Mr. Bryce is Presented With a Parting Gift Methodist Sunday School Entertainment. by His Pupils

On Friday, Dec. 23rd, Mr. Bryce, teacher at S. S. No. 5, was presented by his pupils with a gentleman's travelling companion and album accompanied by the following address :-

To Mr. Bryce : sad even amid the joyful suggestiveness of the festive season, when we know that Christmas will close the delightful relations we have enjoyed for so long, as teacher and pupils. Young as we are we know that the realities of life and the call of duty make tion, Wallace Graham; Music (quartette) such partings the common lot. Still we would do something, be it ever so slight, to show the high respect which we entertain for you. As a teacher we feel you have done your duty by us nobly; and as a friend you have won a warm place in our hearts and when we are far separated we shall remember gratefully the many good things you have done us. In token of our good will kindly accept this "Gentleman's Tra velling Companion and Album."

Now in formally bidding you good bye allowing us to wish you not only a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, but many many years of happy and prosperous

George Edwards's Funeral.

From the Omemce Recorder. It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death on Friday last of Mr George Edwards, one of the most respected and best beloved citizens of this village, of which he had been a resident for a number of years. His remains were interred at Millbrook on Monday with masonic honors by Lorne offerings wero a square and compass from Lorne lodge. a bouquet from Mrs. J. Morrison, a cross from the members of the Presbyterian church. Messrs. Wm. Miller and Geo. McWilliams accompanied the remains from Peterboro. On the arrival of the train at Millbrook a large number of citizens, together with a full representation of the masons of J. B. Hall lodge of that place and the excellent Millbrook brass band, led by appeal on January 21. Mr. Duncan, joined in the solemn procession to the Presbyterian cemetery. In every way there was a marked degree of respect shown to the deceased, and the members of his family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in the loss of a faithful son and a kind brother.

-The Canadian Order of Foresters is a fraternal benevolent society, incorporated in 1879 and registered under the insurance corperations act, 1892, of Ontario. The tour would enable his royal highness to pay one of these Misses J. Graham and Flora Sanderson, and two-sided compliments which so often distinguish his sagacity. His visit would be the Elliott family; Address, Rev. Thompson been some time languishing for royal favors. It would, moreover, intensify the natural loyalty of the settlers in the crown, and probably put the annexationists under a cloud for another twenty years. We have now direct reason for paying the United States a special compliment, but undoubtedly American sentiment would be touched by the presence of the heir apparent at the World's Fair. So there is something, prothe royal favor will be addressed primarily to Canada, whose tariff susceptibilities are worth flattering.
