Miss Sarah Lamb visited friends in Lindsay last week.

Mrs. John Morrison is visiting her friends in Peterboro.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. David Balfour, and report a splendid time. Mrs. Balfour's kind hospitality will long be remembered by all present.

Mr. W. H. Kennedy was in town last week on business.

Mrs. Charles McCaffrey was visiting her Toronto friends last week.

Mrs. Sam Lamb, of Peterboro, is visiting at the home of her son, Mr. W. J. Lamb.

The New Confectionery Rooms corner Charlotte and George sts. Peterboro, (Carson's old stand), retail and wholesale. The most up-to-date place for confectionery, temperance drinks, &c. A call is respectfully solicited.

The many friends of Rev. J. H. Locke are pleased to notice that he will remain on this circuit for another year.

A most profitable and interesting session of the Woman's Institute was held in McCaffrey's new block, on Saturday. Very valuable information was given by the able speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stinson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Blakely at South Monaghan.

Revs. Percy Thornton and E. Rowland spent Sunday at their homes here.

The picnic held in Mr. W. Magee's beautiful grove, Emily, on Friday last, was a success in every way. The day was perfect, the attendance large and the program very enjoyable. The foot ball match, Omeme vs. Ida was a fast game from start to finish, the only goal taken being scored by Ida. A dainty supper was served by the good ladies of Orange Corner, after which dancing was resumed and continued until about nine o'clock, when all left for their homes, delighted with the proceedings. The energetic committee who had charge of the picnic deserve credit for their untiring efforts in providing such an excellent program.

Man's Most Critical Age.

Very often the vital resources are small at forty-two, but if not then, between fifty-seven and sixty-two years of age there is a strange slowing down and loss of vitality. It is important that this transient period of decay should be checked; strength must be imparted to the tired brain, the weakened nerves must be fortified. The wise man will use Ferrozone whose potency is particularly applicable to these critical periods. Ferrozone quickens the whole being, imparts vigor and power, pushes back the onset of senility in a very manifest way. It's because Ferrozone gives strength, vitality and vigor that it is useful to old men. Try it. Price 50c.

PETERBORO CHEESE BOARD

4567 Boxes of Cheese Sold at One Price.

Wednesday, June 7th.

This morning's Cheese Board was unique in that the whole board, comprising 4,567 boxes sold at one price, 9 1/8 cents, the only bid that was made. The buyers were very anxious for the cheese, and bid sharply, as soon as the one who had the call had made his selection. It was the most successful sale that has been held on the Peterboro Board for some time. Mr. Publow, of Brockville, Chief Inspector was present, and addressed a few words to the Board, at the conclusion of the sale.

The following factories boarded the amounts opposite:—

Keene	175
Warmister	175
Shearer	115
Central Smith	180
North Smith	195
Villiers	110
Warsaw	120
Westwood	230
Oakdale	172
Missing Link	75
Daisy D.	65
Lakefield	130
Pine Grove	160
Peterborough	75
Otonabee Union	60
Maple Leaf	135
Myrtle	155
Ormonde	200
Young's Point	70
Lang	165
Fraserville	90
Indian River	145
North Dummer	85
East Emily	100
Trewern	105
Balduff	55
Bensfort	140
Cedardale	51
Stony Lake	55
Mount Pleasant	88
Norwood	120
Brickley	82
Shamrock	105
Fleetwood	155
Dartford	110
Buckhorn	112
Killamey	110
South Burleigh	33

Only one bid was made, that of Mr. Fitzgerald, who offered 9 1/8. There was no increase on that figure and he called Cuckhorn, Myrtle, Westwood, Central Smith, Lakefield Villiers, Keene, all accepted. At the same price Mr. Whitton called Dartford, Shamrock, Brickley, Norwood, Ormonde, Bensfort, these accepting.

Mr. Cook, also at 9 1/8, called Missing Link, Otonabee Union, Lang, East Emily, Trewern, Mount Pleasant, Peterborough, Indian River, Fleetwood. All these factories accepted the offer. Mr. Kerr took Shearer, Warsaw, Pine Grove, Warmister, Maple Leaf, Balduff, Cedardale, and Mr. Rollins cleared the Board, taking at the same price, North Smith, Oakdale, Daisy D., Young's Point, Fraserville, North Dummer, Stony Lake, Killamey, and South Burleigh.

At the conclusion of the sale Mr. Publow addressed the meeting on some matters of interest to cheese makers and buyers. He said that he was here for the purpose of inspecting the factories in this section and would devote the rest of this week to that purpose. He expressed his pleasure at the manner in which the sale was conducted and was glad to see the buyers so snappy for the cheese. He did not remember having ever seen a sale in which the buyers were so anxious to buy. He was also glad to see that the whole board sold at the one price. It was an indication that the cheese was considered of uniform character.

Mr. Publow paid a tribute to the manner in which the board was conducted, and he congratulated the members on having such an efficient set of officers. What the Department was aiming at was to have all the cheese in the different sections uniform so that it would all be worth the highest price. He advised the makers that the quick ripening cheese to make that with more body in the curd. During the last few weeks some complaints had been received, and it was from this cause. He was in favor of inspection of cheese on the factory shelves, and said that he believed that it was due to this practice that the western board was obtaining a high price. Those in this section were turning out cheese of a better quality than those where the cheese was inspected in Montreal. He strongly advised home inspection.

The board then adjourned.

The following is the standing of pupils of S. S. No. 5, Emily. Names arranged in order of merit. Sr. Class 4—Addie Dewan, Kathleen Calligan, Mary Dewar, Joe Carroll, W. O'Neil, Dollie Stinson, Mary Parrington. ### HE WAS ACCOMMODATING.

She was newly married and did not know a little bit about either house-keeping or shopping, and she was giving her very first order. It was a crusher, but the St. Paul grocer was a clever man, and was used to all kinds of orders, and could interpret them easily.

"I want two pounds of paralyzed sugar," she began.

"Yes'm. Anything else?"

"Two tins of condensed milk."

He set down pulverized sugar and condensed milk.

"A bag of fresh salt. Be sure it is fresh."

"Yes'm. What next?"

"A pound of desecrated codfish."

He wrote glibly, "desiccated codfish."

"Nothing more, ma'am? We have some nice hoseradish just in."

"No," she said, "it would be of no use to us, we don't keep a horse."

Then the grocer sat down and fanned himself with a washboard, although the temperature was freezing.

THE MILLIONAIRE'S REWARD.

DISCONCERTING VEKY.

The millionaire stood by the Pearly Gate,

And sighed as he thought of his large estate,

And the cash he had left behind;

He had come from earth, and it broke his heart

From motor, and mansion and all to part!

Yes, it rather preyed on his mind.

"After all," thought, "there is nought to fear;

I had Heaven on Earth, and I'll have it here—

For in life I did nothing wrong;

And I built a church which I well endowed,

So if I'm not fit for the heavenly crowd

Let a fitter one come along."

So he knocked and called, "Hi! are you there?"

(His manners were those of the millionaire)

And his soul very much rejoiced,

And St. Peter said, "Yes, I know your name."

But you cannot come this way all the same;

"You will please to go by the hoist."

"I'll go by the hoist with pleasure," said he:

"When does it go up, for I long to be

In reach of my heavenly crown?"

"It's ready to start," St. Peter replied;

"But listen to this, ere you step inside—

It doesn't go up, it goes down."

Stay on the Farm, Young Man.

They tell me, young man, that you are thinking of leaving the farm.

Don't do it; keep close to the soil.

You are tired of feeding the cattle,

The sheep and the pigs, tired of chopping wood,

Tired of cleaning stables out, tired of all.

You have visited the city and the roar fascinated you.

You don't see behind the scenes. It is only the world on show.

It was only the dress parade you have seen the great houses of the rich, their carriages and their sleighs and flying robes. You have gone to church bright with electricity by the choir above, and the organ towering above all.

You have gone to the theatre, you have seen the tragedy and were stirred, and here you are now sitting by the kitchen stove in your little home, and in a little while you have to go out and look after the stock.

You are tired of it all.

Don't say that; you are the most independent and most important man on God's footstool.

You know no boss. If you go to the city, you will become one of the mob who work by the clock and the whistle.

Now you can take a day and no one can dock you. If you went to the shop you would become part of the machine.

They would tell you to do that and that and you would have to obey orders. You, young man, would be working for so much a day. You are an employer in league with nature who serves and works while you rest, and transforms your orchard into a bank account through the warm sun and rain.

Stay with the farm, young man, and some day dad will tell you that the place is yours for he is growing old and will move to the town, to spend his last well earned rest. Stop on the farm for it is a healthy place to live on, where you get a complexion from nature's brush, and an arm made strong in God's gymnasium where you need no medicine to make you fit.

Stay on the farm where life is natural and friendships more real, where you can wear what you want, without being criticised. Stay on the farm with its spirit of trust and friendliness, from the collic, who follows you up and down the line, to the swallow who builds his nest in your barn.—Exchange.

A SAD CASE.

The following letter, addressed to the Secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, Toronto, from the Rector, Norwood, Ont., and signed by Rev. J. McKee McLennan, a well-known Anglican minister of the province, needs no comment of ours. It reads: "I desire to secure the admission into the Free Hospital for Consumptives at Gravenhurst of a young woman, a member of my parish. The case is a very sad one, and if help can at once be given, a promising life can be saved. Three years ago the mother died of consumption. Since that time it has been my painful duty to bury two of the sons with the same disease. Now Annie, aged about seventeen, and a boy of fourteen, are all that remain of the family. The poor girl has been in Muskoka, boarding at a private house, waiting to be admitted. She returned home last week, and within twenty-four hours of her return her father dropped dead in his buggy while driving into Norwood. The case is surely one that must appeal to the sympathies of everyone, and yet, I fear, only one of the many that are constantly coming under your notice."

[Note.—Readers—and may their number be many—who desire to assist in this worthy work may send their gifts to Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Rt. Vice-President, National Sanitarium Association, Toronto, or Mr. W. J. Gage, Chairman of the Executive Committee, Toronto.]

Will You Help It?

THE HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN

For it Cares for Every Sick Child in Ontario whose Parents Cannot Afford to Pay For Treatment.

The Hospital for Sick Children, College street, Toronto, appeals to the fathers and mothers of Ontario for funds to maintain the thousand sick children that it nurses within its walls every year.

The Hospital is not a local institution—no Provincial. The sick child from any place in Ontario who can't afford to pay has the same privileges as the child living in Toronto and is treated free.

The Hospital had last year in its beds and cots 761 patients, and there were 196 cases outside of Toronto.

The cost is 98 cents per patient per day, and there were 129 sick little ones a day in the Hospital.

"GOOD DAY, DOCTOR."

Since its foundation the Hospital has treated 10,371 children—a total of 7,500 of these were unable to pay and were treated free.

Every dollar may be the translator of your kind thoughts into the Hospital kind deeds.

Everybody's dollar may be the Friend in Need to Somebody's child.

Let the money of the strong be merry to the weak. The Hospital pays out dividends of health and happiness to suffering childhood on every dollar that is paid by the friends of little children.

If you know of any sick child in your neighborhood who is sick or crippled, or has a defect send the parent's name to the Hospital.

"SHE'S KNITTING" See the example of what can be done for club-foot children. There were 14 like cases last year and hundreds in 25 years.

Please send contributions to J. B. Robertson, Chairman, or to Douglas Davidson, Sec. Treas., of The Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, Toronto.
