Dry Goods, PETERBORO.

The many friends of Mr. J. J. Nichols will be pleased to learn that he has decided to remain in Omeme. He has opened a new lumber yard, and is prepared to furnish the general public with all kinds of rough lumber, lath, shingles, and in fact anything usually kept in a first-class lumber yard. He solicits a share of your patronage. See ad. in another column.

If you require anything in spectacles, eyeglasses, etc. Call and have your eyes tested free. Satisfaction guaranteed. F. H. COAD, Druggist and Optician, Lindsay.—if.

Mr. F. E. Weldon, of McSworn & Weldon, Barristers, Lindsay, will be at his Omeme office over Bradburn's Grocery, every Monday.

Mr. I. Whittemith, Watchmaker Jeweler, etc., of Manilla, will be at the Mirror Office, Omeme, on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 26th and 27th. He will have a big stock of fine class main-springs at special prices, fully warranted. These are the best main-springs he has ever had. All work warranted. Call early.

Mr. Chas. Mills of Emily, was kicked by a colt on Monday last and severely injured. We hope that under good medical attendance he will soon recover.

Drs. Wightman & Scott, Dentists of Peterboro, visit Omeme every Thursday. Office two doors east of T. Ivory & Sons' General Store.

A number of the members of the Mission Band of Christ Church called at the Rectory to say good-bye to their President. They presented her with a solid silver Salad fork and the following address:

TO OUR BELIEVED PRESIDENT, MRS. LANGFELDT.
We, the members of the Mission Band feel we cannot say good-bye without telling you how truly sorry we are that you are about to leave us. We wish most heartily to thank you for your untiring efforts and patience in all the work we have been privileged to do. Your example in the past will be a help to us in the future, and the time spent together will ever be to each one of us a happy, happy memory, with much love and every good wish we ask you to accept this token of remembrance from the members of Christ Church Mission Band.

Signed, Sara Adams, Ethel Clarke, Gertrude Grandy, and Jessie Lamb. Omeme, Sept. 17, 1901.

ANNOUNCEMENT—Having purchased the Drug Business formerly carried on under the firm name of J. H. WILSON & W. A. L. H. I will continue it under the same name. It will be my care to maintain the high reputation so long held by the business for reliable goods and for accuracy in the preparation of medicines and prescriptions. The Stock will be maintained at a high standard of excellence. Inviting a continuance of patronage, very respectfully, DICKSON DAVIDSON.—em.

At the home of Mrs. Curry, on Friday last, a farewell tea was tendered by the Woman's Auxiliary to Mrs. Langfeldt, Honorary President of the Society. The very enjoyable evening will be long remembered by the large number present the only draw back to its pleasure was that it was so good bye. Kindest wishes, coupled with regrets were expressed by everyone. During her all too brief membership, Mrs. Langfeldt has by her ever ready help, her unfailing gentleness and courtesy won the love and esteem of every member of the Branch. It is hoped that in the future the Auxiliary may often have the pleasure of having their former member amongst them as a welcome and honored guest.

...After many expressions of deep regret... on the part of the members present at... the great loss that the parish will... sustain at his departure, the following... motion was put to the meeting and un... animously adopted.

...Moved by Thomas Stephenson Esq., J. P., seconded by R. H. Graham Esq., that the vestry having learned through the press that his Lordship the Bishop of this diocese has at the instance of the neighboring parish of Ashburnham appointed our esteemed Rector thereto, thereby severing the connection so happily existing between the Rector and the people of this parish, while fully alive to the serious loss we are about to sustain from this action, we desire to assure the Rev. Mr. Langfeldt and his amiable and much loved wife that they will carry with them our continued good wishes, and we have no doubt that his indomitable energy, kindness of heart and sympathetic nature, coupled with his great and uncommon talent as a preacher, will in the near future command the attention and will be sought after by a far more important parish than that to which he has been appointed.

...The following motion was also carried... moved by T. C. Stephenson, Esq., sec. by R. H. Johnson, Esq., that whereas on the 15th of Sept. the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt will cease to have charge of this parish, and whereas it will be in the best interests of the parish to have him continue in charge until his successor is appointed, therefore the Rev. Mr. Langfeldt is hereby requested to continue in charge of this parish until his successor is appointed.

...The following motion: moved by W. R. Cottingham, sec. by Henry Jackson, that his Lordship the Bishop be petitioned to appoint to the Rectory of this parish the Rev. J. H. Teney of Craighurst, was carried unanimously.

Pointers About Newspapers.
The third edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory, just received, is a thoroughly complete and up-to-date handbook of Canadian journalism.

...Apart from its avowed purpose the book will be found a valuable gazetteer of every city, town and village that can boast of a local paper. It gives the population of each town, indicates county seats, gives the railroads touching each place, names the villages surrounding each newspaper town, the telegraph, postal and telephone facilities and the principal industries and chief shipments.

...Its usefulness to advertisers and others who have dealings with newspapers is obvious. From no other source can they obtain the data given in this volume, which is the condensed result of many years of study and experience in the newspaper field.

...A special feature of the directory is a set of four newspaper maps covering the whole Dominion. The book contains over 350 pages, is handsomely bound and reflects great credit upon A. McKim & Co.'s Newspaper Advertising Agency, Montreal, who are the publishers.

LIFE OF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY.

A Standard Historical Work.

From the Guelph Herald of Sept. 16. The World Publishing Company of Guelph, Ont., have arranged to issue in Canada the best of all of the forth-coming books on the life of the late President McKinley. It will be a magnificent work profusely illustrated, written by Murat Halstead, the celebrated war correspondent, the man that was selected by the Government of the late President McKinley to write the official report on the Philippine Islands. Murat Halstead has been a life-long friend of President McKinley, and it will be a labor of love for him to finish this book, which has long been in preparation. It will be complete—his boyhood, manhood, war services, political and social life, assassination, full account of the assassin and the anarchist's conspiracy connected therewith, medical treatment, death, burial and state funeral. The book is so cheap and so excellent that every family should have a copy.

We understand that a magnificent portrait of President McKinley, 18 x 22 inches in size, on cardboard, will be given with each copy of the book. The work will be sold by subscription and agents will find an announcement of interest to them in another column.

The Lebanon re-opening services on Sunday and Monday were successful beyond the most sanguine expectations of the pastor and members of the church. Full report next week.
