Everybody remembers that the lately deceased Pierre Lorillard had a frightful stroke of bad luck in regard to a laudable mission, which he undertook simply to win a trifling sugar. He bet a friend something in the neighborhood of $100,000 that he would get through more than $750,000. It was not over thus.
Two bloods of the time of Maria Theresa wagered as to which should wear the most magnificent costume at a Court ball. One appeared in the most gorgeous raiment that eye could conceive; he glistened with wealth in every seam and stitch, and was declared an easy winner. But the other opened his cloak of satin, and laid it flat before his judges. It lined consisted of one of Corregio's most famous pictures, a work whose price was not to be named in mere money.

A woman never gets so old she thinks some man ought not to chase her, and a man never so old he thinks he ought not to chase some woman.

COCOA

The Most Nutritious

"Why am I like a pin?" asked Mr.
Jones, triumphantly, of his wife. He expected she was going to say, "Because you are so sharp," and he was simply paralyzed when she replied:—"Because if you should get lost it wouldn't be worth while to spend time looking for you."

Gentlemen.—In January last Francis Leclair, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

A Casket of Pearls.—Dr. Von Stan's Liniment Tablets would prove a great relief to the disheartened dyspeptic if he would but test their potency.
They're veritable gems in preventing the seating of stomach disorders, by aiding and stimulating digestion—60 of these health "pearls" in a box, and they cost 35 cents. Recommended by most eminent physicians.—64

"My wife has a remarkable collection

"Yes." "That's what I thought."

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper Why go limping and whining about your corns when a 25 cent bottle of Holloway's Corn Cure will remove them? Give it a trial and you will not regret it.

Dr. Agnew's Ointment Cures Piles

Comfort in one application. It cures

NOT A SAFE TOPIC.
The man who has a strict regard for the truth seldom talks about his own achievements.

A Sound Stomach Means a Clear Head.—The high pressure of a nervous day arch business men of the present generation are often troubled with draughts upon their vitality highly determined by their mental strain. It is only by the most careful treatment that they are able to keep themselves alert and active in their various callings.
Many of them know the value of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills in regulating the stomach and consequently keeping the head clear.

A MIXED RELATIONSHIP.
"I'll tell you how it is," said the old carter. "I met a young widow with a grown-up step-daughter, and I married that widow."
"Then my father met our stepdaughter and married her. That made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and made my step-daughter my step-mother, and my father became my step-son. See?"
"Then my step-mother, the stepdaughter of my wife, had a son.
That boy was, of course, my brother, because he was my father's son; but he was also the son of my wife's step-daughter, and therefore her grandson. That made me grandfather of my step-brother. Then my wife had a son."

"My mother-in-law, the step-sister of my son, is also his grandmother, because he is her step-son's child.
My father is the brother-in-law of my child, because his step-sister is his wife. I am the brother of my own son, who is also the child of my step-grandmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law, my wife is her own child's aunt, my son is my father-in-law's nephew, and I'm my own grandfather—and I can't stand it."

DEMOCRACY IN GOLF.

To what a point the British love of golf may extend is indicated by the fact that the Premier of England, Mr.
Balfour, recently participated on the Royal St. George's links at Sandwich in a match in which a House of Commons team met a team of fishermen from Iwerthby, in Aberdeenshire. The Parliamentarians won by eight matches to three. Mr.
Balfour and C. E. Hambro played against James Buchan and George Buchan, to whom they lost their morning match by one down, but beat them in the afternoon by six up and five to play. The fishermen wore their blue guernseys and looked like their calling.

Hump Back

SCOTT'S EMULSION won't make a the few genuine means of recovery in
