A very amusing scene took place recently in a church near Belfast It being christening Sunday the clergyman stepped down to christen the children. While christening one of them, he said to a very young-looking man, "You're far too young to stand sponsor to this child." Whereupon the young man, much abashed, replied in a weak voice, "Please, sir, I'm his father."

Presentation to C. W. Richards 1

To the Editor of The Mirror.

DEAR SIR,-I send you herewith an account of the proceedings of Camp Omemee, No. 154. Canadian Order of the Woodmen of the World, at a meeting held on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 8th last, for the election of Officers, and in honor of their Clerk, Mr. Chas. W. Richards. Consul Commander, Sov. Walter Hall, called the meeting to order. After the usual routine of business, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Consul Commander, Sov. W. Hall, Adv. Lieutenant, Sov. H. Evans. Clerk, Sov. S. P. M.lls. Banker, Sov. A. Scott.

Physician, Sov. G. S. Cameron. Escort, Sov. W. J. Thompson. Watchman, Sov. G Carey. Sentry, Sov. J. Poyeer. Delegate to Head Camp, Sov. C.

V. Richards. Alternate Delegate to Head Camp,

Sov. Hall, in a neat little speech thanked the members for the honor of being re-appointed head of the Camp, and also reminded the members that one man could not make a successful Camp, and that each Sov. was expected to do his duty. He then called on Sov. Scott to convey the thanks of the Camp to the retiring Clerk. Mr. Scott, on rising, addressing himself to Mr. Richards, the late Clerk, spoke as follows:

DEAR FELLOW SOVEREIGN,-I desire, on behalf of the Camp, to thank you for the able way you have conducted the busi ness of the Camp since it was organized. It is due to a great extent to your efforts that so much success has been gained. We are glad to know that you are to be ment of Mr. P. Parsons. still one of our number, although l you will be removed to another field of labor, and we desire, in some way, however small, to express our appreciation of your service, and I, on behalf of the members, hereby prosent to you this purse, containing a small sum of money, as a slight token of our esteenrand gratitude to you as our Clerk, and as a great worker on behalf of our Order. Mr. Richards, on rising to reply said he was quite unable to convey to them adequately his thanks for the kind things that had been said of him, and for the generous present they had made. He felt he did not deserve all this kindness; he had done nothing more than his duty, and telt that he ought to have done much more for the benefit of so noble an Order and he would ever retain an interest in the Order and especially in the success of Omemee daughter. Camp.

Several of his fellow Sovereigns then spoke of the great assistance Friend Richards had been to the on Jan 4th Camp and their regret at his leaving the village, but all joined in an's Institute was beld on Thur-day in his new home in Hillbrook.
