Transvasl News Disquieting-Mr. Chamberlain in London-Interchange of Despatches Between the War, Foreign and Colonial Offices-Lord Wolseley at War Office - Boers Massing Artillery to Command Laing's Nek.

London, Sept. 19 .- There was universal flatness in the markets here yesterday, especially in the first hour and they closed weak, with small recovery. The Transvaal war is now regarded as certain, the only ques tion being, will the Orange Free State join in it? Consols fell 7-16 Americans opened 1/2 under parity and weakened all day, closing at the worst on monetary apprehensions.

Chamberlain in London. Mr. Chamberlain came to London from Birmingham yesterday afternoon and spent the evening at the Colonial Office. While there he received a despatch from Lord Salisbury, who is at Hatfield House, and sent a special messenger with despatches to the Premier. There has been a lively interchange of despatches between the Foreign. War and Colonial Offices, but no summons has yet been issued for a Cabinet Council. Long despatches were sent last evening to the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Kedleston, and to the British High Commissioner in South Africa, Sir Alfred Milner.

Mrs. Blake of Smith's Falls Was Found Dead Under Suspicious Circumstances -Body Badly Bruised.

Smith's Falls, Sept. 19 .- Mrs. Anne Blake, wife of Thomas Blake of this own, was found dead in an upper om of their house yesterday mornunder circumstances that requirevestigation. The Chief of Police cotified, gold took charge of the pending the arrival of Coroner n, who at once took steps to hold a inquest.

An attemment was made until evening we enable the medical witnesses to hold a post-mortem examination. In the evening a further adjournment until Wednesday at 1 p. m. was made, owing to the absence of a material witness.

Body Covered With Bruises. The body, when discovered, was in nearly a nude state, and was covered with bruises and abrasions from head to foot-some old, some recent. It appears that Blake and his wife, together with a man named Hy. McGrath, were drinking together on Saturday evening, and Blake, becoming jealous of McGrath, beat his wife with a stick. McGrath has not been arrested yet, but search is being made for him. Blake, on being asked to go to work on Monday morning, said he could not, as his wife was dead. He also said she died at 9 o'clock Saturday night; that she was misbehaving, and that he had thrashed her with a stick. He was placed under arrest.

First Wife Died Same Way. His first wife died under similar circumstances 25 years ago. He is said to be subject to epilepsy and has a violent temper. His wife frequently showed marks of violence, but, as both frequently indulged, this attracted little attention.

She had several times of late applied to the authorities to restrain her husband, saying that he would murder her, but nothing was done until too late.
