EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. Laurier has apparently decided to help the Liberal candidate in North Ontario by staying away from all of the campaign meetings. His rank as a statesman cannot therefore be disputed.

Those Liberal papers which have been trying to make out that Sir Mackenzie ented cornet and violin soloist, Bowell does not lie upon a couch of roses have neglected so far to mention that he sleeps on a bed of Thistles. But the Thistles referred to are excellent citizens of Ottawa, who, being in Europe, have rented the Premier their comfortable residence during their absence.

He bore up manfully, being sustained by a christian's faith and his "waiting for the final call," was a beautiful example of one, who had made his peace with his Saviour. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a willing worker, as far as his strength admitted, in the Sabbath School and Young People's Society. The funeral obsequies were conducted by Revs. John Ewing and J. U. Tanner, the past and present pastors of the Presbyterian church, and the funeral cortege to the cemetery was unusually large. The W. E. Sanfor Mfg. This was the Acorn planted for this first Oak Hall, since then stores have been opened in all the princities in the Dominion. Wheat, Pease, Oats, Buckwheat, Barley, Rye, Peterboro is the last to get in line, glorious one.
