Lady Selina Scott, mother-in-law of Earl Russell, who in January last was sentenced to eight months' imprisonreleased on Thursday morning from

Sir Blundell Maple has not subscribto the Transvaal raid, has made its report, in which it throws the responsibility and places the blame upon Mr.

The Duke and Duchess of York will start on August 15th on a visit to Ire-

Hall the tragedienne discovered that

UNITED STATES.

Senator Hanna has indicated his willingness to arbitrate the trouble between the striking miners and the coal idleness have now to break stones like

GENERAL.

door to each other. One very windy

Parent-Sir, wo

d up simi-

ming how from the

thus en-

his enemy

mce, I will

tening down

lar cases, do pen it in

p) mysteric

good reasons to believe that an en- detestough only child?

out his law TE TRUE.

and wearing coarse overalls.

ed two million and a half dollars to Holloway gaol.

DEAD RECKONING.

CHAPTER XI.

No one spoke for a moment or two after Margery had blurted out her news. Then for the second time Kar- on a couch, buried her face in her wsky said: "There is still one way of escape open to you."

"And that is?"- said Gerald again. "For me to personate you." "O monsieur!" cried Clara, a flash men were left alone.

"Karovsky, are you mad?" "Pardon, I think not; but one can who are coming to arrest you are Primby. "I shall never think ill of strangers to you, or rather you are a stranger to them; they have never set mistake, you will be far away."

more. Your English police know me not." Then he added with a shrug: "At | "You!" she gasped. St. Petersburg or Berlin, mai foi, it might be somewhat different." "Karovsky, your offer is a noble one, and the risk to yourself might be great- husband's portrait under your heel." | not the slightest apparent notice. er than you seem to think. In any case, I cannot accept it."

"As I said before. I am tired of this life of perpetual hide-and-seek. Let it was tracked to this place. It was I end: I am ready to face the worst." doom, you whose innocence will one day be proved to the world?"

" Vous avez raison, madame," said the ssian. Then placing his hands on · friend; hide yourself elsewhere for word an added sting. ittle time, and leave me to face those buildly forward. It was enough for the cotton gown. kind-hearted mountebank to know that to Gerald. "Come with me, monsieur, and I will hide you."

tiful eyes charged with anguished en- deed.

wish," answered Gerald sadly. knocking at some door below stairs.

At this juncture there came a loud "Venez, monsieur-vite, vite!" said anything."

turning to Miss Primby: "Madame.

will you oblige me by taking charge of will only the following the first state of the these trifles for a little while?" With

"They will be mighty clever if they | "It may not be too date yet," ex- | His wife is amusing herself somewhat get them out of here," muttered Miss claimed Crofton as he sprang to one of listlessly at the piano. There is a Primby, as the articles disappeared in the windows and tore aside the curtain. slightly worn look about her eyes, and the precaution to fasten, had apparent- Primby and Margery were too startled no lack of money, and Stephanie had after flashing a bull's-eye in her face, a dead man."

known by the name of Stewart?" said laid a hand on Picot's arm. the sergeant interrogatively as he ad- would you do?" he asked. vanced into the room, while his two the act of lightning a cigarette at the get away." fireplace. "Who are you, sir, and by apartment?" he demanded haughtily.

der, said: "Gerald Brooke, you are Depechez-vous-quick." charged on a warrant with the wilful murden of the Baron Otto von Rosenberg on the 28th of June last at Beau- ald: "You must not stop here any lieu. near King's Harold, and you will have to consider yourself as my pris- back at any moment."

The Russian dropped his cigarette. "There is some strange mistake," he said. "I never either saw or spoke to the Baron von Rosenberg on the 28th your hands," said Gerald with grave "All right, sir; you can explain about at somewhere else; but I should adse you to say as little as possible One of the men had advanced into the tion. "I say, sergeant," he whispered, "the gent don't seem to answer much to the printed description, does he?" "Idiot!" whispered back the other; "as if a man couldn't dye his hair and you see that man stir from his chair. make his beard and moustache grow press your finger as nst this leetle any shape he liked! Besides, we knew thing, and-pouf-he will never stir beforehand that he was disguised, and again. Hold him steady-so. You have this is the room where we were told no fear-hein?" we should find him."

When the sergeant turned again, gery. Clara was standing before Karovsky. with a hand resting on each of his shoulders. "You see." whispered the sergeant to his subordinate. "We were told his wife was living here with him, as well as an elderly lady—the aunt. He's the this," muttered the latter between his gent we want, and no mistake." while, cara mia," said Karovsky, as he sponded the mountebank airily. Then longer. I will change it all. I will go Spatts-Oh, no. He is only breakdrew Clara to him. For a moment perceiving a corner of a handkerchief her head rested against his shoulder, then his lips lightly touched her fore-of hope leaping suddenly into hereyes. Margery with a chuckle as the sound "How noble, how magnanimous of the Russians again.'

to get away," said Clara. "The police case of an enforced separation. eyes on you before. I will answer to may discover their mistake at any mo- At the end of a few minutes Margery | The sullen fire in his heart blazed up we met last.

band himself." "What do you mean?" "Gerald, for my sake!" implored his | "Clara Brooke, the hour of my re- sound broke the silence. At the end eyes cowed, for a time at least, the fit- neck.

through my efforts that your husband "No. no! Would you court a feion's Never could there be a sweeter re- without a word, and so down stairs and crossing to the sideboard, poured himten by Heaven!" After that first glance round, he had Left alone. George Crofton began at Picot, who had been listening and Miss Primby and half to herself, as she stances. The room was lighted by a teen captured? Every day, that is the list expected that between the list of watching in the background, now came defiantly rolled up the sleeves of her lamp on a low table, and to this table first news I look for."

ing at each other in silence. his friends were in trouble. "I have | Clara's heart beat painfully, but her to his innocence. It is possible you but to make it sweeter at the last." may believe in it-wives will believe

But Clara's ears, of late, ever on the alert, had heard a certain sound. With Gerald hastily kissed his wife, grip- a low cry she sprang to the door; but Villa. It is a March evening, and the the Russian's hand for a moment, before she could reach it, it was open- clock has just struck nine. George Crofthen followed the mountebank. ed from without, and Gerald, accom- ton is smokin ga cigar, and gazing fix-It will not be wise to keep our panied by Picot, appeared on the thresh- edly into the fire, seeing pictures in stick to realities; it may perhaps be

"There stands the villain who bethat he handed her a card-case, a pock- trayed you," exclaimed the young wife, et-book stuffed with papers, and a pointing to Crofton with outstretched

"He! My cousin! Impossible."

But next instant, with a bound like the line of her lips looks thinner and the capacious depths of some hidden that of a tiger. Picot had flung himself more hard set than it is wont to do. on him and had gripped his neck as Married life had not brought Stephanie The knocking was repeated in loud- in a vice with both his sinewy hands, the happiness, or even the content, she er and more imperative terms than be- The other was no match in point of had looked forward to. The awakening strength for the mountebank; and be- had come soon, and had not been a fore he knew what had happened he pleasant one. Not long had it taken her "Let the door be opened," said Kar- 'found himself on his back on the floor, to discover that she had mated herself -- sky to Margery; then he addressed half choked with Picot kneeling on his with an inveterate gambler, if not with few words hurriedly in a low tone chest and regarding him with a sar- something worse. So long as plump he was bidden. "Mr. Gerald Brooke, commonly Gerald stepped quickly forward and

"Shoot him like the dog he is, if he men took up positions close to the move but one finger. if he move not, -tie him up-gag him-and leave him The Russian turned-he had been in here till you, monsieur, have time to Then addressing himself to Margery, what right do you intrude into this but without taking his eyes for an instant off Crofton, he said: "My good The sergeant went a step or two Margot, in my room up-stairs you will nearer and laying a hand on his shoul- find one piece of rope. Bring him here. Margery needed no second bidding.

Then the mountebank said to Gerlonger, monsieur; the police may come "Yes-come, come," urged Clara. "Another minute and it may be too

"George, I did not deserve this at sadness to his cousin. The only answer was a scowl and an execration nut- debts-our difficulties-our "-tered between his teeth.

Gerald, his wife and Miss Primby retired into the farther room and closed the folding-doors. Margery was back by om, and now drew the officer's atten- this time, carrying a small coil of rope. 'Good child,-Now hold this so," said Picot, as he placed the revolver in Margery's hand, and stationed her about a couple of yards from Crofton. "If "It would do me good to shoot the likes o' him.' With a dexterity that seemed as if it might have been derived from long practice, Picot now proceeded to bind Crofton securely in his chair. "You scoundrel! you shall suffer for protruding from his pocket, he drew it forth, and tearing a narrow strip off it, he proceeded to firmly bind the other's wrists; then making a bandage of the remainder, he covered his mouth with it and tied it in a double knot at the back of his neck. "Ah, ha! that do the trick," he laughed. "How found you yourself? Very comfortable—hein?"

Margery, who had watched the operation with great giee, now gave back the revolver and retired to the inner room. Picot sat down a little way from his prisoner, but for the present took no further notice of him. He had heard a footstep on the stairs a minute or two previously, and rightly judged it was Gerald already gone.

From the first day of taking up to him. I shall go. You and I, and the tied tim a double hot othe to the inner to him. I shall go. You and I, and to the tied the other to him. I shall go. You and I, and to him, I shall go. You and I, and to him, I shall go. You and I, and to him, I shall go. You and I, and to him, I shall go. You and I, and the tied the other to him. I shall go. You and I, and to him, their abode at No. 5 Pymm's Buildings, ed. "We can be friends, always friends stables at Hamilton. Clara and her husband had prepared -why not? But you will go your way The Grand Trunk Railway has de- made during the Queen's reign. A novel though on this memorable occasion never be quite sure. Listen! These men Monsieur Karovsky!" exclaimed Miss themselves for an emergency like the and I mine; that is all. present one. They were always ready | The cold indifference of her tone and for immediate flight, and had arrang- manner stung him to the quick. Evi-"Now, is the opportunity for Gerald ed the means for communication in dently she was minded to cast him off before they have time to discover their caused all three to start and stare at caused all three to start and stare at whispering a few hurried words in his nowise inclined to let her go. "What year ended June 30. each other with eyes full of terror. It ear. The mountebank nodded and smil- you say is utter nonsense. I would "And the consequences to yourself?" was the sound of unfamiliar footsteps ed and kissed the tips of his fingers. have you remember that you are my "A few hours' detention-nothing ascending the stairs. Mrs. Brooke Then the girl went back and the two wife, and that I can claim you as such lowing a dose of Paris green. shrank back as the door opened and men were left alone. But presently anywhere and everywhere.' George Crofton entered the room. both of them heard the footsteps of | "And do you imagine that if I were more persons than one descending the twenty times a wife I should allow you "Even so," he answered as he glanc- stairs. Picot listened intently till the or any other man to claim me as such ed round the room. "It is long since sound had died away, and then proceed- against my will I" demanded Steph, with ed to light a cigarette. Of Crofton, sit- a contemptuous laugh. Tza! tza! my | Manitoba, has been made a port of en-"Not since the day you crushed my ting there bound and gagged, he took friend, you talk like a child."

but now my turn has come. It was ished, he rose, pushed back his chair, in her husband's bloodshot orbs, as a last examination of his prisoner's Tophet below. who gave information to the police. bonds, he marched out of the room "Can such wickedness exist unsmit- him the door which divided the upper | would be a fool, Steph, to leave me | Wilfrid Laurier on October 16, Univer- assembled in their rooms at the Town rooms from the ground floor.

never taken his eyes from Clara's once to struggle desperately to free rald's shoulders, he said. "Go. Brooke mous intensity which lent to every little time, however, he discovered that the chair in which he was bound moved | not?" "Don't I just wish I was a man, in- on casters, and this discovery put an stead of a great hulking good-for-noth- idea into his head such as would not he managed by degrees to slide his the fullest extent his bonds would ai- try long ago." une petite chambre en haut," he said eyes blazed into his full of scorn and low of his doing, he held his wrists defiance. Then she said: "George Crof- over the flame of the lamp, and kept Any hour may bring the tidings of his ed first assistant engineer at Hamilis as innocent of the crime laid to his ermost coil of the ligature which bound "Yes, yes; go, dearest, with Mon- charge as I am. It is not he who is them was burnt through. When once sieur Picot." urged his wife, her beau- a murderer, but you who are one after his hands were at liberty, very few minthis night's work-in heart, if not in utes sufficed to make him a free man. 'My revenge is yet to come, Ger-A sneering laugh broke from his ald Brooke," he said aloud as he paused "For your sake, let it be as you lips. "I was quite prepared to hear at the door and took a last glance that rimarole." he said. "It was only round. "It is but delayed for a little to be expected that you should swear while, and every day's delay will serve

CHAPTER XII. We are back once more at Linden the glowing embers which are anything personal appearance as he used to be. pounds?" Dissipation has set its unmistakable seal upon him; he has the air of a man who is going slowly but surely down- you call it?-a Will-o'-the-wisp."

young pigeons were to be had for the The door at the foot of the stairs. Clara, with natural impulse, had plucking, matters had gone on swim-, sich Margery in her a arm had taken clung to her husband's arm. Miss mingly at Linden Villa. There had been never cared to inquire too curiously had been unfortunate in all. So far its destination." termed desperate.

say to me?" Her husband's back was to- to impossible that we should fail." and when you do-chut! I might as a volteur!"

you talked about them a little often- cannot starve, neither will I." er, it might be all the better. You seem neither to know nor care anything about them. You are out from morn- news like this, Steph," he said pres- ty per cent. greater than ever before ing till night. It is I who have to pro- ently. "Think of the prize! How is in the history of the country. mise, to cajole, to lie, first to one per- it possible for a man fixed as I am to son and then to another who come resist trying to make it his own? One

"Why, o' course not," laughed Mar- | "It is nothing new-it has been in | slate!-What say you, Steph?" my head for a long time. Shall I tell you what it is? Why not?" The fin- than I have said already," she answered gers of one hand were still resting on | coldly. "I must have time to think." the piano. She struck a note or two carelessly, and then went on speaking as quietly as though she were mentioning some trifling actail of every day life. "One evening, cheri, when you come home you will not find me; I pensive to-night. Do you suppose that shall be gone. This life suits me no he has fallen in love?

itself in a little while."

From the first day of taking up have found it out in time," she resum-as carelessly as she would an old glove.

They were standing face to face, and ment. and with the exception of a footfall other without speaking; but the clear found near Edmonton. She had been land. They will remain for ten days in gratifying, after so many years of land. now and then in the court below no resolute light that shone out of Steph's strangled by tying her hair about her Dublin, and will attend the Leopards- bour and anxiety for the good of my

George Crofton turned away, and out of the house, first shutting behind | self out a quantity of brandy. "You confer the degree of LL.D. upon Sir her a reception, but after they had as you talk of doing, were it only for one sity day. thing," he said dryly. He seemed to While celebrating the fall of the Bas- she did not feel strong enough to climb have quite recovered his equanimity, tile in Sommer Park. Montreal, a num- the steps. "If it pleases me to be a fool, why et discharged into the crowd.

"Has it ever occurred to you that any that my cousin, Gerald Brooke, has Central train at Niagara Falls and his

You have no ground for saying that. Mr. C. H. Wallace has been appointtion would be to you and me. Beech- 8500. ley Towers and six thousand a year-

"You deceive yourself." resumed will leave for Victoria, B.C., in a couple Steph. "You are waiting for what will of weeks and will proceed to Japan to tion. never happen. Nine months have promote a trade between that country A despatch from Washington says housemaid. The marriage caused quite passed since the murder, and the crime and Canada. is half forgotten. You let Gerald The Rideau ranges, where the D. R. Brooke slip through your fingers once; A. match will be shot this fall, are in out you will never have the chance of a neglected state. It is so rank with landed to annex the islands. doing so again .- Let us come back to weeds that when the riflemen are lying realities, to the things we can touch. down they cannot see the targets. Dreams never had any charms for me." He went back to the fireplace with his eigar, and took up a position on the hearth-rug. "As you say-let us would you think, what would you say. Mr. Sifton has decided to make no

"I should think and say that it was! not a fact, but a dream, a-what do British Admiralty have rejected the burning sun they were devoured by al-'And yet it is not a dream, but a sober solid fact, as a very short time

She raised her brows; evidently, she was incredulous. "You made sure that you would win two thousand pounds missioner in Australia, points out that reported. They point out three routes, at Doncaster, whereas you contrived to four million bushels of wheat, or its lose five hundred. You were just as equivalent in flour, will be needed to certain that you would win'-

"What I am referring to now has tinent through until next harvest. nothing to do with horseracing," he broke in impatiently.—"Listen!" he added; and with that he planted himself astride a chair and confronted her, resting his arms on the back of it and puffing occasionally at his cigar as he talked. "I am about to tell you something which it was my intention view of more effectually separating the Picot's hand went to some inner pock- how it had been come by. But after told now or a month hence." He mov- agents in the Western States, says dustries, notably the building trades, tween 43 and 44 per 1000. At the preview of more effectually separating the ricot's nand went to some inner pock- now it had been to and shoes, and iron ore, there at his chair nearer to her, and when he that the feeling in Michigan towards boots and shoes, and iron ore, there sent moment the London death rate appearance of the house from the low- et and drew from it a small revolver; a time Crofton's wonderful luck at each is creatly improved, and that is an improved, and that is an improved er, probably at a time when the do- then rising to his feet, he said to Crof- cards began to be commented upon; next spoke it was in a lower voice: Canada is greatly improved, and that is an improvement, but continued unmicile was divided between two fam- ton: "Oblige me by standing up, mon- people began to be shy of playing at the "The young Earl of Leaminton, who is those who are going to the North-West certainty about legislation helps to is 14.9 per 1000. So that in spite of the ilies. This door Margery now unbolt- sieur, and by taking a seat in that same table with him; pigeons were enormously rich, is to be married on will make first-class settlers. ed without a word; and without a word chair, or in one leetle minute you are warned to avoid him; and when, one the 27th of next month. On the 14th A despatch from Montreal states that considerable buying for export. unfortunate evening, he was detected of April one of the partners in a cer- a third case of small, ox has been discheating at the club, and unmasked by tain well-known firm of London jew- covered in that city, the patient having ed past her and tramped heavily up- some half-cowed wild animal, did as a member cleverer in that particular ellers, accompanied by an assistant, been taken to the nospetal eight days line than himself, his career in that will start for the Earl's seat in the sphere of life came to an end forever. north carrying with him jewelry of the from the public. The patient, who is a from the public. The patient, who is a But his ambition had not been satis- value of over twenty thousand pounds, brother or young Charbonneau, one of News from Tromsoe says that Prof. fied with the comparatively small gains for the purpose of enabling his lordship the first patients, is in a critical con- Andree started on Sunday afternoon on of the card-table; he had bet heavily to select certain presents for his bride. dition on the St. Leger and other races, and That box of jewelry will never reach Stephanie was staring at him with cord across the Pacific has just been ucation has adopted a proposal by sixty years. During the ten years from bilities, but the doing so had exhausted wide-open eyes. "You would not--" made by the steamer Empress of Japan, which foreigners are enabled to ob- 1838 to 1847 the mean annual death

Stephanie brought her roulades to an that box our own. The whole scheme of 17.3 knots an hour. end with a grand crash; then turning is cut and dried; all the arrangements half round she said in her clear metallic in connection with the journey are tones: "Have you anything to talk known to us; and so carefully have our about, mon ange? Have you nothing to plans been worked out, that it is next wards her, as he sat brooding sullenly | "And you, George Crofton, my husin front of the fire. "it is not often band, have sunk to this-that you that you stay at home of an evening, would become a common robber, a thief, hours afterwards.

He shrugged his shoulders. "What gash in his lip looked as large again took in Manitoba indicate that while Malsalley, the rebel leader, with six- to England to investigate the results would you have me talk about? Our as it usually did. "What would you the grain has been retarded by the cold ty followers attacked and burned the of English sanitary administration. He have?" he asked with a snarl. " My weather of May and the first half of British Government station of Gaya, on found that if the English death rate "Why not?" she broke in quickly. "If cursed ill-luck has driven me to it. I June, with favorable weather this the Island of Labuan, and carried off prior to 1881 had been maintained dur-

For a little while neither spoke. "I didn't think you would take my vation this year is from lifteen to twen- gone in pursuit. here demanding money when I have half comes to me because the plan is none to give them. Oh, it is a charm- | mine, but of course I can't work with- | lip, is dead. are you hatching now?" he demanded. and a fresh start in life with a clean per cent. advance in wages. "At present, I say nothing more

WRONG DIAGNOSIS.

(To Be Continued.)

Spudds-Young Harkins seems very

THE VERY LATEST FROM ALL THE WORLD OVER. Interesting Items About Our Own Country, Great Britain, the United States, and All Parts of the Globe, Condensed and Assorted for Easy Reading.

new company is underwritten. CANADA. Thirty-five horses were burned to A hundred distinguished London death in a fire at the Temple livery ladies gave a jubilee dinner to celeeach lady was privileged to invite a disfor its train crews. Peterson, Tate & Co., contractors for tinguished man. A meeting of the representatives of the fast Atlantic service, have bought the Beaver line of steamships. Trade returns show a large increase

Laura Merkins, aged twenty, of Stratford, committed suicide by swal-

The Victoria. Australia, rifle team won the Kolapore Cup at Bisley, the Canadians taking third place. The port of Morden, in Southern lain, the Colonial Office, and Lord Rosetry by the Dominion Customs Depart-"As I have now crushed your hus- A quarter of an hour passed thus, for a few moments they stared at each The body of an Indian woman was venge has struck. You slighted me once, of that time, Picot's cigarette being fin- ful, dangerous gleam flickering redly Mr. Dillon, a Hamilton hotelkeeper, which they will make an extended tour clapped his hat on his head, and after though it were a reflection from some after compelling the man to discorred in the north and south of the country. let him go.

blanched face. He spoke with a vene- himself, but all to no purpose. After a and was choosing a carar as he spoke, ber of people were wounded by a rock-A six-year-old son of Mr. John Har- arbitration. rington was run over by a Michigan

It is expected that between thirteen "Ah, bah! you mock yourself. Your and fourteen hundred delegates will For a little space, the two stood gaz- chair, along the floor. Then setting his cousin will never be arrested now; he attend the annual meeting of the Briteeth hard, and stretching his arms to has got safe away to some foreign coun- tish Medical Association in Mon-ton, believe me or not, but my husband them there unflinchingly till the out- capture, and then --- But you know ton at a salary of $1,000, and Mr. J. R already what the result of his convic- Haddle second assistant engineer at Mr. Fisher. Minister of Agriculture,

The Government has decided to enforce the alien labor law in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and British Columbia during the construction of party to take his life. "What, then, the Crow's Nest Pass Railway.

It is reported at Halifax that the er being exposed an entire day in the type of vessels proposed by Petersen, ligators. Tate & Co. for the fast Atlantic service, and that the contract will have to be revised.

Mr. J. S. Larke, Canadian Trade Com-

In addition to annexing London West | a Federal Government project. the City of London will ask power his balloon voyage to the North Pole.

of the Canadian Pacific line. She made tain doctors' diplomas by undergoing rate for England and Wales was 22.16 and matters at Linden Villa had now Yes, I would, and will," he answered the passage from Victoria to Yoko- examinations at French universities. per 1000, while for the ten years from come to a pass that might almost be with a sinister smile. "I and certain hama in ten days, three hours, and Intense excitement was created in 1881 to 1890 it was 19.1 per 1000. This friends of mine have planned to make forty-four minutes, being at the rate Havana on Thursday by the arrest of implies, on an estimated population of The three-year-old son of Mr. John bankers in that city, for selling mer- kept alive in each year of the latter on Tuesday swallowed a current in the insurgents.

garden. It lodged in the throat, at the It is stated in well-informed circles Exhaustive reports of the crop out- regarding sugar bounties. month a fair average crop may be two thousand pounds from the treasury. ing the ten years from 1881 to 1890 looked for The acreage under culti- The British Resident at Labuan has no fewer than 800,000 persons would

GREAT BRITAIN. Samual Charles Allsopp, Baron Hind-

ing life-mine! N'importe. It will end out confederates. My share will be Five thousand wrought nail work- night the lawyer was reading a book diseases, typhus and tubercular phibworth ten thousand at the very least; ers in South Staffordshire and North in his study when a terrific crash up- isis. Typhus, once one of the scourge "What do you mean? What new trick and then, hey presto for the New World Worcestershire, have struck for a ten affairs startled him. Upon investigat- of the country, is now practically ban-

The Woman Suffrage Bill was withdrawn on Thursday from the House of Commons, as there was no disposition on the part of the House to pass the In spite of formal denials, there is he coulded gagement has been virtually agreed gageduld meleasure, sir, upon between the Duke of Manchester thats impossi and Miss Mary Goelet, New York. The London press is very outspoken in condemning the recent despatch of

Secretary Sherman on the Bering Sea dispute sent in the form of instruc-tions to United States Ambassador THE QUEEN TO HER PEOPLE

DEEPLY GRATIFIED WITH HER SUB-JECTS' ENTHUSIASM. ment, for criminally libelling him, was Pleased With Seeing So Many of Her Subjects From all Parts of the World - She Thanks Everyone From the Depth of the Peterson fast Atlantic scheme, as at first reported; but will underwrite that amount, if the whole capital of the from the Queen to Sir Matthew. White A special supplement to the bondon

Ridley, the Home Secretary:-"I have frequently expressed my brate the progress that women have personal feelings to my people, and cided upon a new regulation uniform feature of the entertainment was that there have been many official expressions of my deep sense of the unbounded loyalty evinced, I cannot rest satis-France, the United States, and Great fied without personally giving utter-Britain was held in London to consid- ance to these sentiments. It is difficult for me on this occasion to saw how ence will be held shortly in the United | truly touched and grateful I am for the spontaneous and universal outburst of The Parliamentary South Africa loyal attachment and real affection ex-Commission that has been enquiring in- perienced on the completion of the sixtieth year of my reign. "During my progress through Lon-Rhodes, and exonerates Mr. Chamber- don on the 22nd June this great enthusiasm was shown in the most striking manner, and can never be effaced from my heart. It is indeed deeply town races and the Horse Show, after beloved country, to find that my exertions have been appreciated through-Sara Bernhardt fooled the munici- out my vast Empire. In weal and woe I have ever had the true sympathy of pal authorities at Portsmouth. They made elaborate preparations to give all my people, which has been warmly reciprocated by myself. "It has given me unbounded pleasure to see so many of my subjects from all parts of the world assembled here, and to find them joining in acclamations of loyal devotion to myself; The Pittsburg strikers are asking for and I would wish to thank them all from the depth of my grateful heart. "I shall ever pray God to bless them and to enable me to still discharge my Female prisoners in Kansas City duties for their welfare as long as life gaol, who have hitherto remained in lasts."

A SENSATIONAL MARRIAGE.

the men, dispensing with their skirts, A despatch from Philadelphia, Pa., United States Secretary Sherman has says :- Dr. G. F. Cadwalader, the head written instructions to Ambassador of one of Philadelphia's oldest and most Hay in London, in which he complains of the British Government's policy of exclusive families was married yesterdelay in dealing with the sealing ques- day in St. Paul's Episcopal church. to Bridget Mary Ryan, his former city. The bride came to this country on the first interference of Japan in five years ago from Tipperary, Irethe Hawaiian Islands the Stars and Stripes will be hoisted and blue jackets | land, and three years later entered the doctor's employ as housemaid. The doctor took more than an employer's Prince Eu Wha, heir-apparent to the interest in the fair Irish girl, and finalcrown of Corea, who is at present in ly proposed marriage. She accepted, and after vainly endeavoring to have the United States, is said to be followthe Roman Catholic Church, of which ed constantly by assassins, who are instigated by the Corean Progressvie she was a member, waive all restrictions, Miss Ryan gave up her religion An Indian named Tiger Cat eloped and joined St. Paul's Episcopal church.

stakes near the water's edge, and aft-Remarkable Preservation of Life During The commission appointed by the United States Congress to examine the deep waterway scheme of connecting The Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of Lonthe great lakes with the Attentic have don held a meeting in the Guild hall two of which are practicable and one the other day to prepare an address carry the population of the island conadvantages to be derived from the un- provement in the state of public health dertaking are such as to commend it as which has been brought about during her reign. The facts and figures According to the commercial reports from the Legislature to annex 350 acres from the United States trade has been brought forward were interesting, and of land in London and Westminster during the past week more than usually almost startling. In 1864, when Macau-Township along the bank of the river dull, even for this always dull season lay investigated the mortality of Lonbetween the city limits and the water- of the year. The general depression is don, the death rate was 25 per 1000. In also intensified by the coal miners' Mr. V. McInnes, who has charge of strike, and the number of men "out" 1865, not a sickly year, 1 in every 23 but it matters little whether you are the Dominion Government immigration is larger than last week. In some in- in London died, a death rate of beand the difficulties which such an increase always places in the way of san-The Turks are desolating the vil- itary administration, the mortality of London is less than one-third what it was a third of a century ago. Equally striking are 'ne facts with regard to the mortality of the whole The fastest steamship voyage on re- The French Supreme Council of Ed- of England and Wales during the last eighty rich Spanish merchants and 29,000,000, that 7,000,000 persons were Raymond, Pine Bush, near Galt, Ont., chandise and medicines to the Cuban period who would have died in each year

Dr. Thorne, in order to guard against the liability of a people to overestimate intersection of the bronchial tubes, and in Vienna that a European conference its own achievements, appealed to the in spite of the efforts of a physician will shortly be held in Vienna or Ber- testimony of Henri Monod, an official who was called, the child died three lin to discuss measures to be adopted of the Ministry of the Interior for against the United States tariff policy France. Monod was dissatisfied with he waste of life in France, and came have been lost who were preserved alive. Following this calculation upon the same lines, it appears that in the fifteen years between 1880 and 1895 the saving amounted to nearly a million

A sea captain and a lawyer lived next and a half-1.424,712. Special reference was made to two siderable damage ter. Forvered that an example of it, while as to p it was the sea cost badly homey. Has-he pulled prevalence has been diminishe half. Reference was, of course b smallpox, and the wonderful resur-Jenner's discovery. Nowadays a pock marked face is a rarity. Less than sixty years ago "He died of England's scourge," carved on a tombstone in Lancashire, was sufficient to tell every ids of the passer-by that he was at the grave of a victim of smallpox.