THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1894.

THE ELECTIONS.

The municipal elections on New Year's day passed off very quietly, and although considerable driving, button-holing and smiling was done by the candidates for office, the rank and file did not seem to enthuse to that pitch of excitement necessary to a hotly contested campaign. The issues placed before the voters by the various candidates were not of such opposite import or serious moment, as to warrant the followers of any particular man or set of men to arraign themselves in plumper phalanx against the other racers. It was more a question of men than measures and as a result it may be presumed (for majorities must rule) that the best men have been selected. We shake with our neighbor over the fence and present Isaac Richardson to your view as the biggest toad in the puddle and the first to cross the wire. Next, and a good second, comes S. Bateson, who probably was handicapped, being an old councillor, by sins of omissions and commission, but the team didn't pan out so badly after all, while at his neck came W. Pickup, at a tin rattling pace. He runs a good heat, but then he deals in heaters. Next, and close up—like Brown's cows all in a bunch—came John Clarke the station representative, who makes up the last of our municipal council for 1894, along with Alex. Ferguson, reeve, who had a walk over.

The defeated candidates were—H. Campbell, an old member and steady by the council, who doubtless was unhorsed by the proximity of his near neighbor, G. Walter Green, thus causing a split in their legitimate vote. Dr. H. A. Turner came too late on the scene to catch up with the others, a large number of the ratepayers having had their full number of votes (and some doubtless more) promised before his name was on the list, added to that his inability to make a personal canvass through pressure of professional work, it is no discredit that he wasn't in it.

For trustees, two of the old members were returned, Messrs. A. Ferguson and Geo. Campbell, M.P.P., together with Mr. A. Leach, who displaces John Allen and comes in at the top of the poll, leaving Isaac Needham and John Allen to accompany each other up the cold hill of defeat. The vote is given below, as is also the Plebiscite returns, which appears to show a substantial majority not only in Millbrook but throughout the Province in favour of doing away with strong drink.

CAVAN.

We omitted to notice last week the nominations in the townships and in apologising for the oversight, we can only say that the pressure of work incidental to the holiday season and the absence of excitement in Cavan, where the whole council were returned by acclamation, is our excuse for the oversight. Reeve S. Ferguson retires from the chief chair in Cavan, a position he has filled long and honorably to make room for Deputy Reeve Thorndyke to mount the top rung of the ladder. T. Donaldson moves up to fill the gap left in the deputies chair, while Mr. Hootan is the new man who together with Councillors McNeil and Coe make up the municipal board for Cavan for 1894. The Plebiscite vote in Cavan is small, on account of no other elections being held.

MANVERS.

In Manvers where Roderick Dhu and Fitz James met in earnest combat, and Man to man, and steel to steel. A chieftain's vengeance thou shalt feel. Deputy Reeve J. J. Preston crossed swords with Reeve Wilson in perhaps one of the keenest contests Manvers has seen for many days. Although Reeve Wilson who was a new man, without previous experience in municipal affairs, and who one year ago defeated ex-Reeve Kennedy in a double test, had taken a course to the general satisfaction, the electors of manvers seem to have thought their interests safer in the hands of J. J., and accordingly returned him by a good majority. For First Deputy, John Barnicutt is the lucky man, and John Vance for Second Deputy, while Councillors Stanton and Porter were elected by acclamation.

SOUTH MONAGHAN.

For South Monaghan the old Reeve is again to the front with the deputy and council unchanged, except Mr. Wm. McIlmoyle who takes the place of J. W. Dawson. Mr. Wm. McAllister unsuccessfully opposed the reeve for the head of the township.

MILLBROOK.

Reeve A. Ferguson by acclamation. Councillors—J. Richardson, 115; S. Bateson, 113; W. Pickup, 108; Walter Clark, 107; H. Campbell, 101; G. John Green, 94; Dr. H. A. Turner, 52. Trustees—A. Leach, 131; Geo. Campbell, 121; A. Ferguson, 95; John Allen, 87; I. Needham, 75.

CAVAN.

All by acclamation. Reeve—Jos. Thorndyke. Deputy Reeve—Thos. Donaldson. Councillors—Chas. McNeil, Richard Coe, Robt. Hootan.

MANVERS.

We have only the majorities. Reeve—J. J. Preston, majority 173. First Deputy Reeve—J. Barnicutt majority 54. Second Deputy Reeve—J. Vance, majority 62. Councillors—J. H. Porter and Thomas Stanton by acclamation.

THE PLEBISCITE.

Millbrook—In favor of Prohibition, 131; Against, 10. Cavan—In favor of Prohibition, 296; Against, 38. Majority for the whole province about 100,000.

During the past half-century—since the discovery of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the average limit of human life in civilized countries, has been considerably lengthened. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is everywhere considered the standard blood-purifier, the Superior Medicine.

General News—Mr. R. E. Elliot, High Court Inspector for the Independent Order of Foresters Established a Lodge Here.

Every one appears to be enjoying themselves during the holidays.

Mr. Morley Fallis is in the village for a few days.

Mr. D. Comstock is very ill with la grippe.

Mr. Jackson is taking advantage of the fine weather to get in a large number of logs.

Mr. R. R. Elliot, High Court Inspector of the Independent Order of Foresters, instituted Court Kendall here last week.

The following are the officers for 1894:—

Chief Ranger—D. F. Walsh. Vice Chief Ranger—J. N. Powers. Past Chief Ranger—Robt. Cathcart. Recording Secretary—S. Conlin. Financial Secretary—Wm. Underwood. Physician—Dr. Beatty. Treasurer—Robt. Robinson. Chaplain—Jas. Wilson. Senior Woodward—E. E. Orchard. Junior Woodward—Jas. McCutcheon. Senior Beadle—J. McAllister. Junior Beadle—W. Mallory. C. D. H. C. R.—D. F. Walsh.

Mr. Will Underwood is representative to the High Court for Court Kendall. At the close of the meeting after the institution of the court, Mr. Elliot being a gentleman of pleasing address, delivered an eloquent speech on Forestry, which delighted his audience, and all went home well pleased with the order after having a ride on the goat. Before Mr. Elliot's departure the officers made him promise to visit the court during the winter.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many afflicted with rheumatism, and we urge all who suffer from this disease to give this medicine a trial.

Relief in Six Hours.—Distressing Kidney and Bladder Diseases relieved in six hours by the "Great South American Kidney Cure."
