

A Great Half Price Sale of Coats and Costumes

ON SALE NOW AND UNTIL SOLD.
How true this old adage is as applied to this big purchase of Coats. Great and good bargains are usually caused by the unforeseen happening. The plans were planned for a great Coat season; made up hundreds of Coats for the expected repeat orders and the Coats HAD TO BE SOLD AT ONCE.
Lucky for us and for you. We happened to be looking for Coats about this time, and NEVER HEARD OF THEM AT THE MOST RIDICULOUS PRICE WE EVER HEARD OF AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR.
Our fixed rule is, "sell as we buy." So here they are—ON SALE NOW AND UNTIL SOLD, WOMEN'S AND MISSES' STYLISH NEW GARMENTS AT ABOUT HALF PRICE.
Look around and compare these bargains—they will stand comparison.

- At $3.90, reg. $5 and $7.50
 - At $6.90, reg. 8.50 and 12.50
 - At $1.90, reg. $7.50 and $10
 - At $9.90, reg. $15 and $20.
- Kersey and Beaver Cloths; a good assortment of colors, including stylish Tweeds. Mostly tight-fitting styles, but there are a few Tourist and Butcher Coats with belted back; a big snap at $9.90.
- Costumes at Half Price.
- Fifty Women's New Fall Costumes selling at about half price. Good styles, colors and materials. Come and see them.

BORN.
In Millbrook on Saturday, Nov. 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Nurse, a daughter.

At St. Luke's rectory, Ashburnham, Nov. 14th, 1904, to Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Langfeldt, a son.

The Editor of the Mirror met with an unfortunate mishap on Saturday evening, having severely sprained his ankle, which necessitates the use of crutches. Our readers will not, however, be deprived of the paper—which they look for most—as we are not at a loss for hands if we are for feet, and everyone who knows anything about typesetting knows that it is the hands which are mostly used. Of course it is not pleasant to have a sprained ankle, or to be hopping about with the help of sticks, but 'tis better so, than to be laid up altogether, or that our readers should miss the news—so here we are to give you "the best that is." All orders for job work will receive our best attention as usual.

A special meeting of the Millbrook Council was held on Monday evening, to consider a petition signed by upwards of one hundred and thirty rate payers, which was presented at the regular meeting of the Council last week, asking to have a by-law passed, calling for a vote on Local Option at the Municipal Elections of 1905. The motion put by Coun. Argue, sec. by Coun. Needham, to have the first reading of the by-law was lost on the following division—Yeas, Coun's Argue and Needham; Nays, Coun's Doss, Kells and the Reeve.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

You can depend on Ayer's Hair Vigor to restore color to your gray hair, every time. Follow directions and it never fails to do this work. It stops falling of the hair, also. There's great satisfaction in knowing you are not going to be disappointed. Isn't that so?

"My hair faded until it was about white. It took just one bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor to restore it to its former dark, rich color. Your Hair Vigor, certainly does what you claim for it."

The premium picture given this year with the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is a decided change from former years. It is entitled "The Princess at Work," and is proving immensely popular. Those who have received their copies pronounce it easily worth more than the entire year's subscription to that great paper. The publishers are on the look out for energetic canvassers in every locality. Any smart boy or girl can make lots of pocket money for Christmas by writing to the publishers.

Messrs. Robert and Richard Nurse left on Saturday for a deer hunt near Minden. We wish them success.

Mrs. W. D. Leach is spending the Thanksgiving holidays at her former home in Newtonville.

On Friday evening, Nov. 18th, there will be a Stereopticon Service, entitled "Farmer Brown's Awakening," in the Salvation Army Hall, Millbrook, conducted by Ensign Edwards. Everyone is invited to attend. Admission to cents.

Messrs. John and Thos. McBride have been out deer hunting the past week in the vicinity of Minden. They are accompanied by Miss Annie McBride, who is a good shot. We learn that Tom had captured one deer up to Friday, and reported deer numerous.

Messrs. George Hetherington, Chas. Needler, Wm. McIvor, Herb. Shield, John Dawson, John Patterson, Ira Nattrass and Rev. H. V. Mounteer have all returned from their hunt, and had good luck. Mr. McIvor got two fine large bucks, and most of the others got two each.

Cavan Council will meet in the Council Chamber, Millbrook, Monday Nov. 21, at 10.30 a. m.

Anniversary Services of the Bethany Methodist Church.

The Anniversary services, on Sunday and Monday, Nov. 6 and 7, were a great success. On Sunday, the Rev. Dr. Meacham, of Toronto, preached two excellent sermons. The attendance at the services was very large. The people were delighted with the singing of Miss Graham, of St. Thomas, and Mrs. Edwards, of Manilla. The choir also did well. On Monday, there was a great crowd at the supper and entertainment. The programme was excellent. In addition to the choir, the two ladies who sang on Sunday, again delighted the congregation with their superior singing. Besides addresses by the Rev. Mr. Johnston, Mr. Trewin, and Wm. Graham, the church mortgage was burned, the financial report was read by James Graham, the Treasurer, and an illuminated address was presented to Miss Elsie Richardson, by Mr. L. R. Graham. The proceeds of the services amounted to some $150, a part of which will be applied towards paying for the church organ.

The Ven Archdeacon Allen and Rev. W. C. Allen were in Toronto last week in connection with Church work.

The services in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday next will be at 7 p.m. The Misses McKutchen and Nugent will assist in special music on the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Lancashire, of Peterboro, spent Thanksgiving Day with friends here.

Mr. C. M. T. Maycock and Miss Jessie Skinkle are spending Thanksgiving Day with friends at Balthboro.

A CARD.

I beg to announce that the combination I have organized this season, for the presentation of Harriet Beecher Stowe's immortal drama, "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN," is immeasurably superior, in every respect, to any heretofore offered the public. To fully accomplish this I have spared no expense in securing the first choice of Historic Talent, Gorgeous and Appropriate Scenery, Mechanical and Electrical Effects, etc.

My long experience as an amusement caterer has taught me that the best article offered is invariably the best means of attaining a Good Reputation, and by anticipating the requirements and desires of the theatre-going public, I am sure of establishing my own success in a managerial capacity. I therefore assert, without fear of dissent, that I have succeeded in placing before the public the Great Drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," in a style of equipment that has never before been seen on the American stage. Thanking the public for past favors, I beg to be, obediently,

A. W. BEECHER.
