THE OMEMEE MIRROR.

OMEMEE, THURSDAY, DEC. 5, 1895.

LOCAL LAOCNIC

Monday evening, in Methodist Church. The Rev. Dr. Carman will deliver his Lecture, "TRADE AND GET RICH." W. H. Kennedy preached at Ops on Sunday.
See those beautiful Christmas Presents at McPherson & Co's.
Omeme public school report and other matter is unavoidably laid over until next week.
Wm. McPherson's many friends will be pleased to learn he is on his mend, and will soon be able to move about.
R. S. Nurse, blacksmith at Fowler's Corners, is doing a magnificent business in his line. His skill is known far and wide.
Hear "Jimmy" Fax, the renowned comedian, Christmas night in the Bradburn Hall. Large bills will be printed in a few days giving full particulars.
Edward Rowland preached an excellent sermon to a large congregation at Middle Road on Sunday, and conducted the service at Lebanon on Monday evening.
Miss Nellie H. Clyde of Whitty sued one Joseph Hodgson, of Whitty township, for breach of promise of marriage, and was awarded $1,000 by a Jury at the Whitty assizes the other day.
On Friday last, the proprietor of the Munson had the pleasure of inspecting the Millbrook Electric Light Plant and we must say that the machinery is kept bright and clean and runs without the least jar. Mr. W. H. Parkin is an A 1 electrician and is doing all he can to help on the town in which he lives. It is to be hoped that ere long Omeme will have an electric plant.
The case just decided at Kingston should be a warning to municipal councils in the matter of keeping the main road passable. The stage driver in a certain direction from that city last winter notified the council of a township that he could not get through their road, but they paid no attention to his notice. He therefore employed men to do the work as often as necessary, and presented his bill and costs to "their honorable body." This also was treated with contempt, but finally they, by order of the court, cashed up with a pile of costs.—Express.

Mr. Gabriel Balfour is in very poor health at present.

Dr. Thompson preached to the Bethel congregation last Sunday.
For Xmas. Presents you will do well to call at McPherson & Co's. His stock is new and first-class.
Rev. John M. Garbutt preached in the George Street Methodist Church of Peterboro on Sunday.
Dr. Thompson has been appointed issuer of Marriage Licenses for the County of Victoria pro tem.—4-3m.

Jim Fax, Canada's great humorist, has been engaged for the Orange Concert on next Xmas. evening.
The evangelistic services at Lebanon are the means of doing much good. They will be continued all this week.
W. Webster, Lindsay's General Machinist, Gun and Lock Smith, Bicycles repaired on shortest notice. Repairs kept on hand. Member the address, 25 North Wm. St., Opposite Jos Keiths. 36-3m

Claude Lawton, at one time editor of the Beeton World and Orillia Times, has purchased the Paris Review. We wish Claude success.

Geo. R. Carew is making extensive improvements to his farm in Emly. The enterprise of the young farmers in this part is quite noticeable.

For a noble, up to date suit or overcoat, you will find it profitable to call on W. G. Blair & Sons, Lindsay, as they have the most complete stock of English, Scotch and Irish Tweeds, Meltons, Reavers, Venetians and Vercunas in the county. 51-3m

W. J. Morton's newly fitted restaurant is now one of the leading attractions in this line, being fitted up in city style. Lunches and meals served at all hours. At the most reasonable rates. Call solicited. 45 Kent-st., opposite Carters. 51-3m

While a suit for slander was being tried in a neighboring town, the defendant called the plaintiff a liar, the judge immediately fined the defendant one dollar. The plaintiff continuing his evidence was again called a liar by defendant, he was fined another $, when the defendant jumped up and asked the judge if he could be fined for thinking. His Honor said no! Well, then, your honor, I think he is a liar.

Eli Williamson, Photographer, Lindsay, Ont. All kinds of pictures taken from life, or copied and enlarged off old pictures. Family groups, school choirs, buildings, stock, etc. Picture frames in endless variety always in stock. All work guaranteed and prices right. Call during the holidays.—49-1f

No one can pass The People's Grocery without admiring the unique display of fancy groceries that are arranged so attractively and with such good taste in the windows. This, however, is only in keeping with the proprietor's fine arrangement of stock in the store. Wm. Brauburn is a prince among grocers, and our citizens appreciate having such a stock to select from in our village.

The Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church, will preach the Anniversary Sermons of the Omeme Methodist Church, on Sunday, Dec. 8th, 1895, morning and evening. Special collections and offerings will be taken at each service. On Monday evening, Dec. 9th, Dr. Carman will deliver his celebrated lecture, "Trade and Get Rich." Admission 15 cents. Lecture to commence at 8 o'clock. Everyone should hear him.

Monday morning an important change was inaugurated over the entire Grand Trunk system. It is the adoption of what is known among railway men as the "block" system of running trains, and practically obviates, where carried out strictly, all danger of trains colliding or telescoping each other. Its working is as follows: Take a train leaving in the morning. The block system provides that no train shall follow it until it has passed the first station ahead. As soon as this has been done, the operator wires back that the line is clear to that station. This will necessitate the employment of a large number of extra telegraph operators, as every stat on will have one or perhaps two to take the arrival and departure of trains.

Mr. Gabriel Balfour, of Omeme, was in town on Tuesday attending some court business. He is now in his 79th year, and is one of the few remaining residents in this section who took an active part in the rebellion of 1837-38. It was at the close of the first week in December, the seventh day, fifty-eight years ago, that the uprising took place and immediately upon the arrival of the news at Omeme of the attack upon Muddy York by William Lyon McKenzie and his followers, the companies of militia in the township of Emly were at once called out. The officers in command were Capt. Cottingham, Capt. Mitchell, Capt. Henderson, and Capt. Christopher Knowlson, the latter being an uncle of Mr. J. E. Knowlson of this town. The Emly loyalists marched to Bowmanville through the mud, for the weather was mild and moist, and then marched back like Humpty Dumpty's men, word coming that the rebels had been routed, and their services were not needed. After the return to Omeme, however, Capt. Mitchell went to work and raised a volunteer company of some sixty men. This contingent, of which Mr. Balfour was sergeant, marched to York, now Toronto, by way of Port Hope, and remained there until the spring. The defeat of Papineau in Quebec was followed later by the final rebellion fiasco at Navy Island, when the steamer Caroline was sent over Niagara Falls. The only other survivors of that rebellion were Mr. Balfour, and some fifty men who put in the winter at Muddy York, beside Mr. Balfour, are Thomas Rowan, of Omeme, and Jerry Murphy, of Ops-Watchman.

THE CHURCHES.

Sermon by Mr. Petty.

Text: Deuteronomy V, 29.
"O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments, always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!"
The journeyings of the Israelites were rebellious and now they are emancipated at the foot of Sinai receiving the "Divine Law" from the hands of Moses. There Moses receives the tables of stone and instructs the chosen people in their duty to God and to their neighbor. This law is to be their guide through all their journeyings. It is intended to apply to us in these days of toil and anxiety.
Is obedience to this law possible? The command of God means an order to fulfill, and shows at once what he expects of his children. God is a God of love, but He is also a God of justice, and rejection of his invitation results in being consigned to where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth, while the righteous who obey are called to everlasting joy. In order to obey these laws we must love the Giver. They must not be kept intermittently. They are commands requiring obedience at all times. We should love God and honor Him.
Attention to the services of the church, to the ritual, and other christian ordinances is not sufficient. We must have our hearts right towards our Omnipresent Lord, we must serve with whole-hearted consecration.
Our hearts must be kept right by prayer. There must be a continuous connection in the telegraph circuit between us and heaven.
Our hearts must be kept by active service for him. Courage and power are developed by this constant struggle with Satan. Each victory will help us some other to win.
This obedience requires constant watchfulness to make us earnest in our lives.
This first Sunday in Advent warns us that Christ is coming for the second time, that the period when the dead shall rise and the living be caught up to meet him, is fast approaching.
At the most profitable rates. Call solicited. 45 Kent-st., opposite Carters. 51-3m

Success attends another Woodstock young man. Rev. Wm. J. West, B. A., brother of Dr. West, of this town, leaves per steamship Scardinian for Europe, on Saturday, 28th inst. Mr. West intends pursuing a course of study on theology at the Colleges in Edinburgh, where he will spend the winter and during the summer of '96 intends taking a tour on the wheel through Great Britain, Ireland, Switzerland and Italy. Before leaving his charge where he has labored most successfully for the past summer Mr. West was presented with the following address and a purse of fifty dollars:
Rev. Wm. J. West, B. A.
DEAR PASTOR.—We the members, adherents of Bearbrook Presbyterian Church, desire to show our appreciation of your labours amongst us, and a recognition of the zeal, energy, and success with which you have fulfilled the duties of your sacred calling, by presenting you with this purse and contents as a token of our regard and esteem, and wish to say that the performance of these duties, in preaching, pastoral work, devoting to the sick and deep interest in the welfare of your congregation, have resulted in great blessing, spiritual and temporal, and great peace and harmony between pastor and people, and now as you are about to sever your connection with us, to pursue your studies in the great colleges of the Old World, we wish you bon voyage, success and a safe return, and pray that the Giver of all Good may protect and prosper you in all your undertakings. Signed in behalf of the members and adherents of Bearbrook Presbyterian Church, at Bearbrook Russell County, Ontario, this eleventh day of October, 1895, by JAMES McCALL.—Woodstock Times.

Mr. West is a nephew of Mrs. Thos. Rowan of this village, and we are pleased to learn of his good success.

A WOMAN WOUND

Round the neck of her husband as he was leaving for Lindsay, and bezzed and impaled him to go to the Lindsay Woolen Mills and bring her some yarn, as her neighbor Mrs. Smith, got all her yarn there and it was the best she had ever seen. He might also buy some of her good hose for Mary and Johnny and some nice warm blankets for the old WEATHER. Her goods are better and cheaper than they are even in Toronto.
