THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

OMEMEE, THURSDAY, NOV. 7, 1895.

LOCAL LAOCONIC

A man never appreciates the best of life until he knows the worst of it.

Famous men are rarely truly great, it is just because you don't know them.

A report of the public school and other interesting matter laid over until next week.

She (dreamily) - Only fancy—a month from to-day we shall be married. He (absently)—Well, let's be happy while we can.

The services in the Presbyterian Church during the winter months will commence at 2.30 p.m. instead of at 3 o'clock. The congregation will please make a note of this.

The hallow'en pranks were this year most disgraceful and anything but a credit to the big boys that did such dirty work. They are all known, and if property is not replaced they will settle for their vandalism before the magistrate.

She—Well, if I can't live on my income and you can't live on yours, where would be the advantage in our marrying? He (thoughtfully)—Well, by putting our incomes together, one of us would be able to live, at any rate.

Messrs. Samuel Grandy and T. C. Stephenson will please accept our thanks for the nice piece of venison they left on our table yesterday. They report having had a good time while out north, travelling through miles of dense swamp, and on one occasion carried one hundred and eighty pounds of deer about two miles. They reached home on Tuesday bringing with them four beautiful specimens of the antler tribe.

Stories about huge potatoes have been rife for some weeks past, but we think we have one that down them all. A potato was cooked the other day in the house of an Ops farmer, and the family of five sat out to do justice to it. Everyone ate heartily thereof, but when the meal was finished there was a large decoction of the potato left. At supper time they again tackled it with renewed energy, but had to give it up in despair, the potato having great staying powers. Finally the assistance of the poultry yard had to be called in to exterminate the gigantic "murfy."

PERSONAL.

Two weeks from to-day will be Thanksgiving Day.

A brand plucked from the burning, generally shows where it was charred. We learn that T. E. Jennings sent home a fine specimen of a deer this week, which he captured up north.

A cordial invitation is extended to all those who owe the Minnow to call and settle, as we need money. Who will be the first?

"My rich uncle is dead." "He left you something, did he not?" "Yes." "Good! What did he leave you?" "Penniless."

"See here, you impostor, you've begged from me four times in the last ten days." "Huh! Yer ain't got no kick; you ain't give me a cent."

Wanted $500 from subscriptions within the next month. Those who are in arrears to the Minnow for one or more years kindly call and settle.

Any person having copies of the Minnow of Jan. 18th, March 28th, and June 1st, this year, will greatly oblige the publisher by leaving them at this office.

Tuesday evening the boys made up a procession and marched up through the Main street and back to the river bank, where they burned Guy Fawkes.

"No, Willie, dear," said mamma, "no more cakes to-night. Don't you know you cannot sleep on a full stomach?" "Well," replied Willie, "I can sleep on my back."

The body of Capt. Reynolds was found between Backhorn and Deer Bay in eight feet of water on last Tuesday. The remains were taken to Lakeside for interment.

Miss Lillie Jackson, of Peterborough, sang a solo in the Presbyterian Church last Sabbath very acceptably. This young lady has a sweet soprano voice and is a cultured vocalist.

Advertising pays. W. Colvin lost his dog, "Patsy," and called at the Minnow office to get some posters out, and before many hours the dog was returned to its owner. Try it.

Call at Thos. Brady's, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Groceries, Flour, Feed, Bacon, Ham, Lard, Salt and Hay. All kinds of Canned and Field Seeds, Rolled Oats, Outmeal, &c., &c. Telephone 146. 42 George and 144 and 146 Brock-sts., Peterboro, Ont. W. TULLY, Chief Salesman.

When remitting his subscription to the Minnow last week, by letter, Dr. Goldsmith, of Peterboro, made the following complimentary remark in reference to the above journal: "Allow me to say I think you are giving a good paper and the people of the surrounding country should be proud of it. I hope you will go on being successful."

The Grand Central Hotel, Peterboro, Ont. Has been remodelled under new management with the only Elevator Accommodation in town. Good Stabling. Terms reasonable. Opposite the Opera House. GEORGE GORRIEL, Proprietor.

We understand that the Rev. Newton Hill has been unanimously invited by the Official Board of the Canton circuit to become their minister at the close of this conference year. It is to be hoped that the Rev. gentleman will not accept the above invitation, as the Omemee Methodist friends and others in this community would be very sorry to lose him, he being a universal favorite and deservedly popular with all classes, and has done much to build up the church here, and we feel that his work is not yet completed.

The monthly business and missionary meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary held at Miss Reid's on last Thursday, was well attended. It was decided, in response to an appeal from Mr. Harland, missionary at Greswold, to send as soon as it could be prepared, a bale of clothing for distribution amongst Indians in his mission where great poverty and destitution prevails. A very interesting report of an address given at Lindsay by Mr. Eugene Stock, one of the best informed men on mission work in the world, was listened to and much appreciated by all present. Members in all parts of the parish are notified that the yearly subscription to "Leaflet" are to be paid in November.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Wm. Reynolds, Esq., Lindsay, on Wednesday, Nov. 6th inst., by Rev. Newton Hill, Omemee, Mr. W. J. Jones, of Hope, to Miss Fannie, youngest daughter of William McMillan, Esq., Clark, Ont.

Called to Springville and Bethany. We understand that the congregation of Springville and Bethany have extended a call to the Rev. E. S. Logie, of Chalk River, Ont. Mr. Logie has a good reputation as an active christian worker. His efforts have been attended by the blessing of God in his present station and his work has proved a marked success. We hope the Rev. gentleman shall see his way clear to accept this most hearty and unanimous call; and that he shall soon have the pleasure of welcoming him to our neighborhood. Mr. Logie is a graduate of Marrin College, Quebec, where he was for six years a class-mate and intimate friend of Rev. J. U. Tanner.

PERSONAL.

The Minnow invites all its readers to contribute to this column all items of personal nature, such as the arrival and departure of guests, the movements of well-known people, business men, etc. All that is required is to send a postal card to The Minnow and give particulars and we will do the rest.

Miss Sarah Lamb made her Peterboro friends a visit yesterday.

John Eakins, of Millbrook, was in town on a business trip yesterday.

Rev. Wilson McCann preached to large congregations at Bobcaygeon on Sunday last.

Mrs. J. J. Lamb, and Miss Janet Robinson, were in Peterboro yesterday visiting friends.

After having spent a week's outing at Minden, Alex. Evans, returned to Omemee on Monday.

E. C. Williamson was a visitor to Minden last week. He reports times good in the north country.

Dr. S. W. Clarke, of Millbrook, and Mr. W. H. Lough, of Ida, were in town on Monday last, calling on friends.

After having spent a couple of weeks visiting her friends at Lindsay, Miss Maggie Adams returned to Omemee on Monday.

Miss Timms, of Omemee, is in town to-day, the guest of her brother, Mr. Alex. Timms, Mill-st.—Lindsay Post of Monday.

Rev. Mr. Creighton, of Bobcaygeon, officiated in Christ Church, on Sunday morning. His thoughtful, earnest sermon was highly appreciated.

Miss R. Dolby, of Lindsay, spent Monday and Tuesday visiting her Emily friends. She was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Chambers.

John Wilson was in town on Sunday last visiting friends. His many friends will be pleased to learn he is getting along well on his farm near Lindsay.

Rev. C. L. Thompson and daughter, Miss Marion, were the guests of Reeve Switzer, of Emily, the first of the week. Their many friends in this part were pleased to see them again.

Jas. Fowler, of Fowler's Corners, was in town to-day and gave the Minnow a friendly call. He is the pushing agent for the celebrated Maxwell Pulper. If you want a good article in this line give him a call.

George Griffin returned home on Monday from his hunt out north, but as yet we have not heard how many deer he captured during his absence. We hope however, he will not forget the Mirror when quartering them.

Miss Annie Lockhart, Miss Nellie Ellis, and William Lockhart, of Bethel township of Verulam, were the guests at the home of Mrs. Mills, Sturgeon-st. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Miss Lockhart was a delegate from the Bethel E. L. C. E. and gave a report at the Convention on Tuesday.

Servant-Major Martin, of Lindsay was in Omemee on Monday last, calling on his friends here. He visited the Minnow office and told us that he would celebrate the Fifth of November, in his usual way, by flying the flags of Alma, Balclutha, Inkerman and Sebastopol, in which battles, most of our readers know, the sturdy veteran took part. He is just as willing now, as then, if need be, to take up arms for "England, home, and beauty."

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hale, of Cobourg were in town last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Curry. Mr. Hale first commenced the publication of the Orillia Packet, and owing to ill health, a few years ago he was forced to retire from the journalistic field, and his brother has continued its publication. We are pleased to learn his health is improving and that he will soon be able to resume his journalistic duties, which he always took such an interest in.

Convention of Epworth League of Christian Endeavor.

The first convention of the Young Peoples' Societies of the Methodist Church, in the Lindsay District, was held in the Methodist Church, Omemee, on Tuesday, Nov. 5th, 1895.

There was a very large gathering and all seemed to enjoy much the lengthy and varied program.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The meeting was opened by devotional exercises presided over by Rev. J. W. Totten. The various societies of the district reported, showing that there are about fifteen societies in the district. Rev. A. C. Crews gave a very brief address on "The Junior League."

Miss Jackson, of Peterborough, sang beautifully "Nearer My God to Thee." Mr. Crews spoke on the "League Reading Course" for a few minutes. A quartette was given by Bella Spence, Maggie Scott, Ida Scott, and Annie Thompson, of the Junior League. Rev. C. L. Thompson, Mr. Hill's predecessor, in Omemee circuit, addressed, for a few minutes, his old friends. Mr. Parsons sang a solo, "He's Just the Same To-day." This was really good. Rev. F. J. Anderson addressed the meeting on "The Relation of Leagues to Missions."

Rev. E. Cook took for his subject, "How the Young Peoples Societies may Help the Pastor."

EVENING SESSION.

The program of the evening was opened by a delightful service of praise led by the Omemee choir and orchestra. In this, the building fairly echoed the triumphant chorus of the enthusiastic Endeavorers. The report of the nominating committee was read and adopted without discussion. The officers of the District League for the next year are:

President—S. J. Shorey.
First Vice President and Chairman of C. E. Department—Rev. J. Garbutt.
Second Vice President and Chairman of Missionary Department—Rev. N. Hill.
Third Vice President and Chairman of Literary Department—Rev. J. W. Totten.

Fourth Vice President and Chairman of Social and Junior Department—Miss T. G. H. English to a Representative to Conference—W. C. Switzer.
Secretary—Rev. C. H. Coon.
Treasurer—Rev. J. W. Totten.

The resolution committee reported and nominated Mr. G. H. English to act as treasurer and settle all accounts for expenses incurred by this meeting of the convention. Mr. Parsons then sang a solo, which was well received. Mr. Coon delivered an address of half an hour on "Tendencies." He dealt on the tendency of the times to conventionalism and "higher criticism." He was followed by Mr. McKim in a cornet solo, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep." This was very pleasingly rendered, as was the next number, a vocal solo by Mrs. A. McPherson. Rev. A. C. Crews, General Secretary, then addressed the meeting on the Epworth League; its aims and methods. He dealt with his subject very clearly and very interestingly. A very long report would be required to do anything like justice to his address and this owing to the limited time, is impossible. The audience, although the hour was late, listened with great attention throughout. The Omemee quartette, composed of Mrs. T. A. McPherson, Mrs. E. Scarlet, Mr. Waldon and Mr. T. J. Parsons, with Mr. Loring as accompanist, again appeared. Rev. Crews replied to an interesting question drawn. The meeting was closed by a consecration meeting, presided over by Rev. N. Hill, pastor of Omemee Methodist Church, and the singing of "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

Comments.
Omemee quartette is a credit to the village.

The orchestra speaks well for the training of their director, Mr. McKim. One of the speakers spoke of Anarchists, Socialists and Nihilists, as if they were similar in principle and all alike to be abhorred. A socialist is the very antithesis of a christ and the principles of socialism are such that only a Christian be true to his religion and belong to the order but the practice of the principles of the Order will aid him in following the divine idea of man's brotherhood.

The executive is to be congratulated on the large and appreciative audience which rewarded their efforts to secure the gathering.

The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and banners by the local league.

Send us 25c. for a trial trip to the MIRROR and you will be convinced that it is alive to all local happenings.

Bear in mind that T. E. Jennings, of the Omemee House, is a licensee and will attend to any sales entrusted to him, he guarantees satisfaction. 80-1

The Kleiser Recital.

The Kleiser recital on Friday evening last was an unequalled success. Mr. Kleiser held the attention of the large audience from beginning to end of a programme which embraced the leading characters of Dickens's most read and best loved book, David Copperfield. Uriah Heep was cordially detested, which speaks the highest praise for the portrayal of the villain. All were delighted to see and hear Miss Trotwood, and the general Micawber won all hearts. The true-hearted old maid, Peggoty, in his unselfish devotion to "Little Emily" claimed the tribute of a tear amidst the loud applause that followed each impersonation of his character. Mr. Kleiser was equally happy in the varied humorous selections, which he kindly gave in response to numerous encores. These were beyond all praise, "Tradin' Joe," and "The Irishman and Matrimony," were best received.

The vote of thanks proposed by Mr. T. Stephenson, etc., was cordially assented to by all present and was well deserved by Mrs. T. C. Ivory for her charming ballad, and also by the Orchestra, whose music added much to the enjoyment of the evening, particularly the cornet playing of Mr. W. Stephenson.

The entertainment was decidedly the best that has been given in Omemee for years. The success of the affair was due to the untiring energy of Mr. Wright, assistant high school teacher, ably aided by Mr. T. C. Ivory. The high school library funds for the benefit of which the recital was given, were considerably augmented by the proceeds.
