the best kind.

Dame St., Montrea

aste, Saponified Wool Fraser. Helen St., Montreal Permanently Cured by a strictly Educa-

ance feed. Write for ARIO INSTITUTE. 65 Shuter St Toronto

FOR INVESTMENT teni Estate. Interest arrangements may ins. Apply to E & SONS ile & Gravel Roofers ing State, Metal Cor-Pitch, Etc. Gutters. ed the trade.

how to make $3 a day, ab-

UGH EBY'S OF THE COUGH.

IOTT, Principals.

通もかりなりの HING MACHINE AGENT ID A 3 CENT STAMP LARS, PRICE LIST, TTON YARN, &c.

TORONTS, ONT. ARNISHES

PURPOSES arpassed by any TOCK THE TREAL and QUEBEC

TION.

DNTAL.

ORD. CANADA

ERS EVERYWHERE

nd get the highest cash C. A. NEEDHAM, sieces for quilts. Send

Tetlow's English Card Mill Machinery, Wook,

tock, Nesbitt & Riddell, of Toronto Offices, surch Street Toronte

laide & Widmer Ste

Windsor, Ont. Boxas

-FIVE YEARS ESTFRIEND IN CANADA.

.00: Per Doz. $10.00 DYCE & CO.

"OH, WAD SOME POWER THE GIFTIE GIE US, TAE SEE OORSELS AS ITHERS SEE US."

VOL II. NO 43.

OMEMEE, ONT. THURSDAY, OCT. 3, 1895.

CHAS. W. RICHARDS Publisher & Proprieter.

CURRENT NOTES

The not infrequent spectacle on the streets of worn out or thoroughly exhausted horses drawing loads almost beyond their strength, and the indifference with which it is regarded, is evidence of the hardening effect of cruelty upon society. The more extreme forms of brutality to the dumb creation are, happily, no longer tolerated, pity, and the desire of society to follow the higher instincts of its own nature having prompted vigorous measures reject the latter view, holding both that a great storm of wind."

the creature has as against man and the hills of heaven. duties the man owes in view of these rights. No other gem ever had so exquisite a Balaam was rebuked for injustice to his setting as beautiful Gennesaret. The in life will be a mingling of sunshine and of thou weary one, thou suffering one have ass, the implication thus being that there waters were clear and sweet, and thickly darkness, of arctic blast and of tropical mercy on me." "Ecce homo!" Behold plainly the right to kind treatment which Bethsaida, Chorazin and Capernaum stood The boat, stanch, will bound merrily over faith for the great future, then I come to land. but also in being false to the duty he owed passing great cargoes of wealthy product. with some quick turn of the wheel hurls you Behold the God ! shown in beating a horse exhausted by its fishing smacks of the country people who shivered, and halliards swept into the sea, have a heavy load of troubles. Some of Mr. C. E. Son owes to the creature on which the cruelty ed on upon the calm, sweet scene as the in the ship. and deflecting the judgment of those who see it, is much more disastrous than is gen- in the air or a ripple disturbs the surface erally recognized.

As for the justification of a certain degree animals were created for the use of man, it is doubtful whether it can be made to accord with what we know of the divine lake a little way, and there you find an purpose. No doubt where it is a question excitement as of an embarkation. A but that the lower animals were created knows nothing, and others which have, apparently, been placed by the Creator in to have been created for the use of man, the rocking of the boat and the fatigues of for to be of use they must have come within duced to slumber, and I see him in the the sphere of his life and action. For the stern of the boat, with a pillow perhaps creation of both these classes of animals as extemporised out of a fisherman's coat. for the trees and flowers that bud and sound asleep. The breezes of the lake run bloom unseen, there must have been a out sleeper, and on its surface there riseth ence they say, "You are a pretty Chrispurpose separate from that of provision for and falleth the light ship like a child on tian." Not so easy is it for that young the sustenance and enjoyment of man. Tha the bosom of its sleeping mother. Calm man to follow Christ. If the Lord did all creatures were created solely for his use, Run up all the sails and ply all the oars and that those which do not come within and let the boats, the big boat and the the sphere of that use represent so much | small boats, go gliding over gentle Genwaste of divine energy, it seems unreasonable to believe. We do not know the nature and extent of that divine purpose, sky and congregate. After awhile even and not knowing it, it is unwise if not | the passengers hear the moan of the storm. arrogant, to assume that in creating any-exclusive purpose.

Impudent Professionals. bill again : it's the fourth or fifth time,

Ingenious Excuse.

be wantin' pay, too.

Frank comes into the house in a sorry Mercy on us! exclaims his father. How you look! You are soaked. Please, papa, I fell into the canal. What ! with your v trousers on ?

The Rival Singers.

hissed her. I wonder how she could think fall flat on their faces. The extinguished down until his shaggy mane covershis paws. of so many bright things all at once. Miss Contralto-Oh, she's made that melts. The storm is dead. And while the webs over the mouth of the cavern and say, speech hundreds of times.

THE SAIL IN A STORM.

THE INCIDENT OF THE SEA OF GALILEE.

Christ Hushing the Tempest-Necessity World Moves.

than the individual suffering inflicted, in draws from it a striking lesson for the God calls you to command an army. You ward. that it hampers the true education of the men and women of the present day. The have no right to be stoker in a steamer if You stand on the bank of the sea when animals, have not yet been fully recognized. Mark iv. 36, 37. "And there was also ferry boat from river bank to river bank if certain point and then it recedes. "Why," It is true that many excellent people with him other little ships, and there arose God commands you to engineer a Cunarder you say, "the tide is going back." No, it animals, and that as against him the brute | three names for the same lake. It lay in | Christ in the ship. Here are men largely | the wave comes to a higher point, then to things were made for the reasonable use of | from the hillsides bounded to the sea. In > of Gennesaret. The shadows of the great headlands stalk clear across the water. The voices of evening tide, how drowsily they strike the ear; the splash of the boated fish on the boat's bottom, and those indescribable sounds which fill the air at nightfall. You hasten up the beach of the the apostles of Jesus Christ ought to have the preaching exercises of the day, is intheir fingers through the locks of the worn-

The sailors prophesy a change in the weather. Clouds begin to travel up the which comes on with rapid strides and with all the terrors of hurricane and dark- The Christian girl does not always find it thing the divine mind had in view but one ness. The boat, caught in the sudden fury, trembles like a deer at bay, amid the wild clangor of the hounds. Great patches of foam are flung through the air. The loosened sails, flapping in the wind, crack like Mrs. Squills-The doctor has sent in that pistols. The small boats, poised on the oppose the course propel the ship forward, white cliff of the driven sea, tremble like so opposing tronbles through Christ, veertoo. I really believe he wants us to pay ocean petrels, and then plunge into the ing around the bowsprit of faith, will waft trough with terrific swoop until a wave you to heaven, when, if the winds had Mr. Squills-Well, Pll be durned! Such | strikes them with thunder crack, and overimpudence ! Nex' thing the preacher will | board go the cordage, the tackling and the masts, and the drenched disciples rush into the stern of the boat and shout amid the have heard the cry of warning and would hurricane. " Master, carest thou not that we perish?" That great Personage lifted into the tempestuous heavens and he cries, is going to be lost, the ship is going to hope. Mr. Richfello-That was a neat speech | " Peace !" and then he looks down into founder ! The ship is going down !" What Miss Soprano made at the charity concert | the infuriate waters and he says, "Be still! are you frightened about? An old lion goes last night, when a brute in the audience The thunders beat a retreat. The waves into his cavern to take a sleep, and he lies cables and bailing out the water from the web," and they keep on spinning the gose hold of the ship, the disciples stand wonder- amer threads until they get the mouth of struck, now gazing into the calm sea the cavern covered over. "Now," they say, now gazing into the calm face of "the lion's done, the lion's done." After Jesus and whispering one to another: awhile the lion awakes and shakes himself, REV. DR. TALMAGE'S LESSON OF "What manner of man is this, that even and he walks out from the cavern, never the winds and the sea obey him?"

smooth sailing Why go so far ? There is a young man in a store in New York who has a hard time to maintain his Christian character. All the clerks laugh at him, and the employers in that store laugh at him, and when he loses his patinot help him, hour by hour, he would fail. There are scores of young men to-day who would be willing to testify that in following Christ one does not always find smooth sailings. There is a Christian girl. In her home they did not like Christ. She has hard work to get a silent place in which to say her prayers. Father opposed to religion. Mother opposed to religion. Brothers and sisters opposed to religion. smooth sailing when she tries to follow Jesus. But be of good heart. As seafarers, when winds are dead ahead, by setting the ship on starboard tack and bracing the yards, make the winds that been abaft, they might have rocked and sung you to sleep, and while dreaming of the destined port of heaven you could not have gone crashing into the breskers. Again, my subject teaches me that good stars rekindled their torches. The form Meanwhile the spiders outside begin to spin foots hurt.

knowing there were any spiders' webs, and

I Tlearn, first, from this subject that with his voice he shakes the mountains. when you are going to take a voyage of any Let the infidels and skeptics of this day go kind you ought to have Christ in the ship. on spinning their webs, spinning their The fact is, that those boats would all have | infidel gossamer theories, spinning them gone to the bottom if Christ had not been all over the place where Christ seems to be there. Now, you are about to voyage out sleeping. They say : "Christ can never for Christ on the Rough Voyage of Life into some new enterprise-into some new again come out ; the work is done. He -Nothing to be Frightened About-The business relation. You are going to plan can never get through this logical web we some great matter of profit. I hope it is so. have been spinning," The day will come If you are content to go along in the tread- when the Lion of Judah's tribe will rouse shortly. for their prohibition. But the other than New York, Sept. 22. -In his sermon will course and plan nothing new, you are himself and come forth and shake mightily sentimental aspects of the matter-the for to-day Rev. Dr. Talmage discourses on not fulfilling your mission. What you can the nations. What then all of your gossamer sentimental aspects of the matter—the for to-day Rev. Dr. Taimage discourses on do by the utmost tension of body, mind threads? What is a spider's web to an facts that the exhibition of cruelty of any a dramatic incident during the Saviour's and soul, that you are bound to do. You aroused lion? Do not fret, then, about the kind is more harmful to the community life among the Galilean fishermen and have no right to be colonel of a regiment if world's going backward. It is going for-

God commands you to be admiral of the the tile is rising. The almanac says the murderer, has forwarded a cheque for one soul, and that man owes obligations to subject was "Rough Sailing," and the text navy. You have no right to engineer a tide is rising, but the wave comes up to a thousand dollars to Mme. Leboeuf, the wifrom New Fork to Liverpool. But what is not. The next wave comes up a little ever enterprise you undertake, and upon higher, and it goes back. Again you say man has no duties towards the lower Tiberias, Galilee and Gennesaret were whatever voyage you start, be sure to take the tide is going out. And the next time creation has no rights. Cruelty to animals a scene of great luxuriance. The surround- prospered. The seed of a small enterprise a higher point. Notwithstanding all these ereation has no rights. Cruelty to animals a scene of great inxurance. The surround grew into an accumulated and overis to be condemned, not because of its ining hills, high, terraced, sloping, gorged, shadowing success. Their cup of prosperity world know it is high tide. So it is with iustice to them, but only because of its were so many hanging gardens of beauty. is running over. Every day sees a com- the cause of Christ in the world. One year evil effect on man's own nature. Still The streams rumbled down through rocks mercial or a mechanical triumph. Yet it comes up to one point, and we are greatly at Stony Mountain penitentiary farm and another class believes that as all created of gray and red limestone, and flashing they are not puffed up. They acknowledge encouraged. Then it seems to go back the God who grows the harvests and gives next year. We say this tide is going out. the most satisfactory character. them all their prosperity. When disaster | Next year it comes to a higher point and man, he may rightly inflict upon them any the time of our Lord the valleys, headlands comes that destroys others, they are only falls back; and next year it comes to a amount of suffering necessary to such use. and ridges were covered thickly with helped into higher experiences. The still higher point and falls back, but all the to set fire to a room in which he had a vegetation, and so great was the variety of coldest winds that ever blew down from time it is advancing, until it shall be tide, lot of books stored, which were insured for It is difficult to reconcile the former of climate that the palm tree of the torrid aret into foam and agony could not hurt ledge of God as the waters fill the sea." these assumptions with any correct defini- nd the walnut tree of rigorous climate them. Let the winds blow until they crack | Again, I learn from this subject that tion of cruelty. For cruelty, it should be re. were only a little way apart. Men in their checks. Let the breakers boom- Christ is God and man in the same person. membered, is not merely the infliction of un vineyards and olive gardens were gathering all is well, Christ is in the ship. Here are I go into the back part of the boat, and I other men, the prey of uncertainties. When look on Christ's sleeping face and see in necessary pain or torture, but its infliction up the riches for the oil press. The hills and they succeed they strut through the world that face the story of sorrow and weariness, upor acreature on which, as astrict matter of valleys were starred and crimsoned with in great vanity, and wipe their feet on the and a deeper shadow comes over his face, ustice, we have no right to inflict it. It goes flowers, from which Christ took his text, sensitiveness of others. Disaster comes and I think he must be dreaming of the lying dead with a bullet in his brain early beyond individual suffering and pain and and the disciples learned lessons of patience and they are utterly down. They are good cross that is to come. As I stand on the Tuesday morning in a lane off McCaul sailors on a fair day, when the sky is clear | back part of the boat looking on his face, I | street, Toronto. At an inquest held the includes the violation of the obligation and trust. It seemed as if God had dashed and the sea is smooth, but they carnot say: "He is a man! He is a man! But jury found a verdict of suicide. we owe to a creature which we have brought a wave of beauty on all the scene until it outride a storm. After awhile the packet when I see him come to the prow of the Mr. D. McNicoll, general passenger into friendly relations with ourselves, and hung dripping from the rocks, the hills, is tossed abeam end, and it seems as if boat, and the sea kneels in his presence, agent of the Canadian Pacific railway, who she must go down with all the cargo. Push and the winds fold their wings at his com- has just returned to Montreal from a trip which is powerless to defend itself against the oleanders. On the back of the Lebanon out from the shore with lifeboat, longboat, mand, I say, "He is God!" to the Pacific coast, is of the opinion that sequence. us. Justice thus enters into the account range the glory of the earthly scene was shallop and pinnace. You cannot save the The hand that sets up the starry pillars of the splendid crops will have a very good -the rights, natural and acquired, which carried up as if to set in range with the crew. The storm rises up to take down the universe wiping away the tears of an effect upon immigration. the vessel. Down she goes ! No Christ in orphan! When I want pity and sympathy, I speak to young people whose voyage look at him, and I say, "O Lord Jesus,

I go into the back part of this boat, and I the sea smooth. The crew exhilarant, to beat down my enemies, when I want prohibited zone, and a hundred miles from lost by a landslide that overwhelmed the went straight to Frawley, and then her

toil, as in beating a child exhausted by its had come down to cast a net there passed and gangway crowded with piratical you have wept until you can weep no more. studies. In neither case is the ground of come, or side by side swung idly at the sky above and the darkness around are your house, the one that asked the most cruelty the sin against the beater's nature, mooring. Palace and luxuriant bath and filled with the clamor of the voices of curious questions, the one that hung around digger's spade cut down through your peets are excellent for a large trade being the state of the Sublime Forte, owing to the irrends and managed to just raise the money discovery of a Macedonian plot to blow up for the return trip. When she set out she but the violation of the obligation which he vineyard, tower and shadowy arbor, look. destruction. Oh, then you will want Christ you with greatest fondness. The grave-I learn, in the next place, that people bleeding heart. Or perhaps it was the only mon with its head covered with perpetual who follow Christ must not always expect one that you had, and your soul had ever of cruelty in dwarfing the nature of its snow, in the glow of the setting sun smooth sailing. When these disciples got since been like a desolated castle, where perpetrator, and in blunting the sensibilities looked like a white bearded prophet ready into the small boats they said: "What a the birds of the night hoot amid the falling to ascend in a chariot of fire. I think we delightful thing this is! Who would not towers, and along the crumbling stairway. shall have a quiet night! Not a leaf winks be a follower of Christ when he can ride in Or. perhaps it was an aged mother that Admiral. one of these small boats after the ship of was called away. You used to send for her Jesus is sailing?" But when the storm | when you had any kind of trouble. She convention at Chicago. came down these disciples found out that was in your home to welcome your children following Jesus did not always make into life, and when they died she was there smooth sailing. So you have found out, to pity you. You know that the old hand of cruelty on the ground that all the lower man's oar and the thumping of the captur- and so I have found out. If there are any will never do any more kindnesses for you, people who you would think ought to have and the lock of white hair that you keep so a good time in getting out of this world, well in the casket of the locket does not look well as it did on the day when she favorite for next year's Derby. been the men. Have you ever noticed how moved it back from the wrinkled ferenead they got out of the world? St. James lost under the old-fashioned bonnet in the augural address at the opening of the by the Japanese Government for the of life, man has all rights as against animals, flotilla is pushing out from the western his head. St. Phillip was hung to death church in the country. Or perhaps your Tyneside Geographical Society. shore of the lake-not a squadron with against a pillar. St. Matthew was struck property has gone. You said, "There, I deadly armament, not a clipper to piy to death by a halberd. St. Mark was have so much in bank stock, so much solely for man's benefit is by no means so with valuable merchandise, not pirate dragged to death through the streets. St. have in houses, so much I have in lands, so clear. There are animals of which man vessels with grappling hooks to hug to James the Less had his brains dashed out much I have in securicies." Suddenly it is death whatever they could seize; but a with a fuller's club. St. Matthias was all gone. Alas! for the man who once had flotilla laden with messengers of light and stoned to death. St. Thomas was struck plenty of money, but who has hardly enough mercy and peace. Jesus is in the front through with a spear. John Huss in the now for the morning marketing. No storm at luncheon in Edinburgh, and made a long localities where they can seldom be seen. ship; his friends and admirers are in the fire, the Albigenses, the Waldenses, the Waldenses, the Waldenses, the Waldenses, the bestile In neither of these cases can they be said small boats following after. Christ, by Scotch Covenanters—did they always find has gone trampling its thunders ever your retirement, and replied to the hostile the back part of the ship, crying, "Master, him. carest thou not that I perish?" And Christ rose up and quieted you. Jesus hushing

the tempest. There is one storm into which we must 42 per cent. of the whole population. much grace he has, he will want it all. convention in Chicago. What is that out yonder? That is a dying | Christian rocked on the surges of death. Winds that have wrecked magnificent flotillas of pomp and worldly power come down on that Christian soul. All the spirits of darkness seem to be let loose, for t is their last chance. The wailing of kindred seems to mingle with the swirl of the waters and the scream of the wind, and the thunder of the sky. Deep to deep. billow to billow. Yet no tremor, no gloom, passest through the waters I will be with thee." By the flash of the storm the dying Christian sees that the harbor is only just ahead. From heavenly castles voices of welcome come over the waters. Peace itself to rest like a child falling asleep amid tears and trouble. Christ hath hushed the

Ode to the Mouth.

Some mouths look like peaches and cream his head from the fisherman's coat and people sometimes get very much frightened. some like a hole chopped into a brick wai walked but to the prow of the vessel and From the tone and manner of these disciples to admit a door or window. The mouth is murder of Blanche Lamont in a San Fran- South African mining boom, it is believed looked upon the storm. On all sides were as they rushed into the stern of the vessel a hotbed of too hache, the bunghole of cisco church, her son was bornin Toronto, that the Government will be able to adopt the small boats tossing in helplessness and and woke Christ up, you know that they oratory, and a baby's crowning glory. It Ont. from them came the cries of drowning men. are fearfully scared. And so it is now that is patriotism's fountain head, and the too At Leadville a terrific explosion of giant next budget.

By the flash of lightning I see the calmness you often find good people wildly agitated. chest for pie. Without it the politician powder occurred in the Belgium mine. Yes, papa, I didn't nave time to take of the uncovered brow of Jesus and the "Oh!" says some Christian man, "the would be a wanderer on the face of the Seven dead bodies have already been taken spray of the sea dripping from his beard. infidel magazines, the bad newspapers, the earth, and the cornetist would go down to out. Trirteen are known to have been the has two words of command—one for spiritualistic societies, the importation of an unhonored grave. It is the grocer's killed. the wind, the other for the sea. He looks so many foreign errors, the church of God friend, the orator's pride and the dentist's Didn't Order the Carriage. Little Miss De Fashion-Mamma, my the agent of any friendly power.

Mrs. De Fashion--You thoughtless child crew are untangling the cordage and the "That lion cannot break out through this You nust have been walking on them.

THE VERY LATEST FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.

Interesting Items About Our Own Country. Great Britain, the United States, and All Parts of the Globe, Condensed and Assorted for Easy Reading.

CANADA. It is reported in Winnipeg that a Pre-vincial general election will take place John H. Holt, a carpenter, was instantly illed at London by falling from a scaffold

Mr. J. Dickson of the Stratford Collegiate nstitute, has been appointed assistan commercial master at Lendon. Mr. Shortis, the father of the Valleyfield dow of one of the murdered men. The King of Siam has forwarded to the McGill University the Trepitaka, or sacred pooks of Buddha in thirty-nine volumes. St. Thomas has accepted the tender of the Street Railway Company to light the city, conditional upon its operating the ectric street railway.

The reports of the crops of grain raised the Indian Head Experimental farm are of Harry Lester, a young Englishman, was arrested at Hamilton for attempting Prof. Dale, formerly of Toronto Univer-

University by the removal of Prof. Fletch-Police Constable Leonard was found

Speaking of the seizure of the whaling schooner Marvin, Collector Milne, of Victoria, B. C., says Captain Cooper, of the imprisonment. United States cruiser Rush, is persecuting was something in the animal to which he inhabited, tempting innumerable nets and tornado. You will have many a long, the man! But when I want courage for the Canadian sealers. The vessel was out wrong of Balaam's cruelty, then, was not and flashing with splendid equipages, and Heigh ho! Land alead! But suppose standing there in all his omnipotence, and business man, committed suicide on Thurs- been decided to commence at an early date alone in being false to his own higher shooting their vessels across the lake, your lips; suppose that death overshad- the storm, can hush all my sorrows, all my absence from home of his wife. The cause the Rhine and the Elbe, at a cost of two nature in inflicting unnecessary suffering, bringing merchandise for Damascus and ows your heart; suppose misfortune temptations, all my fears." "Ecce Deus!" is unknown. Just prior to his death Jenks hundred million marks. wrote a letter to a city undertaker, tellto his beast. Precisely the same cruelty is Pleasure boats of Roman gentlemen and backward; suppose that the wave of trial I learn from this subject that Christ can ing him to call with a coroner at his house

Agent in Ottawa for Norway, Sweden may be necessary. and Denmark, reports to the Department | Great precautions have been adopted in sick at heart over the scurvy trick fortune of Trade and Commerce that the shipments Constantinople for the protection of the had played her, telegraphed to all her of Canadian flour recently received have palace of the Sublime Porte, owing to the friends and managed to just raise the money done in that commodity.

GREAT BRITAIN.

English newspapers ridicult the Irish Sir Herbert Murray has been appointed Governor of Newfoundland. England is already making distribution of the $75,000 received from Nicaragua. The Prince of Wales' colt, Persimmon, is While Earl Rosebery denies that he in-this year, he admits that he is contemplat- be reinforced, as the troops are worn out ng such a trip next year. The Duke of Cambridge was entertained

UNITED STATES.

all run. When a man lets go this life to Ex-Congressman Finerty talked very take hold of the next, I do not care how strongly against England at the Irish

> In the Birmingham district, Alabaria, there are 10,000 more men at work than at this time last year.

rienced in Wisconsin for years, and destroyed an immense amount of property. Citizens of New Orleans are raising a fund tof $30,000 with which to erect a nonument to the late General Beauregard accepted the call to be co-pastor of the tian. The fact is that from the back part | First Presbyterian church in Washington. Seven persons were drowned in the Lake at Geneva, N. Y. by the sinking of

H. H. Holmes will be tried at Phila delphia on October 28 for the murder of drops on the angry waves as the storm sobs | Benjamin F. Pietzel, the father of the Pietzel family. Documents worth millions of dollars to St. Louis, connected with various street railway franchises, were stolen from the office of the Clerk of the House of Delegates. mother of Theo Durant, charged with the stamps during the present and prolonged

The United States authorities have ruled that shipments from points in Canada, where they have no Consular agent, may be ertified to by any reputable merchant or in his extensive merchandise business and being left bebind ve thousand dollars in cash to any putable young American who will marry is daughter, Moi Lee. The United Bootblacks' Protective SHE WAS A POOR ACTRESS NOW eague, having for its purpose the protecion of the bootblack fraternity, and to comote social intercourse among its embers, has been incorporated with its adquarters in New York. A special to the Denver, Col., Times rom Hot Springs, Wyo., says that the ones found by Prof. J. L. Wharton, of Columbia College, New York, near the lead of Bitter Creek, and pronounced by im to be the "missing link," were the keleton of a pet monkey owned by cow-

Charles Wilfrid Mowbray, the English Anarchist, who visited Chicago for the a millionaire. He gave his bride a $50,000 urpose of teaching his doctrine of red dag and no Government was stopped in he middle of a speech at Belmont park by the police on Sunday, and was so badly rightened that after a few words of explanation he hurriedly left the platform and made his escape.

GENERAL. President Faure of France is ill.

Anti-foreign placards are again being osted in Che Kiang, China. The Spanish Government has decided ereafter to send only veterans to Cuba to uppress the insurrection.

paralysis of the legs, and his condition is personal magnetism that Frawley remem-Dr. Kanson, one of Professor Behring's her fortune.

One quarter of the main line of the trans- | was a sity, has been appointed temporarily to Siberian railroad has now been completed fill the position made vacant at Queen's at a cost of 73,437,111 rubles. This is less | She had no money, and her triends had no than the estimate.

> numeries by a recent decision of the congregation of Bishops, but a strict censorship vertisements and had haunted the agencies. be exercised over the wires. Telegrams from the Caucasus report the > perienced a stormy voyage, and his physical condition is very much worse in con-Bouteilhe, the man who on September 5 | money of Rothschilds' banking-house in Paris, was name he would never have taken this arrival there of the Czarewitch. He ex-

Advices received in Constantinople from Hodeide, in the Arabian province of Yemen, could be unjust, that something being affording a livelihood for great populations. bright day of prosperity. The skies clear, the conflict of life, when I want some one on the high seas, forty miles beyond the report that one hundred lives have been

it had acquired by faithful service. The on the bank, roaring with wheels of traffic the billows. Crowd on all the canvas. the front of the boat and I see Christ Alvin Jenks, a well-known Toronto A despatch from Berlin says that it has

The commander of the German squadron in China as been authorized to exact satisfaction for the destruction of the mis-Mr. C. E. Sontum, Canadian Commercial sion at Swatow, using whatever measures done enough for you.

While the steamer Empress of India was at Yokohama, some Japanese went on board and killed one Chinaman, and badly slashed The Duke of York is to be made a Rear another. The murderer was arrested, and will be tried at Yokohama. Official advices have been received in > advance guard crossed the Ambithimens mountains, and met and defeated the whole of the forces of the Hovas with and finally offered her some respectful atthirty cannon. Thirty million taels of silver have been deposited at Shanghai by the Chinese Government, with which to pay the supplemen-

Sir Charles Tupper will deliver the in- tary indemnity required as a consideration evacution of Liao Tung peninsula. The Japanese army in Formosa, which tends visiting the United States and Canada numbers sixty thousand men, will have to with the hardships of the campaign. At present there are more than three thousand Japanese soldiers in the hospitals in For-The Italian Government has published had been progressing with such hot haste. quailing soul. But you awoke Christ in criticism which had been directed against documents to show that after the occupation of Rome the Government was willing to had fallen into a fortune. For Neill had make every concession that would ensure spent the last ten years in Guatemala, and the liberty and independence of the Pope, fortune, weary of sporting with such a

THE IMPERIAL NAVY.

Pope had been deprived of his liberty, re- had come into his hands, and he was rich fused to accept any of the pro ered conces- and would be richer. They went straight

Monday's storm was the severest expe- Sir Charles Tupper Opposed to the Ide of Taxing the Colonies.

A despatch from London says :- Sir Charles Tupper has returned from a holiday in Scotland, much benefited, and looks The Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, has quite himself again. He strongly disapproves of the new attempt to induce the British Government to ask for colonial dream. The poor little actress is the money in support of the Imperial navy. millionaire's wife. He believes it would be a better way to a yacht which was run down by a steamer. protect the Empire in time of war and encourage inter-imperial trade in peace, to p ace four vessels like the Teutonic on the Canadian-British Atlantic route. These ships, he points out, would be convertible | The goodly burghers of Krems, on the Dan into war cruisers if placed under British Admiralty subsidies. This view is being strongly urged upon Mr. Joseph Chamberlain and the other Ministers ; and, seeing the immense and unexpected rev-According to the evidence of Mrs. Durants enue coming from the Stock Exchange the proposal and embody provisions in the

An Entertaining Chaperon.

Fanny-Did you have a chaperon with you at the opera? Clara-Yes, I did, and I sha'n't take one again, either. But it's all the style. I'd rather be out of style. She just Hop Sing Lee, a wealthy Chinese mer- much amused that he for ot all about me; souls, well to do, hospitable people, whose

SHE IS A RICH WIFE.

Little Charlotte Neilson Weds a Guate mala Millionaire-He Was Attracted by Her Beauty Just When Her Luck

tune Upon His Bride. A Guatemala correspondent telegraphs that on Friday night in that Central American capital there was a wedding so splendid oys, which died about twelve years that every one is talking about it. The bride was an actress, Charlotte Neilson, and the bridegroom J. H. Neill, many times pearl necklace as a wedding gift, besides

Was at its Lowest Ebb-Settles a For-settling an independent fortune upon her. Less than three months ago Charlotte Neilson was living obscurely in New York City, looking for a position on the stage. She went on the stage three seasons ago. getting a place in "The Crust of Society" campany, rather because of her beauty and her graceful manners than because of any ability as an actress. Two seasons ago she was playing in a stock company in Louisville. There she met T. D. Frawley, the The report that Prof. Pasteur is dying in | theatrical manager, in a purely casual way. Paris is not true, but he is suffering from But she was so pretty and had so much bered her. It was this chance that made assistants, has discovered a serum remedy | She did not get on well last season. It against cholera, which has proved successful was a poor season all through, and she could not find a permanent place. It money either. Her wardrobe grew less and Telephones are to be admitted into Italian less and her heart heavier and heavier. She had answered many threatrical ad-

There was nothing for her. One day late last spring she read in one of the dramatic papers that Manager Frawley, who had a stock company in San Francisco, wanted a young woman to play small society parts. As a desperate last chance she telegraphed, offering to come if he would send her the attempted to ignite a bomb in the vestibule | If Frawley had not remembered her the other day sentenced to three years' chance. But remembering the name, he telegraphed the necessary money. Miss Neilson, not a little astonished at the change of luck, packed her few belengings that Miss Neilson, in order to play the various society parts properly, must have many gowns. Now, she had practically no gowns at all. Frawley looked at the little trunk and turned away disgusted.

> "I have no money," said Miss Neilson, "I cannot buy them. "I cannot afford to pay for costumes," replied Frawley. "It seems to me I have

So they could not agree, and Miss Neilson, cast down in her life. Her face showed plainly that she was beset by legions of blue devils." Near her in the sleeping-car sat a man whose skin had been tanned almost black by Central American suns. But it seems that the same fire had also melted his heart. Paris, according to which the French He watched the young woman with tention. He was J. H. Neill, and until ten years ago he spent all his time in getting used to the frowns and curses of fortune. So when Miss Neilson told him her story he understood perfectly. The first day he was admiring, sympathetic, interested, The second day he was in love. The third day he was so far gone that he told her about it and asked her to marry him. She, too, had been touched, for kindness of the sort he showed had not been very usual in her life. And so the whole car-these through passengers across the continent get well acquainted-was delighted to see the happy outcome of the flirtation that And then it came out that Miss Neilson The wage earners of Rhode Island are while the Vatican, apparently in order to patient man smiled from his first landing maintain a pretext for complaining that the in Central America. Mines and plantations > thing to make Miss Neilson comfortable and happy. They went by way of San Francisco, and Frawley and the stock company were duly dazzled and overwhelmed as Miss Neilson, smiling, triumphant, gorgeous, passed through. The days and months of heartsickness over money matters, of tramping the city's cruel streets, of waiting patiently and fruitlessly in theatrical agencies, were gone forever. All that had faded like a to Guatemala-that is, as soon as Mr.

Neill had ransacked the big New York shops for gowns, jewels, furniture-every-

A 900 Year Old City.

It is not every city in Europe that can boast of records extending back 900 years. ube, in Lower Austria, with its quain churches, houses and towers within the pent-up space around which the city most ran, have, on the strength of a certain document in their archives referring to Krems as a "stadt," and signed by Emperor Otto III., in the year 985 A.D., been celebrating in royal style the nine hundredth anniversary of the event. The celebrations lasted a whole week, favored with pleasant weather. There were battles of flowers and flower parades, bicyclist processions, fire brigade exhibitions and rifle compet tions at the butts. On one evening an ox's carcass was roasted, and on Thursday the climax was reached, when the pageant illustrating the history of the city durin the past 900 years moved from the Exercierplatz to march through the various. rattled along and kept Mr. Richfello so streets. Krems has a population of 10,000 chant of San Jose, Cal., offers a half interest and when the opera was over I just escaped plenteous vineyards, lying all around the city, are profitable sources of income.