

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE

Occupies the Mind of the British World To-day.

It Is Well,

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

THE LAURIER TARIFF

Slowly Struggling into Existence, Occupies the Mind of the Canadian Capitalist and the Canadian Workman.

Of Equal Importance to Many Canadian Housekeepers,

Is the Question, How shall we make our Homes Attractive and Comfortable, if not Luxuriant and Fascinating?

Well, to Assist in Solving This Problem, (in part at least)

We Suggest, that, after deciding what additional pieces of

FURNITURE

You require, whether for Parlor, Bedroom, Hall, or Diningroom you are cordially invited to call and examine the goods shown by

JOHN McCREA, KING STREET, OMEMEE,

Where every possible attention will be given to your wishes. His stock, at present very complete, is comprised, in part, of Large and Stylish

Oak, Mahogonised Birch, and Antique Elm Bed-room Suites, at prices ranging from $9.00 to $30.00; Parlor Suites in Mahogonised Birch in Silk Tapestries at Prices from $16.00 to $47.00; Lounges in various styles, and at Prices from $5.00 upward according to quality; Sideboards in polished Oak with British Plate Glass, also in Elm from $6.00 upward; Dining Tables, carved legs and rims, in Oak and Elm, from $6.00 up. A large number of Students' and Easy Chairs in Rug and Tapestry from $3.50 upward. Rocking Chairs in great variety from 75c. to $10.00 in Wood and Silk Tapestries. Spring Beds from $1.50 upward. Mixed Mattresses in Tick and Satteen, also a large variety of Centre Tables in Oak and Elm, all of which are offered at prices that will meet the views of purchasers, and Give Satisfaction in Using Them.

Notwithstanding the Many Excellencies of These Goods, they lack in the quality of distance, which sometimes lends enchantment to the view, they are to be seen close at hand, but discriminating buyers will not make this feature a serious objection. Thanking my patrons for past favors, and repeating my invitation to them, and the public generally to see my goods and get prices before going further.

I remain,
yours faithfully,

JOHN McCREA.

N.B. Good Furniture Purchased during May and June of this year, will carry to future generations pleasing memories of the Golden Victorian Age.
