THE TRAGEDY RECALLED. Thos. T. Gray, his wife and family, and David Scollie, a man aged 67 years, lived on a small farm in Otonabee township, about two miles from town. The farm was owned by Scollie, who had entered into an agreement that the property was to go to the Grays upon his (Scollie's) death, and the old man was to be given a home and board while he lived. On the house was an insurance of $300, and on the contents a policy for $200. The old man led a quiet life, and no particular complaints were heard from him. It was early on the morn-A despatch from Winnipeg, Man., says: - ing of Friday, February 23rd, that the The Manitoba Legislature assembled on Gray dwelling was burned.
