

BY SPECIAL APPOINTMENT TO HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

If you wish your Linen to be White as Snow, Sunlight Soap will do it.

Why, How
Because SUNLIGHT SOAP is perfectly pure, and contains no injurious chemicals to injure either your clothes or your hands. Greatest care is exercised in its manufacture, and its quality is so appreciated by the public that it has the Largest Sale of any Soap in the World.

Can you test this? If you have never tried SUNLIGHT SOAP, ask those who use it what they think of it, then try it for yourself. The result will please you, and your clothes will be washed in far less time, with Less Labour, Greater Comfort, and will be whiter than they have ever been before, when you use ordinary soap.

Is That
not the best way to decide the matter? First by enquiring what the experience is of those who already use it. Secondly, by a fair trial yourself. You are not committed in any way to use the soap; all we ask is: Don't Delay try it the next washing day.

Just the Thing.
Patentee—I have here a patent celluloid imitation lemon. Flies around in the lemonade O.K. Use 'em over an' over. Showman—Good! Give me a thousand dozen.

An Afterthought.
Mrs. Hoppin—I am just going out to buy the trimming for my new dress.
Mrs. Styles—What is the dress going to be made of?
Mrs. Hoppin—That depends on how much money I have left over.

Successful Advertising.
The Boston Transcript tells of a funny incident at a funeral. A patent medicine wagon stopped at the entrance to the cemetery during the interment, on which were such signs as these:

USE BINK'S SARSAPARILLA.
STOP THAT GRAVEYARD COUGH WITH WILKINSON'S BALSAM.
TRY FURNESS'S PILLS BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE.
Presently the crowd were all wending their way out of the cemetery, and as the chief mourner, the dead old man's son, passed the patent medicine wagon, an indescribable expression passed over his face, while a tear rolled down his cheek. "What are you thinkin' of, John?" a relative whispered to him.
"I was thinkin'," answered John, wiping the tear away, "how he would a enjoyed that!"

Stomach Ache—We all know what it is; we acquired a perfect knowledge of the "Pet" in our youth, after a raid on things we were expressly forbidden to touch. Our mother gave us Perry Davis' Pain-Killer then, and, strange to say, no other remedy has been discovered to this day to equal it. Old popular price, 24c. for Big New Bottle.

The Alter.
