BY CHARLES GIBBON.

CHAPTER I.

don Bridge stopped at the Champion Hill Station, a man jumped out, staglooked from the windows in alarm; and the guard seized him till the stationulterior proceedings for the defence of leaving the train whilst in motion. looking, fair, with blue eyes and brown much by the danger he had escaped as by other matters which had induced addressed to him and to his employers to authenticate his statements, at the same time expressing his regret for be- house. He presumed now. ing the cause of so much commotion. His name was Gilbert Astbury, confidential clerk to Messrs, Ellicott & Co., wait tea for her." ship-owners and ship-brokers, Fenchurch Street, and he resided at Herne Hill. He was at present engaged on most urgent business requiring his speediest return to the city, and that leaving the train. I daresay you will hear no more about cording to the nature of the answer it," said the station-master good-na- you give me to one question I have turedly: "but don't try it again, for faintly, "you may have seen me alight going to plague you with any reproachway hurriedly along the then rural dure-the rich grass and the budding save you pain. But you must yourfoliage of the trees-around him. At the corner of the old and long disused you. graveyard near the entrance to the village he turned up a green lane and hurried on, unconscious of the perfume from the hedgerows or the merry chorus of birds busy nest-building. Along the lane were the newly erected was an old-fashioned cottage, standing well back from the roadway, in midst of a garden where the cultivathat of flowers, and thus preserving some of the rural characteristics of the place. The gaudy and ugly new Dulwich College giared at the passer-by from a little distance; and farther on, the Crystal Palace glistened and shim-mered dazllingly in the eyes. Before the white-painted gate of one of the old-fashioned cottages Gilbert Astbury halted. It was a modest and comfortable-looking dwelling, clematis, rose-trees, and Virginia creeper striving which should do most to adorn the front and curtain the windows; whilst a vine of many years' growth nearly covered the south, and thick-growing ivy the north gables. A small welltrimmed lawn was bordered with flower-beds, and the gravel path leading to the doorway was smoothly rolled. The kuchen and fruit garden behind the house was, as auctioneers would say, well stocked and productive. One experienced a pleasing sense of neatness and comfort even in looking over the gate, in spite of the gloomy but fine old cedar tree which stood in the center of the lawn and gave the Cottage

This was the residence of Mrs. Silverton, the widow of a medical gentleman who had left her with an annuity of four hundred, an only child-a care of. The doctor had died at the to amass more than enough to ensure for his wife the annuity of four hundred which expired with her. Cedar Cottage was, however, her own property; and being a shrewd practical woman, she succeeded in keeping her place in the "fashionable society" of the district without incurring debt or displaying any sign of undue pinching to make ends meet. Indeed, some people said that she managed to make a greater show with her limited income than many could do with four or five times the amount. She certainly contrived to give her daughter Henrietta ("Hetty") the best education the girl could attain; and the orphan niece, Daisy, had a full share of these advantages.

As Gilbert Astbury passed through the gateway, a young lady, fair, tall and with soft light-blue eyes, advanced from beneath the shadow of the cedar to meet him. She wore a simple dress of dark cashmere; and her head being uncovered, a mass of silken hair, plainly brushed back and plaited, was visible. The features were somewhat irregular, and yet there was an inexpressible charm in her expression-tenderness and trustfulness were in the eyes and on the soft nervous lips. "Why are you here at this hour, Gilbert?" she inquired anxiously. "Has anything been discovered?" "Yes; I have discovered something which will make me happy or miserable for life. I have discovered something which will save your cousin or destroy her. Is she in the house?"

brightened as if tears were nearly forc- and a fervour in her tone which left. ing their way over the lids, and her no doubt that she spoke from heartfelt whole form seemed to suffer from a conviction. sudden chill. But Gilbert was as un-perhaps she will not be able to see you," answered Daisy with hesitation. "I must see her-for her own sake." he responded resolutely as he passed and with bowed head returned to the of the man who is to be my husband, opened it and walked into the drawing- sake of our former friendship to think room. Although the sun was bright, better of you." fires had not yet been discontinued for "I must thank you for the effort, althe season, lest stray visitors should though it has been unsuccessful," he find the afternoons chilly; consequently, commented with a painful flicker of there was a pleasant blaze in the grate. a smile on his now perfectly white Finding no one in the room, Gilbert face. At the same time he was busy rang the bell, which was answered by turning over each paper of the packet a smart parlor-maid, who appeared to in his hand, as if seeking some special be surprised by the presence of the un- one. announced visitor. "Please tell Miss She was irritated even more by his Silverton," he said, "that I wish to see smile than by his words, although they hastily: "The business on which I -and she spoke angrily. wish to see you concerns Dacon as much as myself. I ought to say, concerns this dreadful business, do you think I him more than myself." On a writing- do not understand the motives by which table in the corner of the room he you are actuated in attempting to dis-found an envelope, and into it he put "Give this to Miss Silhis brief note. Before the mid-day train from Lon- verton, please," he said quietly. The servant answered mechanically, Yes, sir," and departed.

Whilst waiting her return, he placed gered, and almost fell backwards. The his black bag on the table, unlocked

The servant returned in a few min-

"Is your mistress at home?"

"Very well. I am going to write to can take the note to her."

"Yes, sir." He sat down at the writing-table and wrote as follows, without any of the was why he had been so precipitate in customary formalities of address: "You must see me for your own sake and his. Proofs of guilt are in my "Well, as no harm has come of it, hands, which I will use or destroy achere many times before.-Thank you. es about my disappointed hopes, etcetera that "etcetera" is put down here Clutching a little black leather bag hope you will never realize. I simply tightly in the left hand and his um- ask you to see me for a few minute brella in the right, Astbury made his in order to help me to a decision in crisis which will determine your fate and mine for good or ill. I am ready footpaths of Dulwich Fields. But he to bear anything-disgrace, ruin, even saw nothing of the bright spring ver- the doom of a convict, if I can only

> He affixed only his initials to the letter, and having enclosed it in an envelope, he summoned the attendant. She came quickly, for curiosity prompted her to be close at hand.

took the letter to Miss Silverton. to the window. He saw Daisy watering | ed to endure." mansions of city magnates in glaring and tending the plants in the flowerred brick pointed with white, and the beds as calmly as if she had no care glass of large conservatories flashed in in the world but them. "Ay, there is the bliss of life," was his bitter reflecthe sunlight. But there was an antion, "to care only for those things cient farmhouse with black-looking whose failure to answer our expectaour-buildings and haystacks, round tions can be remedied by the planting which were cocks and hens, whilst in of a new seed or sprig. She does not know what it is to have only one flowthe meadows cows were browsing on the er in the garden of life-one flower rich pasture. Here and there, too, which can never be replaced-and to find it withering in spite of the tenderest care. She will be lucky if she never knows it.'

The door opened and closed. Turntion of vegetables was combined with ing quickly, he saw Henrietta Silvertace more attractive—even beautiful. The lips were soft and ruddy; and yet gave them a false appearance of firm- Deal called the Lonely Star." ness. The eyes, too, when the long ashes were lowered, gave an impression coldness which had really no part in her warm impulsive nature.

You have forced me to come to you, she began hesitatingly; "but it is quite rue that I am not feeling well, and he answer to which so much dependsas you say." She could not help the vance and take her hand, but he checkit at the sound of the last three happiness of your future-of your mo- came by it I vow, before Heaven, ther's and of my future-depends on

'Ask, then, and let me answer," she hanged me!" said with apparent firmness, as if she had prepared herself for the worst ordeal through which she might be calldaughter-and an orphan niece to take ed to pass. But there was a nervous "Hanged him, hanged him for me! movement of the tapering fingers, as shouted Worksop in the voice of a man comparatively early age of forty-nine, they played with the tassels of her about to suffocate, "Hanged him for I did, sir, to my sorrow, I have scarf, which belied her courage. "I me!" he repeated. "But, for bless my thirty-six guineas in cash; the money

> He looked at her for a moment sad-ly and earnestly. He saw that she out of his cheek and flung it overboard. session of it?" inquired the captain. was really ill, and that it had been no "Rally this poor fellow, some of you," addressing York. been offered for her first refusal to see him. He wished he could spare her pain; but it was not in his power to do so "I shall be as brief as I can: "I shall be as brief as I can: "I shall be as brief as I can: "Why, your nonour, I think I can explain to make his report."
>
> A bucket of cold water topped with a dram of rum served to restore York to do not be belief that I was robbed of it and the first refusal to see aft to the captain to make his report."
>
> A bucket of cold water topped with a dram of rum served to restore York to do not be belief that I was robbed of it as I was robbed of it belief that I was rob but you must forgive me for dividing my question into two parts. The first is to me the least important. Tell me. in your thoughts of the terrible suspicion hanging over Henry Dacon and myself, which of us do you believe in-

Whatever degree of trepidation she experienced at the first sight of his troubled face vanished now. There was an indignant flash in her eyes as she gazed at him steadily. "If one of you two has perpetrated this fraud," she replied deliberately, "Henry Dacon is not guilty." "I expected that would be your answer; but I am too indifferent to my own fate now to mind it much. I would have liked, however, to know that you of all others had faith in me." "I did not say I believed you guilty."

"You seemed to do so as plainly as words and manner could express your meaning.—But let that pass," he went on despairingly. "Here is the second part of my question-does your happiness depend on his safety?" "My life depends on it," she replied The girl's lips quivered, her eyes with a glow of devotion on her face

"Are you sure-quite sure of that? conscious of these signs of agitation as Would nothing make you change your he had been of the aspects and voices mind?" He spoke with a faint tremor of happy spring-time whilst coming in his voice, as one who is making a last feeble appeal for the mercy he "Yes. But she is not very well, and knows will not be granted. "Would no proofs-would not even his own words convince you that he has done me a cruel wrong?"

"No!-no proofs would satisfy me that he has done wrong to any man She looked after him with sad eyes Even if it were possible that I could for a moment; then she turned away, have a moment's doubt of the honor seat under the cedar and picked up the it would certainly not be inspired by magazine she had dropped on seeing anything you could say or show me. I am sorry that you should have again suggested it, for I was trying for the her on business of great importance. in her ears contained a sufficiently in-"Miss Silverton has told me to say sulting sneer to rouse her indignation. that she is too ill to see any one to-day, But the smile she regarded as one of contempt-never thinking that acute He took out a note-book and wrote pain was the more probable cause of it

honor Henry in my eyes?-You who in good language, plainly and intellishould have been the first to defend

"Do you think I can forget, as you have done, that you owe him everything-your rapid promotion-your prospect of a partnership in a firm in the wages of an ordinary clerk?" document he had been seeking. "I time. And yet you are alive!" porters shouted at him; the passengers it, and taking from it a small packet came to London with no better prospect fore, however, presumed on the freedom | There was such a mingling of sadness I'm told, after the cart had been drawn health, thanks to his timely use of the which had been allowed him in the and bitterness in his tone that it was away. The rope was too long, my feet famous remedy. There are few work-"No, sir. She went out after lunch, the fact that his own ability had early soon after I felt the tightness in my as "Charley Waldren," for he has and said the young ladies were not to attracted the attention of Mr. Ellicott, throat; and when I recovered my mind I lived in Guelph almost continuously promotion which no influence unsup- way the Deal side of Sandwich, with my he has now passed the 38th mile post, Miss Silverton, and when I ring, you ported by merit could have secured for sweetheart, Jenny, kneeling by my side, Mr. Waldren is a moulder, and has packet and appeared to read it.

in my eyes! You do this-you, Gilbert what the owners of my ship had sent Astbury-you who pretend to care for her on a lawyer to defend me at the first concern in life-you who pretend- I found a vessel there that wanted a to ask. But the answer must be giv- ed that to ensure my happiness there man; and coming to the Thames after en to me by your own lips-here and was no sacrifice that you would not a coasting trip, I signed for the West that was a narrow squeak. I recol- now. If you refuse, I go straight to make. This is how you show the Indiaman out of which I have just been lect seeing you at this station before." Scotland Yard, be the consequences truth of your fine words-by making pressed. That's the truth of the story, "Yes," rejoined Astbury, smiling what they may to me, to you, and to me miserable because I have chosen sir, as Heaven hears me." others. You need not fear that I am him instead of you." She was conscious Once again he hid his face, and his her inability to control it.

> She interrupted him with a cry of self help me to determine which of the two courses will be the most kindly to and sent him to a felon's jail, I would and began. still believe him innocent. I would wait for him ten-twenty years, and it was; and I do hope Heaven'll forgive be the first to meet him when the pris- me for being the involuntary cause of on gates were opened for him, and of- this poor gentleman's most tremendious fer him my hand. I would try with sufferings. He comes to bed on that She all my life's affection to comfort and to precious night all right, just as he says. help him to forget the degradation and found me a bit growling and sur-Whilst waiting her return, he went | which he had been wickedly condemn | ly, I dessay, for the fact was, your

(To Be Continued.)

ant in charge of the deck, coming for-

"Sir," shrieked York, "I have been hanged for the murder of that man!" "Mad, by Heaven!" cried the lieutenant; "sunstroke, no doubt. Take the poor devil below, and see to him."

"Sir," cried York, clasping his hands, the hair was lighter, the features more | "I beg you to listen to me one minute. regular, and at a first glance the whole I am not mad indeed. Mr. Worksop there will remember that one night they had a knack of contracting when more than eight months ago he gave she was annoyed, as at present, which me a share of his bed at an inn at

Worksop started and looked intently at the speaker,

"I quitted the bed to get some watgone. Blood was found in the bed;there hope you will tell me at once what were bloodstains down the staircase, this question you wish to ask me, on along the roadway to the beech; there was blood upon my shirt, although as emphasis of doubt laid on the word God is my witness I knew not how it came there. They found his knife up-His first impulse had been to ad- on me, which I had taken from his pocket whilst he slept to pry open the words. "Everything depends on it," door with; and also a gold coin belonghe answered excitedly. "The whole ing to him they found, though how I know not; and on this evidence the

He faltered, hid his face, and fell to the deck in a dead faint that you will confine yourself to this soul and body! I was never murdered, was all right; but I'd have given it mates!" and in a very ecstasy of as- four times over to have got that Span-haired commander, levelling a piercing bollow of it when clasped. The coin glance at York, as though he had made up his mind to be confronted by a cy. It would fit well, sir; mor'n once madman. "D'ye mean to tell us that I have drawed out the knife with the you've been hanged for the murder of yonder seaman alongside of you?"

Indicate the gray-land there was a wacant length in the hald. I can truthfully say that I have derived more benefit from it than any treatment I ever had. I can strongly recommend it, and will never be without it myself."

Yes sire I've been hanged as his away from my other many that allows. "Yes, sir; I've been banged as his away from my other money that allowularity, increasing sales and wonderful cures. The combination, proportion and process in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla are unknown to other medicines, and make it peculiar to itself. It acts directly and positively upon the blood, and as the blood reaches every nook and corner of the human system, all the nerves, muscles, bones and tissues come under the beneficent influence of Sarsaparilla

The One True Blood Purifier. All druggists. $1. Hood's Pills take, easy to operate. 25c.

Limehouse.

gently, with an occasional catch of his breath and a sob or two when he spoke of his sweetheart. ... "You were hanged," cried the commander, watching him with fascinated countenance, for the corroborative looks and nods of Worksop as York deliverwhich, but for his noble generosity, you ed his tale had soon abundantly satismight have gone on for years earning fied the captain that the poor young fellow was speaking the truth-'you "I have not forgotten anything he has were hanged," he repeated, "strung up done for me, and I am grateful," said by your neck in the customary style, Gilbert huskily as he pulled out the suppose, and left to dangle for the usual

"I am coming to that, sir," said York of papers, began to glance over their of being speedily able to earn a living respectfully. "Everybody was against arry in the winter—then that of mouldthan thousands of others who arrive me whilst I lay in jail awaiting my trial ing. A workman leaves the shop with daily without friends or introductions, et the assizes; but after I had been his clothing wringing wet from permaster came up. His name and ad- utes with the answer: "Miss Silverton's I had only two chances—the first that sentenced to be hanged, there came a spiration, and a cold wind chills him dress were demanded with a view to compliments, and regrets that she is your mother might, on the strength of bit of change in some folks' minds; not to the marrow, making him a ready my distant kinship, recommend me to that they doubted my guilt, but they mark for lumbago, sciatica and kindred ONCE A YEAR some one who could give me employ- thought it hard perhaps that a young He was bitterly disappointed; but he some one who could give me employ- thought it hard, perhaps, that a young troubles. A moulder requires to be a was too anxious to resent the refusal ment; the second, that my old school- fellow should die for a crime he swore man of more than ordinary strength, The man was a stalwart young fel- of an interview, or the cold convention- fellow Henry Dacon might in his proud he had never committed—that he should and to continue at his work must allow, about twenty-eight or thirty; goodconveyed. Such a response might have been made to a charity collector or a not know him then—and he did help a coin, when by rights they should have atica is by no means an uncommon afmoustache and whiskers. He was pale, begging imposter, but was altogether me. He did more for me than my vain- found the murdered man's money upon fliction for men of this craft, and once and evidently much agitated, not so an insult to an old friend who had once est expectations could have looked for. him, besides making sure that he was the dread disease has lanced a victim been regarded almost as a favored lov- He helped me to a situation at once; dead," glancing as he spoke at Worksop. he seldom shakes himself free from it er. Moreover, as a distant relation of by his assistance I won in a few by the discovery of his body. Sir, my again. In fact some people declare that Mrs. Silverton, he had been for years years the position which gave me the sweetheart got to hear of this feeling it is incurable, but that it is not we On His Heroic Shoulders-Atlas Must him to risk it. He gave the required regarded almost as one of the family, right to think of you and even to speak and worked upon it, and got a number are able to testify by a personal ininformation calmly, producing letters and treated as if he had been the bro- to you-you did not know him then-Oh, of young fellows to hang about the gib- terview with one once afflicted with ther of the girls. He had never be- I remember all, and I am grateful." bet, and shore me up, as is often done, the trouble, but who is now in perfect impossible to divine which element pre- touched the ground-that's what they men better known in Guelph than Chas. dominated. He made no reference to told me. It all went black with me. W. Waldren, perhaps better known the head of the firm, and won the rapid found myself in a little cottage some- since he was three years of age, and him. As he finished speaking he un- and a Sandwich barber letting blood worked at that business for 22 years; folded the paper he had taken from the from my arm. What was then to be done, sir, being a live man, but to get workman, he is a man whose veracity exclaimed with increasing resentment, Jenny helped to disguise me, gave me fact here that Mr. World as held known 'And you show your gratitude," she out of the country, as fast as I could? "by this new attempt to degrade him all the money she had, having spent me so much that my happiness was your | trial; and walking as far as Ramsgate proaches was a sign of weakness, and lected himself, burning as they were she was ready to cry with vexation at with curiosity to hear Workson's story, for the solution of the amazing mystery "One word more," he said earnestly. must lie in that. Suppose it should be proved that he "And now what's your yarn?" says the captain.

Worksop seemed to emerge with his rage, and turned to the door. Passion prodigiously elongated countenance out again banished all weakness. "Even if of a very trance of stupefacation of asall the judges and juries in the land tonishment. He wiped his brow, threw found him guilty of the greatest crimes | a bewildered look around, dried his lips, honour, that same afternoon, unbeknown to anybody belonging to the Lonely Star, I'd called upon a barber that was a stranger to me to let me some blood for an ugly pain I had in the side; and when this poor young fellow came to bed, I was lying very uneasy with the smart of the wound the barber had made. Well, I fell asleep, but was awakened by feeling my side cold and damp. There was ligh enough coming through the window, as his young man has already told your honour, to throw things out middling visible; and with half an eye I saw that I was bleeding badly, and that if I did n't look sharp I must lose more blood than I was ever likely to get back gain. I dressed myself in a hurry. meaning to run round to the barber's house that he might strap up the my clothes, that this young gentleman room, though I scarce gave the matter hey turned to and gagged me, and carried me, dripping as I was, which they wouldn't take much notice of in he dark, down to a bit of a pier, on loctored after the wound came to be ooked at. When I'd served two months around the obx. aboard the Thunderer, they transferred me into this here vessel, your honour ; and that's the blessed truth," cried ne, smiting the palm of his hand with his fist, "as I'm alive to tell it."

"Did you miss the knife?" inquired "I did, your honour, when I came to murderer;" and thus breaking the si- ed me to let it lie in the pocket where lence, York proceeded. He told his story | my knife was." "A wonderful story, indeed," said the captain .- "What is your name, my

"Jeremy York. sir." "It will be my duty to put you in the way of righting yourself with the law, that has most grievously sinned against you, at the earliest opportunity You can forward now, both of you.' The captain of the man of war was as good as his word. On the arrival of the vessel at Havana, he sent York and Worksop on board a king's ship that would be sailing for home in a few days. Out of his own purse he presented the young man with a handsome sum of money; whilst all hands, from the first-lieutenant down to the loblolly boy, subscribed dollars enough to hand somely tassel the handkerchief of the victim of circumstantial evidence. Further the captain gave him a letter addressed to a relative of his, holding an important official position at the Adman should have his character thor-ence could obtain. The story is one hundred and thirty years old; time has blackened the can-7as; one sees the singular picture but dimly, and such sequel as remains must be left to the imagination of the student of this blurred old-world piece. Yet tradition is not wholly unhelpful, for there is reason at least to believe that public emotion was sufficiently stirred by the re-resentations of the broadsheets and prints of those days to result in a sum of money considerable enough not only to enable Jeremy York to marry his faithful sweetheart, Jenny Bax, but to free the young man from the obligation of going to sea for a living, and establish them both in a snug business in the neighborhood of oughly re-established, along with such reparation from government as influ-

(The End.)

NOTHING HUNTS OUT CORNS Like tight boots. A sure, certain and worst corns in twenty-four hours,

A VICTIM OF SCIATICA. Unable to Work Though Strong and

The Sufferings of a Well Known Guelph Citizen-Could Not Move About Without the Aid of a Stick-Again as Strong and Healthy as Ever.

From the Guelph Mercury. There is perhaps no business or occupation that any man could follow that is more trying to the health-particularly in the winter-then that of mouldand besides being noted as a steady work in January, 1896, on account of en weeks was unable to do a tap. Knowing that he was again at work a Mercury reporter called at his residence one evening to learn the exact facts of the case. Mr. Waldren, when spoken to on the subject, replied quite freely, and had no hesitation in crediting Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with his remarkable recovery. "I am not one of those been snatched from death's door, but from the day when I quit work, unil March 30th, when I started again, I was confined to the house with sciatica.

would shoot down my leg to my foot and was very painful. I could not move about the house without the pain. I was totally useless as far as loing my work was concerned, was never free from pain, and it made me feel very much depressed, for beyond that I felt strong and anxious to be about. I am a member of three benefit societies, from which I drew pay, MOURNING FOR A CHINESE RULER viz.: The Three Links, The Iron Moul ders' Association, and the Raymond Benefit Society. People came to see me, and of course everybody recommended the several provinces, written with pursure cure. I didn't try half of them. ple ink, the mourning color. All perwas not possible, but I tried a great sons of rank are required to take rec many-particularly remedies that I had silk ornaments, from their caps, with been in the habit of using for lumbago the ball or button of rank; all sub-kept on using them. When I had used ix boxes I was back at work again. kept on until I had finished the 8th oox, and I never felt better in my life. ' Have you noticed any recurrence of rouble since?" queried the reporter. I have not," he replied, "suffered a ingle twinge since." Mr. Waldren has who is not conceited. vorked in all the moulding shops in the ity, and was never in his life laid off ick as long as he was from the attack of sciatica. He hardly knew what it was to be sick, and is of that tough wiry nature that he can stand much greater physical strain than most people iren said, as the reporter got up to leave. "I only hope some pood fellow two or three others.

dreds of cases they have cured after the beach, tossed me into the boat, and for Pale People," Protect yourself from just as rapidly. out me aboard where I was properly imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark

> A dish of water placed in a hot oven where pies, cakes or puddings are being baked will prevent, them from

TRAVELED HALF THE GLOBE TO FIND HEALTH, WITHOUT SUCCESS.

Took the Advice of a Friend and Now Proclaims It From the Housetop-

Mrs. H. Stapleton, of Wingham, mere conventional excuse which had exclaimed the lieutenant, and hastened "Why, your honour, I think I can ex- writes: "I have been very much trouconsciousness; and when he had his wits, he and Worksop were conducted by a midshipman to the captain's cabin.

"What is all this?" inquired the gray"What is all this?" inquired the gray-

> James McHealy, was arrested and fined $3 in New York for crying in the street. James was maudlin, and his | & sad antics attracted a crowd.

ITCHING, BURNING SKIN DISEASES

CURED FOR 35 CENTS. Dr. Agnew's Ointment relieves in one day and cures tetter, salt rheum, piles, scald head, eczema, barbers' itch, ulcers, blotches and all eruptions of the skin. It is soothing and quieting and acts like magic in the cure of all baby humors: 35 cents.

When boiling a ham see that "the kettle only smiles on one side of its touth"-i. e., that the water merely

It is with pleasure that we call the attention of our readers to Garland Stoves and Ranges. They are acknowledged to be the best, and cost no more than is often asked for an inmiraity, in which he related York's ferior article. Marriage is not a failstory, at large, and begged him so to ure in homes where Garland Stoves and interest himself in the affair as to Ranges are used. We recommend to contrive that the unfortunate young our numerous customers who may require a Stove or Range a "Garland."

> Whoever fails to turn aside the ills of life by purdent forethought must submit to fulfil the cause of delay.

ONE OF THOUSANDS

I was a martyr to Sick and Nervous Headaches, Caused by Constipation, Unfit for Business on an Average 2 Days a Week.

Some Pills Helped me, but Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills at 10 cts. a Vial Cured me.

This is My Own Testimony and It's a Fact. Now I Never Lose an Hour or Miss a Meal."

This is the written testimony of a well known Toronto journalist-you can painless remedy is found in Putnam's have his name if you want it. Dr. Corn Extractor, which removes the Agnew's Liver Pills, at all druggists, 40 in a vial, 10 cents.

. . .

Where *

Where is the woman who is the woman who does not like to have does not like to have $ her baby fat | Scott's Emulsion rosy cheeks and chubby of Cod-liver Oil is for both, but its merit is "peculiar ness herself to itself," and its

> There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together.

and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has prove neatarrh to be a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure.

manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo

Ghio, is the Only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on he blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure, send for circulars and testi-

A wise and kindly silence would often prevent incalculable injury. Especially been said in the heat of anger.

of home or destroys comfort should we avoid repeating what has

Cold in the head-Nasai Baim gives

The tone of the piano improves when

Karl's Clover Root Tea purifies the

It is temper which makes the bliss

SORE EYES .- The Golden Eye Salve

is one of the best articles now in the ness of sight or granulation of the lids.

action is that you are compelled to as-

Consumption can be cured by the use of Shiloh's Cure. This great

Cough Cure is the only known remedy

Thousands of cases of Consumption

Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and Croup are

Gives the latest and best courses of training

in its Commercial, Shorthand and Pen manship Departments. 23 students assist ed to positions in six weeks. Get all particulars

W. E. LONG, Manager, CREDIT FONCIER,

28 Wellington St. E., Toronto.

Stratford, Ontario

tation-NONE BETTER IN CANADA. Best

Business Education at Lowest Possible Cost.

Graduates always successful. Write for catalogue. W. J. ELLIOTT, Principal

Llusiness College

Affiliated with Institute of Chartered Accountants.

Send for Handsome Free Prospectus. EDW. TROUT, President. D. H. HOSKINS, Secry

Why not now? It has no equal. Lead Packets

FOR SALE

Sold at 25, 40, 50 & 60 cents per 1h.

only. Binck and Mixed. All grecers.

Perhaps, that has never tried

YOU ARE ONE

A large, finely-equipped, old-established inst

by writing for New Prospectus. Mention this cured every day by Shiloh's Cure.

sociate with yourself afterward.

for that terrible disease

the instrument is moved from the blood and gives a clear and beautiful instant relief, speedily cures. Never

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O

monials. Address.

wall of the room.

to Sold by Druggists, ioc.

constitutional disease and therefore requires effect cannot be had by using any substitute for it. + nt all druggists

The Dodd's Kidney Pill Calendar for and cunning?

the Year 1897. SUPPORTED THE WORLD.

Have Healthy Kidneys.

As the first to be laid on our table for the year 1897, we welcome the reappearance of the Dodd's Kidney Pill calendar; published by The Dodds Medicine Company, Limited, Toronto. Prepossessing, beyond anything of its class hitherto published in America, though its purpose is at once obvious, it has been made exceedingly pleasing by the fortunate choice of a design for he cover, which has been charmingly worked out by the artist in red and fails.

olue lithograph, the classic subject being -Atlas supporting the world. It seems that these clever and persistent advertisers, not content with decorating the grassy hill-slopes and rugged mountain sides with their mammoth letterings, seek adroitly to seized upon the imagination and assist it to account for the superhuman strength of the heroic Atlas, suggesting the secret of his power by representing him as being himself supported and relying | market for sore or inflamed eyes, weakupon a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. On the back of cover, in a few pithy | Sold by all dealers. urgent need of kidney treatment are warned against substitutes, imitations Kidney Pills. Thus much as to the cover; of book itself, we have to say:-The arguments all seem unanswerable, the proofs ample and undeniable, the whole unique, admirable and useful, not only for the coming year, but for always. We are assured by the publishers that ufficient are being printed to around, that in due time every family in Canada will get one to their present ual, adding: "Dodd's Kidney Pills Always Cure." -but I found no relief. I tried Dr. jects of China, without exception, are Williams' Pink Pills. After using two called upon to forbear shaving their boxes I noticed an improvement, and I heads for 100 days, within which peried none may marry, play upon musical instruments or perform any sacrifice.

SO HE THINKS.

She-All men are conceited. He-Not all. I see a man every day She-Where?

He-In the mirror. JAPANESE GYMNASTS. Every Japanese barrack has a gympasium, and the Japanese soldiers rank mong the best gymnasts in the world. In half a minute they can scale a 1the city can verify his story. Mr. Wal- foot wall by simply bounding on each other's shoulders, one man supporting

A good thing is worth its weight in gold all kinds of pain. It cures neuralgia in five minutes; toothache in one minute; lame back at one application; head trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills ache in a few minutes; and all pains

To take out iron rust cover the spot with fine salt and saturate with lemon juice and lay on the grass. Repeat i Diseased blood, constipation, and kidney, liver and bowel troubles a.e cured by Karl's Clover Root Tea. There is no better aid to digestion in certain instances, than the cook-

A FAMILY MEDICINE .- Over twenty thousand bottles of Professor Kennedy's Combination Pills, or Sweet Litle Granules, are sold yearly in the Proclaims It From the Housetop— Dominion of Canada, which is the best South American Nervine Saved My guarantee of their quality, and the estimation in which they are held as a lifernia," also "Big Three Prospectus of family medicine. Small Pills, small which will be sent on application. Any stock doses, and sweet. Sold by all dealers.

Sunlight

Soap

Pictures

FOR

Wrappers

for every 12 "Sunlight" or wrappers.

worth getting.

every 6 "Lifebuoy" Sap

A pretty colored picture

These pictures are well

Address:

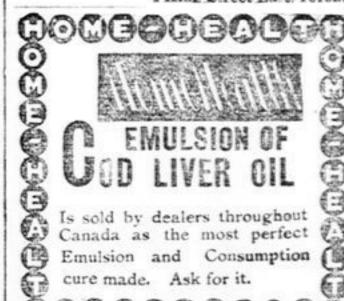

LEVER BROS., LTD

23 Scott St., Toronto

Trail Creek, Rossland, Montenny, B. C.

W.P.C.838

wanted can be secured. For further particulars apply to A. W. ROSS & CO., 4 King Street East, Toronto 0000000000000

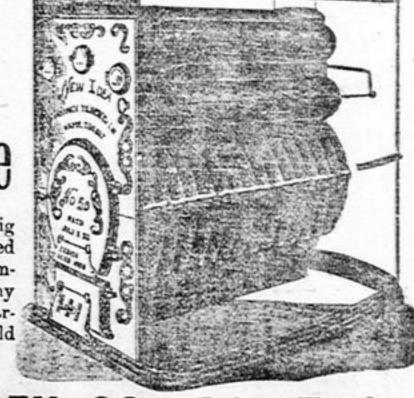

000000000000 FOR TWENTY-SIX YEARS

COL SUBSCIOLES COLONIA GERCORORARE VEDP LARGEST SALE IN CANADA.

Will comfortably heat a big house in cold weather. Fitted with all the latest and best improvements. Will burn any sized wood. Satisfaction guaranteed. Ask about them. Sold everywhere.

(Made in three sizes) Gurney Stove and Range Co., Winnipeg ; Gurney-Massey Co., Montreal,