THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

OMEMEE, THURSDAY, SEPT. 24, 1896.

LOCAL LAONIC

True nobility shows itself in doing good.

The Christian may live as high as he can look.

There is so much preaching that is only preaching.

E. C. Williamson is in Lindsay to-day calling on friends.

It takes some dark days to tell us what sunshine means.

The greatest man is the one who renders the greatest service.

The power of a life for good, is in the walk more than in the talk.

Miss Nellie Mills is visiting with her brother, John Mills, at Lindsay.

The man who loves God at all, is anxious to love him with all his heart.

Human nature is no better in a preacher than it is in a prize fighter.

A thermometer given with every Daisy Churn at W. D. Stinson's—21

Some people make a specialty of picking out crosses for other people to carry.

Read the announcements by T. J. Parsons in another column.

God needs men like Daniel to-day, as much as he did in Daniel's day.

Miss Aggie Tully was in town for a few days last week visiting friends.

Miss Florence Little, of Lindsay, has been visiting with Miss Bella Williams, 22 lbs. of granulated sugar at Ivories on bargain days, Tuesdays and Fridays.

Mrs. Walker and daughter, of Port Hope, spent a few days the past week visiting friends in town.

Money is not nearly so valuable as character, for money cannot buy the respect of thoughtful men and women.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian church shall be occupied by the Rev. Wm. Johnston of Millbrook on Sunday the 27th.

Mrs. Cochrane and son, Charlie, have returned to Omemee, after spending a month's pleasant visit with Toronto friends.

Robt. Ruddy, Barrister, &c., attended Division Court here yesterday. He also made his usual weekly visit here on Monday.

Mother (to her son sliding down the banister)—Fritz, what are you doing there? Fritz—Making trousers for orphan boys.

Mr. John Connell, of Lebanon, was visiting for a few days last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) A. L. Brown of Bancroft.

Isaac—Oh Rachel, you vas de light of mine soul? Rachel (shyly)—Dee vy don't you turn down de cas, Isaac? Isaac—Vat, and me a stock holder.

Mr. Getroks—I am worth a cool million. Do you think you could love me? Miss Hightlyer—Oh dear, dear Mr. Getroks, I'll just love you to death!

Little Tommy—Why does the leader of the orchestra wave his stick about in that manner, mommer? His mamma—To keep the flies of the music, I suppose.

Gough Bros' Advertising Wagon passed through town this morning on its way to the Lindsay Central Exhibition. It is under the management of Jas. A. Tully and Bert Lee, of Peterboro.

It is indeed a creditable outfit and speaks well for this enterprising firm.

How often do we hear political speakers ask, "Is money appreciated?" We do not know much about it in their case, but we venture to remark that it was never more appreciated around here than at the present, especially at the Mirror office, and among the farmers with cats at 16c a bushel.

We have made arrangements with Hughan & Co., expert Watchmakers and Engravers, of 52 Kent Street, Lindsay, will have a representative of the firm visit Omemee each Thursday. He will have a nice line of Watches, Jewellery, etc., which will be displayed in the Mirror office. Good work and prices right. Give him a call this Thursday.—35

On Tuesday last Britton's train ran over a cow, when near Omemee. The jar threw a couple of the freight cars from the track, and before the train could be stopped about sixty ties were torn up. The cow was horribly mangled, otherwise there was little damage done. There has as yet been found no owner of the cow.

Next Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 23 and 24, are the dates of the Emily Township Exhibition, which promises to be greater and better than ever. It comes several days earlier than last year, the weather is therefore likely to be favorable. For further particulars see bills and prize lists, which can be obtained from the Secretary, O. G. Williamson, Omemee.

A story is going the rounds of our exchanges of a school teacher who, having an inordinate fear of contagious diseases sent a little girl home because she said her mother was sick and had symptoms of something alarming. The next day the child presented herself at school, her finger in her mouth, and her little bonnet hanging by the string, and said: "We got a little baby at our house but mamma told me to tell you it isn't catching."

We understand that Rev. C. M. Carew has been instructed by the Home Mission Board of the Baptist Church, to take charge of the Campbellford Baptist congregation. Mr. Carew has labored earnestly for three summers among the people of Reboero, and through his instrumentality a great deal of good has been done. His friends at Reboero will lose in him a wise counsellor, but their loss will be Campbellford's gain. We congratulate Mr. Carew on his appointment, and trust that his success in the past as a Christian worker will be continued in the future. Next Sunday evening he will preach the concluding sermon of his pastorate at Reboero for this summer. A full house is expected.

Well Done, Markham.

98 Certificates and 47 Diplomas were awarded to the pupils of Markham Public School as a result of the recent promotion and entrance exams.

DIVISION COURT.

A sitting of the Division Court was held in Omemee yesterday, when the following cases were brought up, Judge Dean presiding:

FOWLER v. TELLY—This was an action for the one third of the straw grown on plaintiff's farm, which was leased to defendant for a term of years. The judge held that under the terms of the lease plaintiff was not entitled to the straw in question and gave judgment for defendant with costs. E. D. Moore for plaintiff, R. Ruddy for defendant.

SKICE v. EVANS—Adjourned after argument till next court. Costs in the case. Mr. Steers for plaintiff, Robt. Ruddy for defendant.

Canadian Rubber Co. v. Evans—Adjourned till next court. McIntyre & Stewart for plaintiff, R. Ruddy for defendant.

The other cases on the list were settled by the parties out of court.

"SON, REMEMBER."

BY LANTA WILSON SMITH.

The words stand out with solemn earnest warning;
The letters gleam upon the sacred page.
But careless ones, its awful message scorn,
Go blindly on in childhood, youth,
and age,
Till suddenly the golden bowl is broken;
The soul is launched upon the shoreless sea,
Whose silent waves waft back no word,
no token
To tell what waits us in eternity.

But God in mercy, lights each path before us,
No soul unwarned has met eternal woe.
His star of love has shone most brightly o'er us
When far in sin our wayward feet would go.
And, knowing this, to souls sunk in perdition,
That word, "remember" is a deathless flame—
A sting, a lash, that makes their lost condition
The quenchless torment that we bare not name!

Some memories the soul will joy to cherish;
The kindly deed, the tender word of love,
The helping hand to those who else would perish,
The sincere worship of our God above,
O, to the saved in the radiant fields of glory,
That word "remember" is a victor's palm.
The conflicts, griefs, and trials of life's story
Become, in heaven the soul's triumphant psalm!

REABORO.

CAMPING—On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cunningham and James Greer, Esq., set out with the intention of spending a few days on Seneg fishing and duck hunting.

Messrs. Peltie & Reid are paying the highest price for all kinds of good grain delivered at the storehouse here.

The chopping mill is kept busy on every Monday. Last Monday their were one hundred bags in before ten o'clock a. m.

There was no service in the Union church last Sunday.

The pulpit in the Baptist church was occupied on Sunday evening last by Mr. Leigh, of Lindsay, who preached a very encouraging and instructive sermon, taking his text from Dent, 33: 27. The pastor was present and took the opening services.

Crack Burglars at Millbrook
Saturday morning about 3 o'clock an attempt was made to burglarize the new post office at Millbrook. The would-be burglars had got nicely to work when Mr. Ruddy, Barrister, who occupies sleeping apartments in the second story was slowly but surely aroused from his peaceful slumbers. Upon looking out of a back window he saw a man crouched below on guard. He enquired what the man was doing and on receiving no reply, discharged a revolver in the air. The burglars, surmising, no doubt, what they might expect should they longer delay, made hasty retreat, leaving behind them their drilling apparatus, and have not as yet been located.

Postmaster Vance will be pleased to hand over the drilling apparatus to the owners of same if they will come and prove property, pay expenses and take them away.

Against Departmental Stores.

Once more the merchants of the State of Illinois will attempt to clip the wings of the department store managers by making use of the taxing powers of the State Government, says the Merchant's Review. At the next session of the legislature they will introduce a bill to establish a general license to be governed by the number of branches of business in which the applicant for license is engaged. It is proposed to adopt a plan something like the following:—Beginning with a fee of $20 for a single line merchant, double that sum is added for an additional line, and so on. Thus a grocer and dry goods dealer is $60, a dealer in three lines, $140; a dealer in four lines $300; a dealer in five, $620; a dealer in six lines, $1,200; a dealer in seven lines, $2,240; a dealer in eight lines, $3,500; a dealer in nine lines, $5,020; a dealer in ten lines, $7,040; a dealer in eleven lines, $9,560; a dealer in twelve lines, $12,080.

BRIGADE (CAMP, KINGSTON, Sept. 23, 1896.
Special to the Mirror.

The boys of No. 5 Co., 45th battalion, as in all previous events of the military camp are holding their own, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, their health and spirits are excellent. If such sleeping and eating quarters had to be endured at their homes as here, they would rise up in arms (avoid of any military knowledge) but they are all enduring this experience in a good soldierly-like manner, and there is very little grunting or whining. The boys are making great progress at the new drill and handling the new Lee Enfield Rifle, with which they have made good scores at target practice on Saturday! This wonderful weapon will tend to make any war a very short one, which will be explained on their arrival home next Friday, as the latest official news is that the 45th battalion will be allowed the privilege of attending the Lindsay Fair on Friday, at the reception of Lord and Lady Aberdeen, which will occasion an all night trip Thursday night. Divine service was conducted by Rev. Mr. McMillan, Lindsay, on Sunday, and was listened to by a large congregation.
