On Monday morning, Nov. 7th, the death of Mrs John Bailey occurred at the home of her son, Robert, of Emily Township, after an illness of only two days from he ort disease. The deceased lady, whose maiden name was Ann Jane Birney, was the widow of the late John Bailey, and was 79 years of age. She came to Canada from Ireland, her birth place, about 60 years ago, and was married shortly after to her late husband. She had been living in Emily Township during the whole of hermore than half a century's residence in Canada, and was greatly beloved by the many persons with whom she came into contact. She was

Mr. Whitton's Vote of Thanks to Officials is Adopted--Price the Buyer.

The Cheese Board-it had its little ups and downs this season. The price ruled pretty low, and there were several little tiffs over business; even the press did not manage to escape getting mixed into them; but on Monday the last session of the year wound up amid smiles and congratulations. Well

Whitton was there-he hadn't been for a couple of sessions. He was a chief actor in the verbal battles of the season-a sort of storm centre, or what the diplomats would describe as a sort of casus belli. Should be be allowed to stay on that board at all! That was a live question at one time, and all a resolution to put him off required was a seconder and votes enough to carry it. But since it lacked these the Wellman's Corners buyer stayed, and at several sales gave the price a boost that made the salesmen smile. He was made the secondless motion to exclude him was there too, got the call and bought straight ahead-Dunsford, Pine he had all the Board but Mariposa, and Fitzgerald got that. But Whitton wore the smile that won't come off, and when he cheesless rose to leave he widened out the ripples on his ample physiog a bit more and said :-
