The German Medicine Co's Concerts held in the Broadview Hl. last week, were highly appreciated by the large audience. The program which were changed each evening, were all good, and should find subscribers. A special feature in Omemees was the performance of a large orchestra. This orchestra who received the largest number of votes, Baby Graham coming second and Baby Wittner third. The music was all very large, in the selection of the most popular songs in Omemees. The Company puts on as good a concert as the best of them.

On Thursday last the bazaar arranged by Christ Church Mission Band was very much patronized by the friends of the Missionary cause. Mr. Grandy had very kindly given a part of his house at the disposal of the Band. A large table was filled with articles of all descriptions made by the girls and given by friends. Coffee, tea and cake was served by the girls, and the whole event was very pleasant and successful. By 7 o'clock almost everything was sold, and when the clock struck 9 p. m. the handsome sum of $38.00 was realized and every article sold. The girls deserve much credit for their untiring zeal and interest. Mrs. Langford is Superintendent and Miss Sarah Adams Assistant Superintendent; Miss Bertha Wilson Treasurer and Miss Ethel Clarke, Secretary. The regular sewing meetings of the Mission Band will be held every other Saturday at the Rectory at 2 30 o'clock. Next Saturday they will begin to make the clothing for the Indian girl who is supported by the Band.

Miss Annie Blakely, of Madoc, sister of Mrs. (Rev.) H. B. Rowe, is visiting at Bethel Methodist Parsonage, Sturgeon St., Omemees.

The artistic merits of the two beautiful pictures given to Family Herald and Weekly Star subscribers this year are receiving no end of praise from the best people in the land. The Family Herald and Weekly Star pictures improve year after year, and this year's effort has been the greatest advancement. "Christ in the Temple" is simply beautiful and well worthy of the magnificent reception it is receiving. Some, and good judges, too, seem to favour "Home from the War," but when it is understood that each subscriber gets both pictures, then it is no surprise to see the thousands of complimentary letters appearing in the columns of that great paper. There should be an enormous number of dollar bills floating into the Family Herald this year. It is the biggest dollar's worth in the market to-day.

Miss M. Mills and Master Leslie Mills, of Lindsay, spent Sunday with Omemees friends.

THE TILLER OF THE SOIL.

When afflicted with disease, the farmer, perhaps more than any other artisan, is obliged to suffer acutely, simply from the fact that relief is inconvenient. At the same time a man might live in a block surrounded by medical practitioners, and then obtain little or no relief from rheumatism, once the disease permeates the blood. It is the discovery of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure that then proves a boon to the rheumatic sufferer. Mr. John Connell, Bedford Mills, Ont., had a bad attack of rheumatism from April till June, two years ago. He was so bad that he could not put his foot on the ground. He saw Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure advertised in the papers, bought two bottles and used them both. This so relieved him that he was able to walk around, and after using four bottles he was perfectly cured, and has not been troubled with rheumatism since.

Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure is put up in 50 cent bottles containing ten days' treatment. For sale by all druggists and dealers in medicine. The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

Owen Smily, Eltonian, who will appear for the first time here, on Jan. 1st next, under auspices Presbyterian Church, received great applause at the entertainment given in Peterboro on Dec. 8. The Times of the 4th, in its report of the concert says: "Mr. Smily is an original and versatile humorist. He is a great mimic and has considerable musical talent. His 'Humors of Music' the last number on the program delighted the audience so that he was twice recalled, although the evening was well advanced." Watch for bills.

A PATHETIC MEETING

The Globe of Friday says: A remarkable meeting took place between two brothers who had not seen each other for almost twenty five years, in the main waiting room of the Union Station last evening. Among the passengers on the Montreal express, which arrived shortly before 8 o'clock, was Harry Rahmer, a middle-aged man, who was on his way to Mount Albert. A few minutes later the Empire State express from Buffalo pulled into the station, and had among its passengers from Cleveland a man named Josiah Rahmer. Both men had been notified by telegram that their mother was lying at the point of death at Mount Albert. After leaving the train Harry approached Police Constable Pogue and asked if he could tell him the quickest way to get from Toronto to Mount Albert. The stranger was informed by the policeman that his train did not leave until the next morning. From here he wandered up stairs to the information office, where he asked the clerk to look for the address of a younger brother, whom he said, he thought lived in the city. In the meantime another gentleman stepped up to the office, intending to send a telegram to a relative at Mount Albert. He was in the act of writing the despatch when he heard the clerk mention the name of Rahmer. The name sounded quite familiar to Josiah, and, tapping his neighbor, who was still looking at the city directory, on the shoulder, he asked if he had ever lived in Omemees. He paused for a moment, and catching Josiah by the hand, cried out at the top of his voice that he had found his long lost brother. The brothers embraced and kissed each other, with tears rolling down their faces.

The anniversary services and entertainment held at Bethel on the 2nd and 3rd inst., were a grand success. The Rev. D. N. McCamus, of Cobourg, preached two splendid sermons on Sunday to very appreciative congregations. On Monday evening, despite the impassable condition of the roads, and threatening appearance of the weather the church was well filled. The fore supper reflected great credit upon the ladies of the congregation. The entertainment which followed was highly appreciated, which consisted of three fine addresses by the Revs. G. Brown, W. M. Kannawin, B. D., and D. N. McCamus. The singing by the choir and also by Rev. D. N. McCamus was well received. There being abundance of provisions left, a social was held on Thursday evening, which was well attended. After refreshments were served, a good program was rendered, consisting of readings, recitations, solos, duets and a sthema. The proceeds of all amounted to $107.00.
