One of the greatest events of the autumn season is the announced enlargement of that truly great newspaper the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal. The enlargement makes the Family Herald a paper equal to a book of 384 pages each week, making 52 such books in the year. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is simply carrying everything before it, the circulation jumping by leaps and bounds. Its circulation is without doubt most marvellous, and as far as we can see, every one says it deserves it.

Battle of the Alma.

Yesterday, Sept. 20th, was the 45th anniversary of a victory rendered gloriously by British pluck and dash—battle of the Alma, when Russia's pride was humbled Lindsay numbers among its citizens three survivors of that and other memorable and decisive battles of the Crimean campaign—Major Deacon, of the 1st Royals, Sergt-Major Martin, of the 21st Royals or British Fusiliers, and Sergt-Major Luscombe, of the 20th Lancashires, (now Fusiliers). Our readers and especially the many warm personal friends of the above named veterans, will join with us in hoping that they may live to celebrate many more anniversaries of the glorious event.

The following marriage ceremony was said by a Tennessee Squire a short time ago: "Wilt thou take her for thy pard; for better or for worse to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes; make the fire every day and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou comfort her and support her father and mother, Aunt Gemma and Uncle John, three sisters and a brother?" And his face grew pale and blank; it was too late to jilt. As through the floor he sank, he said: "I will."
