Change of Business!

I have this day sold out my entire stock of Groceries, &c., to my son, J. A. Vance, who will carry on the business as usual in the old stand.
In retiring from a business extending over a period of twenty-four years in this place, I have to thank the public generally and my many customers specially, for their kindness and courtesy to me on all occasions.
I would at the same time solicit for my successor that age in the future, which has been extended to me in the past, and to one and all I wish a very happy and prosperous new year.

W. VANCE.

Millbrook, Jan. 1st, 1894.

Greeting!

In wishing the people of Millbrook and surrounding country the complements of the season, I would inform them that I have this day purchased from my father, his entire stock of Groceries, &c., including his good-will of the business. It is my intention to carry on the business for the present in the old stand.
After an experience of eight or nine years in the Grocery and Provision business, including Flour and Feed, I have a very good idea of the wants of the public in these lines.
I am determined, by strict attention to business, buying only the best goods at close prices, in the best markets; and having an eye to small profits and quick returns, to merit a fair share of public favours.
Confidently looking to old customers and hopefully looking to new ones, for that patronage and confidence reposed in my predecessor, I wish you one and all a very happy and prosperous new year.

J. A. VANCE.

FIFTH LINE, CAVAN.

Mr. John Kinsman, of Manvers Line, after a short illness, passed peacefully away on Thursday, Dec. 28th. His remains were interred in the Fourth Church burying ground, on Saturday, Dec. 30th. The relatives have the entire sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Thos. Kinsman is recovering, after a long and severe illness.

Mr. Luc Wood is visiting friends in Trenton.

Miss Maud Mullen is visiting friends at Oakhill.

Mr. Robert Porter and son, payed a flying visit to friends on this line last week.

Mr. Edward Fallis spent Sunday at Oakhill.

The Clinch has been raging in this vicinity, but up to the present time has not clinched any of our number for eternity.

LIFFORD.

All our townspeople and people of surrounding country, are laid up with la grippe some are trying to get better and others don't know whether they will weather the gale or not.

The elections are over and quiet reigns once more, there is some talk of the patrons running a member for the local house. Mr. J. H. Wilson will be the candidate and we farmers will stick to him like a man but we hope there will not be so many votes left off as there was at the municipal elections.

The snow that fell on Thursday makes a great improvement to the roads.

Mrs. T. Stinson is under medical treatment but we hope she will soon be about again.

Lost—Between here and Brunswick, a gray blanket the finder will be suitably rewarded, by leaving it at the white house on the hill.

Mr. Lewis Staples took unto himself a partner for weal or woe, in the person of Miss Mary Arnott. We wish the happy couple a long life of unalloyed happiness. Some more of our young men are waiting their turn, I wonder when will Wes take a trip to Buffalo, I wonder who the little boy was that went four places to vote on Jan. 1st.

CENTREVILLE.

The Centreville Y. P. S. C. E., at their usual meeting last Sunday night elected the following officers for the ensuing half year: President, Mr. David Deyell; Vice-President, Miss Effie Larmer; Recording Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Jessie Shay; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Sarah Jane Rebertson.

Our Postmaster, Mr. John Byers has moved the Post Office into Mr. Martens new building where he is opening up a grocery in connection with the P. O. We wish him success.

Mr. Nixon of Knox College Toronto preached two very impressive sermons in our Presbyterian church last Sabbath and was highly appreciated by his many hearers. Mr. Nixon is an earnest evangelical preacher and is expected to preach here again next Sunday. We bespeak for him large congregations. We need more such preaching to rouse us to see the great necessity of earnestly and immediately attending to the all important business of life.

Miss Emma Earl went to the Ottawa Normal School this week to study for her professional certificate.

Mr. Albert Byers of Omsamee, was visiting his brother here Mr. John Byers last week.

We are pleased to notice that our new merchant Mr. Jas. Lang, is doing a rushing business, and our new shoemaker Mr. Miles Hutchinson is receiving a very encouraging patronage.

Our merchant tailor Mr. H. McFee, spent Sunday at Coldsprings with friends. Mr. McFee is doing a good business.

Mr. Editor, when you were here last Monday were you looking for a vacant place to start a branch office?

Mr. Jewison and sister, Miss Jewison of Millbrook we noticed at our Presbyterian church last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong were at Young's Point last week, visiting the parents of the latter who have been quite ill. Mr. Chalmers is better but Mrs. Chalmers is still very ill. We trust that she will recover.

BAILLEBORO.

Received to late for last issue.

On Tuesday, Dec. 26th, 1893, there was a very pleasant gathering at the residence of Mr. Wm. Bateson, when the members of the Methodist Bible class led by Mr. Joseph Pedler, assembled to present him with their photograph in a group, which was handsomely framed and finished off by the well known firm of Green of Peterboro'. The presentation was made by Mr. Wm. Lang, jr. Mr. G. E. Marshall read the following address:—

DEAR FRIEND,
We the members of your class, have met together to tender you our sincere thanks for the interest you have taken in our spiritual welfare, during the years in which you have been among us. By your devotion to the Master's cause, you have sown seeds of truth in the hearts of your pupils, which have already borne fruit, and we hope that the good work of the past may be continued in the future. We have ever found you a true friend, a wise counsellor, and a true christian, in whose footsteps we must all safely follow, and we would ask you to accept this picture as a memento of the many happy hours we have spent together, and hope you will be spared for years to come, to be an example to us all, and finally when we have done with earthly things, may we meet as an unbroken class around that heavenly throne.

Where the wicked cease from troubling, And the weary are at rest.

Mr. Pedler in reply said he felt deeply indebted to the class for the kind way in which they had remembered him at this festive season. He could assure them he felt proud of his class, this was the second time they had honored him during the six years he had resided among them. He felt very deeply the kind words of the address, especially those in which all shared the hope to meet in a better land, and if me and my Bible class of the Methodist church Sunday school only meet as an unbroken circle in our Father's house of many mansions, I believe my highest wishes will be attained. I sincerely trust while we teach the truth we will hold fast to the spirit, and thus enjoy the experience that will prepare us for the grand consummation of that meeting.

On that happy Easter morning, All the graves their dead restore, Father, mother, sister, brother, Meet once more.

Mr. Pedler in conclusion said how unworthy he felt of the honor they had conferred upon him, thanked them again for their kindness and wished them all a happy new year. After partaking of a sumptuous supper, served in Mrs. Bateson's true English style, the rest of the evening was spent in a very happy manner, concluding with Rankins well known hymn, "God be with you till we meet again."

The Baptist annual tea on New Years day was as usual, a grand success. Sixty-six dollars being realized.

OUR TOYS.

"Men are naught but boys grown tall, What are toys but men made small?"

Eise what do we mean when we say of a man "he's a dude, a know-nothing or a nobody;" or of a woman—"she's a ninny, she's a show." Though all men, or for that matter women, may not be toys, too many act very much like animated wood, glass or chinaware. Who that beheld "The Fairy Vision of Our Toys," as presented at the annual Christmas entertainment of St. Thomas' Church Sunday School could candidly say, I never behaved like that? Could not every person wish that their doll's house possessed a Choras Wand. It does us good sometimes 'to see ourse's as iters see us."

This very interesting extravaganza will be reproduced at Baillieboro on Thursday, January 24th and at the Marsh on Friday, January 25th. Those who have not seen it should make an effort to do so on one of these occasions. A young gentleman who has lived in Toronto all his life attended both evenings that it was presented in Millbrook and was charmed beyond his power of expression.

To the Editor of the Millbrook Reporter.

SIR,—On the night of the 26th October last a red heifer belonging to me was stolen from my place in Cavan, I have since been sued by Charles Phillips, for damages for slander, by reason of certain remarks I am alleged to have made, in connection with the affair, I wish to state that I have no reason to believe that Mr. Phillips had any connection with the affair, and if any remarks of mine have created a contrary impression, I now withdraw the same, and offer Mr. Phillips an apology therefor.

Yours truly
