

THE MIRROR

No. 52. $1 per Annum.

Omemeo, Ontario, Thursday, Dec 16, 1897.

C. W. Richards, Publisher & Prop.

More We Hail with Joy and Hope the Merry

CHRISTMAS

T I M E S

Though Some Must Weep,

And Vigils Keep,

The World's Great Heart Averts the Smart,

Leaps Glad to Hear the Thrilling Chimes,

And Vent Its Joys in Showering Toys

And Costlier Gifts Upon Its Kind.

To aid in having some of the above sentiments put into practical shape, you are respectfully invited to examine the large and varied assortment of goods, designed for comfort and adornment, now on exhibition at the

FURNITURE

STORE, KING ST. NORTH, OMEMEE, ONTARIO

where, as for many years past, you will find

JOHN MCCREA

prepared to meet your reasonable wishes, and as nearly to your satisfaction as possible. His stock is now very large, and still arriving, and consists in part of Fine Mahogonised Oak and Elm

BED-ROOM SUITES, FROM $9.00 UPWARD.

DINING-ROOM and PARLOR LOUNGES.

DINING-ROOM SUITES from $15.00 UPWARD.

PARLOR SUITES, many varieties, from $16.50 upward.

COMBINED OAK & WICKER ROCKERS in Green and

Crimson Empire Plush.

MISSES AND CHILDREN'S Rockers and High Chairs.

Leather, Cane and Wood Dining Chairs.

Extension Dining Tables from $5.00 upward.

Sideboards, Common Bedsteads, Woven Wire Bed Bottoms, Mattresses, Pillow Shams, &c.,

All at Prices Requiring LESS MONEY than the Same Goods can be obtained for in Other Markets.

Framing and Repairing Attended to. Feathers, (Duck, Goose, and Chicken) taken in exchange. No Stupendous Adjectives Required to puff these goods, as QUALITY AND PRICES, THEY SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.

UNDERTAKING AS USUAL.

Grateful for your Liberal Patronage in the year gone by, and extending to you the heartiest Christmas and New Years Greeting, I remain,

: Yours sincerely, JOHN MCCREA