

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless

A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my Liver and Kidneys gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to

Hood's Sarsaparilla
I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.

HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner Pills, easiest direction, cure headache and biliousness.

—Sleigh bells, in body and back straps, marked down low to suit the times. Johnston & Fair.

—Kickapoo Indian Remedies—the genuine—be sure to get them at A. T. ELLIOTT'S.

—We had a friendly call from Mr. W. Cathcart, Sintaluta, N.W.T., on Saturday last. He is back on a visit to the old haunts, and looks as if he does not sell all the wheat, potatoes and beef he raises in that paradise of Canada, but puts it where it will show on his fine physique and as the yankees say, "Lives by the way." Mr. Cathcart is the guest of Mrs. G. A. Wallace.

—Owen Sound Times. This is the fourth time Miss Alexander has appeared in Owen Sound inside of a year, and it is safe to say that there is not a single elocutionist who ever visited our town—and we number Scott-Siddons and Belford among them—who has so completely enthralled her hearers, and can attract, unaided, so large an audience as Miss Jessie Alexander. Town hall, Millbrook, Jan'y 15, 1894.

—Municipal election excitement seems to have culminated in a street scrap in Lindsay, where our worthy cotem of the Warder, brother Hughes, M. P., closed with Reeve elect Kylie. Neighbor Sam appears to have come out a little the worse for wear, but then if you had seen the other fellow, says the Warder, you could afford to enjoy the fun as well as we do. Pat's description of the appearance of his opponent after a shillalah fight, fades into insignificance. Sam is a hitter from the shoulder, whether it be love, politics, journalism or a rough and ready go as you please street fray.

—In a communication from Mr. Jas. A. Byers from Charlotte N. Y., enclosing his subscription to THE REPORTER, a paper which the far from home wanderers receive as manna to the soul, we were forwarded a newspaper clipping, giving a mock prayer to Cleveland from the breezy west. We had concluded from the overwhelming majority of Grover's return that he was highly thought of, but did not know that he was the golden calf or white elephant before whom so many bowed, unmindful of the first commandment, we quote a short extract:—

"Oh mighty and all powerful Cleveland who art in Washington when not fishing, we bow down before thee but in humble political obedience, we have no desire to save thee. If thou sayest black is white, we will swear to it, and lick the everlasting stuffin' out of the man who disputes it. We are democrats after the improved modern type. Our business is to vote the ticket and vote 'er straight. What is it to us whether we have free silver or not. We are but dogs that eat of the crumbs that fall from our masters' table. When the crumbs fall we wag our tails, when they fall faster we wag the faster, when they don't fall we stand and wait to they do. Last year we favored free silver, and now we have to oppose it. We favor it then because we thought it was right. We oppose it now, most adored master, because thou tellest us to. Oh mighty master, we are ever ready to serve thee, and all the rest of us, is to be patred on the back by some local politician and called a good Democrat. Do with us as thou wilt, kick silver into the middle of next century, hate Congressmen with petronage, fish whenever thou wilt, and hunt snipe whenever thou carest to, and we will endorse everything thou doest, carry Cleveland roses campaign torches, and for evermore sing thy praise. Amen."

While this may be termed a take-off it has that irony of application characteristic of the worshippers of other leaders besides those who follow Cleveland.

How to get a "Sunlight" Picture. Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (wrap pers bearing the words "Why Does a Woman Look Old Sooner Than a Man") to Lever Bros., Ltd., 43 Scott St., Toronto, and you will receive by post a pretty picture, free from advertising, and well worth framing.
