The Advantages Of Buying At Sutcliffe's.

There are marked advantages in buying at Sutcliffe's. We believe that there is no more need for chicanery and fustian in the Dry Goods business than there is in one's own family, and the presence here of hundreds of buyers is evidence of general confidence in this ruling spirit.

Our system is safe, satisfying and not sensational. Our qualities are always reliable and our prices are moderate. (We do not care to take the quality out of the price to give you a "cheap" thing.)

Steel Widemills

The "Ideal," for 1897, is by all odds the best in the market. Its first cost is very low, when you remember that it is strictly a High Grader, and the annual cost for maintenance and repairs is lower still. I have handled those mills for six years and have never yet made a repair on account of defect in material or poor workmanship.
Send for particulars of my other lines.

Of Interest to Omemee Volunteers

The following communication was received by Capt. W. J. Neill, Omemee and should be of interest to all who intend going to camp at Niagara on the Lake in June:
Orilla, May 24th, 1899.
DEAR SIR,—I note by the Mirror you take your Company into camp on the 20th of June. I wish you a good season of instruction in the duty of defending our country and Queen if needs be.
With your permission I will as usual present a small gift to the man, who for neatness and good conduct most commends himself to your approbation, and may the choice be very difficult to make, because of the soldierly bearing and uniform good conduct of all.
Yours faithfully,
G. H. HALE.

Death of Mr. Jacob Hart.

The death of Mr. Jacob Hart, of the Township of Manvers, which sad event took place on the 11th inst., removes from that section one of the best known and most highly respected residents.
He was a very industrious and well informed man, and was a faithful member of the Methodist Church. He leaves three sons, Messrs. James, John and David, and three daughters, Mrs. David Southam, and the Misses Jennie and Elizabeth Hart, to mourn the loss of a devoted and loving parent. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family.

Do a Good Turn When You Can.

It needs not great wealth a kind heart to display;
If the hand be but willing it soon finds a way;
And the poorest one yet in the humblest
abode,
May help a poor brother a step on his road.
Oh! whatever the fortune a man may have won,
A kindness depends on the way it is done;
And though poor be our purse, and
though narrow our span,
Let us all try to do a good turn when we can:
The fair bloom of pleasure may charm
for awhile,
But its beauty is frail, and inconstant
its smile;
Whilst the beauty of kindness, immortal in bloom,
Sheds a sweetness o'er life, and a grace o'er our tomb.
Then if we enjoy life, why, the next thing to do
Is to see that another enjoy his life,
too.
And though poor be our purse, and
though narrow our span,
Let us all try to do a good turn when we can.
—Charles Swain.

The North Land.

Wide is the Northland;
We are possessed of it;
Ours is the east of it;
Ours is the west of it;
South of it; north of it;
Ours is the full worth of it;
Ours is the best of it;
Widespreading Northland.
Rich is the Northland;
Large the expanse of it;
Wealth in the seas of it;
Lofly the trees of it;
Mighty the streams of it;
Coal in the seams of it;
Gold in the sands of it;
Rich dowered Northland.
Blest is the Northland;
Her people are blest in it;
Winter doth whiten it;
Spring comes to brighten it;
Summer gives health in it;
Life here hath zest in it;
Blest is the Northland.
Men of the Northland;
This was your battlefield;
Battling with the stormy seas;
Hewing down mighty trees;
Bridging the flowing streams;
Rifting its coaly seams;
Foraging mine and field;
Victor of Northland.
Freemen of Northland,
Keep what your sires have won
The fair homes you now possess;
Won from the wilderness;
Guard well from every blow,
Of traitor or foreign foe,
Free land for freemen's sons—
Sons of the Northland.

Braun Killed His Wife And the Authorities Killed Him —One of the Most Treacher- ous Murders Ever Thought of.

Sing Sing, N. Y., May 29th.— Adrian Braun was put to death by electricity here to-day for the murder of his wife. Braun killed his wife in Sing Sing Prison on March 5, 1898. At the time of the murder Braun was serving a two years' term in the prison for wife-beating. His wife visited him frequently and on the day she met her death she carried him some delicacies of which he was fond.
Braun, who was employed in prison as a potato peeler, went to the visitors' room to see her with a knife secreted in his clothes. The two conversed together in the most friendly terms until the prison detective told them their time was up. Braun pleaded for a few extra minutes and his request was granted. Suddenly he stood up with a long sharp-pointed potato knife in his hand. He brought it down with fearful force against the left side of his wife's neck, severing the jugular vein and the main artery in the neck. Before the detective could reach him he plunged the knife several times into the woman's body. Braun was taken to death house and to Warden Sage he said, in reply to a question, "Oh, my God, I didn't think I killed her."

week by Mr. Wilson and a den was dug out by some of our leading farmers in which were found three young ones. It is unnecessary to add that they were at once disposed of. It is a pity that they were not hunted more in the winter, which would perhaps have prevented present trouble.

"GOOD OLD TIMES."

My grandfater tells of the good old times
And stops now and then to sigh,
For he says that this era of frauds and crimes Makes him yearn for the days gone by.
And he makes me feel, with the teardrops steal
To my eyes as I mourn my fate,
That my ill starred birth brought me on to this earth
A decade or so too late.
He tells of the actors who trod the stage—
They didn't need scenery then—
And it does him good to recall the rage
Of some eminent public men.
"People didn't neglect to display respect Deliberate and profound,
And they'd never waste in uncomely haste
Their energies getting round."

GOD'S LITTLE GIRL.

She left her home in the starry ways
And reached our arms in the April days.
We thought to keep her and hold her here,
And our little girl we called the dear.
One pleasant even when the sun had dipped
Out of sight, and the stars had slipped Silently back to their wonted ways,
She turned her face with a wistful gaze
Up to the blue of the arching skies.
We knew by the look in her pretty eyes
And how she gazed that brightened her small face so
It was time for God's little girl to go.
A kiss we dropped on her curly head.
"Sweet little heart, goodbye!" we said.
Then unafraid, though the way was dim,
God's little girl went back to him.

MURDERED THEIR FATHER.

Children of Rapid City, South Dakota, Shot Him Because They Said He Was Cruel.
Rapid City, S. D., May 29th.— Little Lena Bouts, 14 years old, and her brother Nicholas, 10 years old, were to-day brought here charged with the murder of Frank Bouts, their father. Bouts was a Burlington & Missouri River Railroad contractor. The little girl admits the crime, and the boy adds that he did what he could to kill his father. The father is said to have been cruel to his family, and this appears to have been the motive of the crime.
The boy steadied a rifle while the little girl pulled the trigger.
The family is well known and prominent in the western part of
