Bombardment of Santiago

BY THE U.S. SQUADRON.

The Fighting Lasted Several Hours

And the Loss of Life is Believed to Have Been Very Heavy, But all Details are Suppressed by the Spaniards, Who Admit, However That the American Fleet Scored a Victory--Several of the Forts Totally Destroyed.

Port au Prince, Hayti, May 31.—About two o'clock this afternoon the American squadron, composed of fourteen warships, of which the cruiser New York displayed the flag of Rear-Admiral Sampson, and a number of torpedo boats began a heavy bombardment with heavy guns of the forts and harbour of Santiago de Cuba. The American fire was directed principally against the forts and the harbour.

The forts of Morro Castle, La Zocapa, and Punta Garda suffered especially. The cannonading was very persistent, and cannot have failed to be destructive. It lasted until 3.45 p.m. The town, which is situated near the inner end of the harbour, escaped damage. At 3.45 p.m. the cannonade diminished. About 3 o'clock cannon discharges were heard at a distance, which (presumably at sea) continued for some time, when the firing ceased completely.

The Spanish authorities maintain strict silence as to the number of victims, who were apparently numerous.—Mail and Empire.

Rev. W. McKibbin Dead.

A Presbyterian Cleryman who had Labored in Different Parts.

Stratford, Ont., May 30.—The death occurred at an early hour this morning of the Rev. W. M. McKibbin, B. A., in his 56th year. He has been suffering for some time with a disease of the throat. Mr. McGibbon, when quite young, removed to Canada from Ireland. He graduated from McGill College, Montreal, and soon after took charge of the Cardinal Presbyterian Church in the Brockville Presbytery. On resigning this charge he came to Millbank, where for 13 years, he preached, until compelled to retire, through ill-health last spring, when he removed to Stratford. For some years he has been the clerk of the Stratford Presbytery. He leaves a wife and family of six children 4 boys and 2 girls.

Harrison to Wrestle the Turk.

Last night the representative of Yousouf, the terrible Turk, met the Canadian champion, R. N. Harrison, and his backers and concluded arrangements for a wrestling match between the hitherto invincible Turk and Harrison. After some discussion Harrison announced his readiness to meet the Turk, the style to be Graeco-Roman, the stakes to be a purse of $1000. Articles of agreement were drawn up and signed by Harrison. They will be forwarded to the Turk, and if satisfactory to him he will also sign, and the greatest wrestling match ever seen will take place on the evening of Saturday, June 25, at Hanlan's Point. Harrison feels confident of giving the Turk a hard fight, as he has never been beaten in Graeco-Roman style.

The following are the articles of agreement :—This agreement made and entered into this 31st day of May, A. D., 1898, by and between R. N. Harrison and Ismail Yousouf. It is agreed that that the match is to take place at Toronto, Canada, on the 25th of June, A. D., 1898, best two in three falls, American Graeco-Roman style. The referee to be mutually agreeable to both parties to this agreement and to be named three days in advance of the contest. The bout shall be wrestled on a mat not less than 18 feet square. The stage shall be roped in. The decision shall be given by the rules shall govern. Hugging barred. Flying mare and greasy substances. No one allowed in the ring except principals and referee. The bout shall be wrestled to a finish, allowed until the contestants rest between parts. The parties to deposit their money with and

IN MEMORIAM.

(By request.)

Lines Written in Memory of Mr. James Thornton, who Died April 20th, 1898.

A loving heart has ceased to beat,
His happy spirit fled;
A faithful friend now is gone
To join the silent dead.

His heart could feel another's woe
And soothe another's pain;
A tale of want if told to him
Was never told in vain.

Loving and beloved was he
By all who claimed his care;
Dear Mary! oh! what grief for you
To see that vacant chair.

But God knows best, he called him home
And freed him from his pain;
Then be not selfish in your grief,
Your loss has been his gain.

Dear James, thou hast gone to rest,
We'll see thy face no more;
Thou'rt gone to share that kind caress
Upon that eternal shore.

The home in which was scattered light
With his bright smile did'st bear
Is now o'er shadowed with a gloom
Brought by his vacant chair.

May we keep our armour shining
When the Master over there
Will receive us without a question,
When the world shall call us dead.

'Tis hard for loving friends to part
In this broad vale of tears;
But at longest, oh, how short
Are man's alloted years.

BY A FRIEND, A. W., N.W. T.

(By request)

In Memory of the Late Mr. James Adams, who Departed This Life on May 18th, 1898.

O, cruel death, how could'st thou come
And take a loved one from our home,
How could thou, with thy ruthless hand
Call a loved one from our band.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
The place is vacant at our home
Which never can be filled.

He did not linger long with disease
To warn you he was to go,
Yet he for the kingdom was ripening,
Although you did not know.

Death has been here, and borne away
A loved one from our side,
Just in the glory of his days,
With his loved one by his side.

Perhaps our time may be as short,
Our days may fly as fast,
Oh! Lord, impress this solemn thought
To our weak, fainting hearts.

We can not tell who next may fall
Beneath thy chastening rod,
Some one is first, oh, may we all
Prepare to meet our God.

And when we have on that great day,
We know, our God to meet,
Our loved one shall be watching there,
Around the mercy seat.

Dear wife, I have gone on before,
To sleep my little sleep,
And I know you'll meet me on that shore,
Where no one can ever weep.

And his loving partner is left alone,
To roam on this wide earth,
But I know in heaven she'll find a home.
Where there is nothing but joy and mirth.

To heaven, I know our loved one has gone
To him, in time, we hope to come.
In peace he lived, in peace he died,
Life was desirous, but God denied.

MRS. C. R. NIXON.

(By request.)

Of Amy Rea, who Died May 23rd, 1898, at the Age of 8 Years and 6 Months.

Dear little Amy is gone before
To that bright and happy land;
With us here she will be no more,
But will grasp her Father's hand.

Though we miss her here below,
Our loss is but Heaven's gain;
She has left this world to go
And for ever with Christ to reign.

By and bye when life is o'er
And our journey is complete,
We shall reach that Heavenly shore,
There, little Amy we shall meet.

Then our joys will last for ever,
Our singing ne'er give o'er,
With songs and shouts we'll welcome
The saved ones to that shore.

DANDELION WINE.

How to Make a Refreshing Summer Beverage.

A writer in the Peterboro Review gives the following formula for making a superior kind of dandelion wine, and we reproduce it for the benefit of our many readers:

(1) Two quarts of blossoms; four quarts of water; stew twenty minutes; strain and add three pounds of granulated sugar and two lemons, and again stew twenty minutes; strain a second time, then add one cake of compound yeast or three table spoonfuls of hop yeast; allow it to ferment ten days, then bottle and keep in dry place.

(2) Two quarts of dandelion blossoms, four quarts of water; simmer twenty minutes; strain and add two pounds white sugar, slice in two lemons; put on stove and simmer another twenty minutes; put in open crock, and when lukewarm add one compound yeast cake—not Royal.

ICE-CREAM SOCIAL.

The Bethel Epworth League held a most enjoyable and profitable ice cream social in their church on Tuesday evening. The church was filled to the doors. Rev. R. M. Pope occupied the chair and after a few interesting remarks, he called on the League choir for a selection, which was rendered in a very creditable manner. Rev. Mr. Robinson was called on for an address. His remarks were very interesting, keeping the audience in good humor throughout. Rev. John M. Garbutt, their former pastor, gave an address, and as usual, his remarks were full of enthusiasm. Mr. Garbutt's many friends were delighted to see and hear him again.

After several selections by the choir, the audience repaired to the basement of the church, where ice cream and cake were served by the members of the League who are to be congratulated on the grand success of their social. The proceeds amounted to nearly $25.00.
