PENNY BANKS IN DANGER

Just Now Youngsters Are Preparing to Vigorously Attack Them.

This is the time of the year when banking becomes very hazardous, and as the days go by banks ought to be watched very, very closely. There need not be any special watchmen employed, as the only sort of banks threatened are the penny banks of the children. The circus is coming to town, and it is a mighty big one, too, being no less than the Consolidated Adm Forepaugh-Sells Brothers' Show, and it is promised that it will be 'at' the largest circus exhibition ever brought here. It must not be supposed that because this show has been made so enormously large that any attention to the children has been overlooked. Run, as it, by the four greatest circus managers in the world, who operate and control the three biggest shows in the world—the Barnum and Bailey and Buffalo Bill shows, as well as this one—the children are not going to be the victims. Those astute managers understand quite as well as anybody else that it takes four or five grown persons to take one child to the circus, and what they want is the children. Give them enough children and there will be enough grown persons to fill the tent, no matter how big they may make it. This great exhibition is to appear in Peterboro on Saturday, June 24.

Mr. M. J. Wilson was a visitor to Lindsay yesterday.

Messrs. J. J. Williams and Jno. Nicholson left for West Rush, N. Y., this week. Mr. Williams has gone to seek employment. We wish him every success.

Master Ed. Dixon, of Toronto, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. E. Wilson, Burg-st.

The Mirror extends its heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Helen J. Lamb and family in the great loss sustained by the death of her husband, the late Mr. Samuel Lamb.

Rev. E. Roberts has received an invitation to St. Helen's Church in the County of Huron, on Sabbath next, one that he dedicated twenty-five years ago.

Rev. A. W. Coone will preach in the Methodist Church, Omemeo, and at Lebanon, on Sabbath next. All are invited to hear this talented Minister of the Gospel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mulligan have gone on an extended visit to England, Ireland, and Scotland. We wish them a safe and pleasant voyage.

The funeral of the late Mr. Samuel Lamb on Tuesday was one of the largest ever witnessed in this section, showing the high esteem in which deceased gentleman was held by his many friends.

Mr. W. F. Davidson is carrying on the Omemeo Drug Business during the absence of Mr. Mulligan.

Rev. S. C. Moore will give an address on the "Young Peoples' Forward Movement for Missions," at the Methodist Church on Friday evening next at 8 p.m. All interested in missionary work and especially the young people are cordially invited to attend. Members of the League will please all be present.

Get your Repairing done at W. F. McCarty's Jewellery Store. No high prices. "Live and Let Live," our motto. All work warranted. Come and see us. 77 Kent-St., Lindsay.—5-tf

Experimental spraying, Mr. Joseph Sandy's Orchard, Thursday, June 22nd, at 2 p. m.

The death of Mrs. John Nicholson, nee Miss Elizabeth Williams, which took place at the home of her father, Mr. H. Williams, Surgeon St., Omemeo, on Wednesday of last week, was one of the saddest events that has ever taken place here. Deceased had been visiting her parents and intended returning to her home in West Rush, N. Y., on Monday previous to her death, but was stricken down with lung trouble, with the above fatal results. Mrs. Nicholson was highly respected by a large circle of friends, who will unite with us in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her loss. The funeral on Friday to the Emily Cemetery was largely attended.

The local agency for Martin's Steam Laundry is at the Mirror Office. Leave your parcels early.—4-tf

A Lawn Social under the auspices of the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church, will be held on the Church Grounds on Thursday, June 22, 1899. Autograph Quilt in Silk, Crazy Patch-work design, will be sold by auction during the evening. Ice-Cream and Tea will be served during the evening. The Omemeo Citizens' Band will be in attendance and render selections of music. All are invited to what is expected to be the most enjoyable Lawn Social of the season, to commence at 6 p. m. Admission, 20c. Children, 10c. Proceeds for Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society.

We were very pleased to call at the homestead of Mr. E. S. Morgan, Emily, last week, and to inspect his new house which is ready for bricking and painting. Mr. Morgan is to be congratulated on his push and enterprise. He will have one of the finest homes in the township when completed. Everything is up-to-date and is a house that would do credit to a town or city. It is situated on a splendid elevation, from which a magnificent view can be had of Omemeo and the surrounding country.
