Washington, Sept. 26.—So much that its depressing is said about the wickedness of the cities that it will cheer us to read what Dr. Talmage has to say in this sermon about their coming redemption. The text is Zachariah, viii. 5, "And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof."

We have to pay the boards of the villains who are incarcerated in our prisons. We have to take care of the orphans of those who plunged into their graves through sensual indulgences. We have to support the municipal governments, which are vast and expensive just in proportion as the criminal proclivities are vast and tremendous. Who support the almshouses and police stations, and all the machinery of municipal government? The taxpayers.
