Larger Number of the New Idea Magazine.

Have you ever asked yourself, in quieter moments, "What was the best day in my life?" A group of men and celebrated women have formed a symposium for the December issue of the NEW WOMAN'S MAGAZINE and have given their several experiences during the one happiest day of their lives, and the result is exceedingly interesting. This issue is the Christmas number, and the spirit of the season prevails in its pages. Suggestions for gifts, for feasts, for house decoration are in evidence and many new ideas are advanced. The number is also exceedingly good in good fiction and verse, and is retaining from cover to cover.

Mr. E. English has authority to take orders and collect for the Mirror in Omeenee until further notice. We will be prompt in returning all orders given to him for us. We also Guarantee Satisfaction.

The Victoria Cross

For Valor ————— In Ten Colors

Weekly Mail and Empire

For News ————— 24 Pages

THE picture shown is one dear to every man, woman, boy and girl, on account of its meaning—"The Victoria Cross," given for conspicuous bravery. If only the soil of South Africa could voice the deeds performed upon it, how many Victoria Crosses would have been found to have been earned by Canada's sons! It is hard in the heat of action to notice every act of valor, and therefore only those which take place under the eye of superiors of sufficient rank can be noted.

The picture shows one of such deeds: Two troopers are closely pressed by the enemy. The horse of one is shot. Under the withering fire, the man whose mount is unhurt halts, and, risking everything, waits to get his comrade safely mounted behind him and carry him back to the Canadian lines. It is a desperate deed, and one often performed but seldom noticed. When, however, such an act is seen, the reward dear to soldiers' hearts above every other is the result.

This picture is from the brush of Mr. W. B. Wollen, an artist famed for his war pictures, one whose work appears in all the leading illustrated periodicals of the Empire. It is a forceful subject from the hand of a strong man.
