Patriotic Private Post Cards.

J. C. Wilson & Co., the extensive Paper Makers and Wholesale Stationers of Montreal and Lachine, send us advance proofs of their two new Patriotic Private Post Cards, which they are about to issue. They are very neatly lithographed in colors, and will no doubt be very popular, and have a large sale, especially the Canadian design, which represents the Canadian flag in a blanket snowsloe outfit, with a pair of snowshoes in her right hand, holding the Canadian flag in her left, the Beaver at her feet, a wreath of Autumn leaves entwining the words "The Maple Leaf for ever," the rising sun in the background, and at the bottom the motto "Patria Amamus." This card we consider the best production of its kind yet issued. The other is from the celebrated painting by Maud Earl, the celebrated standing of the Union Jack, with the words "What we have we'll hold." They will be for sale at all the Booksellers, or in quantity from the Publishers.

THE TELLER.
 A charming story by the author of "David Harum" has reached us this week. An unusual subject for romance here, a Bank Teller, falls in love with a girl, who is one of the directors, and the plot deals with the difficulties and complications which ensue in an interesting and admirable manner. The story is published by The Poole Printing Company, Limited, Toronto, and is for sale by all newsdealers, at the low price of 15 cents, or will be sent postpaid by the publishers on receipt of price.

Death of Mr. George Godfrey.
 Midland, Aug. 20.—At 6 o'clock this morning George Godfrey, nightwatchman at elevator No. 1, was drowned here. He was walking along the edge of the dock in front of the elevator, and it is thought that he accidentally lost his footing and fell in. Mr. Davy, who was some little distance away, heard a cry and rushed to where he had seen Mr. Godfrey a short time before, but upon reaching the spot he could see nothing of him. The body was found shortly afterwards, but life was extinct. He leaves a widow to mourn his loss.

Mr. Godfrey is a son of Mrs. Godfrey of Omemees, who together with the other members of the family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

IS YOUR HAIR TURNING GRAY?
 What does your mirror say? Does it tell you of some little streaks of gray? Are you pleased? Do your friends of the same age show this loss of power also? Just remember that gray hair never becomes darker without help, while dark hair rapidly becomes gray when once the change begins.

AJER'S Hair Vigor
 will bring back to your hair the color of youth. It never fails. It is just as sure as that heat melts snow, or that water quenches fire. It cleanses the scalp and prevents the formation of dandruff. It feeds and nourishes the bulbs of the hair, making them produce a luxuriant growth. It stops the hair from falling out and gives a fine soft finish to the hair as well.
 We have a book on the Hair and Scalp which you may obtain free upon request. If you do not obtain all the benefits which result from the use of the Vigor, write the Editor about it. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
