The Christmas number of The Delinquent is about the first of the special Christmas issues. It is a beauty. The covers a most artistic production, showing a beautifully covered woman, standing gracefully in a brilliantly lighted salon. To charming illustrations, one by Cyrus Townsend Brady, plenty of advice regarding Christmas gifts, timely pointers on Cookery, winter-time care of plants, all the fashion of the day interpreted in simple language can be found in the Christmas number of the Delinquent. It is a splendid magazine, and is a factory made at present published that is more practical in all its parts. As a Christmas gift, it bears its own recommendation.

P. H. COAD, Pharm. B. Druggist and Optician Lindsay, Ont., successor to Perrin, next door to Douglas's, will be glad to accommodate my predecessor's old customers in all his special lines.—3m

Editor Omemee Mirror, Omemee, Ont.
Dear Sir,—Permit me to thank you for the considerable trouble and expense to which you went in printing my discourse. I assure you that I regret it as real compliment, and can say that I have not often had work from a newspaper as free from typographical errors. I wish you and your paper success. I am, yours very truly,
B. W. DYDE.

Many of our readers were delighted to have the sermon of Prof. Lyde appear in print, especially those who were unable to attend the services on the occasion of his recent visit here. We have heard many of our readers speak very complimentary of the discourse, and are glad to have the Professor for his kindly reference to the Mirror.

OUR INSTITUTE

Attention is hereby called to the financial condition of the Mechanics' Institute in our town.

For some considerable time there has been a lack of interest in the above named institution, so that its financial standing is far from satisfactory. An attempt is now about to be made to remove the indebtedness by means of entertainments—the first of which is to be given on the evening of Dec. 10th in the Library building which, it is hoped, will be packed full since the price is only 10 cents. Let every one in town and in this vicinity cheerfully aid in striving to remove the indebtedness mentioned, for it would be a pity to permit the removal from our midst of an institution which provides almost the only means of access to the best literature. A reading people is an intelligent people, and we cannot afford to make a retrograde step, contrary to the spirit of the age.

It needs only a slight effort on the part of each to place the institution on a firm basis financially, and then let there be a large addition to the membership in order to encourage the directors in making the Institute worthy of the intelligence of this community. It seems too bad that the best literature should be provided for the masses and that the Directors of our Institute should be the only persons apparently interested in its existence. Now, friends, let us have your sympathy and cooperation in providing wholesome literature and comfort for leisure moments.

PRO BONO PUBLICO

Thanksgiving service will be held in Christ Church this Thursday evening at 7.30.

Rev. and Mrs. Newton Hill have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in Omemee and Emily, in the great loss sustained by the death of their only child, J. Egerton Hill.

INDUCTION SERVICE.—On Thursday, Dec. 5th, the Rev. J. H. Teney will be inducted as Rector of Omemee and Emily, by the Ven. Archdeacon Allen. The Sermon will be preached by the late Rector, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt M.A., of St. Luke's, Ashburnham. Service at 7.30 p. m.

An entertainment under the auspices of the Omemee Public Library will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 10th, in the Public Library, commencing at 8 p. m. The program, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, readings, recitations and addresses, will be rendered by the best local talent. Admission 10c. to all.

A solicitor is like a knife bright and sharp. He is also unlike a knife—you can shut a knife up.

Remember the Organ Recital to be held D.V., in the Methodist Church, Omemee, on Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock. No admission fee. A silver collection will be taken up during the evening. Come and hear the new organ.

DIED

HILL.—At 128 Victor Ave., Toronto, on Nov. 21st, J. Egerton Hill, the only son of Rev. Newton Hill, aged 19 years, 11 mos.

A Master of Masons.

No man living has done more for English Masonry than King Edward VII., Grand Commander of Great Britain and Ireland, and Grand Patron of Scottish rite Masons. His seat on the throne of Great Britain is not rendered less secure by the fact that in every city and village of his kingdom are select bodies of men who are proud to call him "Worshipful Master" and to do him honor. His title to the throne is the gift of God, guarded by his illustrious ancestors; but the titles of Grand Patron and Worshipful Master are received from the suffrage of his subjects. In a recent interview, he stated that the social function which gives him most pleasure is presiding at a Masonic banquet, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to charity. If King Edward will devote his reign to those Masonic principles of Liberty, Benevolence and Charity, which he has learned in the secret cloisters of Masonry, not even the Queen, his illustrious mother, will leave to posterity a name and reign more revered and more honored. King Edward has the moral support of the Masons of the world, and the world is waiting to learn what the result will be.—Lodge Echoes.
