OMEMEE ONT., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1902.

CHAS. W. RICHARDS, Publisher and Proprietor

Or, Violet Beaton's Contempt For Titles.

CHAPTER XX.

Three weeks passed since Violet spirit of the place seemed in some measure to have entered into her. There was a dignified precision about lived together fifty more." everything which was new to her. All was so old; there was almost had grown gray in the service of the tion as they drove home. family: they were servants of the Up to this time Violet had believed fear ? She must know who this girl and reverence for their superiors, proud enough of the state of life to claims to consideration.

worshipped by the whole household. bonds. They told her that her face was like | She began to doubt herself—she Lady Lester loved, the girl whom simmer half an hour longer, then chicken Carboil large ovsters and simmer half an hour longer.

her respect and honor. She learned In those days Violet was a study. might take her place.

"he" died, the one man who had so love or hate ? She could not tell ; when she heard the intelligence. completely changed the course of her she did not know. life ? Would she care to sit by his "I cannot understand my own when Miss Marr comes," she said.

the iron seats scattered about the ful.

tiful for men to jass you by. Love hesband." they do, of all that I say to you shows its estimate of such women visitors at Queen's Elm."

hot anger, her burning pride, her re- be justified in leaving him ?" sentment against her husband-there "Certainly not. Any wife in such should marry. would be far more than the sound of a position as that, if she had a par- All day she was restless; she one-fourth inch thick, sprinkle one- paste stiff enough to mold into an angry word between them.

heaven upon earth," said the old and I lived in the sweetest peace and harmony, and during all that time we never. Heaven be praised, was a secret in this, one that all sensible wives soon learn." "What is it ?" cried Violet, eager-is the secret of happiness in married please her husband's family." life-to bear and forbear, not to Go one step further," said Vio- expectation. life—to near and letter, the linger can be put in it com- catch with seein next stitch. Bo linger can be put in it com- catc have wide-open eyes for each deart still, to grossly deceived the girl, beguiled of her heart; even Mrs. Ingram's Tie in a cloth and boil for four a wooden spoen, and continue until if too full, make loops in every other still, and, what is better still, to be into marrying him by telling, or worn, placid, face was moved, as launts, and, what a grand, generous, noble her into marrying him by telling, or worn, placid face was moved as hours. love with a grand, generous. Take out the er round. After completing a round spoon and knead with the hand un- go back and fill each loop with a c. It was after support when Violet "Is there such a love ?" asked what would you say then ?"

kind of love always ends in disap- one course, and that is to keep it it love or jealousy that stirred her pointment-but the grand, generous inviolable." love that is not lessened by faults. Violet carried these words in her When the dinner-bell rang, she My husband had faults : I loved him heart for many long days. both knew that we determined the seemed unusually exful as a dream, tall and stately, yet ly met for the first time. ance for each other. The result cited.

teaching," thought Violet, "and it turned suddenly white, she grew old-fashioned type, full of respect herself to be perfectly in the right, was, and that at once. that the conduct of her husband and "What a pretty name-Gwendohis mother had been utterly un- line !" she said. "An old English Brown, bread and butter sandwiches which they had been called, proud justifiable, that she had been injur- name, is it not?" of being good servants and serving cd and wronged, and that, in throw- "Yes-one much used in the Marr good people; there was no absurd ing off her allegiance to her husband family. My granddaughter is aping of their betters, but a quiet and trying herself to break her Gwendoline Marr." reliance on themselves and their own bonds, she had acted bravely and For a few minutes it seemed to robly. But the hour spent in the Violet as though the ground were large, fat chicken, carefully, put it and cinnamon, half grated nutmeg recipe No. 2, and from it mold a churchyard rather changed her ideas. opening beneath her feet. Of all the Everything was so old, with such Love was not a matter of caprice, strange fates in the world, it was to a boil. Add one teaspoon salt Chicken and seemed almost out of place. Never- Certainly no woman could do as she she recognize how jealous she had slowly until the chicken is quite tenseason to taste, add a little minced Roll in powdered sugar. theless she was soon televed and had tried to do-break her own been of Gwerdoline Marr, the girl friend by the make a paste. Add one made by chapping any kind of puts

One warm, bright day in autumn emotion; her brain, mind and soul of fate that she should stand there, per, then put in a spoorful of the the flour. Bake in a large loaf. Mrs. Ingram asked her to go with were in confusion. Love, revenge, listening to orders as to how Gwen- crumbs, followed by a few well- When cool take out the center, leav- the article for use in traveling, and her to the churchyard at Elm Green. | tender | t "I want to see my husband's grave hatred of all that her husband loved fortable. She was prompted more lowing one pint the latter for the tom. Stick the cake rather full of lady's dainty dresser. It is called a Miss Beaton. I wonder if other peo- took possession of her by turns; she than once to cry out that she blanched almonds, and thickly cover handkerchief press and is made of and tell him it's for you'' ple have the same sensation that I could not tell whether she loved would not do it. Why should she bird is full enough. Do not fill it inside and outside with pink frosthave—that being near the grave of Randolph or hated him, whether she do anything for Gwendoline Marr, too full, or the stuffing will be ing. Drain the syrup from preserv- inches square, covered on one side one beloved seems to bring that one wished most to keep away from him whose name had been made an in- heavy. Baste the turkey with the ed peaches, cut in haives and fill the with silk of a solid color and on the provised bade. Instinctively, the beloved record 2" or longed most to see him again. strument of torture to her? Then oyster liquor, and cook until tender cavity of the cake with them. other with a pretty flowered pathonic of the mon went to the cavity of the cake with them. Since I have been old enough to could not. Was it love of him that downger Lady Ryvers wished to could not. Was it love of him that downger Lady Ryvers wished to could not have been old enough to could not. Was it love of him that downger Lady Ryvers wished to could not have been old enough to could not. Was it love of him that downger Lady Ryvers wished to could not have been old enough to could not have been old enough to could not was it love of him that downger Lady Ryvers wished to could not have been old enough to could not have been old of him and going over in fancy every She went away to give the orders, blespoons butter, half cup cream or delicately flavored, and make pink are held together with an elastic better the little by the best and to the little by the best and together and the two covers and the two covers and the two covers. The cowboy stood twirling him are held together with an elastic best and leading at the little by the understand, I have lost no one by kept her awake at night, thinking take her place, reigned supreme. Quite suddenly, as it seemed to hour they had spent together? Was and to tell the housekeeper to have duch of white papers. Best them of sweeting street start of the countries her, a great storm of emotion swept it love that kept the sound of his everything ready for Miss Marr.

grave that she might be nearer to heart," she said to herseli : "much | Violet scrutinized her cagerly less could any one else understand she longed to know more and hear

Randolph all night-Mrs. Ingram read the questions in her eyes.

"I am at the end of life," she Violet, "to solve a problem for my- there are days in the year." said, slowly, "and you, child, are self, and I cannot do it. I was won- "She cannot love them all," Vio- cooked cauliflower broken small, seaat the beginning. You will love and dering whether in any circumstances let replied, smiling. "Does her lit- son to taste and cover with bits of marry some day : you are too beau- whatever a wife ought to leave her the crowd of admirers follow her butter and bread crumbs. Continue to face there will not be the sound man married a girl beneath him in one. It was so strange, this meetof an angry word between us. Think rank, and that, when he took her ing the great heiress there. After ten with mayonnaise and keep very days. of that, my dear-think of that." home, his friends treated her un- al!, it was perhaps as well. Now cold until time to serve, and then And Violet did think. She remem- kindly, even tried to prove that her she would see what her rival was turn into a salad bowl, pour a lit- Separate the whites of 2 eggs from bered her flery denunciations, her marriage was not legal-would she like, the girl whom Lady Ryvers so the mayonnaise over the top, and the yolks, measure them and add the lady. "For thirty years my husband I was and every form of itching. the manufacturers have guaranteed it. See testonly woman who had ever been her in a hot oven. Serve on a doily in sugar is about dissolved set the pan times in the daily press and ask your neighbors what they think of it. You can use it and vival. What would her husband say timonials in the daily press and ask your neightime we never, reaven to be never. Heaven to be not the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily had one angry word! But there he all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto, would it give rise? She was not entered to be not the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily instanced the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily instanced the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily instanced the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto, would it give rise? She was not entered to the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto, would it give rise? She was not entered to the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto, would it give rise? She was not entered to the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the gifts were prettily all dealers or EDMANSON, BATES & Co., Toronto, would it give rise? She was not entered to the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper, and the sugar full with s c in a pretty shade of paper.

"May Heaven send it to you some to remain with him. The sanctity of She absented herself on some preday !" said Mrs. Ingram. "That is the marriage-tie is too solemn to text, not caring to be present when the grandest love of all-not the allow of its being broken; and, if it the two ladies met. She was rather love that idealizes and believes the were broken on one pretext, it frightened by her own emotions, she believed to be perfect—that would be on others. There is but did not quite understand it. Was

"My dear," she said, "I want you. I have a letter from my granddaughter; she is coming tonight. It is very kind of her. She is so beautiful and so brilliant that she has many invitations; she has given up several to come to me." "What do you wish me to do ?"

asked Violet, gently. "Give orders about her rooms. Gwendoline is very particular; and indeed she is quite right to he so her life is most precious."

Only one word in Mrs. Ingram's was we never had one angry word. answer struck Violet, and that was 'We have been married thirty years, "Gwendoline," a name that was so came to Queen's Elm. The stately and we have never had a quarrel, uncommon, yet horribly familiar to my husband said when he lay dying; her. The very sound of it seemed to nor should we have had one had we bring the dowager Lady Ryvers before her, she who had spoken so "This differs from aunt Alice's often of Gwendoline Marr. She sacrilege in the thought of anything differs greatly from my practice." faint and trembled; yet surely there modern. The servants were old, and She had I lenty of food for medita- were many Gwendolines in the world ! Why that awful spasm of been of Gwendome Mari, the girl soup one small minced onion, a sprig ficient to make a paste. Add one made by chopping any kind of nuts to which honor was que. Here it her, and his mad, passionate love caressed her ! What strange fate Roast Turkey With Oyster Stuffing. with parsiey. was different. All that was noble, for her haunted her as they had had brought them together? Vio- For a ten-pound turkey, take one Peach Trifle. - Make a sponge cake beautiful, or dignified in high birth, never done before. She had harden- let knew well that the one great de- quart bread crumbs, half cup butter with six eggs, two cups sugar, one chopped nuts and are thought to be come to 'em.' The children cla reditary nobility, was so placed be- exaggerated her own wrongs; but heart was to find her marriage il-lover her heart and soul. What if voice ever in her ears ? Was it The housekeeper looked delighted oughly with a fork, then beat in serving. "It is always a bright day for us more about her rival, but it was imtions that I cannot answer," thought | Che morning—she had dreamed of possible to ask. The housekeeper the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or four-inch wide stiff satin or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the squash thoroughly, season to colate and half cup English walnut or flow- boy, mournfully, "unless the little the little the squash the little the litt Mrs. Ingram sat down on one of asked her why she looked so thought- and a generous lump of but- layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- my gun to the little girl, though on layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- my gun to the little girl, though on layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- my gun to the little girl, though on layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- layers and over the cake. Decorate so that the two ends will extend be- layers and over the cake. Marr," she continued, "and she has ter. "I have been trying," answered more lovers, I should think, than Scalloped Cauliflower. - Butter a and marriage, the two great crowns. "Certainly not," was the stern re- "No ; when Miss Marr comes to over one cup thick white sauce, covand marriage, the two great crowns. "Certainty not, was the stern rethe two great mysteries of woman's ply. "No matter whether she be in stay with our mistress, she devotes or closely, and bake in a quick oven that is the foundation of all the life, will come to you. Think, when the right or in the wrong, the world a'l her time to her. We have no for 20 minutes.

A hundred questions trembled on cups diced celery, two cups diced eggs; the other by boiling the thirty years, and when we meet face "Suppose," said Violet, "that a Violet's lips, but she would not ask cold chicken and half cup blanched sugar. The latter is the best for vehemently desired that her son garnish with celery sprigs.

went into the drawing-room, won-My husband had faults, and That same evening a surprise was dering why Mrs. Ingram had not her. he loved me in spite of them. We in store for her. Mrs. Ingram sent sent for her as usual; and then she both knew that we were ordinary for her earlier than usual to her saw standing there a woman beauti-

DINNER.

Cream of Chicken Soup. Olives Celery Salted Nuts Roast turkey with oyster stuffing Cranberry jelly Plum jelly Catsup Pickles Potate snow Creamed squash Scalloped Cauliflower Chicken salad Cheese straws Plum pudding Mince pie

> Fruit cake Nuts Fruit Bonbons Coffee

SUPPER. Chicken and oyster croquettes Strawberries in jelly Peach trifle Chocolate walnut cake Tea Cocoa not be allowed to cool.

baking dish well, put in a layer of this until the dish is full, then pour could not give her full and undivid- half with grated cheese seasoned forms. To prove to you that Dr. ed thoughts to what she was doing, with sait and cayenne, fold, roll, Foundation for Candy-No. 2 : Put

I should still say her duty was heard the sound of carriage wheels. chopped, one cup chopped suet. one comes too hard at any time, add a plain, making them with yellow silk soft and dark as night. white outstretched hands.

(To Be Continued.)

cup each vinegar and cider, two cups platter again until the chocolate The little threadbare children had each seeded raisins, molasses and hardens. Cream of Chicken Soup.-Wash a sugar, one tablespooon each cloves Nut Candy-Make a cream oy using there, and when they found that the sunshine; and they waited upon her though she had been a queen.

It was a good school. She had done wrong, after all?

She began to doubt herself—she Lady Lester loved, the girl whom the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a smouldering they had all wished Randolph to marry. It had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a queen.

The they had all wished Randolph to marry. It had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a queen.

The they had all wished Randolph to marry. It had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a queen.

The they had all wished Randolph to marry. It had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a queen.

The they had all wished Randolph to marry. It had been a smouldering them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a queen.

The they had all working them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and they waited upon her who had been a queen.

The they had all working them through the chicken. Parboil large oysters and the ch it was a good school. She had been a queen.

been too angry at Ryverswell to see any good in anything, far too angry:

everything was hateful to her. She did not see any honor even in that do not force to each croquette. Sea did not can did not see and two teaspoons two or three to each croquette. Sea did not can divide all she that the chick-salt with the chick-s fore her that she could not refuse she could not deaden her memory. legal, so that Gwendoline Marr powdered thyme, and salt and pep- Beat the yolks and sugar until light. per to taste. Mix all well together, add flavoring, then the stiffly whip-She was sure of no one feeling or It seemed to Violet the very irony Rub the turkey with salt and pep- ped whites, next the hot water, then three eggs. Press through a heated good layer cake after any preferred cring, that it may be quite full. a look across snow-filled prairies to colander and serve at once. Keep recipe. For the filling whip the Sow a graceful bow of the ribbon on a warmly lighted home. The children the potatoes on the back of the range whites of three eggs until very stiff, the top. with halved English walnut meats.

CHRISTMAS CANDIES.

For the more rancy candles there Chicken Salad. - Mix together two varieties; one, uncooked, by using

Foundation for Candy-No. 1: Cheese Straws. - Roll puff paste ough powdered sugar to make a

"A marriage such as ours was is Chase's Cintment is a certain She repeated over and over again to and again sprinkle with the season- into a saucepan twice as much she was doing. She repeated over and over again to and again sprinkle with the season- into a saucepan twice as much she was doing. She repeated over and over again to and again sprinkle with the season- into a saucepan twice as much she was doing. She repeated over and over again to an again sprinkle with the season- into a saucepan twice as much she was doing. She repeated over and over again to an again sprinkle with the season- into a saucepan twice as much she was doing. herself, each time with fresh won- ea cheese; repeat, cut in strips, five granulated sugar as water, say 2 bleeding and protruding piles, der, that she was in the home of the inches by one-fourth inch, and bake cups water and 4 of sugar. When the men with an exquisite face and eyes sticks of chocolate by breaking into inch-wide green ribbon a little longbits, and putting them into a bowl, er than needles. Miss Marr went up to her with and set over a kettle of boiling wa- Six bags in one (Fig. 4) for sew-"Mrs. Ingram has been speaking make a cream from recipe No. 1 and many small articles that so conof you," she said. "I am pleased to from it mold a number of thimble- stantly tangle in the work basket. see you; you are a great comfort to shaped pieces about an inch long. The bottom piece is a hexagon of Set then on a buttered pan to dry stiff cardboard covered with flower- Then, if its spurs have not been And so the hands of the two wo- for an hour. Then, using a wooden ed silk or silkateen, the edges overmen whose lives crossed so strange- toothpick to hold them on, dip each handed together, and to each of the But strike a bargain if you can, and a number of English walnuts. Put bitterly until sleep quieted them. an out-of-the-world glamor. that Note that was bringing her Violet's youth and Violet's youth and Violet's youth and Violet's vouth and Violet's restaurant to a boil. Add one teaspoon sait to a boil to a boi Violet's youth and Violet's beauty was the most solemn of obligations. hither. Not until this moment did slowly until the chicken is quite ten- season to taste, add a little minced Poll in powdered sugar.

WHAT WILL SANTA CLAUS BRING?

with cream. Chopped fig; dates and socks," said the cattleman eagerly. citron can be used exactly like the "I ain't never worn 'em, and you're

WORK FOR CHRISTMAS.

Fig. 1 shows a very convenient lit-Sprinkle with a few blanched and tern. Wadding and sachet powder hands of the men went to their while preparing them, as they must add confectioner's sugar enough to A double bag, one side for opera question of presents. back ends, hem and stitch again give up a gun." half inch above hemming for a draw. "Never mind, boys," said the Use narrow ribbon for draw strings, drummer, "you come along with me A cork protector for the large to the baggage car."

on the stove and heat slowly. Do ring a little smaller than diameter down a great piece of sage brush. Plum Pudding. - One pound rais- not stir the mixture while it is cook- of largest end of cork is crocheted The mother adorned it with tinsel currants washed and dried, three- begins to boil, try a little by drop- green silk or silkateen. Make four disposed. Christmas dawned for Dr. Chase's Ointment much surprised to find that the or- quarters pound bread crumbs, half ping it into cold water. If it will rows of s c. then change silk to colt two of the happiest children under cer of the house was somewhat pound flour, three-quarters pound roll into a soft ball without sticking or of flower desired. Be careful now the sun, and a happy mother, too, pound flour, three-quarters pound roll into a soft ball without sticking or of flower desired. Be careful now the sun, and a happy mother, too, ticle of common sense, would try changed. The dinner was later, and beef suct. three eggs, half pound cit- to the fingers, it is cooked enough. to make work fit cerk. In 5th for inside the big plush album select-Forbearance." she replied. "That conciliation, would do her best to some magnificent silver was disinto make work at cord. In oth for inside the big plush album selectron, and orange peel, half nutmeg, to make work at cord. That conciliation, would do her best to some magnificent silver was disinron, and orange peel, half nutmeg, there was a general air of terred ; there was a general air of one teaspoon ground ginger, two tea- Test it frequently, and as soon as more if longer petals are liked, and a hundred-dollar bill. spoons baking powder and just en- the finger can be put in it com- catch with s c'in next stitch. Do and also narrowing a little to fit Chocolate Creams-Melt several cork. Connect the two corks with

ter. While the chocolate is melting ing saves mixing of spools and the piece into the melted chocorate until sides is attached a small bag whose tied in a little bow at both ends.

> CHRISTMAS MORNING. On Christmas morning, dark or

The home is happy, eyes are bright, Faces merry, voices gay, Speak Love's blessing on the day. On Christmas morning, be it spent

Where tints of brightest June are Tropic fashion; tempest tossed; Rain bejeweled, gemmed with frost.

On Christmas morning, all is fair, Hope and joy are everywhere. Now and ever, shade or shine, Welcome in the day divine.

The magnolia has a more powerful perfume than any other flower.

Christmas Eve on a Train.

Four travelers who were snowbound in a Western passenger train on Christmas Eve speedily became acquainted with each other and sat about the stove at the end of the car to "talk it over." One of the men was a drummer, another a cowboy, the third a big cattleman, and the last the minister who tells the story. They finally fell into conversation with a poor woman and her two children, the only remaining passengers, and found that the mother, who had tried to maintain herself by sewing since her husband's death, was giving up the unequal struggle and going home to live with "grandma."

"Say, parson, we've got to give these children some Christmas." "That's what !" said the cowboy.

"I'm agreed," added the cattle-

The children were told to hang up their stockings. "We ain't got none," quavered the

The children clapped their hands, but their faces fell when the elder remarked : "But Santa Claus will know they're not our stockings. He'll put in all the things for you." "Lord love you !" roared the burly edges. Twice the length of elastic ed dimmed, while in the eyes of the quickly the stiffly whipped whites of Chocolate Walnut Cake. - Make a should be allowed for the ribbon cov-make rather thick, half teaspoon glasses and the other for the hand- "It don't seem to me I've got any-Creamed Squash.—Cook and mash vanilla, four tablespoons melted cho- kerchief, is shown at Fig. 2. Three thing to give 'em," said the cowtaste, and beat in half cup sweet meats chopped fine. Place between cred ribbon is used. Fold together kid might like my spurs. I'd give > wooden needles so much used in So off they trooped. He opened knitting shawls is Fig. 3. A brass his trunks and spread before them such an array of trash and trinkets as took away their breath.

"There," said he, "just pick out the best things and I'll donate the "No. you don't !" said the cowboy. "I'm goin' to buy what I want ain't goin' to be no Christmas round "That's my judgment, too," said the cattleman, and the minister and pay for it, too, or else there

So they sat down to the task of selection. They spent hours over it in breathless interest, and when their glits were ready there arose the question of a Christmas tree. It had stopped snowing, and tramping out into the moonlit night they cut

FOR CHRISTMAS WEEK. If you will have a turkey-cock your festal-beard to grace, Whose advent you can calmly wait with smooth, unruffled face, Safe in the knowledge that its life has early been cut short, Be wise in time and note these points before the bird is bought. See that its legs are smooth and black, its eyes not sunk, but

Its feet quite moist and flexible, its breast both plump and white; thoroughly coated. Put them on the width is the same as one side of the To Test ine Heat of the Oven .bexagon. The small bags are made Take a sheet of white paper and of the same material lined with a place it in the oven. If too hot the contrasting or harmonizing color. paper will quickly blacken or burn Places are made for draw strings up ; if it is a delicate brown the and each bag is drawn up separate- oven is fit for pastry ; should the ly with two lengths of baby ribbon paper turn dark yellow, cakes may be baked; and if only light yellow, sponge cakes and biscuits may be

A QUESTION OF FUNDS.

In Four Hospitals in Montreal But the Doctors Could Not Cure Mr. Cloutier-Said He Would Never be Well Again-After Six Years of Helplessness He Was Cured by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

ly severe.

be well again. good health a person whose case the doctors could not cure me. They Toronto.

shoemaker, 110 Lagouchetiere street, more than ordinary value, and this spite of their decision I began the use Montreal, deserves more than passing is only one of a series of remarkable of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food some notice, because his case was unusual- cures that have been brought about months ago, and I am convinced hope of recovery, but, on the con- I had severe attacks of headache, this wonderful medicine."

The case of Mr. Simon Cloutier, was considered hopeless must be of said I would never be well again, In by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve that I owe my life to this medicine. I have now been at work for over For six long years Mr. Cloutier Mr. Simon Cloutier, shoemaker, two weeks, and believe that my was an invalid, unable to attend to 110 Lagauchetiere street, Montreal, health has been fully restored. It his work, and much of his time Que., states :- 'For six years I was is a pleasure for me to add my teswas spent in the hospitals of Mon- not able to work, my nerves were timony to the hosts of others from treal. The doctors gave him no all unstrung and my digestion bad. persons who have been cured by trary, told him that he would never could not sleep, and suffered with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents shooting pains in the small of my a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all A treatment that will restore to back. I was in four hospitals, but dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co.,

