What would have proved a very close and exciting game of football took place on the Omemee grounds on Saturday afternoon last, between the Collegiate Institute team of Lindsay and the High School team of this village. About 2.30, the clubs lined up on the ground as follows:-For Lindsay, W. Brown, forward; J. Matthews, J. Rankin, Right Wing; G. Ewart, H. Thompson, left wing; F. Ma-kham, C. Sutherland, H. Flemming, half backs; F. Preston, C. Yeo, A. Parkins, backs; Mr. Parkins, acting as goal keeper. For Omemee, -S. Johson, forward; H. Rea, J. English, right wing ; Jas. Moffatt, C. Laidley, left wing; Bert Laidley, Ed. Roland, G. Griffin, half backs; T. Stephenson, W. Lamb, F. E. Shepard, backs; F. E. Shepard acting as goal keeper. The game started off with quick play-Grade Flours ing and both teams made some very nice showing. Town, Burned to the Ground, on Monday Morning.

Again fire has visited our village and laid in ruins the fine little brick cottage owned and occupied by John Murphy, assistant agent at the G. T. R. Station. Following his usual custom, Mr. Murphy arose about 5 o'clock on Monday morning to leave for his work at the st tion in connection with the early morning train, which leaves here about six o'clock. Before leaving, Mr. Murphy had built a fire in the kitchen stove, as he would be returning in about an hour for breakfast, but sorry to relate he was called from the station half an hour later by the startling news that his house was in a blaze. The fire was first seen in the rear end of the house and as it had originated in the chimney, it was impossible for them to extinguish the blaze with the appliances they had 15 00 in use. However willing hands set to work to save the contents, and succeeded in removing all the household effects in good order. Mrs. Murphy was absent from home, she being at her father's in the country. The cottage was of brick and was one of the cosiest little homes in town. Mr. Murphy had taken great pride in fixing up his residence and every-thing around the premises looked as neat as one would desire, and we extend the hand of sympathy to him in this his misfortune. We understand Mr. Murphy lost the most of his winter clothing, which makes it doubly hard. The cottage was insured for $500, and the loss will be about $1,000.

Hallowe'en Party.

One of the most pleasant hallowe'en parties which has taken place in this locality for some years past, occurred on Wednesday evening of this week, when about a dozen couple from the town drove out to the home of Robt. Adams three miles north of the village. On arriving at the above point everything was found to be in readiness and nicely arranged for the entertainment of the guests. Pleasure seemed to rule the hour and everyone was bent upon having a good time.
