CHAPTER IV.

"Pardon. I hope I do not intrude?" said M. Karovsky, addressing himself to Mrs. Brooke with the suave assurance of a thorough man of the world. "I saw through the window that Mr. Brooke had returned, and as my time here is limited-me voici." Then ad- vidual is needed to carry out any of vancing a few steps and holding out his hand to Gerald, he added: "It is lot?" five years, mon ami, since we last met. Confess now, I am one of the last men in the world whom you thought to see

"You are indeed. Karovsky," responded Gerald as he shook his visitor's proffered hand, but with no great show of cordiality.-"Have you been long in England?" "Not long. I am a bird of passage. I come and go, and obey the orders that are given me. That is all."

"My wife, Mrs. Brooke. But you have seen her already.-Clara, Monsieur Karovsky is a gentleman whose acquaintance I had the honor of making during the time I was living abroad."

"May we hope to have the pleasure of Monsieur Karovsky's company to dinner?" asked Clara in her most gracious manner, while at the same time hoping in her heart that the invitation would not be accepted.

o'clock to-morrow." "For the present, then, I must ask you to excuse me," said Clara. for her, and bowed low as she swept out of the room.

"That man is the bearer of ill news, and Gerald knows it," was the young wife's unspoken thought as she left the be left a widow. two together.

M. Karovsky was a tall, well-built the middle; his black eyes were at once to have known, long ago." and rather thin face, a longish nose, a murder is obedience no longer-it be- curgus, had some excellent ideas about said, Bishop, I read so much about piercing and brilliant; he had a long | "Obedience carried to the verge of mobile and flexible mouth, and a par- comes a crime. However you may put marriage. One of his laws provided Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, suppose you ticularly fine arrangement of teeth. | still He were neither beard nor moustache, "Pardon. We recognize no such was that a woman should be chosen and his complexion had the faint yel- term in our vocabulary. low tint of antique ivory. He was not to do this deed"mon in his appearance, so that people who were introduced to him casually berg! in society wanted to know more about him. An enigma is not without its attractions for many people, and Kara born linguist, as so many of his coun- ed to say at last.— Karovsky, I feel groom bringing a certain amount of I was not disturbed. My wife, for the ency and equal purity of accent. "Fortune has been kind to you, my friend, in finding for you so charming remember -- But that matters not." a bride can place her right foot at the go. the room with his hands in his pockets, after closing the door behind Mrs to increase a few done have done husband. after closing the door behind Mrs to incur so terrible a vengeance?" Brooke. 'But Fortune has been kind to you in more ways than one." tell me," said Brooke a little grimly. him, after he had pledged his sacred for the bride. "You did not come here to pay com- word of honor that no use whatever Among the Garrows of Bengal the They renew and build up the blood, will you not be seated?" say-I am not here without a motive," everything to those in power. In the feast is over the friends carry the bride you purchase is inclosed in a wrapper he remarked. Then, with a quick ex- dead of night, a certain house in which to the river and give her a ducking. pressive gesture, which was altogeth- a secret printing press was at work The man pretends to hide, but is soon er un-English, ne added: "Ah, bah! I was surrounded by the police. Two of found out and is served with the same feel like a bird of ill-omen that has the inmates were shot down while at- dip in the river. Then the parents set winged its way into Paradise with a tempting to escape. The rest were up a prolonged howling, declaring they message from the nether world." by made prisoners, among them being will not part with their beloved son. Darling, he cried, in tender tones, pray do not hesitate to deliver it."

that time I was an impetuous and en- | be slow, but it is very sure.' dreams of Liberty and Universal to strike the blow."

"The fact of your becoming one of | rant." Us is the best of all proofs that the | "So be it. Life at such a price would Cause, I was ignorant of much I have me.

"Karovsky, I know this-that the pathos. dragged its colors through shambles and started to find it was so late. reeking with the blood of those who can stay no longer-I must go," have fallen victims to its blind and said aloud. "But remember my ferocious .notions of revenge.'

short years ago, was saturated with emnly declare that this man's death philanthropic ideas which seemed ex- shall not lie at my door!" Gerald pansive enough to include the whole sank into a chair, let his elbows rest human race-one whose great longing on the table, and buried his face bewas that every man should be free and | tween his hands. happy -Ah, yes, you are the same- "I have nothing more to say," reonly time and the world have contrived marked the Russian. He stepped to spoil you, as they spoil so many through the window, his hat in his off, and thus little room was left for others. In those days you were poor; hand, and then turned. now you are rich. Then you had no At that moment the door opened, and fixed home; you were a wanderer Mrs. Brooke, on the point of entering from city to city; your future was the room, paused suddenly as her eyes clouded and uncertain. Now, you are took in the scene before her. "Gerald! the wealthy Mr. Brooke—a pillar of she exclaimed in a frightened voice, your country; this grand old mansion and then her gaze travelled from her and all the broad acres, for I know not husband to Karovsky. The latter.

"Karovsky, you wrong me. My love of my fellows is as ardent as ever it was. My--- But why prolong a discussion that could serve no good end? You have a message for me?" "I have." The man was evidently ill at ease. He rose, crossed to the chimney-piece, took up one or two curios, and examined them through his tinued, "eight years ago, on a cerof that winter night had come at length to seem to you little more than a half-remembered dream. That you have said that her happiness was too perfect to last. beer called before now is no proof have been overlooked or for- As the last sad note died away unthat your services der her fingers she turned from the length the day has come to you, Gerald live and wait." Gerald had changed color more than once during the foregoing speech.

"What is it that I am called upon to do?" he asked in a voice that was scarcely raised above a whisper. "You are aware that when an indithe secret decrees of the Supreme Tribunal, that individual is drawn for by

Has been so drawn." The light faded out of Gerald Brooke's eyes; a death-like pallor crept over his face; he could scarcely command his voice as for the second time he asked: "What is it that I am called upon to do?"

the penalty of death. You are the person drawn by lot to carry out the "They would make an assassin of me? -Never! "You are bound by your oath to carry

"The Supreme Tribunal have decreed that a certain individual shall suffer out the behests of the Tribunal, be they what they may." "No oath can bind a man to become One of the chief conditions attachunquestioning obedience." "Karovsky, this is monstrous." "I am sorry that things have fallen out as they have, mon ami; but such being the case, there is no help for it. "I-Gerald Brooke-whose ancestors fought at Cressy, to sink to the level of a common assassin? Never!" "Pardon. Might it not be as well,

"Merci, madame," responded the Rus- before you express your determination your hair and clothes are quite wet." in such emphatic terms, to consider lighted, if the occasion admitted of what would be the consequence of a caught in a shower in the wood." refusal on your part to comply with it; but, as I said before, my time is the instructions of which I have the haggard and dejected," remarked Miss limited. I must leave London by the misfortune to be the bearer?-Mrs. Primby to herself. night-mail. I am due in Paris at ten Brooke is very young to be left a

"Karovsky!" "Pardon. But that is what i Any affiliated member who moment. Karovsky hastened to open the door | may be so ill-advised as to refuse to carry out the decrees of the Tribunal | minutes." renders himself liable to the extreme penalty; and so surely as you, Gerald | before I dress." Brooke, are now a living man, so surely, in a few short weeks, should you You will not be long? I am so afraid persist in your refusal, will your wife of your taking cold. Come, aunt."

'This is horrible-most horrible!" "Obedience, blind and unquestioning, the utter abnegation of your individu- down a leaf of her novel, and tucked man, to all appearance some few years ality to the will of your superiors, is the volume under her arm. over thirty in point of age. His short | the first rule of the Propaganda to black hair was parted carefully down which you and I have the honor to beong. But all this you knew, or ought especially handsome; but there was "I should have done it For if there ed for their poverty." something striking and out of the com- be one man in the world, Brooke, whom There was an old custom which long

"Pardon. Did I not mention the for any debts she might have contract- to me during that night. For a moment or two Gerald could her as his wife almost naked. In cer- called three to four times during the name before? But he is the man." ovsky had the air of being one whether | not speak. "It is but half an hour | tain parts of the country there is also | night. The next day I took three he was so in reality or not. He was since I parted from him," he contriv- still extant the custom of the bride- dose of the pills, and the second night as if I were entangled in some horri- money with him to church, and at the first time in more than ten months, trymen are, and spoke the chief Europ- ble nightmare—as if I were being suf- words, "with all my goods I thee en- had a good night's sleep ean languages with almost equal flu- focated in the folds of some monstrous dow," he would give the parson his fee "I have not lost a night's sleep since "It is a feeling that will wear itself bride-maid to hold for the bride. out in the course of a little while. I In Sweden there is a belief that if Pink Pills in my pocket wherever I

"But Von Rosenberg is not a Rus- altar in advance of the bridegroom she tached to the Embassy at St. Peters- presents the parents with fruit or game "Karovsky, you have something to burg, certain secrets were divulged to as an agreement and promise to provide pliments, nor without a motive. But should be made of the information so women do all the courting. She woos and strengthen the nerves, thus drivacquired. Wretch that he was! Von and wins the man, fixes the day of mar- ing disease from the system. Avoid Karovsky drew up a chair. "As you Rosenberg turned traitor, and revealed riage, and invites the guests. When the imitations by insisting that every box "Whatever your message may be, three women and a boy of seventeen Then a cock and hen are sacrificed, and ray do not hesitate to deliver it."

—my brother. Two of those arrested the pair are man and wife.

But apparently the Russian did hesidied in prison, or were never heard of Among the aboriginal Australians the tate. He got up, crossed the room to more; the rest were condemned to the man who sets out to find a wife simply his seat. "Eight years have come and ed by the dreadful hardships they had gone, Gerald Brooke," he began in an to undergo; the rest are now rotting impressive tone, "since you allied your- away their lives in the silver mines, self by some of the most solemn oaths forgotten by all but the dear ones they possible for a man to take that Sacred left behind.—You now know the reason Cause to which I also have the honor! why the Baron Otto von Rosenberg has been sentenced to death. The ven-"Do you think I have forgotten! At geance of the Supreme Tribunal may thusiastic boy of eighteen, with no There was silence for a few moments, knowledge of the world, save what I then Gerald said: "All this may be as had gathered from books, and with a you say; but I tell you again. Karovhead that was full of wild, vague sky, that mine shall not be the hand "Then you seal your own death-war-

cause of Liberty at that time was dear | not be worth having. 'Death before Dishonor' is the motto of our house. But when as a boy I joined the Dishonor shall never come to it through Gerald rose and walked to the win-"The world does not stand still. One dow. His face was pale, his eyes were naturally knows more to-day than one full of trouble; what he had said had been lacking neither in dignity nor Cause, which, when I joined it, I be- The Russian's cold glance followed lieved to be so pure in its aims, so lofty him, not without admiration. "Engin its ideas, so all-embracing in its lish to the backbone," he muttered philanthropy, has, since that time, under his breath. "It was a blunder been stained by crimes which make me | ever to allow such a man to become one | shudder when I think of them-has of Us." 'Then he looked at his watch, warning words." He took up his hat "Parcen. But can it be possible that and moved slowly towards the window. am listening to one who, only eight | "Karovsky, for the last time I sol-

how far around it, are yours. You with his eyes still resting on the bowed are married to one whom you love, and | figure at the table, pronounced in low who loves you in return. Away, then, clear accents the one word, "Remem-

CHAPTER V. Ten weeks had come and gone since the memorable visit of M. Karforsky to the master of Beechly Towers It was a pleasant evening towards the end of June. There had been a heavy showeyeglass, then went back and resum-the clouds had broken; and the sun ed his seat. "Gerald Brooke," he con- was now drawing westward in a blaze of glory. In the same pleasant mornderground room in Warsaw, and before some half-dozen men whose faces acquaintance, Mrs. Brooke and her you were not permitted to see, you, of your own free-will, took the solemn oath which affiliated you to that great Cause for the forthernous of which Cause for the fortherance of which was seated at the plane playing some Cause for the fortherance of which thousands of others have given their fortunes, their lives, their all. From that day till this you have been a passive brother of the Society; nothing has been demanded at your hands; and you might almost be excused if the events of that winter night had come at length.

At this juncture Miss Primby awoke. "My dear Clara, what a pity you did not keep on playing," she said. "I was in the midst of a most lovely dream. I thought I was about to be married: my wreath and veil had been sent home | SWAYS AUDIENCES WITH HIS MASand I was just about to try them on: when you stopped playing and I awoke.

"No, my dear, it's gone, and the chances are that it will never return, said the spinster with a sigh. Clara crossed the room, and sat down on a low chair near the window, whence she could catch the first glimpse of her husband as he came round the clump of evergreens at the corner of the ter-

"I wish you would not mope so much and would try not to look quite so miserable," said her aunt presently. "How can I help feeling miserable when I know that Gerald has some unhappy secret on his mind, of which he tells me nothing? He has been a changed man ever since the visit of M. Karovsky. He cannot eat, he cannot rest; night and day he wanders about the house and grounds like a man walking Bad signs, very, my dear. Married men have no right to have secrets from "If he would but confide in me! If he would but tell me what the secret trouble is that is slowly eating away "I remember that when the Dean ed to your oath is that of blind and of Rathdrum leaned over the back of my chair, and whispered "My darling

"Here comes Gerald!" cried Mrs Brooke. She started to her feet, while a glad light leapt into her eyes, and ran out on the terrace to meet him. "What a time you have been away!" she said as he stooped and kissed her. "And "It is nothing," he answered. "I was a very prominent Republican. " Poor fellow! He certainly does look

"Have you been far?" asked Clara 'Only as far as Beaulieu.' "You called on the baron, of course. "No. I changed my mind at the last

"The first bell will ring in a few "I have one important letter to write Then aunt and I will leave you 'Nothing brings on rheumatism, sooner than damp clothes," remarked Miss Primby sententiously, as she folded (To Be Continued.)

CHOOSING A WIFE. That venerable old law maker, Lyriage portion, and his reason for this you?"

that man is Baron Otto von Rosen- should go to church with only one gar- pills. On her return she gave me a ment on. The intention in this act was dose at noon and another at night. that the husband should not be liable | She was only called one time to attend ed before marriage, since he received and hand over the remainder to the that time on account of the rheuma-

"Listen. Four years ago, when at- riage formality. The suitor to the bride

he chances to fancy and carries her to STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, \s. must first kill a polar bear unaided, forth at night and seizes the girl upon whom he has fixed. She must scream and fight him off. This brings out the entire population of the village. The old women attempt to bar him from catching the girl if she break away | {SEAL twice, and if caught by the young man | Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and

In Central Asia the Turcomans also have a custom which necessitates a struggle for the girl. The suitors to the hand of the girl are all on horseback, as also is the bride to be. The whole tribe turns out to witness the chase which follows when the lovers pursue the girl. She of course tries to throws herself in the way of the favored captor, who carries her off to his tent. has become a part of the daily routine tian era they had a unique way of dis- of the modern woman's life doubtless held and the prettiest girls were first posed of there naturally remained a number of homely girls. But the aucenough. He would select the worst portion to each from the money which had been paid for the handsome ones he would manage to work them all

CLOSE TOGETHER. Nell-Do you think there is anything pression of tight corsets. Belle-I don't know. There wasn't when I looked in at the parlor door

A train conveying a detachment of with the wild notions of our hot ber!" Then he bowed low to Mrs. reservists from Westphalia to Metz Fielschmann's Yeast - One half to one cake. Brooke, and next moment was gone. was wrecked on Wednesday. Twentyeight men were killed, and many others | Cream of Tartar were seriously injured.

"A. M. C. PRIEDICINE CO., 578 aul St., Montreal.

ENJOY LIFE AS Many are miserable, weak and sickly, and suffer untold miseries through allments peculiar to their sex.

IT IS WRONG.
Most all these ills result from womb trouble OMPOUND of some sort. No wo-MILES' (Can.) VECETABLE COMPOUND and Miles' Sanative Wash. Prices 75c and 25. For sale by all Druggists.
They impart vitally and energy, and make the life of the "Mother ex" worth living.
Explanatory past hlot, "Woman's Triumph," free on application

TERLY ELOQUENCE. "If I were to go on playing, aunt, do you think that you could finish your He Writes a Letter of More Than Usual In- arising from inflammatory action. Un-terest to Suffering Humanity. At Wilberforce, Ohio, three miles north of Xenia and near Dayton and Springfield, is located Wilberforce

University and Payne Theological

These two institutions of learning have educated many ministers and In this somewhat noted educational centre, resides Bishop Benjamin W Arnett, D. D., a divine who is especial prominence because of his thrilling eloquence with which he has swayed many audiences. Among the high officials of the church, no one is more distinguished

BISHOP B. W. ARNETT.

Before being elected Bishop he was: leading minister in his church and also represented his country in the Ohio Legislature for several years. Having given this sketch of the law, bishop, the following testimonial from him will be found very interesting reading and fully explains itself. To whom it may concern: "In April, 1894, while on my way bride.

home from Philadelphia I caught a into rheumatism. It was impossible are all alike. for me to rest by day or sleep by night. About the first of June I was compelled to take to my bed, where I remained for some time. When I was able to get up. I could only get about by tism grew worse, lasting all through is restoring the usurious interest he the winter of '94 and '95. I suffered as had taken from its patrons. never suffered before. I thought that the spring would bring me relief. Stop that Cough! Take warning. It but it did not, consequently I was may lead to Consumption. A 25c. botforced to cancel a number of engage | the of Shiloh's Cure may save your life. ments to speak. "One day in June, 1895, my wife suggested seem to help my case. "She said no more, but went to I have cause to hate more than another, prevailed in England that the bride Xenia, Ohio, and bought a box of the

"For months previous she had been tism. I carry a box of Dr. Williams'

"I cheerfully bear testimony, and The Coroadas of Brazil have no mar- liams' Pink Pills to several people. Yours for God and Man.

Benjamin W. Arnett. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

AN AMATEUR SNUBBED. never loved but thee. Then we must, part, the maid replied; head and neck were so severe she no amateurs for me.

The Eskimo is about as unceremon- senior partner of the firm of F. J. CENEY & Co.. then he is entitled to a wife. He goes the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Cararrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRE CURE Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 3th day of December, A. D. 1896. A. W. GLEASON, a third time he is entitled to marry acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. G. CHENEY & CO., Tolodo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

NO MORE TIGHT SHOES.

According to the trade papers of the bootmakers the smallest sizes of ladies' shoes. A tight shoe was not altogether incompatible with the slow, short strol in the open air that at one time sufficed, although the ordeal was somewhat pain- that Spain will never agree to the sale foot gear is possible in the eight-mile walk on the golf links, or the bicycle. | ively concerning herself. Although the cramped foot incased in the diminutive pointed shoe is disappearing, there is no reason why the foot ness which so well becomes a woman. Possibly those X rays have also somehing to do with it, for the Queen of Portugal has been startling the ladies of her court by showing them their translucent selves distorted by the com-

Adams' Ginger Beer

Adams Extract Lukewarm Water - - Two gallons. Dissolve the sugar, cream of tartar and yeast n the water, add the extract, and bottle ; place in a warm place for twenty-four hours until it sparkling cool and delicious. The ginger beer can be obtained in all drug an 1 grocery stores in 10 cent bottles to make two gallons.

Cynic-These hard times make the girls miserable. Bennick-Because they have to economize, of course. Cynic-Yes, and men are so poor the dear creatures can't marry for money.

HOW BOYS CAN GET WATCHES. Boys you can earn a watch and chain by selling a few articles for us at 10c each. State your age, also your Then Referire

PAIN CANNOT STAY

Where Nerviline-nerve pain cure-is used. Composed of the most powerful pain subduing remedies known. Nervilline never fails to give prompt relief nam's is the only sure safe and painin rheumatism, neuralgia, cramps, pain in the back and side, and the host of less corn extractor. painful affections, internal or external equal for all nerve pains.

The whipping post has been revived

HIS PREDICAMENT.

First Literary Man-Hang it all There I've sent that shirt to the laundry and have forgotten to remove those silver cuff buttons my aunt sent me Second Literary Man-Why don't you run over and get them? First Literary Man-How can I go without my shirt?

Would-be Poet-Whats' the best time to write poetry? Has-been Poet-Just after you secure a situation from which you get enough salary to live comfortably.

For Constipation take Karl's Clover Root Tea, the great Blood Purifier. Cures Headache, Nervousness, Eruptions on the face, and makes the head clear as a bell. The sword and belt of Latour d'Auv-ergne, the first grenadier of France, has just been presented to the Paris Musse Carnavalet. Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot.

Mrs. Cox, of Vernon County, Mo., has fifteen married daughters, and is on the best of terms with her fifteen sons-in-

ALL ALIKE TO HER. Miss Gush-How I'd love to be a June

Miss Sere-It's wicked to discriminvery severe cold, which soon developed ate. You'll soon find that the months The best brier-root, from which pipes are made, comes from France and Italy.

wave of religion has enveloped a "The fall came on and the rheuma- money-lender in North Topeka, and he

CAUSE OF THE LIMP.

Cholly-Beg pawding, deah fellahit, assassination remains assassination that women should not have a mar- try them and see if they will not help yaw see to be-aw-limping this mawn-"I said, 'No, there is no use of get- Gussie-Yes, doncherknaw-I was for merit only, and that 'the law was | ting them for we have tried almost | courting an-aw-young lady in a "Karovsky, had you been called upon made to prevent young women from everything that has been recommend- conservatory, lawst evening, when her being chosen for their riches or neglect- ed to us, and none of the remedies -aw-fawthaw came in and gave me a rare old plant.

THE VALLEY OF PAIN

HOW ONE WOMAN MADE HER ES-

A Life of Torture Changed to a Life of Comfort and Happiness by Kootenay Cure.

Of all the intense and persistent forms of pain, one can scarcely conceive of anything more agonizing than Neuralgia. Its victim is one of those hat draws forth our sympathy and pity as all efforts to effect a cure with the ordinary remedies signally fail to do anything more than give the merest temporary relief. Unbounded joy should fill the hearts of neuralgic sufferers at the announcement that in Kootenay the "new ingredient" is effecting miracles in the way of banishing the excruciating agony which has rendered their lives a curse, perhaps Mrs. William Judge, of Crumblin, P. O., in the County of Middlesex, went before C. G. Jarvis, a notary public of Ontario, and made a solemn declaration-so firmly did she believe in Kootenay-to the effect that for many years she was an intense sufferer from Neuralgia. She says that the pains in her thought she would lose her reason. She has taken Ryckman's Kootenay of suffering lifted from her life. She has been transported from the Valley of Pain to the Hill Top of Health-and all through Kootenay. Mrs. James Kenny, of 30 York St. Hamilton, Ont., and many others tesify under oath, how they were released from suffering through the agency of Ryckman's Kootenay Cure. Full particulars of these cases will be mailed you by sending your address to the Ryckman Medicine Co., Hamil-

The remedy is not dear, one bottle lasts a month

To keep a restless child quiet boots and shoes are becoming less and lions, one full and the other empty of one. When she is captured from that less asked for. The eager participation pins. "The process of taking all the moment she becomes the wife of the in outdoor sports and recreations which pins out of the full cushion and stickposing each year of the unmarried girls accounts in a large measure for this pall. It has the merit, too, of being of a certain age. An auction sale was partial disappearance of very small noiseless." Imagine a churchfull of

It is semi-officially stated in Madrid a question which she regards as exclus-

JOSH BILLING SAID:

Next to a clear conscience for solid comfort give me an old shoe. Putnam's

WHAT SHE MISSES. Molly-I am sorry that I always happen to be out when you call.

Cholly-Oh, well, its' just youah beastly luck ye know.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

Hotel St. Charles. Finest Hotel on the Coast. Directly on the Beach. Salt and Fresh Water in Every Bath. Write for Booklet.

JAMES B. REILLY,

FOR TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS.

DOCTORS RECOMMEND

Ceylon Tea LEAD PACKETS ONLY

Successors to Onlare Caucalle DITERBOROUGH, CANADA.
The Best and Checytist The Best and Cheopest
Canoes, Skulls jounchest SEND FOR CATALOGUE AND GET OUR PROCES GEFORE BUYING

of the reputation enjoyed by the

Is oiled but once a year. Will last a lifetime. Get a catalogue. MANUFACTURED BY THE Canadian Typograph Co., Ltd. WINDSOR, ONT.

Doctors' Bills Are High Don't Pay Them

YOU SAY HOW? Keep your feet warm and dry. Be Patent Sleeper Flexible Insole Used in the manufacture of Boots and Shoes by J. D. King & Co., To-Welted up-to-dat + Boot-

THE J. D. KING CO., LTD., TORONTO. ONTARIO.

MARRIER REFERENCE REFERENCE REFERENCE PREFERENCE PREFERENCE

THREE PROPOSITIONS. -----$300.00 IN GOLD AWAY.

$100.00 IN COLD to the persons who can form the No. 1= greatest number of words from the letters in the words "LADIES' JOURNAL." No. 2= $100.00 IN COLD to the persons who can form the greatest number of words from the letters in the word "LEADING."

No. 3= $100.00 IN COLD to the persons who can form the greatest number of words from the letters in the ************

To enter any single contest you must send Thirty-five Cents in stamps (or P. O. Order) with your list of words, for which THE LADIES' JOURNAL will be sent to you for Four Months. You can enter all three by sending One Dollar with your list, and THE LADIES' JOURNAL will be sent for One Year. Every one entering all three will have a handsome little present sent postpaid, if their list of words exceed ten for each offer. The $100.00 offered in each contest will be divided as follows $30.00 to the sender of the largest list. $20.00 to the next. $10.00 to the next. $5.00 to each of the eight following largest lists.

To each of the first fifty sending in a list of thirty or more words we will send post-paid a handsomely bound book of poems. Don't delay sending in. Contest closes on July 31st. Names of the successful will be published in first issue of Ladies' Journal after date of closing. Words in English language only can be used.

73 Adelaide St. W., Toronto, Canada.

LADIES' JOURNAL.

Sweden Gold Mine! Capital Stock, $500,000.

ful. Now nothing but easy, well-fitting of Cuba, nor to foreign intervention in In shares of $1.00 each. Fully paid and Non-assessable.

A WORKING MINE,

And a sure dividend payer. It has an the necessary buildings, Boarding House, Blacksmith Shop, Shaft House, etc. Three shafts, one nearly 100 ft. deep. 5 large veins already opened up, all rich free milling quartz, which is being taken out and placed on the dump ready for

It is surrounded by several of the best known Mines in Rat Portage District, namely, the Sultana, Pine Portage, Norway, Triumph, and the Haycock, and only 7 miles from Rat Portage with every facility for economical working.

PRACTICAL MANAGEMENT.

The Company is formed on a business basis, only $500,000 and the Treasury stock is nearly one half.

100,000 shares only of Treasury stock (Fully paid and Non-assessable) is being offered, proceeds to be used for purchasing necessar Machinery, Stamp Mill, etc. This stock is going well. If you are looking for something safe and sure, BUY NOW. These shares will soon be PAR, for the Sweden will be & SURE DIVIDEND PAYER. THE FOLLOWING TELEGRAM HAS JUST BEEN RECEIVED: "Struck rich body of ore. AVERAGE assays Forty One Dollars,

21 4 elaide St. Corentor

CHAS. E. CARBERT. (Signed) Becy. Sweden Gold Mine." All application for stock, subject to increase in price, to be made to WILLIAM C. F. Mining Broker,

REV. DR. TALMAGE ON NE

FOR FAITH IN THE GOSPEL An Elequent Sermon to Those With Boubl and Whose Faith Shipwrecked The Skepite's Conclusively Benit With. or laimage preached on

VOL 11: NO 25

from the text Acts xxvii, 44. on broken pieces of the ship Never off Goodwin Sands or ries or Cape Hatteras was worse predicament than, in $ terranean hurricane, was t ship, on which 276 passeng driven on the coast of Malta, I ed Citta Vecchia. After a tv temptest, when the ship was disabled, and captain and cres come completely demoralized missionary took command of t He was small crooked-backed eyed, according to tradition Paul, the only uns ared mat He was no more afraid of a don tussing the Mediterral now up to the gates of he now singing it to the gat-s of he was afraid of a kitten plat a string. He ordered them to take their rations, first a them a blessing. Then he if their lines telling them th be res le land s far from lo heads, they would not lose so their mair as you could cut clis of the scissors-n read of it, whether it were ; age or golden with youth. shall not a hair fail from th Knowing that they can net the desire! port, they make ! the fourth night black with ov cargo so that when the ship will not strike so heavily. At they saw a creek and in their resolved to make for it. An cut the cables took in the tw they had on those old boats at the mainsail so that they mi

up on the beach by some forty

low. There she goes, tumblin the rocks, now prow foren stern foremost, now rolling o starboard, now over to the now a wave dishes clear over it seems as if the old craft forever. But up she comes agu irms around a mast he cries well, God has given me all t sail with me." Crash went su h force that it brok rash went the timber She parts amids nto a thousand fragments t goes, and into the waves 27 are pre pit de! Some of them brought up on the seashore thers had teen those on bro of the ship. The great gost the finest of the universe and more passengers than any constructed, and you could wreck it than you could throne of God Almighty. 1 the people would come abou could not promise a smooth ofttimes it will be tempest chopped sea, but I could pr arrival for all who took passa Great Eastern, so called by i star of the east a badge of But a vast multitude do n Jular passage. Their theology