

was held in the afternoon, and the sexton, supposing the congregation had retired, closed up the church, locking the young lady in the building alone. She says she tried to get out, but the doors resisted her efforts to force them open, the windows were beyond her reach, and she was unable to make herself heard outside. Here she remained a close prisoner in the church until Wednesday afternoon, when the sexton went to prepare for the usual evening prayer meeting, and discovered the missing lady, who was in a very exhausted state for want of food, having been fasting in solitary confinement for seventy hours.

A SON OF THE LATE W. L. MACKENZIE ELECTED JUDGE.—The Ohio Statesman (Columbus) says:—"The judicial sub-division, composed of the counties of Putnam, Allen, Angazlee, Mercer and Van Wert, at the late election, honored itself by giving to Hon. Jas. Mackenzie over three thousand majority for Common Pleas Judge. This is a magnificent majority, and it is worthily bestowed."

PLENTY OF GOODS
For CASH and Prompt Paying customers at decidedly low prices.
I would particularly call attention to the large STOCK OF CLOTHS, knowing that no better value can be got any place in Canada. All other DRY GOODS equally low.

TEAS.
I pay particular attention to the quality of Teas, and have no hesitation in saying that better value cannot be procured anywhere than I am prepared to give. A genuine YOUNG HYSON at 75 cents per pound.

MOLASSES.
Having received a large quantity of Molasses (the Montreal merchants having made a mistake in quantity) I have decided in selling it below market price.
A word of advice to my old friends and customers—Do not allow yourselves to be caught by a few pence in the price of sugar, which is the custom in our neighboring towns. Buy your sugar, then come to Beatty's Store in Omeme, and I will guarantee almost any other article kept in a general store, Ten per cent lower than where such bates are thrown out.
I take this opportunity of thanking my numerous customers and friends for their very liberal patronage since my commencement here, 16 years ago.
