"OH, WAD SOME POWER THE GIFTIE GIE US, TAE SEE OORSELS AS ITHERS SEE US."

call goes out in this sermon of Dr. hell. Talmage. If heeded, it would be revolutionary for good. His subject "Young Men Challenged to Nobility' and the text II. Kings, vi, 17, "And the Lord opened the eyes of the young mous self conceit and egotism and man."

logical student was scared by finding himself and Elisha, the prophet, upon whom he waited, surrounded by a Elisha was not scared at all, because he saw the mountains full of defense by horses of fire-a supernatural appearance that could not be seen with see them also, and the prayer was ansuppose like the Adirondacks or the Alleghanies in autumnal resplendence.

Many young men, standing among the most tremendous realities, have their eyes half shut or entirely closed. May God grant that my sermon may open wide your eyes to your safety. your opportunity and your destiny!

a good home. Some of my hearers look back with tender satisfaction to their early home. It may have been rude and rustic, hidden among the strongest defenses. Put your trust in hills and architect or upholsterer never God and do your best. That child had planned or adorned it. But all the fresco or princely walls never looked so enticing to you as those rough hewn "No, I prayed to God, and hung on like rafters. You can think of no park or a beaver." arbor of trees planted on fashionable brook that ran in front of the old farm | toil and fatigue of life a recreative day house and sang under the weeping willows. No barred gateway adorned with statue of bronze and swung open by obsequious porter in full dress has half made natural and moral laws so harof you have a second dwelling place— ies are seven-day clocks that must be future time. Nothing short of the ed, and the young lady is in a very your adopted home-that also is sacred wound up as often as that or they will forever. There you built the first fam- run down. Failure must come sooner ily altar. There your children were Sabbath. Inspiration has called it the David, nor more patient than Job, and born. All those trees you planted. Lord's day, and he who devotes it to That roof is solemn because once in it, over the hot pillow, flapped the wing meaning. It is home.

never knew a man faithful both to his early and adopted home who at the curse of heaven was upon me from that God's altar. To a Saviour so infinitely same time was given over to any gross day onward." form of dissipation or wickedness. He who seeks his enjoyment chiefly from outside association rather than from in his mind the great thought that he the more quiet and unpresuming pleas- wishes to transfer to the canvas or the ures of which I have spoken may be marble before he takes up the crayon suspected to be on the broad road to ruin. Absalom despised his father's house, and you know his history of sin and his death of shame. If you seem unnecessarily isolated from your kindred and former associates, is there not some room that you can call your own? Into it gather books and pictures and a harp. Have a portrait over the mantel. Make ungodly mirth stand back from the threshold. Consecrate some spot with the knee of prayer. By the memory of other days, a father's coun-confidence, call it home. Another defense for a young man is industrious habits. Many young men "Odyssey" or a rhymester's botch. in starting upon life in this age expect to make their way through the world out of a thousand are living without by the use of their wits rather than the any great life plot. Booted and spurtoil of their hands. A boy now goes to red and plumed, and urging their swift the city and fails twice before he is as courser in the hottest haste, I ask: old as his father was when he first "Hello, man! Whither away?" His resaw the spires of the great town. Sit- sponse is, "Nowhere." Rush into the ting in some office, rented at $1,000 a busy shop or store of many a one and year, he is waiting for the bank to de- taking the plane out of the man's hand clare its dividend, or goes into the mar- or laying down the yardstick, say ket expecting before night to be made "What, man, is all this about-so much rich by the rushing up of the stocks. stir and sweat?"

But luck seemed so dull he resolved on The reply will stumble and break some other track. Perhaps he borrow- down between teeth and lips. Every ed from his employer's money drawer day's duty ought only to be the filling and forgets to put it back, or for up of the main plan of existence. Let merely the purpose of improving his men be consistent. If they prefer mispenmanship makes a copy plate of a deeds to correct courses of action, then merchant's signature. Never mind. All let them draw out the design of knavis right in trade. In some dark night ery and cruelty and plunder. Let evthere may come in his dreams a vision ery day's falsehood and wrongdoing of the penitentiary, but it soon vanish- be added as coloring to the picture, es. In a short time he will be ready to Let bloody deeds red stripe the picture. finally departed. But the other young Mar'borough cost twenty thousand retire from the busy world, and amid and the clouds of a wrathful God hang his flocks and herds cultivate the do- down heavily over the canvas, ready to mestic virtues. Then those young men break out in clamorous tempest. Let who were once his schoolmates and the waters be chared and froth tangled knew no better than to engage in hon- and green with immeasurable depths. est work will come with their ox teams Then take a torch of burning pitch to draw him logs and with their hard and scorch into the frame the right hands to help heave up his castle. This name for it-the soul's suicide. If one is no fancy picture. It is everyday life, entering upon sinful directions would I should not wonder if there were some only in his mind or on paper draw out rotten beams in that beautiful palace. in awful reality this dreadful future, preach the gospel.' I should not wonder if dire sickness he would recoil from it and say, "Am should smite through the young man, I a Dante, that by my own life I should days of thy youth; but know thou that or if God should pour into his cup of write another 'Inferno?'" But if you for all these things God will bring thee life a draft that would thrill him with are resolved to live a life such as God into judgment." unbearable agony; if his children and good men will approve, do not let should become to him a living curse; it be a vague dream, an indefinite demaking his home a pest and a dis-grace. I should not wonder if he goes paper sketch it in all its minutiae. You to a miserable grave and beyond it cannot know the changes to which you there is little sorrow, and the deepest

My young friends, there is no way will be wrong. Let gentleness and to genuine success except through toil, charity and veracity and faith stand either of the head or hand. At the to the heart of the sketch. battle of Crecy in 1346 the Prince of Many years ago word came to me eral days in the dark and undisturbed Wales, finding himself heavily pressed that two imposters, as temperance lec- as otherwise the mothers will almost in-nothing else. I had rather be an ox than an eagle; plain and plodding and age. One morning in Dothan a young theo- useful rather than high flying and good for nothing but to pick out the eyes of whom this roaring lion meets with his A mighty defense for a young man is hands in his pockets.

Bless God that you have a brain to think and hands to work and feet to ity, O young man, is one of your it right when the horses ran away with the load of wood and he sat on it. When asked if he was frightened, he said:

Respect for the Sabbath will be to country seat so attractive as the plain against evil. God has thrust into the when the soul is especially to be fed. It is no newfangled notion of a wild brained reformer, but an institution esmonious that the body as well as the or later to the man who breaks the will not let the sin go unpunished eithof death. Under that roof you expect This is the statement of a man who when your work is done to lie down has broken this divine enactment: "I tell the excellency of the place, but to rest; but never regarded God in it. you fail. There is only one word in One beautiful Sabbath when the noise the language that can describe your was all hushed, and the day was all that loveliness could make it, I sat Now, I declare it, that young man is inventing a new shuttle, I neither stopcomparatively safe who goes out into ped to eat nor drink till the sun went.

Only inventing a new shuttle, I neither stopfortune. "Seek first the kingdom of Mr. Shaughnessy, vice-president." the world with a charm like this upon down. By that time I had the invention other this completed of the complete him. The memory of parental solicized the next morning I exhibited it and boasted of my day's work, ited it and boasted of my day's work, and was applauded. The shuttle was and was applauded. The shuttle was tried and worked well, but that Sabwill be to him a shield and a shelter. I both day's work cost me $30,000. We

A noble ideal and confident expectation of approximating to it are an infallible defense. The artist completes or the chisel. The architect plans out the entire structure before he orders the workmen to begin, and, though there may for a long while seem to be nothing but blundering and rudeness, he has in his mind every Corinthian wreath and Gothic arch and Byzantine capital. The poet arranges the entire plot before he begins to chime the first canto of tingling rhythms. And yet, strange to say, there are men who attempt to build their character without knowing whether in the end it shall be a rude Tartar's tent or a St. Mark's of sel, and a mother's love, and a sister's Venice-men who begin to write, the intricate poem of their lives without knowing whether it shall be a Homer's Nine hundred and ninety-nine men into the gnashing of teeth. The way may be a subject, but you may know of the ungodly shall perish. what always will be right and always by the enemy sent word to his father turers, had been speaking in Ohio in variably destroy their cubs.

A CALL TO YOUNG MEN.

for help. The father, watching the battle from a windmill, and seeing his son was not wounded, and could gain the day if he would, sent word: "No, I will not come. Let the boy win his spurs, for if God will, I desire that this day be his with all its honors." Young man, fight your own battle all through and you shall have the victory. Oh, it is a battle worth fighting! Two monarchs of old fought a duel, Charles V., But He Insists That Religion is the Strongest of All.

Washington, Nov. 29.—A resounding with sin and the stake were kingdoms, Milan and Burgundy. You fight with sin and the stake is heaven or hell.

for help. The father, watching the battle from a windmill, and seeing his son was not wounded, and could gain the day if he would, sent word: "No, I will not come. Let the boy win his spurs, for if God will, I desire that this day be his with all its honors." Young man, fight your own battle all through and you shall have the victory. Oh, it is a battle worth fighting! Two monarchs of old fought a duel, Charles V., and Francis, and the stakes were kingdoms, Milan and Burgundy. You fight with sin and the stake is heaven or hell.

THEIR OPPORTUNITY, SAFETY, DE
ferma windmill, and seeing his son was not wounded, and could gain the day if he would, sent word: "No, I will not come. Let the boy win his spurs, for if God will, I desire that this day be his with all its honors." Young man, fight your own battle all through and you shall have the victory. Oh, it is a battle worth fighting! Two monarchs of old fought a duel, Charles V., and I wanted him to tell me how to make the arrest. He smiled and said: "Do not waste your time by chasing these men. Go home and do your work, and they can do you no daysor work, and they can do you no daysor work and giving their experience, and they told their audience that they had long been intimate with me and had become drunkards by dining at my table, where I always had lie from they had long been intimate with me and had become drunkards by dining a do your work, and they can do you no Do not get the fatal idea that you are harm." I took his counsel and all was a genius and that, therefore, there is well. Long ago I made up my mind no need of close application. It is here that if one will put his trust in God where multitudes fail. The curse of and be faithful to duty he need not this age is the geniuses-men with enor- fear any evil. Have God on your side young man, and all the combined forces of earth and hell can do you no dam-

And this leads me to say that the mightiest defense for a young man cent. carcasses. Extraordinary capacity is the possession of religious principle. Dr. R. J. Woods, late of Toronto, without work is extraordinary failure. He may have manners that would put died on Tuesday at Vancouver, B.C., There is no hope for that person who to shame the gracefulness and courtesy of pneumonia. whole army of enemies. But venerable begins life resolved to live by his wits, of a Lord Chesterfield. Foreign langu- John Mills, a keeper in the Kingston for the probability is that he has not ages may drop from his tongue. He any. It was not safe for Adam, even may be able to discuss literature and in his unfallen state, to have nothing laws and foreign customs. He may for him in chariots made of fire, drawn to do, and therefore God commanded wield a pen of unequaled polish and him to be a farmer and horticulturist. power. His quickness and tact may bad way and the Council is consider-He was to dress the garden and keep qualify him for the highest salary of ing plans to relieve the pressure. t, and had he and his wife obeyed the the counting-house. He may be as Mr. John McKeown County Crown the natural eye. So the old minister divine injunction and been at work sharp as Herod and as strong as Sam- Attorney of Lincoln, died at the Hotel prayed that the young minister might they would not have been sauntering son, with as fine locks as those which Dieu hospital, Kingston, yesterday. under the trees and hankering after hung Absalom, still he is not safe from hat fruit which destroyed them and contamination. The more elegant his swered, and the Lord opened the eyes their posterity-a proof positive for all manner and the more fascinating his of the young man, and he also saw the lages to come that those who do not dress, the more peril. Satan does not fiery procession, looking somewhat, I attend their business are sure to get care for the allegiance of a cowardly and illiterate being. He cannot bring eral Hospital has resigned in a body, I do not know that the prodigal in him into efficient service. But he loves accusing the directors of not keeping Scripture would ever have been re- to storm that castle of character which faith.
claimed had he not given up his idle has in it the most spoils and treasures. The young Galician girl who was tack the man who is busy with the pen | that the pirate attacked, but the ship, new cases. and the book and the trowel and the full winged, and flagged, plying besaw and the hammer. He is afraid of tween great ports, carrying its millions C. P. R. repair shops in Montreal have is an under-current of activity consethose weapons. But woe to the man of specie. The more your natural and been discharged as there is no work quent on the usual Christmas require- ar feeding we can grow better wook, acquired accomplishments, the 'more need of the religion of Jesus. That walk with, for in your constant activ- It gives symmetry. It arrests that in power in Winnipeg, transmitted a distthe soul which ought to be arrested and ance of 130 miles. propels that which ought to be propelled. It fills up the gulleys. It ele- Court of Quebec Independent Order of vates the transforms To beauty it Foresters into French and English gives more beauty, to tact more tact, seems to have been averted. to enthusiasm of nature, more enthusiasm. When the Holy Spirit aim-He does not spoil the canvas. If in the young man another preservative all the multitudes of young men upon shot him. whom religion has acted you could find one nature that had been the least damaged, I would yield this proposi-You may now have enough strength tablished at the beginning. God has of character to repel the various temptations to gross wickedness which assail you, but I do not know in what Langdon, N.W.T., had her legs crushgrace of the cross may then be able to critical condition. deliver you from the lions. You are not meeker than Moses, nor holier than point of character that you have never er in this world or the world to come. discovered, and in some hour when you are unsuspecting the Philistines will be for injuries allocad to be against it will be sufficient to uphold you. look forward in the world sometimes wendigo or evil spirit, was found guilty with a chilling despondency. Cheer of manslaughter. Judge Rose sentencbath day's work cost me $30,000. We the heart to drink down the brimming branched out and enlarged, and the cup of life and then pour the dregs on generous you have not the heart to act from the United States recently, was Your greatest want in all the world is from Manitou. that. And the Blessed Spirit presses through the solemnities and privileges of this holy hour. Put the cup of life eternal to your thirsty lips. Thrust it not back. Mercy offers it-bleeding mercy, long suffering mercy. Reject all other friendships, be ungrateful for

I would like to see some of you this press out of the ranks of the world and lay your conquered spirit at the feet of Jesus. This hour is no wandering vagabond staggering over the earth; it is a winged messenger of the skies whispering mercy to thy soul. Life is smooth now, but after awhile it may be rough, wild and precipitate. There comes a crisis in the history of every man. We seldom understand that turning point until it is far past. The road of life is fork- can actress, died in England. to pass the fork of the road without suburbs of London. thinking whether it comes out at the | The exporters and manufacturers in door of bliss or the gates of darkness. London Eay that their trade with Christ who made this remarkable state- to that of former years. ment: "Thirty years ago two young men started out in the evening to attend the Park theatre, New York, where a play was to be acted in which the cause of religion was to be placed in a ridiculous and hypocritical light. They came to the steps. The consciences of home, but returned again to the door, and yet had not courage to enter, and man entered the pit of the theatre. pounds. It was the turning point in the history of these two young men. The man who entered was caught in the whirl of temptation. He sank deeper and deeper in infamy. He was lost. That other young man was saved, and he now stands before you to bless God that for 20 years he has been permitted to

"Rejoice, O young man in thy youth and let thy heart cheer thee in the Tears are often to be found where of British Columbia. sorrow without any tears,-Johnson.

Belleville had 16 births, 1 marriage both the old associations. and 14 deaths during November. to be erected at Kingston.

Penitentiary has fallen heir to an estate of $140,000 in Scotland. Montreal's finances are in a rather

The Ottawa Free Press advocates the abolition of the Act exempting civil servants from the process of garnishee. The medical staff of the Ottawa Gen-habits and gone to feeding swine for a It was not some crazy craft creeping stricken with smallpox in Winnipeg living. The devil does not so often at- along the coast with a valueless cargo died on Tuesday night. There are no

A number of the employees of the

The threatened split of the High

A young man named Tophan was accidentally killed a few days ago in the The dry goods trade is dull for this in length, but shrink in diameter, thus Provinces and Ontario. He is already presses the image of God on the heart. Lake Dauphin country by his two bro- time of year. thers, who mistook him for a wolf and

Mr. A. D. Flint, assistant postmaster at Holland, Man., shot himself through the head while handling a loaded revolver in his office, dying in Miss Pennock, telegraph operator at

The Dominion Fisheries Department Cuban rebels attacked the town of has promised a supply of salmon eggs to the Hawaiian republic, to see if the and burned a part of the town. At St. John the Pullman Car Com- ment continue in Constantinople.

when your work is done to lie down and die. You try with many words to tell the excellency of the place, but to rest; but never regarded God in it.

In the same of the place, but the excellency of the place, but to rest; but never regarded God in it.

In the same of the place o ing short of the arm of Almighty God At Rat Portage a Pagan Indian who ed British Ambassador to succeed the longer the splice in a rope or strap, the would find a ready sale there. As an

> Mr. Shaughnessy, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific railway, denies the truth of the report that his line was > endeavoring to lease the Buffalo and Lake Huron Branch from the Grand Trunk railway. Mr. James Crawford, an elderly Englishman who went to Manitou, Man.,

like that. That is not brave. That is frozen to death on Monday night, while elected to the Presidency of Mexico in not honorable. That is not manly. walking to his son's farm, four miles 1876, has just been inaugurated for far the conditions of their existence de- readers in the matter. He thinks it a new heart. In God's name I tell you It is stated that the Federal Government has decided to follow the ex- Colony, who has been suffering from hard to say, but without doubt they were the country Mr. Haynes will make a ample of the Grand Trunk railway, and drepsy, will undergo an operation in a very large factor.

quired for the Intercolonial railway in the towns along the line. all other kindness, prove recreant to ed by which cattle and sheep from the all other bargains, but to despise God's Dominion of Canada, for export from love for your immortal soul-do not do Boston, may be entered and examined at the frontier ports of St. Alban's and France for 24 years. The selects com-Island Pond, Vermont.

> GREAT BRITAIN. A Christmas gift from the English people to U. S. Ambassador Bayard is being mooted in London. It is rumored that the Queen may dren's property.

visit Ireland next year, during the celebration of her long reign. Chas. Cushman, the only brother of Charlotte Cushman, the great Ameri- ed in favor of the exclusion of Amer-ed, and I read on two signboards: "This Dr. Jameson was removed from Holthe way to happiness," and "This is loway Jail in an ambulance and taken the way to ruin." How apt we are to a private sanitarium in one of the

Many years ago I stood on the an- Canadian firms who import dry goods niversary platform with a minister of from the Old Country is not nearly up Ambassador Bayard stated his belief that before his departure from England some permanent arrangement of artitration will be arranged between England and the United States. The London Daily Mail says that the both smote them. One started to go fetes at Elenheim castle in honor of the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to the Duke and Duchess of

> A cold wave of extreme severity is prevailing throughout England, and several deaths of tramps and others from exposure to the weather are reported. Skating is freely indulged in. A London despatch says that the Canadian Gazette asserts that enquiries made in the highest quarters failed to disclose any intention on the part of the Duke and Duchess of York to visit Canada next year.

The Manchester Guardian says Lord it is not good. Salisbury will make very strong representations to the Spanish Government with reference to the detention in Cuba of Richard and John Beatty, residents

Nothing is known in Lendon official circles of the rumoured intention of knighting Mr. Laurier on New Year's young in captivity the greatest care has to be exercised to keep them for sevwith the British Ministers and officials. At a meeting of the British Empire League on Friday the Duke of Devon- ceremony as it is a very bad omen. that have their full strength of potash. destination.

shire said that he believed the Imperial Federation sentiment was growing, but that the idea of free trade within the Empire had not yet met with a hearty

UNITED STATES. The Missouri National Bank, Kansas City, has collapsed. Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher is bed-ridden from the effects of a fall.

The Salvation Army in St. Louis inthree thousand persons. The window glass manufacturers of | Port Arthur harbor is trozen over. the United States have reorganized President Cleveland has purchased a A grain elevator, to cost $500,000,535 house in 96th street, New York, in addition to a home in Princetown, N.J. ed in the process of making than is the The Montreal Cotton Company has So far the Southern Pacific has had carcass, yet as a rule flockmakers give need light and plenty of air. They Pacific trains have been delayed some-

> ' Eloods are doing great damage in valleys.

Luther Greenman, his wife and four children are reported to have been burned to death in the destruction of ter prices another year for our wool. their home by fire at Perry, N. Y. New York to Hayti, which is now open for business to all South American shows a deficit of more than seven million dollars.

Telegraph advices from the comusual at this dull season. The recent condition can be found. spurt of orders has been filled, and trade generally is quiet, while there ments. The failures are small for that is, wool with a stronger and more lumber industry. The reason for do-The Keewatin Power Company are November by comparison with those for even fiber, than can be done in what ing this is that a very strong colonial smoothness of disposition or behavior. The smoothness of disposition or behavior. Winning transmitted a distare expected to prevail. The general wool record the fluctuations in food and the colonies, and it was considered that

GENERAL.

Spain is fitting out a flying squa-There are now thirteen thousand men on strike in Hamburg.

She was sixty-three years of age. cent massacres at Diarbekir and Khar- to result in broken fleeces.

Guanabacoa, near Havana, on Tuesday Lord's day, and he who devotes it to you ought not to consider yourself in-the world is guilty of robbery. God vulnerable. You may have some weak of that vicinity.

Arrests of persons suspected of being pend too long upon the pasture fields ciultivate closer business relations with concerned in plots against the Govern-for injuries alleged to have been sus- floods, has swept the eastern West repair. Lost weight in fat and flesh closely the English market they would Gare du Nord large packages of a manifesto by Prince Victor Napoleon. The Hamburg employers have refus- tion to record in the wool fibers.

Committee, and a general strike Gen. Porfirio Diaz, who was first the fifth time.

henceforth purchase all the goods re- a few days. French Government is opposed to the a coarse fiber under high feeding, but Arrangements have now been perfect- proposal to include $40,000,000 in the certainly as English methods of feednaval estimates for new men-of-war. ing are adopted in this country the Each Thought the Other Had Been Killed. new the charter of the Bank of of a coarse-fibered fleece. Just now mittee opposed all schemes for a State exception of a very limited demand, the

and to the management of her chil- nable.

A mass meeting of the Farmers' Union was held in Lyons, France, at which the dealers in salt meats resolvin the price of swine.

Signor Cecchi, the Italian Consulofficers, are reported to have been murdered by Somales at Magadoxo, according to reports from Zanzibar.

The London Times, after commenting on Gen. Weyler's failure to subdue the to exclude the possibility of some kind of United States intervention.

to meet the expenses of the Anglo- a large market. Egyptian expedition, Great Britain will refund the amount.

BRIDAL SUPERSTITIONS. If the wedding ring is lost the couple of the bridegroom's house it is a sign the bride will be happy. The bride must not look in the glass after performing her toilet unless one hand is ungloved. If a bride tears her wedding dress have proven unprofitable. Don't con-It is unlucky for a bride to put her bare feet on any bare floor on her wedding night. To change the name and not the letter is to change for worse and not for

If the bride open an umbrella in the house bad luck will surely follow. It is unlucky for two brides to meet in a church. The bride should not permit the best man to wear everything black at the better.

THE FARM.

GROWING WOOL.

The sheep to a greater extent than product is largely dismissed from to use ashes for the lime contained, as the lime can be more cheaply obtained

The nature of wool and the conditions of its growth should be understood. A. fleece of wool is far more easily damagdeclared a quarterly dividend of 2 per mostrouble from snow, but Northern no more thought to the growth and pro- should eve a warm place to sleep in tection of the fleece than they do to and this may be made dark, provided the growth of hair upon cattle. It is Wisconsin, and causing intense hard- considered a purely incidental product. sunlight. The south side of a buildship to the people living in the river Even at present prices it deserves bet- ing, when the sun shines, is not unter consideration than this. And we comfortable for any animal that has have no doubt that we may expect bet-

With great depression in the price of The United States & Hayti Telegraph | wool the world over and the consequent Company have laid a cable direct from decline in the number of sheep, the supply must soon drop below the demand. If farmers and flockmasters wish to The comparative statement of the re- come in for their share of the benefits ceipts and expenditures of the United of a rising market they must be prepar-States during the month of November ed to meet it with a superior product. English market." This encouraging At present our home market is gradually slipping away from us, not so much | Havnes. Director of The Timber Trades mercial agencies of Messrs. Bradstreet because better wool or cheaper wool can Journal, London, England. This jourand Dun in New York are of the kind be found, but because wool in better

We think it safe to say that under part of the country this year. Stormy ture. The fibers increase in diameter weather has to a certain extent inter- as the conditions for existence improve. making a weak point. The old adage that a chain is no stronger than its noyance to manufacturers. In the case of breeding ewes it seems almost im-

But, barring accidents, reasonable care increase will be easily absorbed. will secure a uniformly strong-fibered | Speaking of the business generally, fleece. To just this season of the year Mr. Haynes says, that it was a matter many "breaks" are attributable. They of great surprise to him that the manuresult from allowing the flocks to de- facturers of lumber in Canada do not ure to severe storms. A single week's wood-converting manufacturers here A cyclone, accompanied by heavy neglect may damage the fleece beyond would take the trouble to study more can be regained, but a weak point in find that there were many lines of the fleece cannot be repaired. The goods they could manufacture that You shot his foster father, thinking him a Marquis of Dufferin, has arrived in safer it is; so the longer the grass and instance he mentioned the extensive better. If the flocks can be brought goods by the Rathburn Company of Des-The Paris police have seized at the up to winter quarters strong and ac- oronto.

Constant attention to selection might The Minister of Marine in the counterbalance the tendency to produce The Government has decided to re- tendency will be toward the production fineness of fiber is little considered. It is uniformity of fibers throughout the A divorce judgment given in Paris fleece, uniform strength throughout the establishes that the wife of a habi- length of the fiber, and freedom from tual gambler is entitled to a divorce foreign matter, that make a fleece val- excellent marksmen concealed behind

FARM NOTES.

When prices are low it may be due ican pork products in view of the fall to causes which will soon pass away. At this season many farmers sell in the hero of a famous combat with old order to realize cash to meet obligation | Botha, a Boer fighter of renown. In turno and Staffetta, with six other and to avoid storage during the win- the Boer war of 1881 Sampson and ter, hence the bulk of crop is now mov- Botha found themselves behind stones ing and prices will be better later on, on a level plain, shooting at each othas the markets will not then be so lib- er. Sampson presently made sure that erally supplied.

How much an acre will produce de-Cuban insurgents, says the gloomy out- pends upon climate, fertility of soil and look in the island makes it impossible other circumstances. In Switzerland an acre keeps five cows, which are on the soiling system. In Japan a five-acre Lord Cromer, the British Agent at farm is considered a large one: In this Cairo, has officially informed the Egyp- country in the growing of "truck" as tian Government that if they decide to much as $500 has been made in a year repay to the Caisse the money advanced from an acre where the land was near

When fruit or vegetables are sent to a commission merchant and are not in perfect condition he is compelled to sell as soon as possible to avoid deterioration in value, but when the fruit arrives in good condition he can hold for If an apple be thrown upon the roof better prices. The proper shipping of perishable farm produce to market is not thoroughly understood if the manner in which much of the produce reaches the market is an indication. Cease old methods on the farm that tinue in the footsteps of your father attained to the colossal proportions of unless it pays. Conditions change year- | the "Freihaus," situate at Wielden, a ly in important particulars, both in suburb of Vienna. This building has market demand and methods of produc- 13 courtyards, and accommodates 2,112 tions, and you must keep pace with persons belonging to all classes of them. This can best be accomplished by society. One postman is specially apkeeping in touch with the world pointed to deliver letters to the inthrough the columns of reliable publica- mates, whose correspondents have to be tions of frequent issue, and the exercise | careful to put on the cover not merely of trained judgment aided by thought- the Christian name and the surname ful reading.

Ashes absorb moisture, which adds to their weight, and in buying them this should be overlooked. The fact that ashes have caustic qualities and indicate potash when placed to the tongue is no ndication that they have not been any other of our domestic animals is a leached by rains, as aportion of the double producer. Its two products are potash always remains. One of the in no way incompatible. The best wool substances which largely predominates in ashes is lime, and ashes will give is grown at the same time we are pro- satisfactory results sometimes due to ducing mutton. But so much stress is the lime, which is often credited to pottends giving a Christmas dinner to being put upon the latter that the wool ash through mistake, but it does not pay > from other sources. It is well enough to fatten stock in the dark because this in cold weather means also warmth. But growing animals, especially if they are young, there is a yard attached open to the south, and where they may enjoy the fur, even on a cold day.

CANADA'S LUMBER RESOURCES.

Special Commissioner of The Timber Trades Journal Seeking Information-He Predicts an Active Demand.

"There is likely to be a very active demand for lumber next year in the statement is made by Mr. Edwin nal, which is the greatest authority on timber and lumber in Europe, has sent out Mr. Haynes to write up a series of illustrated articles on the Canadian exists in England in favor of trade with volume of trade is only moderate, and water supply as certainly as does the this was an opportune time for further no special activity is expected in any thermometer the variations in tempera- enlightenment in regard to one of Canada's most important industries. Mr. fered with the distribution of goods As these fail the fibers continue to grow Haynes has been visiting the lower very favorably impressed with the counweakest link applies to wool. These try and says that our timber resources breaks" in the fibers, as they are call- are greater than he imagined. He finds ed, are a source of great loss and an- that the manufacture of square timber for the Quebec market this year will possible to prevent breaks in occasional be at least 5,000,000 cubic feet, as against Princess Elizabeth of Lippe is dead. fleeces, as any severe shock to the sys- 4,000,000 last year, but he says as the tem may cause them. Severe fright "coves" in Quebec are unprecedentedly The Porte denies the reports of re- from an attack by dogs has been known bare, more so than for years past, that in view of the active demand the customed to eating grain, there need be Mr. Haynes also mentions the fact no fluctuation in their physical condi- that the streets in London were being paved to a large extent with West ed to submit their difference with the It may be asked here if high feed- Australian hard woods, and he thinks striking dock laborers to arbitration. ing is compatible with the production it would be well if the Canadian lum-All the harbor laborers at Hamburg of fine wool. Certainly the fact that bermen would investigate this matter, the highly fed breeds at England pro- as he believes there are several kinds throughout Europe is said to be im- duce coarse wool and the great migrat- of hard wood in this country that would ory flocks of Spain that gathered their answer the purpose admirably. Mr. sustenance from the native growths of Haynes is agreeably surprised with grasses developed the finest fleeces in the climate of this country and will the world, were no accidents. Just how endeavor in his journal to undeceive its termined the character of their fleeces is a shame that the country should be so Lord Rosemead, Governor of Cape far the conditions of their existence is much misrepresented. Before leaving short trip to the western States.

A FIGHT IN THE TRANSVAAL.

But Soon Found Their Mistake.

The stories of fighting between Boers and English in South Africa have a strong resemblance to those of Indian fighting in the old days in New England. Bullets are exchanged between stones and bushes, and each bullet has, under such circumstances, an immense

The Cape Mercury says that Mr. Sampson, one of the Johannesburg "reformers," still in prison at Pretoria, is he had hit Botha and raised his head a little, when a bullet plowed his neck. "My man is dead," exclaimed Botha, and exposed himself. At the same instant a builet from Sampson's rifle struck him.

"This time I've got him!" shouted Sampson, and raised himself up, but a bullet grazed his side and he dropped. Botha now had no doubt that he had ended his antagonist, and jumped up on his feet, only to be again laid low, Though the men were now past fighting, with two bad wounds apiece, both recovered, and when Sampson settled in the Transvaal they became great friends, and often chaffed each other about this encounter.

IMMENSE TENEMENT HOUSE.

Most of the large towns in France contain workmen's model dwellings, or tenement houses, which have been dignified with the picturesque appe'lation of barracks, but none of these have of the addressee, but the number of the yard, the staircase and the flat. It is difficult to procure wood ashes if they want the letter to reach its